Any capitalized terms used in this press release without definition have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in the Offering Memorandum.

Early Participation Results for the Exchange Offers

As of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on January 7, 2025 (the “Early Participation Deadline”), Morrow Sodali International LLC, trading as Sodali & Co, the information agent and exchange agent in connection with the Exchange Offers and the Solicitations (the “Information and Exchange Agent”) advised Azul that (i) 97.8% of the total outstanding principal amount of the Existing 2029 Notes, (ii) 94.4% of the total outstanding principal amount of the Existing 2030 Notes, and (iii) 95.4% of the total outstanding principal amount of both series of Existing Notes (taken together), had been validly tendered for exchange and not validly withdrawn.

The obligation of the Issuer to complete the Exchange Offers is subject to the receipt of Existing Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) prior to the Expiration Deadline representing not less than 95% of the aggregate principal amount of both series of Existing Notes (taken together) (the “Minimum Exchange Condition”), among other conditions. The Minimum Exchange Condition for consummation of the Exchange Offers has been satisfied.

The Withdrawal Deadline for each of the Exchange Offers expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on January 7, 2025 and has not been extended. Accordingly, Holders may no longer withdraw Existing Notes tendered in the Exchange Offers, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Existing Notes tendered on or after the date hereof and prior to the Expiration Deadline (as defined below), except as required by law.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offering Memorandum, Eligible Holders who validly tendered Existing Notes and delivered related Consents by the Early Participation Deadline and who did not validly withdraw tendered Existing Notes and did not revoke such Consents at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline, and whose Existing Notes are accepted for exchange by the Issuer, will receive the applicable Total Early Exchange Consideration.

Early Participation Results for the Consent Solicitation

As previously announced, simultaneously with the Exchange Offers, the Issuer is conducting a Solicitation of Consents from Eligible Holders of the Existing Notes to effect the Proposed Amendments to the Existing Notes Indenture in respect of each series of Existing Notes. As of the Early Participation Deadline, the Information and Exchange Agent advised Azul that the Issuer has received the requisite Consents sufficient to effect the Proposed Amendments with respect to Existing Notes of each series.

Amendment to the Terms of the Exchange Offers

The Issuer hereby announces that, as permitted by the terms of the Exchange Offers, it has amended each of the Exchange Offers such that Eligible Holders who validly tender Existing Notes and deliver related Consents after the Early Participation Deadline but at or prior to the Expiration Deadline, and whose Existing Notes are accepted for exchange by the Issuer, will receive the applicable Total Early Exchange Consideration, which is the same consideration that will be received by Eligible Holders who validly tendered Existing Notes at or prior to the Early Participation Deadline.

Accordingly, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offering Memorandum (as amended hereby), Eligible Holders who validly tender Existing Notes and deliver related Consents after the Early Participation Deadline but at or prior to 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on January 15, 2025, unless extended or earlier terminated by the Issuer (such date and time, as they may be extended, the “Expiration Deadline”), and whose Existing Notes are accepted for exchange by the Issuer, will receive the applicable Total Early Exchange Consideration.

Settlement Date

The Issuer does not currently expect to elect to have an Early Settlement Date, but retains discretion to elect to do so in accordance with the terms of the Exchange Offers.

Accordingly, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the relevant Exchange Offer, the sole Settlement Date for the Exchange Offers is expected to be January 22, 2025, which is the fourth business day following the Expiration Deadline, unless extended by the Issuer (at its sole option).

Conditions to the Consummation of the Exchange Offers

The obligation of the Issuer to complete an Exchange Offer and related Solicitation with respect to either series of Existing Notes is subject to certain conditions described in the Offering Memorandum (the “Conditions”), which include (i) the Minimum Exchange Condition, (ii) certain amendments to the indenture (escritura de emissão de debêntures) governing the convertible debentures issued by Azul and certain collateral and other documents are required to be amended or replaced in respect of such convertible debentures, (iii) the issuance of at least US$500,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of the Superpriority Notes, secured by the Shared Collateral and other collateral on a “superpriority” basis, the issuance of which is subject to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Support Agreement, including the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth therein, (iv) the consummation of First Out Notes Exchange Offer in accordance with the terms set forth in the First Out Notes Exchange Offer Memorandum (which First Out Notes Exchange Offer is conditioned, among other conditions, on the participation of not less than 66.67% of the aggregate principal amount of the Existing First Out Notes (the “1L Participation Condition”), (v) if the Issuer elects to have an Early Settlement Date, the Issuer shall determine that New Notes issued by the Issuer on the Final Settlement Date will be fungible with the New Notes issued by the Issuer on the Early Settlement Date for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and (v) certain other customary conditions. Certain of these conditions are subject to waiver by Azul.

The Information and Exchange Agent has advised Azul that, as of the early participation deadline for the First Out Notes Exchange Offer, 99.6% of the aggregate principal amount of the Existing First Out Notes had been validly tendered and not validly withdrawn. Accordingly, the 1L Participation Condition has been satisfied.
