DECLARATION FOR SINGAPORE TAX PURPOSES

For Singapore income tax purposes, the components making up a Stapled Security are recognised separately, i.e. as one FH-REIT unit and one FH-BT unit. Accordingly, distributions from FHT are recognised separately as distributions from FH-REIT and FH-BT for the purpose of determining the applicable Singapore tax treatment.

The tax-exempt component of the distribution is exempt from Singapore income tax in the hands of all Stapled Securityholders, regardless of their nationality, corporate identity or tax residence status. No tax will be deducted at source from such distribution.

The capital component of the distribution represents a return of capital to Stapled Securityholders for Singapore income tax purposes and is therefore not subject to Singapore income tax. For Stapled Securityholders who are liable to Singapore income tax on profits from sale of Stapled Securities, the amount of Capital Distribution will be applied to reduce the cost base of their Stapled Securities for Singapore income tax purposes.

The taxable income component of the distribution comprises distribution made out of FH-REIT's taxable income that is not taxed at the trustee level. Tax will be deducted at source from the Taxable Income Distribution in certain circumstances. The following section describes the circumstances in which tax will or will not be deducted from such distribution.

- 1. Perpetual (Asia) Limited, the trustee of FH-REIT (the "REIT Trustee") and Frasers Hospitality Asset Management Pte. Ltd., as manager of FH-REIT (the "REIT Manager"), will not deduct tax from distributions made out of FH-REIT's taxable income that is not taxed at FH-REIT's level to:
  - (a) Stapled Securityholders who are individuals and who hold the Stapled Securities either in their sole names or jointly with other individuals;
  - (b) Stapled Securityholders which are companies incorporated and tax resident in Singapore;
  - (c) Stapled Securityholders which are Singapore branches of foreign companies that have obtained specific approval from the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore to receive the distribution from FH-REIT without deduction of tax; or
  - (d) Stapled Securityholders which are non-corporate entities (excluding partnerships) constituted or registered in Singapore, such as:
    - (i) institutions, authorities, persons or funds specified in the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act (Cap. 134);
    - (ii) co-operative societies registered under the Co-operative Societies Act (Cap. 62);
    - (i) trade unions registered under the Trade Unions Act (Cap. 333);
    - (ii) charities registered under the Charities Act (Cap. 37) or established by an Act of Parliament; and
    - (iii) town councils.
- 2. To receive a gross distribution (i.e. no tax will be deducted from the taxable income component of the distribution), Stapled Securityholders falling within categories (b) to (d) under Note 1 above are required to complete the applicable Section A, B or C of the "Declaration for Singapore Tax Purposes Form" ("Form A").
  - These categories of Stapled Securityholders, unless they are exempt from tax because of their own circumstances, will have to pay income tax subsequently at their own applicable tax rates.
- Stapled Securityholders who fall within category (a) under Note 1 above are not required to submit Form A. The gross distribution received by these Stapled Securityholders (irrespective of their tax residence status) is exempt from tax. However, this tax exemption does not apply to such Stapled Securityholders in respect of distribution derived by them through a partnership in Singapore or from the carrying on of a trade, business or profession. Such Stapled Securityholders, i.e. to whom the exemption does not apply, must declare the distribution received as income in their income tax returns.

- 4. For taxable income distributions made to categories of Stapled Securityholders that do not fall within the categories stated under Note 1 above, the REIT Trustee and the REIT Manager will deduct tax at the rate of 10% if the Stapled Securityholders are foreign non-individual investors. A foreign non-individual investor is one (other than an individual) who is not a resident of Singapore for income tax purposes and:
  - (a) who does not have a permanent establishment in Singapore; or
  - (b) who carries on any operation in Singapore through a permanent establishment in Singapore, where the funds used to acquire the Stapled Securities are not obtained from that operation.
- 5. To receive the distribution net of tax deducted at 10%, foreign non-individual investors are required to complete Section D of Form A.
- 6. The REIT Trustee and the REIT Manager will rely on the declarations made in Form A to determine (i) if tax is to be deducted for distributions to the categories of Stapled Securityholders listed in (b) to (d) under Note 1 above; and (ii) if tax is to be deducted at the rate of 10% for distributions to foreign non-individual investors under Note 4 above.
- 7. Stapled Securityholders who do not fall within the categories of Stapled Securityholders listed in Note 1 and Note 4 above can choose not to return Form A as tax will be deducted from the distributions made to them at the prevailing corporate tax rate in any case.
- 8. Beneficial owners of Stapled Securities in FHT who hold the Stapled Securities through depository agents will receive:
  - (a) Gross distribution if they are persons described in categories (a) to (d) under Note 1 above; or
  - (b) Distribution net of tax deducted at 10% if they are foreign non-individuals described in Note 4 above.
- 9. To receive gross distribution and distribution net of tax deducted at 10%, the depository agents are required to complete the "Declaration by Depository Agents for Singapore Tax Purposes Form" ("Form B") and its annexes.
- 10. Form A and Form B (and its annexes) will be sent to Stapled Securityholders and depository agents respectively, by Boardroom Corporate & Advisory Services Pte. Ltd. (the "Stapled Security Registrar"), on or around 9 November 2017.
- 11. Stapled Securityholders (Form A) and the depository agents (Form B and its annexes) will have to complete the forms legibly and send it to the Stapled Security Registrar such that they are received by 5.00 p.m. on Tuesday, 21 November 2017. Failure to comply with any of these requirements will render Form A and Form B invalid and the REIT Trustee and the REIT Manager will be obliged to deduct tax at the prevailing corporate tax rate from the distributions in respect of which the declaration is made. Stapled Securityholders may wish to seek tax advice for completing the Form A and/or Form B.
- 12. Stapled Securityholders who hold Stapled Securities under the Supplementary Retirement Scheme do not have to return any form. They will receive gross distribution.

DECLARATION IN INCOME TAX RETURN

This Distribution is considered as income for the year 2017. Beneficial owners of the Distribution, other than those who are exempt from tax on the distribution or who are entitled to the reduced tax rate of 10%, are required to declare the gross amount of the taxable income component of the Distribution as taxable income in their Singapore income tax return for the year of assessment 2018.
