9. Where a forecast, or a prospect statement, has been previously disclosed to shareholders, any variance between it and the actual results.

The company has not provided any prospect statement.

10. A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

During the past quarters, the company endured the negative impact from the global economic slowdown brought about by COVID-19 pandemic.

We identified several strategic partners in earphone/headphone and speakers. They provide the priority services to the group in order to develop the unique and special products for Monster to win the competition against other brands in the market. We also partnered 2 manufacturers to pursue the industrial and commercial market. We will continue to pursue business opportunities for audio devices in hotel and auto industry.

The company face an extremely challenging environment in the near future resulting from the global pandemic. The global lockdowns had adversely affected our business and will continue to impact our revenues. We persist to expand our product range to encompass mobile accessories (power bank, cables, cable management boxes) and travel bags using the Monster brand. In addition, we intend to diversify into other product offerings to enable us to reduce our dependence on consumer electronics.

The company will continue to address our going concern issue and is currently engaged in active discussions with potential investors regarding possible fund raising to raise working capital to tide over this challenging period.

11. Dividend

(a) Whether any interim (final) ordinary dividend has been declared (recommended); and

No

(b)(i) Amount per share (cents)

Not applicable.

11. Dividend

(b)(ii) Previous corresponding period (cents)
