Origin confirms timing of Karen Moses' retirement and establishment of a CFO role reporting to the MD

Origin Energy Ltd (Origin) today announced the timing of Ms Karen Moses' retirement from Origin and the establishment of a Chief Financial Officer role reporting directly to the Managing Director.

At the 2015 AGM last October, Ms Moses advised of her intention to retire in 2016 to pursue a non-executive director career. Ms Moses' commitments external to Origin have built to the extent that it is now appropriate for her to step down from her current role as Executive Director, Finance and Strategy, effective Monday 16 May, 2016. Ms Moses will continue her employment with Origin until her retirement at the end of August to provide support through a transitional period and complete work on a number of strategic priorities.

Origin is currently conducting a search for a permanent appointment to the CFO role covering both internal and external candidates. Until a permanent appointment has been decided upon, Origin's current Group Financial Controller, Mr Gary Mallett will act in this role.

Origin's Managing Director, Mr Grant King said, "Ms Moses has made an invaluable contribution to the growth and development of Origin for more than 20 years and we wish her well as she nears her well-earned retirement."

About Origin

Origin (ASX: ORG) is the leading Australian integrated energy company with market leading positions in energy retailing (approximately 4.2 million customer accounts), power generation (approximately 6,000 MW of capacity owned and contracted) and natural gas production (1,093 PJ of 2P reserves and annual production of 82 PJ). To match its leadership in the supply of green energy, Origin also aspires to be the number one renewables company in Australia.

Through Australia Pacific LNG, its incorporated joint venture with ConocoPhillips and Sinopec, Origin is developing Australia's biggest CSG to LNG project based on the country's largest 2P CSG reserves base.
