The preparation of the financial statements in compliance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. The estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements are based upon management’s evaluation of relevant facts and circumstances as of the date of the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from such estimates.

The unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Changes in Accounting Policies and Disclosures

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the unaudited interim condensed financial statements are consistent with those of the previous financial year, except for the new PFRS, amended PFRS and improvements to PFRS which were adopted beginning January 1, 2018. The nature and the impact of each new standards and amendments is described below:

For 2018, the Group applies, for the first time PFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, and PFRS 9, Financial Instruments that require restatement of previous financial statements.

- PFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers
PFRS 15 establishes a new five-step model that will apply to revenue arising from contracts with customers. Under PFRS 15, revenue is recognized at an amount that reflects the consideration to which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. The principles in PFRS 15 provide a more structured approach to measuring and recognizing revenue.

The new revenue standard is applicable to certain revenue transactions of some subsidiaries and associates and joint ventures of the Group. This will supersede all current revenue recognition requirements under PFRSs.

Based on the Group's assessment, the requirements of PFRS 15 on the following areas impact the Group's consolidated financial position, comprehensive income and disclosures. Being a conglomerate, the affected subsidiaries and associates & joint ventures of the Group have varying application and implementation for each area below depending on the type of their business:

- a. Identification of rendering services in various stages of the transaction as one performance obligation
- b. Variable considerations such as prompt payment discounts, volume discounts, rebates, and price reduction
- c. Recognition of revenue over time given that the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

In addition, as the presentation and disclosure requirements in PFRS 15 are more detailed than under current PFRSs, the Group is currently assessing what necessary changes it needs to make on its current systems, internal controls, policies and procedures to enable the Group to collect and disclose the required information.

The recognition and measurement requirements in PFRS 15 also apply to gains or losses on disposal of nonfinancial assets (such as items of property and equipment and intangible assets), when that disposal is not in the ordinary course of business. However, the effect of these changes is not expected to be material for the Group.

As of January 1, 2018, the Group adopted the new standard using the modified retrospective method.

- PFRS 9, *Financial Instruments

PFRS 9 reflects all phases of the financial instruments project and replaces PAS 39, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, and all previous versions of PFRS 9. The standard introduces new requirements for classification and measurement, impairment, and hedge accounting. Retrospective application is required but providing comparative information is not compulsory. For hedge accounting, the requirements are generally applied prospectively, with some limited exceptions.

The adoption of PFRS 9 will have an effect on the classification and measurement of the Group's financial assets and impairment methodology for financial assets, but will have no impact on the classification and measurement of the Group's financial liabilities.

The adoption of PFRS 9 will change the Group's accounting for impairment losses for financial assets by replacing PAS 39's incurred loss approach with a forward-looking expected credit loss (ECL) approach.

PFRS 9 requires the Group to record an allowance for ECLs for all loans and other debt financial assets not held at FVPL.

ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive. The shortfall is then discounted at an approximation to the asset's original effective interest rate.

Being a conglomerate, the affected subsidiaries and associates & joint ventures of the Group will have varying ECL models and classification and measurement models. Differences will also be evident in the application and implementation as regards "forward-looking" definition and factors depending on the type of their business and debtors. These models and implementation approaches are currently being validated to finalize full impact and complete compliance with the standard.

The effects of the adoption of this standard on the consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2017 are shown in the succeeding table (in millions).

	Cumulative retrospective adjustments affecting:						Beginning balance, as restated
	Beginning balance, as reported	Investment in Associates & Joint Ventures	Inventories	Other Current Assets	Others
Retained Earnings	₱ 170,302	₱ -	₱ -	₱ -	₱ -	₱ -	₱ 170,302

	₱ 170,302	₱ (1,369)	₱ (2,152)	₱ 2,412	₱ (54)		₱ 169,139

Impact of PFRS 9		₱ 1,765	₱ -	₱ -	₱ 69		₱ 1,834
Impact of PFRS 9 & 15 in Stockholders' Equity							₱ 671

The impact of these two new standards in the Group's consolidated income for the period ended June 30, 2018 follows (in millions):

Revenues	₱ 633
Share in profits in associates & joint ventures	375
Cost of sales	(575)
Income tax	(9)
Net income	₱ 423

The adoption of the standards has no material impact the Group's consolidated statements of cash flows, as well as its basic and diluted earnings per share.

- Amendments to PFRS 2, Share-based Payment, Classification and Measurement of Share-based Payment Transactions

The amendments to PFRS 2 address three main areas: the effects of vesting conditions on the measurement of a cash-settled share-based payment transaction; the classification of a share-based payment transaction with net settlement features for withholding tax obligations; and the accounting where a modification to the terms and conditions of a share-based payment transaction changes its classification from cash settled to equity settled.

On adoption, entities are required to apply the amendments without restating prior periods, but retrospective application is permitted if elected for all three amendments and if other criteria are met. Early application of the amendments is permitted.

The Group is currently assessing the potential effect of the amendments on its consolidated financial statements.

- Amendments to PFRS 4, Insurance Contracts, Applying PFRS 9, Financial Instruments, with PFRS 4

The amendments address concerns arising from implementing PFRS 9, the new financial instruments standard before implementing the new insurance contracts standard. The amendments introduce two options for entities issuing insurance contracts: a temporary exemption from applying PFRS 9 and an overlay approach. The temporary exemption is first applied for reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018. An entity may elect the overlay approach when it first applies PFRS 9 and apply that approach retrospectively to financial assets designated on transition to PFRS 9. The entity restates comparative information reflecting the overlay approach if, and only if, the entity restates comparative information when applying PFRS 9.

The Group is assessing the potential effect of the amendments on its consolidated financial statements.

- Amendments to PAS 28, Measuring an Associate or Joint Venture at Fair Value (Part of Annual Improvements to PFRSs 2014 - 2016 Cycle)

The amendments clarify that an entity that is a venture capital organization, or other qualifying entity, may elect, at initial recognition on an investment-by-investment basis, to measure its investments in associates and joint ventures at fair value through profit or loss. They also clarify that if an entity that is not itself an investment entity has an interest in an associate or joint venture that is an investment entity, the entity may, when applying the equity method, elect to retain the fair value measurement applied by that investment entity associate or joint venture to the investment entity associate's or joint venture's interests in subsidiaries. This election is made separately for each investment entity associate or joint venture, at the later of the date on which (a) the investment entity associate or joint venture is initially recognized; (b) the associate or joint venture becomes an investment entity; and (c) the investment entity associate or joint venture first becomes a parent. The amendments should be applied retrospectively, with earlier application permitted.

These amendments are not expected to have any impact on the Group.

- Amendments to PAS 40, *Investment Property, Transfers of Investment Property
The amendments clarify when an entity should transfer property, including property under construction or development into, or out of investment property. The amendments state that a change in use occurs when the property meets, or ceases to meet, the definition of investment property and there is evidence of the change in use. A mere change in management's intentions for the use of a property does not provide evidence of a change in use. The amendments should be applied prospectively to changes in use that occur on or after the beginning of the annual reporting period in which the entity first applies the amendments. Retrospective application is only permitted if this is possible without the use of hindsight.

These amendments are not expected to have any impact on the Group.

- Philippine Interpretation IFRIC-22, *Foreign Currency Transactions and Advance Consideration
The interpretation clarifies that, in determining the spot exchange rate to use on initial recognition of the related asset, expense or income (or part of it) on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to advance consideration, the date of the transaction is the date on which an entity initially recognizes the nonmonetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, then the entity must determine a date of the transactions for each payment or receipt of advance consideration. Entities may apply the amendments on a fully retrospective basis. Alternatively, an entity may apply the interpretation prospectively to all assets, expenses and income in its scope that are initially recognized on or after the beginning of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the interpretation or the beginning of a prior reporting period presented as comparative information in the financial statements of the reporting period in which the entity first applies the interpretation.

Since the Group's current practice is in line with the clarifications issued, the Group does not expect any effect on its consolidated financial statements upon adoption of this interpretation.

Standards and Interpretations Issued but not yet Effective

The Group will adopt the following new and amended Standards and Philippine Interpretations of International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (IFRIC) enumerated below when these become effective. Except as otherwise indicated, the Group does not expect the adoption of these new and amended PFRS and Philippine Interpretations to have significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Effective beginning on or after January 1, 2019

- Amendments to PFRS 9, *Prepayment Features with Negative Compensation
The amendments to PFRS 9 allow debt instruments with negative compensation prepayment features to be measured at amortized cost or fair value through other comprehensive income. An entity shall apply these amendments for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. Earlier application is permitted.
- PFRS 16, *Leases
PFRS 16 sets out the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases and requires lessees to account for all leases under a single on-balance sheet model similar to the accounting for finance leases under PAS 17, Leases. The standard includes two recognition exemptions for lessees – leases of 'low-value' assets (e.g., personal computers) and short-term leases (i.e., leases with a lease term of 12 months or less). At the commencement date of a lease, a lessee will recognize a liability to make lease payments (i.e., the lease liability) and an asset representing the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term (i.e., the right-of-use asset). Lessees will be required to separately recognize the interest expense on the lease liability and the depreciation expense on the right-of-use asset.

Lessees will be also required to remeasure the lease liability upon the occurrence of certain events (e.g., a change in the lease term, a change in future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate used to determine those payments). The lessee will generally recognize the amount of the remeasurement of the lease liability as an adjustment to the right-of-use asset.

Lessor accounting under PFRS 16 is substantially unchanged from today's accounting under PAS 17. Lessors will continue to classify all leases using the same classification principle as in PAS 17 and distinguish between two types of leases: operating and finance leases.

PFRS 16 also requires lessees and lessors to make more extensive disclosures than under PAS 17.

Early application is permitted, but not before an entity applies PFRS 15. A lessee can choose to apply the standard using either a full retrospective or a modified retrospective approach. The standard's transition provisions permit certain reliefs.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of adopting PFRS 16.

- Amendments to PAS 28, *Long-term Interests in Associates and Joint Ventures
The amendments to PAS 28 clarify that entities should account for long-term interests in an associate or joint venture to which the equity method is not applied using PFRS 9. An entity shall apply these amendments for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. Earlier application is permitted.
- Philippine Interpretation IFRIC-23, *Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments
The interpretation addresses the accounting for income taxes when tax treatments involve uncertainty that affects the application of PAS 12 and does not apply to taxes or levies outside the scope of PAS 12, nor does it specifically include requirements relating to interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax treatments.

The interpretation specifically addresses the following:

- a. Whether an entity considers uncertain tax treatments separately
- b. The assumptions an entity makes about the examination of tax treatments by taxation authorities
- c. How an entity determines taxable profit (tax loss), tax bases, unused tax losses, unused tax credits and tax rates
- d. How an entity considers changes in facts and circumstances

An entity must determine whether to consider each uncertain tax treatment separately or together with one or more other uncertain tax treatments. The approach that better predicts the resolution of the uncertainty should be followed.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of adopting this interpretation.

Standards with Deferred effectivity

- Amendments to PFRS 10 and PAS 28, *Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture
The amendments address the conflict between PFRS 10 and PAS 28 in dealing with the loss of control of a subsidiary that is sold or contributed to an associate or joint venture. The amendments clarify that a full gain or loss is recognized when a transfer to an associate or joint venture involves a business as defined in PFRS 3, Business Combinations. Any gain or loss resulting from the sale or contribution of assets that does not constitute a business, however, is recognized only to the extent of unrelated investors' interests in the associate or joint venture.

On January 13, 2016, the Financial Reporting Standards Council deferred the original effective date of January 1, 2016 of the said amendments until the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) completes its broader review of the research project on equity accounting that may result in the simplification of accounting for such transactions and of other aspects of accounting for associates and joint ventures.

13. Service Concession Assets

The Company has a concession agreement with the DPWH while the MWC Group has concession agreements with MWSS, Provincial Government of Laguna, TIEZA and Clark Development Corporation. These concession agreements set forth the rights and obligations of the Parent Company and MWC Group throughout the concession period.

MWC Group

In March 2012, MWC submitted to MWSS a business plan embodying its rate rebasing proposals for charging year 2013. The rate rebasing activity is done every five (5) years. The MWSS conducted a review of the proposal including MWC's last five (5) years' financial performance. The financial review process extended up to the third quarter of 2013. On September 10, 2013, the MWSS-RO issued Resolution No. 13-09-CA providing for a negative rate rebasing adjustment of 29.47% on MWC's 2012 average basic water rate of ₱24.57 per cubic meter which shall be implemented in five (5) equal tranches of negative 5.894% per charging year. MWC objected to the MWSS' Rate Rebasing determination and formally filed its Dispute Notice on September 24, 2013, before a duly-constituted Appeals Panel, commencing the arbitration process, as provided under Section 12 (in relation to Section 9.4 of the Concession Agreement).

On December 10, 2013, the MWSS BOT, through MWSS-RO Resolution No. 13-012 CA, approved the implementation of a status quo for MWC's Standard Rates including FCDA until such time that the Appeals Panel has rendered a final award on the 2013 Rate Rebasing determination.

On April 21, 2015, MWC received the final award of the Appeals Panel in the arbitration which final award included the following tariff component determination:

- ₱28.1 billion Opening Cash Position (OCP) which restored ₱11.0 billion from the September 2013 OCP determination of MWSS of ₱17.1 billion;
- ₱199.6 billion capital expenditures and concession fees which restores ₱29.5 billion from the September 2013 future capital and concession fee expenditure of ₱170.1 billion;
- 7.61% Appropriate Discount Rate (ADR) which was an improvement of 79 bps from the post-tax ADR of 6.82% in September 2013; and
- Exclusion of corporate income tax from cash flows beginning January 1, 2013.

Consequently, the final award resulted in a rate rebasing adjustment for the period 2013 to 2017 of negative 11.05% on the 2012 basic average water charge of ₱25.07 per cubic meter. This adjustment translates to a decrease of ₱2.77 per cubic meter from the tariff during the intervening years before the 2018 rate rebasing. Annual CPI adjustments will continue to be made consistent with the Parent Company's Concession Agreement with MWSS.

Arbitration under the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Rules (1976)

On April 23, 2015, MWC served to the Republic of the Philippines (the "Republic"), through the Department of Finance, its Notice of Claim demanding that the Republic indemnify MWC in accordance with the indemnity clauses in the Republic's Letter Undertaking dated July 31, 1997 and Letter Undertaking dated October 19, 2009.

At present, the arbitration case remains pending.

Other noncurrent liabilities	₱ 51,859,389	₱ 43,233,816

Other current liabilities include the following:

- Customers' deposits consist of collections from real estate customers which have not reached the 10% threshold to qualify for revenue recognition and excess of collections over the recognized receivables based on percentage of completion. These also include security deposits equivalent to one (1) to three (3) months' rent of tenants with cancellable lease contracts and whose lease term will end in the succeeding year. This will be refunded to the lessees at the end of the lease term or be applied to the last months' rentals on the related contracts.
- Financial liabilities on put option relate to the acquisition of VIA and STI and pertain to the right of the non-controlling shareholders of VIA and STI to sell their shares in the acquiree to IMI Group.
- Nontrade payables pertain mainly to non-interest bearing real estate-related payables to contractors and various non-trade suppliers which are due within one year.

Other noncurrent liabilities include the following:

- Deposits and deferred credits
Deposits include security deposits from tenants of retail and office spaces and deferred credits arising from sale of real estate properties. Security deposits are equivalent to one (1) to three (3) months' rent of long-term tenants with noncancellable leases. This will be refunded to the lessees at the end of the lease term or be applied to the last months' rentals on the related contracts. Deferred credits pertain to advances from buyers of real estate properties to cover various processing fees including, but not limited to, fees related to transfer of title such as registration fees, documentary taxes and transfer taxes. Payments made by ALI Group for the processing of title are charged to this account.
- Retentions payable pertains to amount withheld by the Group from the contractors' progress billings which will be later released after the guarantee period, usually one year after the completion of the project. The retention serves as a security from the contractor should there be defects in the project.
- Liability for purchased land pertains to the portion of unpaid unsubdivided land acquired during the year. These are normally payable in quarterly or annual installment payments within three (3) or five (5) years.
- DRP obligation pertains to the liability arising from the assignment agreement between North Triangle Depot Commercial Corporation (NTDCC), a subsidiary of ALI, and MRTDC of the latter's development rights. - Subscription payable mainly pertains to POPI's investment in Cyber Bay.

- Other nontrade payables include IMI Group's contingent consideration arising from the acquisition of STI. This also includes warranty and other payables.

Decrease in other current liabilities is due to ALI's lower customer deposits and AC Ventures' settlement of subscription payable for new investments (Zalora). On the other hand, increase in other noncurrent liabilities is primarily due to ALI's higher real estate customer deposits driven by higher sales and MWC's reclassification from current to noncurrent accounts of retentions payable (P760M) and accrued expenses (P501M).

AYCFL

US$400.0 Million Senior Unsecured and Guaranteed Fixed For Life Perpetual Notes ("Notes")

On September 7, 2017, the Company announced that it had successfully set the terms of a US dollar-denominated fixed-for-life (non-deferrable) senior perpetual issuance at an aggregate principal amount of US$400 million with an annual coupon of 5.125% for life with no step-up. The issuance is the first corporate fixed-for-life with no coupon step-up in Southeast Asia and the first fixed-for-life with no step-up (and reset) deal in the Philippines. The issuer, AYCFL, may redeem the Notes in whole but not in part on September 13, 2022 (first redemption date) or any interest payment date falling after the first redemption date at 100% of the principal amount of the Notes plus any accrued but unpaid interest. The proceeds of the issuance will be used to refinance the issuer's US Dollar maturing obligations and to fund investments of the Guarantor (the Company) or its offshore subsidiaries.

The pricing of the Notes reflected a 50-basis point compression from initial price guidance. The offering was more than five times oversubscribed, with investors' confidence reflecting the high quality of the Ayala signature. 19% of the order book for the Notes was allocated to investors from the Philippines, 10% from Europe with the remaining 71% from rest of Asia. By investor type, the split was 67% to fund/asset managers, 12% to banks, 7% to insurance and pension funds, and the remaining 14% to private banks and other investors. The Notes was settled on September 13, 2017 and was listed in the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited on September 14, 2017.

The Group will account for this as liability, and, thus shown forming part of long-term debt as of June 30, 2018.

US$300.0 Million Exchangeable Bonds ("Bonds")

On May 2, 2014, AYCFL issued at face US$300.0 million Exchangeable Bonds (Bonds) due on May 2, 2019 with a fixed coupon rate of 0.50% per annum, payable semi-annually. The Bonds are guaranteed by the Company and constitute direct, unsubordinated, unconditional and unsecured obligations of AYCFL, ranking pari passu and without any preference or priority among themselves. The Bonds were listed in the Singapore Stock Exchange and include features such as exchange option, put option and early redemption options.

The exchange option entitles the bondholders to exchange the Bonds for ALI's common shares at any time on or after June 11, 2014 up to the close of business on the 10th day prior to maturity date, or if such bonds shall have been called for redemption by AYCFL before the maturity date, then up to the close of business on a date no later than 10 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. The exchange price per principal amount to be exchanged, translated into ₱ at the fixed exchange rate of ₱44.31/US$1.00, is equal to ₱36.48, subject to anti-dilutive adjustments contingent on certain events. The exchange option was assessed to be an equity component of the Bonds at the consolidated financial statements as the Bonds are denominated in the functional currency of AYCFL and to be settled by the Group through issuance of a fixed number of ALI's common shares.

The put option entitles the bondholders to require AYCFL to redeem, in whole or in part, the Bonds on May 2, 2017 (put option date) at 100% of the principal amount together with accrued and unpaid interest. Moreover, if a change of control event occurs (the change of control put) or in the event that the common shares of ALI are delisted or suspended from trading for a period of more than 20 consecutive trading days (the delisting put), the bondholders may require AYCFL to redeem the Bonds, in whole but not in part, at 100% of the principal amount together with accrued and unpaid interest.

The early redemption option gives the right to AYCFL to redeem the Bonds, in whole but not in part, at any time after May 2, 2017 at 100% of the principal amount on the date fixed for such redemption, provided, however, that no such redemption may be made unless the closing price of the common shares of ALI (translated into US$ at the prevailing average ₱ to US$ exchange rate as published by BSP) for any 30 consecutive trading days was at least 130% of the exchange price then in effect (translated into US$ at the fixed exchange rate of ₱44.31/US$1.00). In addition, if at any time the aggregate principal amount of the Bonds outstanding is less than 10% of the aggregate principal amount originally issued or if a tax event occurs, AYCFL may redeem the Bonds, in whole but not in part, at 100% of principal amount together with accrued and unpaid interest.

The put and early redemption options were assessed to be embedded derivatives that are clearly and closely related to the host contract, therefore, not required to be bifurcated. As the Bonds were determined to be a compound instrument at the consolidated level, (i.e., it has liability component and an equity component which pertains to the exchange option), the Group applied split accounting. The value allocated to the equity component at issue date amounted ₱1.114 billion, being the residual amount after deducting the fair value of the liability component amounting to ₱11.98 billion from the issue proceeds of the Bonds.

For the period June 30, 2018, an equivalent amount of USD6.8 million principal was exchanged and converted into a total of 8,589,167 shares resulting in gain of ₱301.0 million which was booked under Equity Reserve.

As of June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017, the unamortized discount of the Bonds amounted to ₱277.1 million (unaudited) and ₱417.6 million (audited), respectively. Interest expense recognized in the statement of income amounted to ₱195.9 million (unaudited) and ₱187.0 million (unaudited) for the period ended June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instrument for which it is practicable to estimate such value:

Financial assets at FVPL – Fair values of investment securities are based on quoted prices as of the reporting date. For other investment securities such as FVPL with no reliable measure of fair value, these are carried at its last transaction price.

The fair value of the investment in UITF is based on net asset values as of reporting dates.

The fair value of the investment in ARCH Capital Fund is determined using the discounted cash flow (DCF) method. Under the DCF method in fund fair valuation, it is estimated using assumptions regarding the benefits and liabilities of ownership over the underlying asset's life including an exit or terminal value. This method involves the projection of a series of cash flows on a real property interest. To this projected cash flow series, a market-derived discount rate is applied to establish the present value of the income stream, associated with the underlying asset. The exit yield is normally separately determined and differs from the discount rate. Significant inputs considered were rental, growth and discount rates. The higher the rental and growth rates, the higher the fair value. The higher the discount rates, the lower the fair value.

Derivative instrument - The fair value of the freestanding currency forwards is based on counterparty valuation. Derivative asset - The fair value is estimated using a modified stock price binomial tree model for convertible callable bonds.

AFS quoted debt and equity investments - Fair values are based on the quoted prices published in markets.

AFS unquoted equity investments - For unquoted equity shares where the fair value is not reasonably determinable due to the unpredictable nature of future cash flows and the lack of suitable method of arriving at a reliable fair value, these are carried at cost less impairment, if any.

Financial liabilities on put options - These pertain to the liabilities of IMI arising from the written put options over the non-controlling interest of VIA and STI. The fair value of the financial liabilities is estimated using the discounted, probability-weighted cash flow method. The future cash flows were projected using the equity forward pricing formula with reference to the current equity value of the acquiree and the forecasted interest rate which is the risk-free rate in Germany and UK. The risk-free rate used is 0.26% for VIA and 0.91% for STI. Management applied weights on the estimated future cash flows, based on management's judgment on the chance that the trigger events for the put option will occur.

The current equity value of VIA is determined using the discounted cash flow approach. The future cash flows are projected using the projected revenue growth rate of VIA. The discount rate represents the current market assessment of the risk specific to the acquiree, taking into consideration the time value of money and individual risks of the underlying assets that have not been incorporated in the cash flow estimates. The discount rate calculation is based on the specific circumstances of the acquiree and is derived from its weighted average cost of capital.

For STI, management used the market approach by approximating the EBITDA multiple taken from comparable companies of STI that are engaged in providing electronics services solutions to derive its current equity value. Management computed EBITDA as the difference of forecasted gross profit and selling and administrative expenses before depreciation and amortization.

Other financial liabilities - non-current - The fair values are estimated using the discounted cash flow methodology using the Group's current incremental borrowing rates for similar borrowings with maturities consistent with those remaining for the liability being valued. This also include the contingent consideration related to the acquisition of STI determined based on probability-weighted payout discounted at 8% at the date of acquisition to determine its fair value. The discount rate is based on the specific circumstances of the acquiree and is derived from its weighted average cost of capital.

For variable rate loans that reprice every three months, the carrying value approximates the fair value because of recent and regular repricing based on current market rates.

The following table shows the fair value hierarchy of the Group's assets and liabilities as at June 30, 2018 and December 31, 2017 (amounts in thousands):

There was no change in the valuation techniques used by the Group in determining the fair market value of the assets and liabilities.

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements, and no transfers into and out of Level 3 fair value measurements.

The following table presents the valuation techniques and unobservable key inputs used to value the Group's financial assets and liabilities categorized as Level 3:

	Valuation Technique	Unobservable inputs	Range of unobservable inputs	Sensitivity of the input to the fair value
Financial liabilities on put options	Discounted, probability-weighted cash flow method	Growth rate	0%-2% (1%)	1% increase in growth rate would result in an increase in fair value by $0.75 million. Decrease in growth rate by 1% would result in a fair value decrease of $0.62 million.
		Discount rate	10%-12% (11%)	1% increase in discount rate would result in a decrease in fair value by $0.85 million. Decrease in discount rate by 1% would result in a fair value increase of $1.03 million.
		Probability of trigger events occurring	1% – 10% (5%)	Increase in the probability to 10% would result in an increase in fair value by $2.79 million. Decrease in the probability to 1% would result in a decrease in fair value by $5.33 million.
Other noncurrent liabilities (contingent consideration)	Discounted, probability-weighted payout	Discount rate	7%-9% (8%)	1% increase in discount rate would result in a decrease in fair value by $0.45 million. Decrease in discount rate by 1% would result in a fair value increase of $0.47 million.
		Probability of pay-out	£0 to £23.3 million ($0 to $30.20 million)	GBP0 to GBP23.3 million ($0 to $30.20 million)

ALI Group categorizes trade receivable, receivable from employees, long-term debt and deposits and other noncurrent liabilities under Level 3. The fair value of these financial instruments is determined by discounting future cash flows using the applicable rates of similar types of instruments plus a certain spread. This spread is the unobservable input and the effect of changes to this is that the higher the spread, the lower the fair value.

Financial Risk Management

General

Like any other risks, financial risks are inherent in its business activities and are typical of any large holding company. The financial risk management of the Parent Company seeks to effectively contribute to better decision making, enhance performance, and satisfy compliance demands.

The Parent Company defines financial risks as risk that relates to the Parent Company's ability to meet financial obligations and mitigate funding risk, credit risk and exposure to broad market risks, including volatility in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. Funding risk refers to the potential inability to meet contractual or contingent financial obligations as they arise and could potentially impact the Parent Company's financial condition or overall financial position. Credit risk is the risk of financial loss arising from a counterparty's failure to meet its contractual obligations or non-payment of an investment. These exposures may result in unexpected losses and volatilities in the Parent Company's profit and loss accounts.

The Parent Company maintains a strong focus on its funding strategy to help provide access to sufficient funding to meet its business needs and financial obligations throughout business cycles. The Parent Company's plans are established within the context of our annual strategic and financial planning processes. The Parent Company also take into account capital allocations and growth objectives, including dividend pay-out. As a holding company, the Parent Company generates cash primarily on dividend payments of its subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures and other sources of funding.

The Parent Company also establishes credit policies setting up limits for counterparties that are reviewed quarterly and monitoring of any changes in credit standing of counterparties.

In 2014, the Parent Company formalized the foreign exchange and interest rate risk management policy. The Parent Company actively monitors foreign exchange exposure and interest rate changes. And in addition, the Parent Company ensures that all loan covenants and regulatory requirements are complied with.

The Ayala Group continues to monitor and manage its financial risk exposures in accordance with Board approved policies. The succeeding discussion focuses on Ayala Group's financial risk management.

Financial Risk Management Objectives and Policies

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise financial assets at FVPL, AFS financial assets, bank loans, corporate notes and bonds. The financial debt instruments were issued primarily to raise financing for the Group's operations. The Group has various financial assets such as cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts and notes receivables and accounts payable and accrued expenses which arise directly from its operations.

The Group's main risks arising from the use of financial instruments are interest rate risk, foreign exchange risk, price risk, liquidity risk, and credit risk.

The Group also uses hedging instruments, the purpose of which is to manage the currency and interest rate risks arising from its financial instruments.

The Group's risk management policies relevant to financial risks are summarized below:

Interest Rate Risk

The Group's exposure to market risk for changes in Interest rates relates primarily to the Parent Company's and its subsidiaries' obligations. The policy is to keep a certain level of the total obligations as fixed to minimize earnings volatility due to fluctuation in interest rates.

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Group's foreign exchange risk results primarily from movements of the Philippine Peso (PHP) against other currencies. The Group's consolidated statements of income can be affected significantly by movements in the USD and other currencies versus the PHP. The Group may enter into currency forward contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations.

The second and third columns of the table below summarize the Group's exposure to foreign exchange risk as of June 30, 2018. The fourth and fifth columns of the table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the peso exchange rate, with all variables held constant, of the Group's profit before tax (due to changes in the fair value of monetary assets and liabilities) and the Group's equity (in thousands, unaudited).

There is no other impact on the Group's equity other than those already affecting the net income.

Equity price risk

AFS financial assets are acquired at certain prices in the market. Such investment securities are subject to price risk due to changes in market values of instruments arising either from factors specific to individual instruments or their issuers, or factors affecting all instruments traded in the market. Depending on several factors such as interest rate movements, the country's economic performance, political stability, and domestic inflation rates, these prices change, reflecting how market participants view the developments. The Group's investment policy requires it to manage such risks by setting and monitoring objectives and constraints on investments; diversification plan; and limits on investment in each sector and market.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is defined by the Group as the risk of losses arising from funding difficulties due to deterioration in market conditions and/or the financial position of the Group that make it difficult to raise the necessary funds or that forces the Group to raise funds at significantly higher interest rates than usual.

This is also the possibility of experiencing losses due to the inability to sell or convert marketable securities into cash immediately or in instances where conversion to cash is possible but at loss due to wider than normal bid-offer spreads.

The Group seeks to manage its liquidity profile to be able to service its maturing debts and to finance capital requirements. The Group maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed sufficient to finance operations. As part of its liquidity risk management, the Group regularly evaluates its projected and actual cash flows. It also continuously assesses conditions in the financial markets for opportunities to pursue fund-raising activities. Fund-raising activities may include bank loans and capital market issues, both on-shore and off-shore.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that the Group's counterparties to its financial assets will fail to discharge their contractual obligations. The Group's holding of cash and short-term investments and receivables from customers and other third parties exposes the Group to credit risk of the counterparty. Credit risk management involves dealing with institutions for which credit limits have been established. The Group's Treasury Policy sets credit limits for each counterparty. The Group trades only with recognized, creditworthy third parties. The Group has a well-defined credit policy and established credit procedures.

Overall sales increased 22 percent to ₱134.5 billion. In 2018, the group adopted the Philippine Financial Reporting Standard 15, which required the reclassification of certain revenues from sale of goods to rendering services. Factoring out the impact of PFRS 15, sales of goods increased 22 percent owing to the strong sales of Ayala Land across all segments, with condominium sales doubling during the period. The increase was likewise driven by the improved output of IMI's Europe, China, and Philippine units and contribution from VIA and STI as well as AC Industrials' higher sales of the Volkswagen and KTM brands (see Section 2.8).

Meanwhile, service revenues went up 20 percent due to increments from Ayala Land and Manila Water. AC Energy's consolidation of Northwind and its Retail Electricity Supply unit, also accounted for the increase in sales of services.

Real Estate

Ayala Land sustained its earnings momentum, with net income growing 18 percent year-on-year to ₱13.5 billion primarily driven by its residential segment, supported by the commercial leasing business.

Revenues surged 25 percent to ₱80.4 billion on the back of solid property development and commercial leasing revenue growth. Property development revenues surged 27 percent to ₱55.7 billion on new bookings and project completions. Meanwhile, reservation sales grew 17 percent to ₱72.0 billion. On the other hand, commercial leasing revenues climbed 15 percent to ₱16.9 billion on higher contributions of newly opened malls, offices, and hotels.

Ayala Land also recognized revenues of MCT Bhd, Ayala Land's equity investment in Malaysia, amounting to ₱4.0 billion as it focused on the completion of its projects in Cybersouth, an integrated development in Southern Klang Valley, and its residential project, Lakefront, in Cyberjaya.

Ayala Land's diversification strategy continued to gain traction, shaping a more balanced portfolio. In terms of location, new estates or growth centers accounted for 55 percent of Ayala Land's net income while the established estates (Makati, BGC, Nuvali, and Cebu) accounted for 45 percent.

In terms of business line, Ayala Land's development income (property sales and construction) accounted for 68 percent while recurring income (commercial leasing, hotels and resorts, and property management) contributed 32 percent to its net income in the first half.

Ayala Land spent ₱48.4 billion in capital expenditures in the first half of the year, comprising 44 percent of its full-year budget. Bulk of the amount was allocated to residential projects.

Water

Manila Water recorded a net income of ₱3.6 billion in the first half, 10 percent higher from the previous year, driven by the Manila Concession and supported by lower depreciation expense.

Revenues rose eight percent to ₱9.6 billion on higher billed volume in the Manila Concession, which grew three percent to 250 million cubic meters on increase in billed connections. Manila Concession's non-revenue water slightly improved to 12.1 percent in the first semester from 12.8 percent a year ago. Collection efficiency was at par with the previous year at 99 percent.

Revenues from Manila Water Philippine Ventures, which includes Clark Water, Laguna Water, Boracay Water, Cebu Water, and Estate Water climbed 14 percent to ₱1.7 billion on service coverage expansion. Its net earnings, however, was tempered by higher business development costs, declining 22 percent to ₱242 million during the period.

In June, Manila Water Philippine Ventures received a Notice to Proceed from the local government of Sta. Barbara, Pangasinan for the development and operations and maintenance of the municipality's water supply facilities. The franchise shall be for a term of 25 years with an assumed billed volume of 16.6 million liters per day by the end of the franchise period.

Similarly, in July, Laguna Water received a Notice of Award from the Pagsanjan Water District for the design, improvement, expansion, and operations and maintenance of the water supply and sanitation facilities in the district. The concession would run for 18 years, with an estimated billed volume of 9.6 million liters per day.

Meanwhile, Manila Water's new acquisitions overseas have started to bear fruit. Manila Water Asia Pacific, which houses Manila Water's international businesses, registered a net income of ₱187 million, jumping 58 percent from a year ago. Equity share in net income of its overseas investments surged 86 percent to ₱339 million driven by Vietnam platforms as well as fresh contribution from East Water in Thailand. East Water, where Manila Water acquired an 18.7 percent stake last February, contributed ₱108 million in equity earnings during the period.

Power Generation

AC Energy's net earnings expanded more than twofold to ₱2.1 billion in the first semester year bolstered by the solid performance across its wind, geothermal, and thermal platforms. This was underpinned by services income derived from the financial close of a new power plant. Excluding the services income, AC Energy's net profits jumped 59 percent in the first half.

Equity earnings from AC Energy's investee companies surged 82 percent, reaching ₱2 billion in the first half. Fresh contribution from its first greenfield offshore project which started operations in the first quarter, the 75-megawatt Sidrap Wind Farm located in South Sulawesi, Indonesia, further boosted AC Energy's equity earnings during the period.

In May, AC Energy announced its participation in the Australian renewables market through a joint venture with international renewable energy developer, UPC Renewables. AC Energy is investing US$30 million for a 50 percent ownership in UPC's Australian business. It is also providing a US$200 million facility to fund project equity. UPC Renewables Australia is developing the 1,000 MW Robbins Island and Jims Plain projects in North West Tasmania and the 600 MW New England Solar Farm located near Uralla in New South Wales. UPC Renewables Australia also has a further development portfolio of another 3,000 MW located in NSW, Tasmania and Victoria.

Industrial Technologies

AC Industrials' net income climbed 2 percent higher year-on-year to ₱752 million, supported by a one-time gain by its electronic manufacturing services arm, but dragged by lower net income of its automotive retail segment.

In electronics manufacturing services, IMI's revenues surged 33 percent to US$668.8 million on strong performance of its automotive and industrial segments and contributions of acquired entities. IMI's net income, however, was adversely impacted by higher interest expense, effective tax rate, and forex losses due to the weakness of the euro and renminbi. Net income reached US$31.6 million, including a one-time gain relating to a sale of property in China as well as a one-off employee relocation expense, also related to the property sale.

In automotive retail, net income fell to ₱119 million due to weaker sales of Honda and Isuzu partly driven by tempered consumer demand from higher automobile excise taxes. Further contributing to the decline is the timing of recognition of Isuzu Philippines Corporation's dividends which were recorded in the first half of 2017 but will only be recorded in the third quarter of this year. Meanwhile, revenues from Volkswagen and KTM improved from the previous year.

Share of Profit of Associates and Joint Ventures

Share of profits of associates and joint ventures rose seven percent to ₱10 billion on the back of higher revenues from Globe, which includes the impact of the implementation of the PFRS. This was further boosted by AC Energy's higher equity earnings from SD Geothermal, Sidrap, and SLTEC. This was partially offset by lower equity earnings from BPI and AC Ventures.

Banking

Bank of the Philippine Islands reported a net income of ₱11.03 billion for the first half of 2018, 5.7 percent lower year-on-year, as lower non-interest income and higher operating expenses offset growth in the bank's core business.

Revenues increased 5.3 percent to ₱37.22 billion. Net interest income rose 11.5 percent to ₱26.21 billion on the back of a 9.3 percent increase in average asset base and net interest margin expansion of 8 basis points.

Total loans climbed 15.7 percent to ₱1.22 trillion. Cost of funds, however, increased by 17 basis points partly due to higher documentary stamp tax on deposits.

On a quarter-on-quarter basis, net interest margin expanded by 15 basis points to 3.06 percent in the second quarter as a result of favorable loan repricing and liquidity provided by proceeds from the bank's recent stock rights offer which allowed for the paydown of more expensive time deposits.

Total deposits reached ₱1.53 trillion, 7.2 percent higher than a year ago, with current account and savings account growing at a faster rate of 10.0 percent. BPI's current and savings account ratio stood at 75.3 percent while loan-to-deposit ratio was at 79.7 percent.

Non-interest income declined 6.9 percent to ₱11.01 billion, largely due to lower income from securities trading, trust and investment management and assets sales.

Provision for loan losses amounted to ₱1.91 billion, 22.2 percent lower than the previous year.

Operating expenses reached ₱21.22 billion, 16.3 percent higher than the year prior on accelerated spending to support the bank's digitalization strategy and the branch network expansion of BPI Direct Banko.

Total assets stood at ₱1.90 trillion, 10.8 percent higher while total capital reached ₱239.70 billion, up by 38.2 percent on account of the recent stock rights offer. Capital Adequacy Ratio (CAR) was at 17.29 percent and Common Equity Tier 1 Ratio (CET1) was at 16.40 percent.

Telecom

Globe Telecom's service revenues grew nine percent to ₱68.3 billion as Globe continued to expand its 4G and LTE network amid growing demand for content-rich offerings and multi-media applications. As the market continues to shift from traditional services to data-related products, Globe's data-related businesses accounted for 58 percent of its service revenues during the period.

Mobile data boosted Globe's mobile revenues, which expanded 26 percent to ₱25.6 billion. Mobile subscribers likewise grew nine percent to 65.1 million in the first half of the year.

Globe's home broadband business performed well during the period, up 12 percent to ₱8.7 billion, bolstered by subscriber expansion in the fixed wireless segment. Home broadband subscribers improved 22 percent to 1.5 million from a year ago. Similarly, corporate data business rose nine percent to ₱5.5 billion on higher customer base and strong demand for various business solutions.

With topline growth and managed costs, Globe registered a 19 percent expansion in EBITDA of ₱32.5 billion, with EBITDA margin of 48 percent. On a post-Philippine Financial Reporting Standards, it posted a net income of ₱10.1 billion in the first semester, backed by the continued strong performance of data-related products combined with stable costs and expenses.

In the first semester, Globe spent ₱22.9 billion in capital expenditures to support the continued growth of its subscriber base and the growing demand for data-related services. To date, Globe has 39,614 base stations, with over 26,200 for 4G (including HSPA+, WiMAX, and LTE). Globe's Board of Directors approved additional in-year capital expenditure of US$100 million, raising its 2018 full year capex guidance to US$950 million from US$850 million for further network upgrades.

Other Income

Other income surged 70 percent to ₱10.9 billion driven by Manila Water's higher rehabilitation works, AC Energy's other income, and IMI's one-time gain relating to a sale of a property in China.

Costs and Expenses

Consolidated cost of sales expanded 20 percent to ₱96 billion. Factoring out the impact of PFRS 15, cost of goods sold expanded 21 percent, in step with the growth in consolidated sales. Cost of rendering services grew 17 percent, consistent with the higher revenues, which included higher cost of services in AC Energy's retail electricity supply unit (see Section 2.8).

General and administrative expenses expanded 48 percent to ₱13.8 billion mainly on the combined increments in the group's expenses, particularly Ayala Land's taxes, contracted services, and depreciation, Manila Water's management fees and manpower-related expenses, and IMI's restructuring costs resulting from its employee relocation in China and impact of the consolidation of VIA Optronics and STI.

Balance Sheet Highlights

Investments in associates and joint ventures grew 16 percent to ₱235.7 billion attributed to Ayala's subscription to the BPI's stock rights offering as well as new investments of Manila Water in East Water in Thailand and AC Energy in renewable platforms in Australia and Vietnam. Furthermore, the increase was lifted by additional investments of AC Infra in the LRT 1 project and higher share of net earnings in Globe and investee companies of Ayala Land, Manila Water, and AC Eenergy.

Investments in properties grew 13 percent to ₱155.7 billion on the back of Ayala Land's expansion projects in its malls, office properties, land development initiatives, and increase in stake in MCT.

In the first semester of 2018, total debt at the consolidated level stood at ₱405.2 billion, a 16 percent increase from the end-2017 level of ₱350.6 billion. This is attributed to additional borrowings of the parent, as well as Ayala Land, Manila Water, IMI, and AC Energy.

Ayala's balance sheet remained healthy with enough capacity to undertake investments and cover its dividend and debt obligations. As of end June this year, parent level cash stood at ₱15.7 billion while net debt stood at ₱93.5 billion. Ayala's net debt to equity ratio ended at 0.85 at the parent level and 0.76 at the consolidated level. The company's loan-to-value ratio, the ratio of its parent net debt to the total value of its assets, was at 11.6 percent.

The conglomerate's peso-dollar debt split ended at 66:34 in the first half of the year. Ayala's dollar denominated debts are fully covered by foreign currency assets. Hence, despite the weakness of peso against the dollar, Ayala did not incur materially significant debt-related foreign exchange losses.

In July, Ayala completed a share placement of 8,810,000 common shares, raising ₱8.07 billion and fortifying the company's balance sheet. Ayala intends to use the proceeds to acquire assets needed for the business or for payment of debt contracted prior to the issuance of these shares. The sale was executed through a subscription agreement with a single long-term institutional investor.

Income Statement items

For the Period Ended June 30, 2018 (Unaudited) vs. June 30, 2017 (Unaudited)

In 2017, the Group changed the presentation of its consolidated statement of income from the single step to the multiple step presentation. This presentation better reflects and distinguishes other income from revenue and other charges from the operating expenses of the Group. Prior years consolidated statements of income have been re-presented for comparative purposes. The change in presentation has no impact on the consolidated net income, equity, cash flows and earnings per share of the Group.

For 2018, the Group classified certain revenues and its related costs, from goods to rendering of service, in compliance with provisions of PFRS 15 (see Note 2 and a recap of the classification is in the following table):

in millions	Revenues				Cost
	2018	2017	Inc (Dec)		2018	2017	Inc (Dec)
Sale of goods	67,439	81,036	17,934	22%	49,916	64,435	13,629	21%
PFRS 15 Reclass *	31,532	-			28,149	-
PFRS 15 Adjustment 	633	-			575	-
Rendering of service	34,920	29,619	5,934	20%	17,713	15,573	2,716	17%
	134,524	110,655	23,868	22%	96,353	80,008	16,345	20%

*all IMI's revenues are determined to be contract sales, not sale of goods.

pertains to IMI's services already rendered but has not been completed

Sale of goods and rendering services – 22% net increase from a total of ₱110,655 million to ₱134,524 million

Factoring out impact of adoption of PFRS 15, sale of goods increased by 22% due to higher sales of ALI group coming from all segments with condo sales doubling for the period; IMI from its Europe, China, Philippines and Mexico units plus contribution of Via; and AITHI/ACI group's higher sales of VW units and for motorcycles despite setback from Honda & Isuzu sales. Service revenues improved by 20% contributed by ALI, MWCI and ACEHI group, the latter arising from consolidation of new subsidiary and its RES unit. As a percentage to total revenue, this account is at 90% and 89% in June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively

Share of profit of associates and joint ventures – 7% increase from ₱9,381 million to ₱10,049 million

Increase coming from Globe's higher revenues plus impact of PFRS 15 and ACEHI's share in net earnings of Salak-Darajat as its geothermal investment, UPC Sidrap and SLTEC; partly offset by decline in BPI and AC Ventures. As a percentage to total revenue, this account is at 7% and 8% in June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Interest income – 6% increase from ₱3,345 million to ₱3,556 million

Increase mainly coming from interest income from real estate group. This account is at 2% and 3% of the total revenue in June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Dividend income – 13% increase from ₱509 million to ₱577 million

Increase in dividend income arising from higher dividend income from energy unit. This account is at less than 1% of the total revenue in June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Cost of sales and rendering services – 20% net increase from ₱80,008 million to ₱96,353 million

Factoring out impact of adoption of PFRS 15, cost of goods increased by 21% aligned with the higher revenues. Cost of rendering services increased by 17% also consistent with higher revenues and also arising from ACEHI's costs of RES unit, partly offset by MWC's decline in cost (due to change in overhead allocation and depreciation method). As a percentage to total costs and expenses, this account is at 87% and 90% in June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

General and administrative expenses – 48% increase from ₱9,367 million to ₱13,826 million

Increase mainly on combined increments in the group's expenses specifically from: ALI (taxes, contracted services and depreciation), MWCI (management fees, manpower-related and selling expenses), AITHI/ACI (manpower-related costs and expenses of MT) and IMI (restructuring costs of Shenzhen plant and consolidation of VIA and STI). As a percentage to total costs and expenses, this account is at 13% and 10% in June 30, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Other income – 70% increase from ₱6,401 million to ₱10,874 million

Increase due to MWC's higher rehabilitation works; ACEHI's other income which includes realized commission fee income (see Note 3) and liquidated damages; IMI's gross gain on sale of property in Shenzhen ($27.48M); and ALI's increase due to consolidation of MCT; partly offset by BHL's decline related to last year's divestment gains.

Interest and other financing charges – 25% increase from ₱7,214 million to ₱9,018 million

Increase due to higher interest expenses of ALI, AC/AYC, IMI.

Other charges – 37% increase from ₱3,491 million to ₱4,792 million

Increase due to higher rehabilitation works costs of MWC.

Provision for income tax (current and deferred) – 42% increase from ₱5,609 million to ₱7,951 million

Increase primarily due to higher taxable income of several subsidiaries significant portion is attributable to ALI's on account of better sales/revenues and other operating results and ACEHI's deferred income tax.

Income attributable to Owners of the parent – 7% increase from ₱15,059 million to ₱16,068 million

Increase resulting from better performance of most subsidiaries of the Group.

Income attributable to Non-controlling interests – 21% increase from ₱9,543 million to ₱11,573 million

Increase resulting from better operating results of most of the subsidiaries of the Group.

2.9 Any seasonal aspects that had a material effect on the financial condition or results of operations.

Ayala Corporation being a holding company has no seasonal aspects that will have any material effect on its financial condition or operational results.

ALI's leasing portfolio generates a fairly stable stream of revenues throughout the year, with higher sales experienced in the fourth quarter from shopping centers due to holiday spending.

ALI's development operations do not show any seasonality. Projects are launched anytime of the year depending on several factors such as completion of plans and permits and appropriate timing in terms of market conditions and strategy. Development and construction work follow target completion dates committed at the time of project launch.

MWC group does not have any significant seasonality or cyclicity in the interim operation, except for the usually higher demand during the months of April and May and in the months of November to December in the case of Globe group.

BPI, IMI and other subsidiaries of the Group do not have seasonal aspects that will have any material effect to their financials or operations.

3.0 Any material events subsequent to the end of the interim period that have not been reflected in the financial statements for the interim period.

Refer to Note 22 of the Notes to Unaudited Interim Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

3.1 Other material events or transactions during the interim period.
