IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Information Memorandum (Memorandum), as amended on 27 May 2016 and 15 August 2017, relates to the description of the Units in the Lang Capital Fund (Fund), an investment fund established under the laws of Singapore and constituted by way of a trust deed dated 11 December 2014, as amended and restated by a First Amended and Restated Deed dated 27 May 2016 and a Second Amended and Restated Deed dated 15 August 2017, respectively entered into between Atlas Asset Management Pte. Ltd. as investment manager of the Fund (Investment Manager) and with Asiatic Trust Singapore Pte. Ltd. as trustee of the Fund (Trustee).

The Fund was successfully listed on the SGX-ST on 31 March 2015 subject to certain terms and conditions imposed by the SGX-ST. The Units are not tradable on the SGX-ST. The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed or reports contained in this Memorandum. Admission to the Official List of the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the Fund, the Investment Manager, the Trustee, or the Units.

This Memorandum does not constitute an offer of Units. Subject to the regulatory requirements as set out in this Memorandum and any other applicable laws and regulations, all Units in the Fund shall only be offered and issued (including any subsequent offers and issues of Units) to Eligible Investors and Foreign Persons (as defined herein). Investors and Unitholders should also note the relevant provisions in the Trust Deed, the subscription application form, the redemption form and the transfer form pertaining to restrictions on dealing with Units in the Fund.

Notwithstanding the above, an offer of Units in the Fund may be made to persons who do not qualify as Eligible Investors and Foreign Persons if approved by the Investment Manager and the Trustee or required under any applicable laws and regulations or by any applicable country or governmental authority. In the event that an offer of Units in the Fund is made to any person in Singapore, such offer shall be made to a limited number of investors pursuant to the private placement exemption prescribed by section 302C of the Securities and Futures Act (Chapter 289) of Singapore (SFA), and any subsequent offers in Singapore of sale of Units by initial offerees and subscribers of Units shall be restricted to the relevant exemptions (except the private placement exemption pursuant to section 302C(1) of the SFA or the offer through electronic means exemption pursuant to section 305C of the SFA) as prescribed by the SFA, Part XIII, Division 2, Subdivision 4.

The Investment Manager holds a capital markets services licence for fund management and is permitted to carry on business in fund management for (a) "accredited investors" (as defined in section 4A of the SFA) (Accredited Investors); (b) "institutional investors" (as defined in section 4A of the SFA) (Institutional Investors) other than collective investment schemes; (c) collective investment schemes or closed-end funds, the units of which are the subject of an offer or invitation for subscription or purchase made only to Accredited Investors or investors in an equivalent class under the laws of the country or territory in which the offer or invitation is made, or Institutional Investors, or both; (d) limited partnerships, where the limited partners comprise solely of Accredited Investors or investors in an equivalent class under the laws of the country or territory in which the partnership is formed, or Institutional Investors, or both. The Investment Manager is also exempt from the requirement to hold a financial advisor's licence in respect of the provision of certain financial advisory services.

Pursuant to the above regulatory requirements and in particular, sub-paragraph (c) above, all offerees and subscribers of Units (including all offerees and subscribers of any subsequent offers of sale of Units) are restricted to persons qualifying as Accredited Investors or investors in an equivalent class under the laws of the country or territory in which the offer or invitation is made, or Institutional Investors, or both. Subject to the foregoing, in the event that an offer of Units in the Fund is made to any person in Singapore, all Units in the Fund shall be offered and issued to a limited number of investors pursuant to the private placement exemption prescribed by section 302C of the SFA.

The Fund is not a collective investment scheme which is authorised under section 286 of the SFA or recognised under section 287 of the SFA, and Units are not allowed to be offered to the retail public in Singapore. Neither this Memorandum nor any other document or material in connection with any offer of the Units has been or will be lodged or registered as a prospectus with the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS) under the SFA. Accordingly, (a) this Memorandum or any other document or material in connection with any offer of, or invitation to subscribe for or purchase the Units may not be, directly or indirectly, issued, circulated or distributed to; and (b) the Units may not be, directly or indirectly, offered, or made subject to an invitation to subscribe or purchase, to persons in Singapore, except pursuant to, and in accordance with, the requirements of the private placement exemption under section 302C of the SFA.

In order to ensure that the Fund qualifies as a "foreign trust" within the meaning of section 13G of the Income Tax Act (Cap. 134) of Singapore (Income Tax Act), Units in the Fund must be directly or indirectly beneficially held, inter alia, by Foreign Persons (as defined herein). Your attention is further drawn to "Taxation" at pages 30 to 36 of this Memorandum.

This Memorandum and any other document or material issued in connection with the offer or sale of Units is not a prospectus as defined in the SFA. Accordingly statutory liability under the SFA in relation to the content of prospectuses would not apply. You should consider carefully whether the investment is suitable for you. You should read this Memorandum in its entirety, and seek advice from qualified advisers.

Notwithstanding anything herein, none of the Investment Manager, the Fund, the Trustee, or any of their related bodies corporate, associates, affiliates, respective officers, employees or agents is making any representation or warranty expressed or implied as to the merits of the Units or the subscription for, purchase or acquisition thereof, or as to the accuracy, reliability or completeness of the information set out herein and the documents which are incorporated by reference in, and form part of, this Memorandum. Accordingly, none of the Investment Manager, the Fund, the Trustee, or any of their related bodies corporate, associates, affiliates, respective officers, employees or agents shall be held responsible for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by the recipients of this Memorandum or such other document or information (or such part thereof) as a result of or arising from anything expressly or implicitly contained in or referred to in this Memorandum or such other document or information (or such part thereof) and the same shall not constitute a ground for rescission of any subscription, purchase or acquisition of any of the Units. Prospective investors should therefore rely on their own enquiries and analysis as to the merits and risks in relation to the offer of Units and in deciding whether to invest in the Fund.

Neither the delivery of this Memorandum (or any part thereof) nor the issue, offering, subscription, purchase or sale of the Units shall, under any circumstances, constitute a representation, or give rise to any implication, that there has been no change in the prospects, results of operations or general affairs of the Investment Manager, the Fund, or the Trustee in the information herein since the date hereof.

This Memorandum and the information contained herein are solely for the confidential use of those specific persons to whom it is transmitted by the Investment Manager and may not be reproduced, provided to others, or used for any other purpose without the prior written permission of the Investment Manager. Each potential investor, by accepting delivery of this Memorandum, agrees not to make a copy (whether physical, electronic or otherwise) or to divulge the contents hereof to any other person (other than a legal, business, investment or tax adviser in connection with obtaining the advice of such person with respect to a potential investment in the Fund) and will return this Memorandum and all copies thereof to the Investment Manager if such prospective investor does not subscribe for Units in the Fund.

Unless otherwise stated herein, no person has been authorised in connection with this offer to give any information or make any representation other than that which is contained in this Memorandum and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised.

Unless otherwise stated herein, the Units offered hereby have not been registered under any law. The securities offered hereby have not been approved or disapproved by the securities regulatory authority of any jurisdiction nor has any authority or commission passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this Memorandum. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful. This Memorandum does not constitute an offer or solicitation in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or solicitation is not authorised.

Please note that the SGX-ST has waived and/or clarified specific listing rules in relation to the Fund. Please refer to "General Information – Listing Rules Waivers and Clarifications" for further details.

Units in the Fund are offered subject to the rights of the Investment Manager and the Trustee in their discretion, to reject any subscription in whole or in part. The Investment Manager and the Trustee reserves the right to modify any of the terms of the subscription and the Units described herein. In the event of modification of terms of the subscription and Units, sufficient notice will be given to Unitholders prior to such modification taking effect.

An investment in the Fund involves significant risks due, among other things, to the nature of the Fund's investments. Investors should have the financial ability and willingness to accept the risks and lack of liquidity which are characteristic of the investments described herein. Prospective investors are strongly urged to consult their own tax and legal advisers with respect to the tax and other legal aspects of investments in the Fund and the transactions contemplated hereby. Your attention is drawn to the section "Risk Factors" at pages 23 to 28 of this Memorandum.

In order to effect an investment in the Units, each investor will be required to complete and sign a subscription application form and such subscription application form shall only be available from the Investment Manager at its sole discretion. An application for Units shall be subject to the conditions of the private placement exemption under section 302C of the SFA and section 13G of the Income Tax Act. All of the statements and information contained herein are qualified in their entirety by reference to the subscription application form and the terms of the Trust Deed (as defined herein) relating to the Fund.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGIES

Investment Objective

The Lang Capital Fund is an open-ended unit trust constituted in Singapore and established to pursue investment opportunities in listed securities and private equity through the investment strategies highlighted in this Memorandum. It aims to achieve steady capital appreciation in the medium to long-term through investments in a diversified portfolio of listed securities as well as private equity on a global basis. For Private Equity Investments, there will be an emphasis on Europe and the emerging markets.

The investment objectives, policies and strategies of the Fund shall not be changed during the first three years from the date of listing of the Fund on the SGX-ST unless approved by Unitholders by way of an Extraordinary Resolution duly passed at a meeting of Unitholders held in accordance with the Trust Deed. Further, where any change in the investment objectives, policies and strategies of the Fund amounts to, in the opinion of the Investment Manager in consultation with the Trustee, a significant change in its investment objectives, policies and strategies, such change must also be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution of the Unitholders of the Fund. Subject to the foregoing restrictions, the Investment Manager may (with the prior written approval of the Trustee) change the investment objectives, policies and strategies in respect of the Fund upon giving not less than thirty (30) days' notice of such change to the Unitholders of the Fund. Any change in the investment objectives, policies and strategies in respect of the Fund will be notified to the Unitholders.

Assets of the Fund

At or around the date of the listing of the Fund on the SGX-ST, the Fund's portfolio will be invested in liquid investment securities and in cash amounting to approximately US$25 million. Going forward, the Investment Manager will seek to invest in a diversified portfolio of listed fixed income securities and blue-chip equities in the developed markets, as well as private equity. It is anticipated that cash, cash equivalents and listed investment securities will constitute approximately 30% of the Fund's portfolio, with the remaining 70% invested in private equity.

There can be no assurance that the Fund's rate of return will be realised or that there will be no diminution in the capital of the Fund. This Fund is not capital protected and there is currently no provision for diminution in value of the Investments. Any diminution in value of the Investments will be appropriately included in the Fund's financial statements.

Investment Strategy

Two distinct strategies will be adopted in respect of the Fund's listed securities and Private Equity Investments. A description of each strategy is set out below. In addition to listed securities and private equity, the Investment Manager may also make indirect investments in commodities and precious metals as part of its diversification strategy. Please refer to the sub-section "Commodities and Precious Metals" below for further details.

Listed Securities

The Investment Manager has the discretion to invest in developed listed equity and fixed income securities if opportunities arise. These investments would also be made for capital appreciation and coupon/yield income.

The Investment Manager seeks to invest in a diversified portfolio of listed fixed income assets and securities which are identified as attractive and offer upside potential. Such investment opportunities may be identified through the Investment Manager's own research and analysis, or based on recommendations and research by an independent professional third party. Whilst the Investment Manager seeks to manage risks and reduce volatility via sector and geographic diversification, concentrated positions may occur due to inter alia exceptional investment opportunities and conditions.

The Investment Manager may have up to 30% of the Fund portfolio invested in listed securities and liquid assets.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGIES

Financial Derivative Instruments

The Investment Manager can in exceptional circumstances use financial derivative instruments such as futures, warrants and options as part of its investment strategy to achieve the Fund's investment objective. For example, financial derivatives can be used to optimise the Fund's exposure in cases of disruptions in equity markets (such as closure, lack of liquidity etc) that would not allow an orderly disposal or purchase of the Fund's holdings. The Investment Manager may in particular, use basic forms of listed and over-the-counter derivatives such as call options, put options, swaps, forward exchange transactions and forward rate agreements. The Investment Manager may also use derivative financial instruments to hedge currency risks and for the orderly management of the Fund's assets by way of risks reduction, costs reduction with minimal increase in risk, or capital or income generation.

Where a transaction in a derivative financial instrument gives rise to or has the same effect as a sale of underlying securities, the aggregate value of all liabilities which may be incurred in relation to such sale must at all times be sufficiently covered by the underlying securities of the derivative financial instrument.

Where a transaction in a derivative financial instrument gives rise to or has the same effect as a purchase of underlying securities, such purchase must be in compliance with the Fund's investment objectives and strategies and the Fund must at all times hold liquid assets (i.e. cash or cash equivalents) sufficient to cover the aggregate value of all liabilities which may be incurred in relation to such purchase.

For the purposes of the above, the underlying securities referred to may include interest rates, currencies, equities, bonds and commodities.

Leveraging against listed securities

Leveraging may be used as part of the investment strategy, particularly in the event of extraordinary circumstances or exceptional opportunities such as to optimise the Fund's exposure in cases of disruptions in equity markets (e.g. closure, lack of liquidity etc.) that would not allow an orderly disposal or purchase of the Fund's holdings. Unsecured leverage is not permitted. Use of leverage is subject to the restriction that principal amount of borrowings must not in aggregate at any time exceed an amount equivalent to 50% of the value of the Deposited Property of the Fund invested in listed securities i.e. securities that are listed or quoted on any securities exchange or similar electronic trading system and regularly traded thereon. Please refer to further details on the borrowing limits and restrictions on the Fund set out below. Subject to the foregoing and applicable requirements under the Trust Deed, the Investment Manager will have the discretion to determine the extent to which the Fund leverages investments and the use of leverage will be considered on an investment-by-investment basis. Leverage will be used primarily in connection with the Fund's investments in liquid securities to finance its investments. Leverage will not be used to finance any short positions as the Fund is a long only fund.

Private Equity

To achieve the Fund's objective of steady capital appreciation in the medium to long-term, the Investment Manager may invest up to 100% of the Fund's portfolio in private equity, with an emphasis on emerging markets and Europe.

Apart from the above geographical diversification, the Investment Manager also seeks to invest across an array of industries within the developed and emerging markets. Specifically, as at the date of this Memorandum, the Investment Manager has identified the following potential sectors based on underlying positive secular trends:

- Healthcare-related: Aging demographics in developed markets as well as rising healthcare spending in emerging markets are key potential catalysts for secular growth in various segments of the healthcare industry;
- Financial services: Rising demand for financial services from a growing middle class especially in emerging markets is expected to provide steady growth in the financial services sector;

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGIES

- IT solutions: Rapid proliferation of personal computers, smartphones and smart mobile devices has led to robust growth in internet penetration and usage. It is expected that this secular trend will drive demand for IT solutions;
- Transport and logistics: A secular shift from offline to online commerce is expected to spur demand for transport and logistic services;
- Industrial assets: It is expected that urbanisation and industrialisation trends in emerging markets as well as aging infrastructure in developed markets will drive growth in infrastructure demand.
- Real Estate/Hospitality: Growth in the general population, middle class in emerging countries and tourism originating from China and India will increase demand for property rentals and purchases as well as hotel bookings and other hospitality services.

The above list is only an indication of potential investment sectors that the Investment Manager has identified as at the date of this Memorandum. The list is for reference only and is not intended to be exhaustive and/or a binding list of sectors that the Fund may invest in. From time to time, the Investment Manager may identify other sectors which are suitable for investment by the Fund.

Foreign exchange policy

The Fund can enter into foreign exchange and forward (including open-forward) transactions in any currency whereby the aggregate value of such transactions does not exceed 100% of the Fund's NAV.

The Fund may enter into foreign exchange and forward transactions mainly to pursue one or more of the three following objectives:

- (a) Purchase of currencies necessary for acquisition of securities denominated in foreign currencies
- (b) Diversification of the Fund's currency exposure
- (c) Hedging of currency risks

Commodities and Precious Metals

For purposes of diversification, the Investment Manager may also invest in commodities and precious metals indirectly through companies and businesses in the commodities and precious metals industry. In connection with such investments in commodities and precious metals, the Investment Manager may appoint external professionals, consultants or advisors with the relevant expertise or experience as may be necessary or appropriate, particularly for complex or sophisticated investments. Such external professionals, consultants or advisors may be appointed to inter alia advise on the viability of the proposed investment or to assist in the management of such investment. Appointment of such external professionals or advisors will be done with notification to the Trustee and appropriate disclosure to the Unitholders (if the Trustee determines Unitholders shall be notified).

Borrowing and Leveraging

The Trustee may at any time at the request of the Investment Manager, make and vary arrangements for the borrowing by the Trustee for the account of the Fund in any currency and for any purposes as may be approved by the Trustee, including without limitation, the purpose of enabling the Investment Manager to meet redemption requests or acquire Investments for the account of the Fund. The principal amount of borrowings must not in aggregate at any time exceed an amount equivalent to fifty per cent. (50%) of the value of the Deposited Property of the Fund invested in listed securities. If the aggregate of the principal amount of borrowings in respect of the Fund at any time is equivalent to or exceeds ten per cent. (10%) of the value of the Deposited Property invested in listed securities, the Investment Manager shall notify Unitholders within fifteen

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND STRATEGIES

(15) Business Days after such threshold is reached or breached. Please refer to the Trust Deed for further details on the terms and conditions of borrowing powers.

Leveraging may be used as part of the investment strategy, particularly in the event of extraordinary circumstances or exceptional opportunities such as to optimise the Fund's exposure in cases of disruptions in equity markets (e.g. closure, lack of liquidity etc) that would not allow an orderly disposal or purchase of the Fund's holdings.

Unsecured leverage is not permitted. Use of leverage is subject to the limit mentioned above and the conditions prescribed by the Trust Deed. The Investment Manager will have the discretion to determine the extent to which the Fund leverages investments and the use of leverage will be considered on an investment-by-investment basis. Leverage will be used primarily in connection with the Fund's investments in liquid securities to finance its investments and to fund short-term liquidity needs including the use of:

- (a) overdraft facility to cover cashflows gap;
- (b) short term loan or overdraft for leverage purposes; or
- (c) derivatives trading facility

Lendings

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Trust Deed and any applicable laws, regulations, rules and directives by any regulatory authority, the Trustee may at any time at the request of the Investment Manager, concur in making and varying arrangements for entering into any lending transaction (including any securities lending transaction for the disposal of investments and the reacquisition of equivalent property for the account of the Fund) in respect of the Fund for any purposes as may be approved by the Trustee. The aggregate value of all assets and amounts loaned shall at any time not exceed an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) the Net Asset Value of the Fund. In addition, the provision of collateral shall be required as a condition of any lending transaction, save where the Trustee and Investment Manager shall in mutual consent determine the risk of the loan to be adequately minimal. The Trustee and the Investment Manager shall determine the terms and conditions of such collateral based on factors including but not limited to the identity of the borrower. The collateral (if any) obtained in respect of any loan must be adequate and acceptable to the Trustee and the Investment Manager. Acceptable collateral would generally include bank deposits, exchange traded securities, government and supranational bonds, and fixed assets including but not limited to land, buildings, and plant and equipment.

Please refer to clause 16.4 of the Trust Deed for details on the terms and conditions of lending arrangements.

Brokerage Fees

The Investment Manager is not and will not become entitled to receive any part of any brokerage charged to the Fund, or any part of any fees, allowances, benefits, etc. received on purchases charged to the Fund.

INVESTMENT PROCESS

Assessment and Due Diligence

The Investment Manager will examine an investment opportunity by initially performing a general study, consisting of a macro evaluation of the country, the economy, the industry sector, and the asset's position within its ecosystem. The general study, if satisfactory, will be followed by a qualitative and quantitative multi-disciplinary assessment of the company. Once the Investment Manager obtains a high level of comfort with the company, the Investment Manager will perform a valuation on the company and the proposed investment format. If acceptable, this will be followed by an in-depth due diligence process, the scope of which will include but not be restricted to financial, legal, industry, management and tax due diligence. The depth of the due diligence process may vary greatly between different assets in accordance with the characteristics of the potential assets. Where appropriate, the Investment Manager will review offering documents, regulatory filings, financial models and correspondence with investors relating to each potential asset. The Investment Manager cannot assure or confirm that the due diligence process will result in a positive investment or that the due diligence conducted in connection with any potential asset is adequate or sufficient from the perspective of an investor in the Fund.

The Investment Manager will, where appropriate, retain third-party consultants and/or professional advisers to undertake research and analysis in order to assess business and market conditions, competition, physical and environmental concerns, legal and regulatory concerns and other factors that it deems necessary to the due diligence process. This external review will not only assist the Investment Manager in making prudent investment decisions for the benefit of Unitholders but shall also enable the Fund to improve its position in the market. The Investment Manager shall not be liable for the assessment of such third-party consultants and/or professional advisers.

Completion of the Investment Manager's investment analysis and due diligence process may take such periods of time as necessary so as to enable the Investment Manager to obtain an in-depth understanding of the key officers, investment process, risk controls and business infrastructure of the potential investment.

Asset Management

After assets are acquired by the Fund, they will be managed by the Investment Manager who will oversee all of the Fund's investments by utilising strict operational and accounting controls, and conducting regular site inspections. Key officers of the Investment Manager will meet regularly to review the positions of the assets held by the Fund. Further, in relation to private equity assets, separate third-party asset managers such as the professional directors of investee entities will be responsible for the daily operations of each investment. The Investment Manager is not responsible for the acts or the discharge of the duties of such third-party asset managers.

Exit Strategy

The Investment Manager will decide to dispose of existing investments whenever it considers that the fair value has been reached or in the event of fundamental changes or potential changes in the macroeconomic, political or fiscal environment which significantly alters the value or potential of the single asset considered or of the whole asset class. The Investment Manager may realise the assets of the Fund subject to the investment limits and other applicable restrictions outlined in this Memorandum.

In the event of realisation of any Private Equity Investment which constitutes ten per cent. (10%) or more of the NAV of the Fund, the Investment Manager shall give notice of such realisation to the Unitholders within fifteen (15) Business Days of such realisation.

RISK FACTORS

There are a number of risks that may materially and adversely affect the performance of the Fund and the value of the Units. This section describes a number of risks associated with an investment in the Units. Unitholders should note that this list of risks is not exhaustive. Each investor should perform and is deemed to have made their own independent investigation and analysis of the Fund and all other relevant matters as it deems necessary to arrive at an independent evaluation of an investment in the Units offered hereby. Prospective investors should therefore have regard to their own investment objective, risk appetite and financial circumstances, and should consider seeking professional advice from their financial advisor, legal advisor or such other professional advisor before deciding whether to invest.

An investment in the Fund involves significant risks due, among other things, to the nature of the Fund's investments. Investors should have the financial ability and willingness to accept the risk and lack of liquidity which are characteristic of the investments described herein. Prospective investors are strongly urged to consult their own tax and legal advisers with respect to the tax and other legal aspects of investments in the Fund and the transactions contemplated herein. Prospective investors should appreciate that investment in the Fund involves a significant degree of risk. Prior to the making of an investment in the Fund, investors should carefully consider all the information in this Memorandum and, in particular, should evaluate the risk factors outlined below which individually or in aggregate could have a material adverse effect on the Fund's investments.

Set out below for each investor's consideration is a summary of major risk factors which from the point of view of an investor could affect the performance of the Fund's investments, other than any specific risks of the investments themselves.

As a result, there can be no assurance that the Fund's investments and rate of return objectives will be realised or that capital loss will not occur. Loss of the entire principal amount invested is also a possibility. Further, investors should also note that any investment in the Fund is meant to produce returns over the medium to long term. Investors should not expect to obtain short-term gains from the Fund's investment objectives and strategies. Investors are once again cautioned to seek independent appropriate professional advice. This Memorandum should not be construed as a recommendation by the Investment Manager to participate or invest in any investment.

This Memorandum is not a substitute for, and should not be regarded as an independent evaluation and analysis, and does not purport to be all-inclusive. Other factors not referred to below may affect the future performance of the Fund. Accordingly, the Investment Manager, the Trustee, the Administrator, the Custodian and any of their related bodies corporate, associates, officers, employees or any other persons associated with them do not provide any assurances or guarantees about the performance of the Fund or the Units, the level of distributions or the return of invested capital.

General Business Considerations

Due diligence, regulatory environment and fraud

The Investment Manager performs due diligence on the underlying investments of the Fund prior to the investment, and regularly monitors the portfolio of assets held by the Fund. However, the Investment Manager is unable to monitor the day-to-day activities of third parties. In addition, a number of proposed or current investments may operate in a legal environment where they are not specifically regulated. As a result, there can be no assurances that the Investment Manager's investment and risk management processes will prevent conduct standards being compromised.

Currency, interest rate and inflation risk

The assets and income of the Fund may be substantially denominated in currencies other than USD. Currency fluctuations between USD and other currencies may affect the income and valuation of the assets of the Fund in ways unrelated to business performance. Investors should note that the Managers generally do not hedge currency positions of the Fund unless exceptional circumstances require it to do so. In the event that the Managers do employ currency hedging techniques, they will do so to minimise the impact of the exchange rate fluctuations on the Fund and/or for the purpose of efficient portfolio management.

Evaluation of Investment Strategy

The Fund's investment strategy should be evaluated on the basis that there can be no assurance that the Investment Manager's assessments of the assets will prove accurate or that the Fund will achieve its investment objective.

Concentrated Investment Risk

There is a risk that the performance of the investments of the Fund in its portfolio may be correlated, which could lead to periods of underperformance. The impact of this risk may be lessened if the Investment Manager diversifies the investments of the Fund into other alternative investment opportunities.

Taxation

The taxation consequences of an investment in the Fund (set out in the section "Taxation" in pages 30 to 36 of this Memorandum) have been based on taxation legislation as at the date of this Memorandum. Changes to taxation laws or regulations and the interpretation or practice of the same, may adversely affect the tax treatment of an investment in the Fund and indirectly, the tax treatment of the Fund's investments.

Use of Leveraging

The Fund may make use of leverage to finance its investments and fund short-term liquidity needs. Leverage generally magnifies both the Fund's opportunities for gain and its risk of loss from a particular investment. The Fund's income and net assets also tend to fluctuate at a greater rate than would otherwise be the case if money had not been borrowed. As a result, the risk of loss associated with a leveraged Fund is generally greater than for other funds with comparatively less debt.

The cost and availability of leverage is highly dependent on the state of the broader credit markets, which state is difficult to accurately forecast. During times when credit markets are tight, it may be difficult to obtain or maintain the desired degree of leverage. The use of leverage by the Fund will also result in interest expense and other costs to the Fund that may not be covered by distributions made to the Fund or appreciation of its investments. In addition to the burden of debt service, leverage also imposes restrictive financial and operating covenants on the Fund which may limit its ability to adjust and respond to changing industry conditions to finance future operations and capital needs. This in turn places the Fund at a competitive disadvantage compared to its competitors who have relatively less debt.

Further, leverage increases the exposure of the Fund's investments to any deterioration in a company's condition or industry, competitive pressures, an adverse economic environment or rising interest rates and could accelerate and magnify declines in the value of the Fund's investments in the leveraged investments in a down market.

The Fund may directly or indirectly buy and sell securities on margin, thereby increasing the Fund's exposure to volatility. Relatively small price movements at the underlying level may result in immediate and substantial losses to the Fund. Such a high degree of leverage necessarily entails a high degree of risk. Trading securities on margin, unlike trading in futures (which also involves margin), will also result in interest charges to the Fund and, depending on the amount of trading activity, such charges could be substantial.

In addition, the Fund may undertake short-term borrowing (i.e. bridging loans) in order to make payment of redemption proceeds in situations in which the Investment Manager believes the immediate disposition of investments will not be in the best interests of Unitholders of the Fund.

Derivatives Risk

Where applicable, the use of futures, options, warrants, forwards, swaps or swap options involves increased risk. The Fund's ability to use such instruments successfully depends on the Investment Manager's ability to accurately predict movements in stock prices, interest rates, currency exchange rates or other economic factors and the availability of liquid markets. If the Investment Manager's predictions are wrong, or if the derivatives do not work as anticipated, the Fund could suffer greater losses than if the Fund had not used such derivatives. If the Fund invests in over-the-counter derivatives, there is increased risk that the counterparty may fail to honour its contract. In the event that the Investment Manager uses such instruments, it is of the view that it has the necessary expertise to control and manage the use of derivatives. Investments in derivatives would normally be monitored and controlled by the Investment Manager with regular mark-to-market valuations, careful research prior to investment and compliance monitoring to ensure careful compliance with the investment restrictions set out hereafter with regard to derivatives.

Risks specific to the Fund

Limited operating history

The Fund is a new fund and therefore has no prior operating history upon which investors may base their prediction of future success or failure. There is no guarantee that the Fund will realise its investment objectives.

Realisation of investment in the Fund

Units in the Fund are listed on the SGX-ST but are not tradable on the SGX-ST. Unitholders may realise their investment in the Fund by redeeming their Units. However there may be delays between the acceptance of a redemption request and the payment of the redemption amount. Please refer to a summary of the restrictions set out in the section "Redemption of Units" on pages 47 to 50 of this Memorandum, and to the Trust Deed for full details.

Valuation

The Fund may invest in assets that are difficult to value or for which no comparable benchmark valuations are available. There may be a decrease in the NAV of the Units held by Unitholders as a consequence of the write-down in the value of any such assets.

Fixed income assets

Interest rate and credit risks are risks typical of fixed income instruments. Interest rate risks arise from unexpected changes in the term structure of interest rates, which are in turn dependent on general economic conditions. Credit risks depend on the credit ratings of the relevant counterparty. Accordingly, investments in such instruments are subject to the financial health of the issuers which are affected by their specific business conditions and general market conditions. The aforementioned factors are generally not within the control of the investor investing in such fixed income assets.

Emerging Market Risks

The Fund will invest in assets in emerging markets, and particularly in BRICS. Investing in such emerging markets involves additional risks and special considerations not typically associated with investing in other more established economies or securities markets. Such risks may include increased risk of nationalisation or expropriation of assets or confiscatory taxation; greater social, economic and political uncertainty, including war; higher dependence on exports and the corresponding importance of international trade; greater volatility, less liquidity and smaller capitalisation of securities markets; greater volatility in currency exchange rates; greater risk of inflation; greater controls on foreign investment and limitations on repatriation of invested capital; increased likelihood of governmental decisions to cease support of economic reform programmes or to impose centrally planned economies; differences in auditing and financial reporting standards which may result in the unavailability of material information about issuers; less extensive regulation of the securities markets; longer settlement periods for securities transactions and less reliable clearance and custody arrangements; less protection through registration of assets; and less developed corporate laws regarding fiduciary duties of officers and directors and protection to investors.

Repatriation Risks

Certain countries may impose limitations with respect to the Fund's ability to repatriate investment income, capital or the proceeds of sales of securities. The Fund would be adversely affected by delays in, or a refusal to grant, any required governmental approval for repatriation of capital as well as the application of restrictions on investments to the Fund.

Settlement Risks/ Transaction Risks

Trading and settlement practices of some of the markets in which the Fund may invest may not be the same as those in more developed markets, and this may increase settlement risk and/or result in delays in realising investments made by the Fund. In addition, the Fund will be exposed to credit risk on parties with whom it trades and will bear the risk of settlement default. The Trustee may also be instructed by the Managers to settle transactions on a delivery free of payment basis where the Managers believe and the Trustee agrees that this form of settlement is common market practice. Investors should be aware that this may result in a loss to the Fund if a transaction fails to settle, and the Trustee will not be liable to the Fund for such loss.

Lending

The Fund may enter into lending transactions. Such transactions give rise to certain risks including operational risks and counterparty risks, as the borrower may default on the loans or fail to pay up the debt in a timely manner. In addition, in the case of securities lending, such transactions may also give rise to valuation and market risks. The Fund may also lose money and/or assets, and there may be delays in recovering the loaned money and/or assets. The Fund could also incur losses if the value of collateral provided for loans falls.

Reliance on the Investment Manager and the Trustee

Investment Manager's management services

The Fund will rely on the Investment Manager to evaluate and recommend investment and divestment opportunities. There can be no assurance that the Investment Manager will be able to implement successfully the strategies that it intends to pursue. The Investment Manager has significant latitude as to the types of assets it may recommend as investments for the Fund. There can be no assurance that the Investment Manager's choice of investment will result in a profit for the Fund. There is also no assurance that the process of selecting, recommending, implementing and monitoring of the investments will result in positive financial performance.

Investment Manager's continuing ability

The ability of the Investment Manager and the Trustee to attract and retain knowledgeable personnel may be affected in turn, by the Fund's continued financial strength. The Fund is subject to the risk that the Investment Manager and/or the Trustee may be removed and that no suitable replacement can be appointed to supervise the management of the Fund.

Appropriate investments may not be available and full investment of funds committed may be delayed

There can be no assurance that the Fund will identify assets that meet its investment criteria or that any such assets will produce a positive return on the Fund's investments or will not result in losses. In addition, there is increased uncertainty and risk to investors since they will be unable to evaluate the manner in which the funds which investors have committed to the Fund are to be invested or the economic merit of the particular assets to be acquired prior to making a commitment to invest in the Fund. There may be a substantial period of time before investors' commitments are fully invested.

Expedited transactions

Investment analyses and decisions by the Investment Manager may frequently be required to be undertaken on an expedited basis to take advantage of investment opportunities. In such cases, the information available to the Investment Manager at the relevant time may be limited and the Investment Manager may not have access to detailed information regarding the investment opportunity. Therefore, no assurance can be given that the Investment Manager will have knowledge of all circumstances that may adversely affect an investment. In addition, the Investment Manager may rely upon independent consultants in connection with its evaluation of proposed investments; however, no assurance can be given as to the consultants' evaluation of investments and the Fund may incur liability as a result of such consultants' actions.

Legal Risks

The Trustee, the Administrator, the Investment Manager and the Custodian and each of their respective officers, directors, and employees shall be held harmless and indemnified out of the Deposited Property against any and all claims, costs and any legal, accounting or other fees and expenses for investigations or defending any action or threatened actions reasonably incurred arising out of relating to or in connection with (a) any action taken, omitted or suffered to be taken by the Trustee or the Administrator or the Investment Manager or the Custodian in the exercise of its rights or powers under the Trust Deed provided that such claim is a result of action taken, omitted or suffered to be taken by the Trustee or the Administrator or the Investment Manager or the Custodian in the good faith and belief that such action was not adverse to the best interests of the Unitholders and was within the authority of the Trustee or the Administrator or the Investment Manager or the Custodian under the Trust Deed and did not involve wilful default, fraud, or gross negligence on the part of the relevant party; (b) the performance of the Trustee's or the Administrator's or the Investment Manager's or the Custodian's functions or duties under the Trust Deed other than as a result of the fraud, wilful default or gross negligence on the part of the relevant party; and (c) any loss or claims or damages suffered by the Unitholders that may result from any transfer of Deposited Property or, any valuation of Deposited Property, and/or subscription or redemption of Units "in-kind".

Lack of Separate Representation

Drew & Napier LLC is Singapore counsel to the Fund in connection with the establishment and listing of the Fund on the SGX-ST. Drew & Napier LLC is not representing the Trustee, Investment Manager, Administrator, Custodian or any prospective investors, and is not rendering any legal advice to the Trustee, Investment Manager, Administrator or Custodian, or any other prospective investors in connection with their investment in the Fund and the transactions contemplated herein. Accordingly, prospective investors are strongly urged to consult their own tax and legal advisers with respect to the tax and other legal aspects of investment in the fund and the transactions contemplated hereby, and with specific reference to their own personal financial and tax situations.

Changes in Laws and Regulations

Changes in laws or regulations, or the interpretation of such, may have legal, tax or accounting consequences that may be adverse to the Fund or the investments which make up the Fund's portfolio.

Risks Relating to Private Equity

Liquidity Risk

In some circumstances, investments may be relatively illiquid making it difficult to acquire or dispose of such investments at prices quoted on the various exchanges. Accordingly, the Fund's ability to respond to market movements may be impaired and the Fund may experience adverse price movements upon liquidation of its investments.

RISK FACTORS

Total Loss Risk

No assurance(s) can be given by the Investment Manager that the investment objectives of the Fund will be met. In addition, the possibility that some underlying investments may result in total loss cannot be excluded. However, through strict asset selection, the Investment Manager will endeavour to minimise these risks.

Lack of transparency

The methodology for disclosure, valuation and performance reporting used in practice in the private equity market are far from standardised. Due to the nature of the Fund, transparency may be extremely limited. However, the Investment Manager intends to provide extensive and detailed disclosures to the best of its abilities.

Others

The value of the Units of the Fund and the capital returns of the Fund may fail for many reasons including, but not limited to:

- (a) poor investment strategies;
- (b) changing conditions impacting investment strategies such as:
 - (i) attractiveness of a sector relative to the broader markets;
 - (ii) profitability of a particular investment strategy;
 - (iii) changes in a specific entity's operations, management or its business environment;
 - (iv) market and systemic risk;
 - (v) exposure to non-investment grade high yield securities;
 - (vi) investments which may be governed by complex series of legal documents and contracts, resulting in a higher risk of dispute over interpretation or enforceability; and
 - (vii) exposure to investments involving business and operational related risks.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The Investment Manager will implement various procedures and controls to manage the risks associated with an investment in the Units. The Investment Manager will ensure that the risk management and compliance procedures and controls adopted are adequate and that it has the necessary expertise to control and manage the risks relating to investments in the respective types of instruments. The Investment Manager may modify the risk management and compliance procedures and controls as it deems fit and in the interests of the Fund.

Investment Decisions

The decision to invest in any particular security or instrument on behalf of the Fund will reflect the Investment Manager's consideration of the benefits of such investments and the balance between the risks and returns associated with the investments. There will also be regular meetings between the key officers of the Investment Manager for the purpose of reviewing the positions in the assets held by the Fund. Any investment decision made will be consistent with the Fund's investment objectives and strategies and will comply with the investment approaches and restrictions as outlined in this Memorandum.

Exposure to structured products

In connection with investments in listed securities, the Investment Manager may invest in, inter alia, structured products. In view of the illiquidity of, the complexity of risks and difficulty in valuation associated with investments in structured products, the Investment Manager will ensure that the exposure of the Fund to structured products will not at any time exceed ten per cent. (10%) of the aggregate value of the listed securities held by the Fund. Such exposure will be calculated by converting the positions of the underlying assets embedded in those structured products into equivalent positions.

Valuation

In relation to investments that are difficult to value or for which no comparable benchmark valuation is available, the Investment Manager and the Trustee may procure independent and professional means of verifying the value of such investments when necessary.

TAXATION

The following is a summary of certain tax consequences in Singapore in relation to the Fund. This summary is of a general nature only and is based on the existing provisions of relevant tax law and the regulations thereunder, the circulars issued by the MAS (with guidelines some of which have not been legislated) and practices in effect as at the date hereof, all of which are subject to change at any time and to differing interpretations, either on a prospective or retroactive basis. The summary does not purport to be comprehensive and does not constitute legal or tax advice.

The summary is not intended to constitute a complete analysis of all the tax considerations relating to a participation in the Fund. Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisers concerning the tax consequences of an investment in the Fund in the light of their particular situation, including the tax consequences arising under the laws of any other tax jurisdiction, which may be applicable to their particular circumstances.

It is emphasised that the Investment Manager, the Trustee, the Administrator, the Custodian or any other persons involved in advising the Fund do not accept responsibility for any tax effects or liabilities resulting from the subscription for, holding or disposal of issued securities in the Fund.

As is the case with any investment, there can be no guarantee that the tax position or proposed tax position prevailing at the time an investment in the Fund is made will endure indefinitely. In particular, please note that this tax section was last updated on 5 December 2014 and may therefore not be accurate, updated or complete as of the date of subscribing, purchasing or disposal / redemption of the Units. Investors should consult their professional advisers for updated tax information relating to the Fund and the possible tax consequences of their subscribing for, purchasing, holding or redeeming Units.

Taxation of Investors

There is no capital gains tax in Singapore. Hence gains from the disposal of securities, for example Units in the Fund, which are held as capital assets or long term investment will not be subject to Singapore income tax. However gains derived from the disposal of the Units may be regarded as income in nature and subject to Singapore income tax if they arise from or are otherwise connected with the activities of a trade or business carried on in Singapore. Such gains may also be considered income in nature even if they do not arise from an activity in the ordinary course of trade or business or an ordinary incident of some other business activity if the holders of such Units had the intention to make a profit at the time of acquisition and the Units were not intended to be held as long term investments. If the Units were acquired and held by the holders as trading assets, then any gains arising from the sale of the Units will generally be subject to Singapore income tax.

Where any income of a foreign trust is exempt from tax under the Income Tax Regulations in any year of assessment, the share of such income to which any beneficiary under the trust is entitled to receive for that year of assessment shall also be exempt from tax if the beneficiary –

- (a) being an individual, is neither a citizen of Singapore nor resident in Singapore;
- (b) being a company, is neither incorporated nor resident in Singapore and where such a company -
 - (i) has not more than 50 shareholders, all of its issued shares are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by persons who are neither citizens of Singapore nor resident in Singapore; and
 - (ii) has more than 50 shareholders, not less than 95% of the total number of its issued shares are beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by persons who are neither citizens of Singapore nor resident in Singapore;
- (c) being any other person, is neither resident in Singapore nor constituted or registered under any written law in Singapore; or
- (d) is a trustee of another foreign trust specified under the Income Tax Regulations; or
- (e) is a trustee of a philanthropic purpose trust where the distributions from the unit trust accrue to the foreign account of that philanthropic trust.

Where the Fund ceases to be a "foreign trust" for the purposes of section 13G of the Income Tax Act, the Comptroller of Income Tax (Comptroller) may assess the Trustee on any income of the Fund that was exempted from tax under section 13G of the Income Tax Act and applicable regulations to tax under section 74 of the Income Tax Act.

Units of the Fund will only be offered to, or be open to subscription directly or indirectly by, Eligible Investors who are Foreign Persons. The Investment Manager or the Trustee is entitled to reject any application for subscription by any person or transfer to any person whom the Investment Manager or the Trustee believes is not a Foreign Person. The Investment Manager or the Trustee is also entitled to immediately redeem all the Units of any Unitholder who at any time and for any reason fails or ceases to be a Foreign Person.

The attention of investors is also drawn to the section on "Risk Factors" on pages 23 to 28 of this Memorandum.

Reporting Obligations

As part of the reporting obligations under section 13G of the Income Tax Act, the Trustee has to submit an annual declaration to the Comptroller, in such form as the Comptroller or the MAS may specify, that the foreign trust has met the conditions for exemption under the Income Tax Regulations.

The Trustee shall also keep and maintain in respect of a foreign trust such records of the particulars of every settlor and beneficiary or unit holder (as the case may be) of the foreign trust as may be required by the Minister or such person as he may appoint for the purposes of the Income Tax Regulations.

FEES AND CHARGES

The following fees and charges will be payable:

At present, the Investment Manager does not intend to charge any subscription fee but reserves the right to do so. The Investment Manager further reserves the right and shall have the power and discretion to differentiate between each subscriber as to the amount of the subscription fee payable on Units issued to them on such basis or on such scale as the Investment Manager may think fit. To the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, the subscription fee will be retained by the Investment Manager and/or their authorised agents and distributors for its/their own benefit.

Redemption Charge

There is currently no redemption charge. However, the Investment Manager may from time to time, at its option, impose a redemption charge in connection with the redemption of Units. The redemption charge shall not exceed one per cent. (1%) of the Redemption Price per Unit. To the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, the redemption charge shall be retained by the Investment Manager for its own benefit. The Investment Manager also reserves the right and shall have the power and discretion to differentiate between Unitholders as to the amount of the redemption charge payable on such basis or on such scale as the Investment Manager may think fit.

Management Fee

The Investment Manager shall be entitled to receive for its own account out of the Deposited Property a management fee equivalent to two per cent. (2%) p.a. of the NAV of the Fund (subject to a maximum of three per cent. (3%) of the Fund's Net Asset Value p.a.). For the avoidance of doubt, in addition to the management fee, the Investment Manager shall be entitled to be reimbursed or paid out of the Deposited Property, all applicable GST. The management fee shall be paid to the Investment Manager for its own account as soon as practicable and in any case, within thirty (30) calendar days after the last Dealing Day of each month.

minimum of US$120,000 p.a.) shall be calculated monthly in arrears and be payable out of the Deposited Property to the party acting as Administrator, Trustee and Custodian of the Fund. Subject to the maximum hereinbefore provided, the administration, trustee and custodian fee may be altered to some smaller rate or amount by notice to the Investment Manager, or be increased by giving written notice to the Investment Manager and to the Unitholders not less than one (1) month prior to the date of effect thereof. The administration, trustee and custodian fee shall exclude all applicable GST. For the avoidance of doubt, in addition to the administration, trustee and custodian fee, the Administrator, Trustee and Custodian shall be entitled to be reimbursed or paid out of the Deposited Property all applicable GST. The administration, trustee and custodian fee shall be paid to the relevant party as soon as practicable and in any case, within thirty (30) calendar days following the end of each month.

The Administrator, Trustee and Custodian shall in addition to the administration, trustee and custodian fee set out above, be entitled to be paid out of the Deposited Property all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including fees payable by the Administrator, Trustee and Custodian to professional advisers) and disbursements incurred in the performance of duties under the Trust Deed and as permitted by clause 9 of the Trust Deed.

Investment Advisor Fee

Currently, no investment advisor has been appointed. Subject to the Trust Deed, the Investment Manager may from time to time with notification to the Trustee and appropriate disclosure to Unitholders (if the Trustee determines that Unitholders shall be notified) appoint such appropriately qualified investment advisor(s) on such terms in each case as may be agreed between the Investment Manager and such investment advisor(s). Where any investment advisors have been so appointed, each of such investment advisors shall be entitled to receive for its own account and out of the Deposited Property such fee not exceeding three per cent. (3%) p.a. of the NAV of the Fund, which shall be calculated monthly in arrears.

Unitholders should refer in particular to clauses 9 and 23 of the Trust Deed for a detailed description of the fees, charges and expenses payable from the assets of the Fund.

DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME AND CAPITAL

The Investment Manager shall have the sole discretion to determine whether a distribution is to be made and, as and when the Investment Manager shall decide, the Investment Manager may distribute such part or all of the assets of the Fund pursuant to the terms of the Trust Deed.

It is the intention of the Investment Manager to make distributions to Unitholders notwithstanding the absence of a formal fixed distribution schedule (e.g. annually or bi-annually etc.). Decisions on distributions will depend on the specific circumstances applicable at the relevant time. Distributions will be made based on a combination of factors, including but not limited to:

- whether the Fund is expecting to redeploy capital into new investments or expansion capital for investee companies;
- provision for fees including but not limited to fees payable to various services providers such as the Trustee, Administrator, Custodian and Investment Manager;
- whether the Fund has achieved a positive return during the relevant period;
- whether the Fund has disposable liquidities at the targeted distribution date; and
- such other factors (including economic and market considerations) as may be relevant or applicable from time to time.

Subject to and unless otherwise permitted by applicable laws, regulations and rules, dividends may however only be paid to the extent that they are covered by income received from underlying investments and by share of profits of associated companies which are received by the Fund and are available for distribution.

The Investment Manager and the Trustee will provide at least twenty-eight (28) Business Days' notice to the Unitholders prior to effecting a distribution, whereupon a Unitholder may at his option (but subject to the provisions of the Trust Deed and subject to compliance review and the prior approval of the Investment Manager and the Trustee) direct that such distribution be paid to his specified nominee provided that the relevant details of such nominee are provided in full by the Unitholder to the Investment Manager and the Trustee at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the proposed distribution date, failing which the Investment Manager and the Trustee shall have the right to make the distribution to the Unitholder as though no nominee had been specified by the Unitholder.

DETERMINATION OF NET ASSET VALUE

The NAV of the Fund will be calculated by the Administrator or its agent at the maturity of the Fund and on each Dealing Day or on such other basis as the Administrator or the Investment Manager may determine in its discretion to be appropriate or necessary.

NAV will be calculated in accordance with the valuation rules specified in the Trust Deed and as summarised below:

- (a) Any security which is listed or quoted on any securities exchange or similar electronic trading system and regularly traded thereon will be valued at its last traded price on the relevant Dealing Day or, if no trades occurred on such day, at the closing price as at the relevant Dealing Day and as adjusted in such a manner as the Administrator or its agent (in consultation with the Investment Manager) thinks fit, and where prices are available on more than one exchange or trading system for a particular security, the price will be the last traded price or closing bid or offer price, as the case may be, on the exchange which constitutes the main market for such security or the one which the Administrator or its agent (in consultation with the Investment Manager) determines provides the fairest criteria in ascribing a value to such security.
- (b) Any security which is not listed or quoted on any securities exchange or similar electronic system or if, being so listed or quoted, is not regularly traded thereon or in respect of which no prices as described above are available will be valued at its probable realisation value as determined in good faith by the Administrator or its agent (in consultation with the Investment Manager) based on such factors as it/they may consider from time to time and on a case-by-case basis including without limitation cost price, the price at which any recent transaction in the security may have been effected, the size of the holding having regard to the total amount of such security issue, and such other factors as may be deemed relevant in considering a positive or a negative adjustment to the valuation. Where necessary, an Approved Valuer may be appointed to assist the Administrator or its agent and/or the Investment Manager in determining the value of such security.
- (c) Investments, other than securities, which are dealt in or traded through a clearing house or an exchange or through a financial institution, will be valued by reference to the most recent official settlement price quoted by that clearing house, exchange or financial institution. If there is no such price, then the value will be taken based on the last available annual accounts.
- (d) Investments, other than securities, which are not dealt in or traded through a clearing house or an exchange or through a financial institution, will be valued on the basis of the latest available valuation provided by the relevant counterparty or an Approved Valuer.
- (e) Cash, money market instruments, deposits and similar property will be valued at their cost plus accrued interest, unless in the reasonable opinion of the Administrator or its agent (in consultation with the Investment Manager), an adjustment should be made.
- (f) Other investments not falling within the foregoing types of investments shall be valued in such manner and at such time as the Administrator or its agent may from time to time determine to be appropriate and fair after consultation with the Investment Manager.
- (g) If the quotations or the formulas referred to above are not available or are practically unfeasible to implement or the value of the investment determined in the manner described above, in the opinion(s) of the Administrator or its agent (in consultation with the Investment Manager), does not represent the fair value of such asset, then the Administrator or its agent (in consultation with the Investment Manager) may, at its discretion, permit any other method of valuation (including but not limited to valuation by or consultation with an Approved Valuer) to be used if it/they consider(s) with due care and in good faith that such method of valuation better reflects value generally or takes into account particular markets or market conditions, and is in accordance with good accounting practices. Such change(s) must be approved by the Trustee who shall give notice to the Unitholders of the change(s) as the Trustee may deem appropriate and/or necessary.

Any value (whether of an investment or cash) denominated in a currency other than the Selected Currency (i.e. USD) will be converted into the Selected Currency at the close of business on the relevant Dealing Day at a rate determined in accordance with the Trust Deed.

Where an investor is, on an exceptional basis, subscribing for Units by way of asset(s), the Investment Manager shall have the sole discretion to value the assets in question, having regard to the valuation rules set out in the Trust Deed and summarised above. Where applicable, the Investment Manager shall be entitled to rely on the professional opinion of a valuer to ascertain the number of Units to be issued to the Unitholder and shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the Deposited Property for any claims by the Unitholders as a result of such reliance. The costs of appointment of any such valuer and any other incidental costs which may result from the same shall be borne by the investor or the Unitholder (as the case may be) notwithstanding the Investment Manager's, Trustee's or Custodian's decision not to accept an investor or Unitholder's subscription in-kind thereafter for whatever reason as may be relied on by the Investment Manager, the Trustee or the Custodian.

Investors should refer to clause 10 of the Trust Deed for a detailed description of the valuation rules when assessing the NAV of the Fund and its Units.

SUBSCRIPTION OF UNITS

Each investor being an Eligible Investor is subject to a minimum subscription amount of US$2 million per subscription. An investor may subscribe for Units by way of assets. Each investor shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the subscription application form and the Trust Deed, in addition to this Memorandum. The Investment Manager, the Trustee and the Custodian reserve the right to accept or reject an investor's subscription application without assigning a reason.

Subscription process

Investors who decide to apply for Units should complete and sign the subscription application form and send a copy via facsimile and the original via courier to the Investment Manager at least fifteen (15) Business Days before the relevant Dealing Day (or such other date as may be determined by the Investment Manager).

The Issue Price of a Unit shall be the Net Asset Value per Unit which is calculated by dividing the Net Asset Value of the Fund by the number of Units in issue as at the Valuation Point on the relevant Dealing Day. The Net Asset Value of the Fund shall be calculated in accordance with the valuation rules summarised in "Determination of Net Asset Value" on pages 42 and 43 of this Memorandum and as set out in clause 10 of the Trust Deed.

Currently, no subscription fees will be charged. Subject to the Trust Deed, the Investment Manager however reserves the right to charge a subscription fee of such amount (subject to a limit of two per cent. (2%) of the Issue Price per Unit) as it may so determine, and in charging such subscription fee, the Investment Manager reserves the right and shall have the power and discretion to waive, grant a discount on or increase the subscription fee in relation to certain groups of investors of the Fund at any time.

Acceptance of subscriptions for Units is subject to the Fund receiving such evidence of identification, source of funds and other matters as the Investment Manager or Trustee deems necessary in order to fully comply with all relevant anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing laws, regulations, guidelines and notices (whether or not having the force of law and as amended from time to time), and satisfaction of the Foreign Person criteria as well as the requirements and requests of the Custodian in relation to the application monies or assets.

Where the identity of the subscriber or the ultimate beneficial owner, the source of funds or other matters cannot be verified to the Investment Manager's or the Trustee's reasonable satisfaction, the Investment Manager or the Trustee may refuse to accept the subscriber's application for Units at their absolute discretion and without assigning any reason whatsoever. Similarly, if the Custodian's requirements and requests are not met by the subscriber (whether directly or indirectly through the Trustee) to the satisfaction of the Custodian, the application monies shall not be accepted by the Custodian without a need for a reason and the Investment Manager or the Trustee may refuse to accept the subscriber's application for Units.

The acceptance of subscription applications and/or the issue of Units to a subscriber should not be taken as an indication that all tax, anti-money laundering, anti-terrorist financing and know-your-client checks have been concluded. In the event that any investor fails to pass any anti-money laundering, anti-terrorist financing or know-your-client checks (whether these are initial or on-going checks), the Investment Manager or the Trustee is entitled at any time to reject any subscription application for or require the compulsory redemption of Units or to take other actions as they may be required to take under local or international anti-money laundering, criminal or other laws, regulations, notices, guidelines and other stipulations, and the Investment Manager and the Trustee shall not be liable for any loss, expense, charge or liability arising from the rejection of such application or such compulsory redemption.

Payment

Subscription by cash

In accordance with the instructions provided by the Investment Manager (and subject to any extensions), full payment of the aggregate Issue Price of the Units subscribed for should be made in

SUBSCRIPTION OF UNITS

USD by way of telegraphic transfer so as to arrive at least five (5) Business Days before the relevant Dealing Day (or such other deadline as may be determined by the Investment Manager). No Units will be issued unless and until the relevant application monies, net of fiscal and bank charges, have been received in cleared funds by or on behalf of the Fund i.e. funds by way of cash or cheques deposited in or transferred to such account with such bank or financial institution as may be directed by the Investment Manager or Trustee and cleared by the relevant bank or financial institution for withdrawal or is otherwise available for use by the owner of the recipient account. Any conversion of currencies will be made in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed.

If the abovementioned deadline for payment is not complied with, the agreement to issue such Unit may, in the absolute discretion of the Investment Manager, at that time or any time thereafter be cancelled by the Investment Manager and such Unit shall thereupon be deemed never to be issued or agreed to be issued and the applicant of such Unit shall have no right or claim whatsoever in respect thereof against the Investment Manager or the Trustee.

Subscription "in kind"

On a case-by-case basis subject to such factors as the Investment Manager may determine to be relevant in its discretion, an investor may subscribe for Units by way of assets. An investor who wishes to subscribe for Units by way of assets should submit the subscription application form with the appropriate sections relating to subscription by way of assets completed. The Investment Manager, in consultation with the Trustee shall have the discretion to determine whether or not to accept the subscription application. The Investment Manager shall have the sole discretion to value the assets in question, having regard to the valuation rules as set out in the Trust Deed and summarised in "Determination of Net Asset Value" on pages 42 and 43 of this Memorandum.

In determining the value of the assets, factors that the Investment Manager may consider include but are not limited to market volume, market capitalisation, floating capital and any historical price volatility etc.. The Investment Manager and the Trustee shall not be held accountable for any decrease in the NAV of any Units held by existing Unitholders (at such later date) as a consequence of the Investment Manager valuing the asset(s) at a premium. Further, it is assumed that investors who decide to subscribe by way of assets will have obtained independent professional advice on the tax consequences of their subscription by way of assets. The Investment Manager and the Trustee shall not be liable for any adverse tax consequences arising from any subscription by way of assets.

In the case of an investor subscribing for Units "in-kind", Units will be issued against the transfer to the Trustee or to the Custodian (holding the assets on behalf of the Trustee) as the case may be, of the assets which are the subject of such "in-kind" subscription, and no Units shall be issued until the assets have been vested in the Trustee or in the Custodian (holding the assets on behalf of the Trustee).

As stated in "Determination of Net Asset Value" on pages 42 and 43 of this Memorandum, the Investment Manager shall be entitled to rely on the professional opinion of a valuer to ascertain the number of Units to be issued to the Unitholder and shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the Deposited Property for any claims by the Unitholders as a result of such reliance. The costs of appointing such valuer and any other incidental costs which may result from the same shall be borne by the investor or the Unitholder (as the case may be) notwithstanding the Investment Manager's, the Trustee's or the Custodian's decision not to accept an investor's subscription "in-kind" thereafter for whatever reason as may be relied on by the Investment Manager, the Trustee or the Custodian.

General

Applicants will be notified of the acceptance (in whole or in part) of their applications by a letter dispatched within one (1) month after the relevant Dealing Day, detailing the investment amount and the number of units allocated in the Fund.

If any application is not accepted in whole or in part, the application monies (or where an application is accepted in part only) the balance thereof will be returned, without interest, to the account from which payment was originally made, and the Investment Manager, the Trustee and the Custodian shall not be liable for any loss, expenses, charge or liability arising from such non-acceptance of the application for Units.

Where necessary, the exact number of Units to be issued in the Fund shall be determined by the Trustee by rounding down to two decimal places the number of Units to be issued. Any balance arising from such rounding down shall be retained for the benefit of the Fund.

No certificates will be issued to Unitholders in respect of the Units purchased by them.

REDEMPTION OF UNITS

All redemptions shall, in addition to this Memorandum, be subject to the terms and conditions of the redemption form and the Trust Deed (where applicable). Unitholders should refer in particular to Clause 13 of the Trust Deed for a detailed description of the terms and conditions pertaining to any redemption of Units. Except where upon full maturity of the Fund, Unitholders may apply to the Investment Manager to redeem their Units at any time after the close of the Initial Subscription Period.

The minimum redemption amount is US$1 million, and the minimum holding amount is US$2 million. Redemptions of only a part of a Unitholder's holding will be subject to the Unitholder holding no less than the minimum holding amount after the redemption. In the event that the Unitholder's holding in the Fund would be reduced to less than the minimum holding amount after redemption, the Investment Manager shall be entitled to require such Unitholder to redeem all of his holding of Units.

There is no minimum holding period in relation to the Units. The Investment Manager may however from time to time prescribe such minimum holding period which may apply equally to a Unitholder who subscribed during the Initial Subscription Period as it will to a Unitholder who subscribed after the Initial Subscription Period, but may be waived at the discretion of the Investment Manager.

Redemption Process

Subject to the minimum holding amount and the minimum redemption requirement, investors may redeem their Units by completing, and signing the redemption form and sending the original to the Investment Manager at least fifteen (15) Business Days prior to the relevant Dealing Day on which the Unitholder intends to redeem its Units. The Investment Manager in its discretion can choose to waive this notice period for any redemption request.

Redemptions shall be effected on a monthly basis on a Dealing Day. The redemption price per Unit shall be the NAV per Unit calculated in accordance with the Trust Deed as at the Valuation Point on the Dealing Day on which redemption is effected. Redemption may, at the discretion of the Investment Manager, be effected in cash or in specie by a transfer to the relevant Unitholder (or his nominee) of assets of the Fund, or a combination of both. Redemption in specie is permitted only on a case-by-case basis and shall be subject to the agreement of the Investment Manager and the Trustee and such terms and conditions as they may impose. The Investment Manager shall have the sole discretion to select the assets of the Fund to be transferred, the value of which shall be calculated as at the appropriate Dealing Day in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed.

Unitholders should note that in the case of redemption in specie, the value of the assets to be transferred to the affected Unitholder (or his nominee) in satisfaction of its redemption request may not necessarily be exactly equivalent to the redemption proceeds of the Units to be redeemed which the affected Unitholder (or his nominee) would have received had the affected Unitholder (or his nominee) received cash payment. In addition, such assets may not be readily marketable and may have to be held for an indefinite period of time.

A letter detailing the acceptance of the redemption form and the number of Units to be redeemed in the Fund, the redemption proceeds, and confirming the designated bank account for payment of the redemption proceeds (or in the case of redemption in specie, transfer arrangements) will be sent to the Unitholder within fifteen (15) Business Days from receipt of the redemption form. Redemption proceeds and/or assets will be paid and/or transferred (as the case may be) within fifteen (15) Business Days following the Dealing Day on which redemption is effected. Unitholders should note however that in the event that the Fund has insufficient liquidity as assessed by the Investment Manager in its discretion and sales or divestment of Fund assets are necessary to meet redemption requests, redemption proceeds and/or assets (as the case may be) will only be paid and/or transferred within three (3) months following the Dealing Day on which redemption is effected.

Any costs, duties and charges including but not limited to any bank charges incurred in respect of a telegraphic transfer of redemption proceeds to a Unitholder's bank account will be borne by the

REDEMPTION OF UNITS

Unitholder, and may be deducted from or set-off against the Unitholder's redemption proceeds. Redemption proceeds and/or Deposited Property shall be paid and/or transferred (as the case may be), at the risk of the Unitholder, to such bank account specified by the Unitholder and/or to a nominee specified by the Unitholder and/or pursuant to such other arrangements agreed between the Unitholder, the Investment Manager and the Trustee. Redemption proceeds and/or Deposited Property shall be paid and/or transferred (as the case may be) to the registered Unitholder, his specified nominee or otherwise in accordance with this paragraph. Subject to the provisions of the Trust Deed and subject to compliance review and the prior approval of the Investment Manager and the Trustee, a Unitholder may direct that such redemption proceeds and/or Deposited Property (after deduction of all applicable costs, duties and charges) be paid to its specified nominee provided that the relevant details of such nominee are provided in full by the Unitholder in the redemption form, failing which the Investment Manager and the Trustee shall have the right to transfer the redemption proceeds and/or Deposited Property to the Unitholder as though no nominee had been specified by the Unitholder.

There is currently no redemption charge. However, the Investment Manager may from time to time, at its option, impose a redemption charge in connection with the redemption of Units. The redemption charge shall not exceed one per cent. (1%) of the Redemption Price per Unit. To the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, the redemption charge shall be retained by the Investment Manager for its own benefit. The Investment Manager also reserves the right and shall have the power and discretion to differentiate between Unitholders as to the amount of the redemption charge payable on such basis or on such scale as the Investment Manager may think fit.

The bases on which the Investment Manager may make any differentiation as between Unitholders shall include, without limitation, Unitholders who are employees of the Investment Manager or its related corporations (as defined in the Companies Act (Cap.50) of Singapore), Unitholders with large holdings of Units, and as an incentive to Unitholders to hold the Units for longer or varying periods of time.

Compulsory Redemptions

The Trustee or the Investment Manager has the right to redeem compulsorily, without prior notice, any Units which are held by:

- (a) any person in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority; or
- (b) any person or persons in circumstances which, in the opinion of the Trustee or the Investment Manager, might result in the Fund, any Unitholder, the Investment Manager, the Trustee, the Custodian, the Administrator or any of their Associates or agents incurring any taxation liability or suffering any other pecuniary disadvantage or otherwise affecting their tax status; or
- (c) any person which may result in the Fund, any Unitholder, the Trustee, the Investment Manager, the Custodian, the Administrator or any of their Associates or agents being required to comply with any registration or filing requirement in any jurisdiction to which it would not otherwise be required to comply; or
- (d) any person such as to be harmful or injurious to the business or reputation of the Fund or any of its service providers; or
- (e) any person, who otherwise than as a result of depreciation in the value of his holding, holds Units in value less than such amount determined by the Investment Manager from time to time; or
- (f) any person who fails any initial or on-going tax-related requirements and conditions or anti-money laundering, anti-terrorist financing or know-your-client checks; or

REDEMPTION OF UNITS

- (g) if a Unitholder fails to be a Foreign Person or meet other eligibility requirements as may be imposed by the Investment Manager in consultation with the Trustee from time to time in relation to the Fund or any Class; or
- (h) where information and personal data (including but not limited to information regarding tax status, identity or residency), self-certifications or documents as may be requested by the Investment Manager or Trustee pursuant to laws, regulations, guidelines, directions or contractual obligations with any governmental or regulatory authority of any jurisdiction cannot be obtained from the Unitholder in a timely manner or the Unitholder has refused to provide the same in a timely manner or the Unitholder has refused to grant consent or authorisation or withdrawn his consent or authorisation for the Investment Manager or the Trustee to collect, use or disclose such information, documents or self-certifications as may be required by the Investment Manager or the Trustee in a timely manner.

Suspension of dealing

The Investment Manager may, with the prior written approval of the Trustee, suspend the redemption or valuation of Units during:

- (a) any period and for the purpose of consultation or adjustment of redemption price per Unit pursuant to the Trust Deed;
- (b) any period and for the purpose of consultation or adjustment of issue price per Unit pursuant to the Trust Deed;
- (c) the existence of any state of affairs which, in the opinion of the Trustee and/or the Investment Manager, might seriously prejudice the interests of the Unitholders as a whole, the Fund, or the assets of the Fund;
- (d) any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price of any investments or when for any reason the prices of any investments or the amount of any liability of the Trustee, the Investment Manager, the Administrator or the Custodian for the account of the Fund cannot be promptly and accurately ascertained;
- (e) any period when remittance of money which will or may be involved in the realisation of investments or if the payment for investments cannot, in the opinion of the Trustee and/or Investment Manager, be carried out at normal rates of exchange;
- (f) any 48 hour period (or such longer period as may be agreed between the Investment Manager and the Trustee from time to time) prior to the date of any meeting of Unitholders (or any adjourned meeting thereof);
- (g) the existence of any state of affairs as a result of an act of god, governmental restriction, abnormal operating conditions, conditioning or control breakdown in communication systems, pestilence, acts of war, terrorism, insurrection, revolutions, civil unrest, riots, strikes or by reason of any other act, matter or thing beyond the Investment Manager's or the Trustee's reasonable control lasting for over one (1) month (or such longer period as may be extended by the Investment Manager or the Trustee in their discretion, subject to a maximum period of five (5) months), which in the opinion of the Investment Manager or the Trustee, might seriously prejudice the interests of the Unitholders as a whole or of Deposited Property or might, in relation to the operation of the Fund, substantially impair the Investment Manager's or the Trustee's conduct or ability to conduct their business activities;
- (h) any period where dealing of Units is suspended pursuant to any order or direction of the MAS or other regulatory authority;
- (i) any period when the market value or fair value of a material portion of the Deposited Property cannot be determined;

REDEMPTION OF UNITS

- (j) any period when the securities exchange(s) or trading system(s) on which any investments constituting the Deposited Property for the time being are listed or dealt in is closed (otherwise than for ordinary holidays or weekends) or during which dealings are restricted or suspended;
- (k) any period whereby subject to the approval of the Trustee, dealing of Units has to be suspended to effect the subdivision or consolidation of Units; and
- (l) in exceptional circumstances where the Investment Manager or the Trustee has determined that such suspension is in the best interests of the Unitholders.

TRANSFER OF UNITS

In addition to this Memorandum, all transfers of units shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the transfer form and the Trust Deed (where applicable).

Transfer Process

A unitholder (Transferor) may transfer its Units to another investor (Transferee) at any time in compliance with the requirements set out below. All transfers are subject to the prior written consent of the Investment Manager and the Trustee who shall have the absolute discretion to withhold their consent without assigning any reason whatsoever.

To effect a transfer, the Transferor and the Transferee shall jointly complete and sign the appropriate transfer form and send a copy via facsimile and the original via courier to the Administrator at least fifteen (15) Business Days before the relevant Dealing Day (or such other date as may be determined by the Investment Manager).

In addition, each Unitholder wishing to transfer his Units to a Transferee shall ensure that (a) the transfer form and all instruments of transfer have been duly signed, stamped and executed as prescribed by the Investment Manager and the Trustee and required by law; (b) such evidence as the Trustee or Investment Manager may require to prove the title of the Transferor or its right to transfer the Units is provided; and (c) where the Unit is specified on the Register to be subject to a security interest, the transfer form shall be accompanied by a consent to the transfer form or executed by the holder of that security interest. Further, no transfer of part of a holding of Units shall be registered if in consequence thereof either the Transferor or the Transferee would be a Unitholder with less than the minimum holding amount, or if in consequence thereof the Fund or any Class may incur any tax, licensing or registration liability in any jurisdiction which the Fund or that Class might not have otherwise incurred or which in the opinion of the Investment Manager in consultation with the Trustee may result in the Fund or any Class suffering any disadvantage (including but not limited to tax, regulatory or pecuniary disadvantage) which the Fund or that Class might not otherwise have suffered.

Any transfer of Units is restricted to persons qualifying as Eligible Investors and as Foreign Persons. The Investment Manager or the Trustee has the absolute discretion to reject, in whole or in part, any transfer of Units without assigning any reason. The Investment Manager or the Trustee shall also have the absolute discretion to require the immediate transfer of Units by a Transferee to another party of the Investment Manager's or Trustee's choosing where such transfer is in contravention of the terms of transfer set out herein or in the Deed and the transfer form e.g. where the Transferee does not qualify as an Eligible Investor or as a Foreign Person. In addition, upon written request by the Investment Manager or the Trustee, such Unitholder shall at its own expense, execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered to the Investment Manager or the Trustee or their respective agents or nominees such approvals, consents and authorisations (including but not limited to powers of attorneys) as may be required for the Investment Manager or the Trustee to effect on behalf of the Unitholder, a transfer of Units to any such party of the Investment Manager's or Trustee's choosing.
