Hyphens Pharma appoints Industry Veteran to head Dermatology Business Unit

Singapore, 18 February 2019 – Hyphens Pharma International Limited (“凯帆药剂国际有限公司”, “Hyphens Pharma”, or the “Company”, and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”), one of Singapore’s leading specialty pharmaceutical and consumer healthcare groups, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ms Elaine Yeh as Business Director for Hyphens Dermatology with effect from 18 February 2019.

One of the Group’s proprietary brand business units, Hyphens Dermatology, develops, markets, and sells its own range of dermatological products to various medical professionals and pharmacies, marketed under the Group’s Ceradan® and TDF® brands. Reporting to the Company’s Executive Chairman and CEO, Mr Lim See Wah, Elaine will lead the overall business of Hyphens Dermatology and will be responsible for achieving the overall targeted sales and profits for the business unit.

Mr Lim See Wah (“林世华”) commented: “Elaine is a welcome addition to the team and will help us to drive the performance of our skin health business with her deep experience. We have launched a few dermatological products in 2018 and will continue to expand and strengthen our proprietary dermatological portfolio. Elaine will play an important part in the growth of the skin health business for Hyphens Pharma.”

Elaine began her career in consumer healthcare marketing with GSK before progressing on to product management in pharmaceuticals. She then advanced her career with exposure to multiple therapeutic areas from cardiovascular, respiratory, to vaccines, dermatology and more. Over two decades, she has held senior management positions covering local, regional and global presence. Her last role was with ViiV Healthcare, a GSK subsidiary, as the Asia Pacific Commercial Lead.

Elaine graduated with a bachelor's degree in Pharmacy from the University of Singapore and also earned a postgraduate Diploma in Marketing from the Marketing Institute of Singapore. She was conferred a Chartered Marketer status by the Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM UK) in 1999.

End.
