13. Remarks (if any):

Mercator International Private Limited ("MIPL") has sought the approval of the Singapore Exchange to effect the off-market transfers of all of its 900,850,000 shares (comprising 66.17% of the share capital) in Mercator Lines (Singapore) Ltd (the "Company")(the "Shares") to three (3) unrelated third-party buyers (namely, (1) MIB Investments Pte Ltd (300,283,000 Shares), (2) Wroclaw Holdings Pte Ltd (300,283,000 Shares), and (3) Bellerophon Holdings Pte Ltd (300,284,000 Shares)) who have been made aware of the reasons for the suspension of trading in the Company's shares. As the Company has a negative net asset value, the consideration for the sale of the Shares was at a nominal price of S$1.00 for each buyer. On 30 March 2016, the Singapore Exchange had informed MIPL that based on MIPL's submissions and representations, the Singapore Exchange has no objection to MIPL's application for the off-market transfers with regard to Listing Rule 729, subject to disclosure of the bases of MIPL's application in its announcement of the changes in the interest of substantial shareholders.

It has been critical for MIPL to divest of its shares in the Company. Mercator Limited, MIPL's parent company and the ultimate shareholder of the Company, is listed on the National Stock Exchange of India and the Bombay Stock Exchange. Mercator Limited can no longer support the Company and to consolidate the Company's financial results to the Mercator Limited's results, without adversely affecting its own financial position.

The Company was part of the dry bulk-shipping arm of Mercator Limited. Due to the adverse industry conditions, asset prices and charter rates are at the lowest prices historically, thus resulting in the Company's financial difficulties. Despite trying for several months, the Company's efforts towards a successful restructuring agreement with banks failed and the Company was put under judicial management on 18 January 2016. With the judicial manager in place, MIPL and Mercator Limited no longer have control over the affairs of the Company as the directors who have been nominated by both MIPL and Mercator Limited have relinquished their duties to the judicial manager.

At the creditors' meeting convened on 16 March 2016, the following resolution was passed: "Should the Judicial Manager not receive any formal agreements to provide funding in order to explore restructuring options, the Judicial Manager will apply to place the Company in liquidation as soon as practicable and for the Judicial Manager to be appointed as the Liquidator of the Company." MIPL believes that so far as no creditor had stepped forward to provide the funding.

As the ultimate controlling shareholder of the Company, Mercator Limited has provided much financial support to the Company during the last few years, which have been extremely difficult for the dry bulk shipping industry.

The Company's debts in aggregate constitute about 25% of Mercator Limited's total debt as at 31 December 2015. Further, as the Company's losses have significantly affected Mercator Limited's financial position adversely. Mercator Lines (Singapore) Limited contributed to more than 100% of all of Mercator Limited's consolidated losses in the last 3 years.

The Mercator Limited group of companies is presently undertaking a restructuring of the group business with a view to reduce the Mercator Limited group of companies' exposure to or to exit the dry bulk shipping industry, pursuant to which it is intended that MIPL divested all its shares in the Company by 31 March 2016. The proposed restructuring allows the Mercator Limited group of companies to streamline its operations and consolidate its business to create a viable and profitable business model.

MIPL and each of the transferees, namely, (1) MIB Investments Pte Ltd, (2) Wroclaw Holdings Pte Ltd and (3) Bellerophon Holdings Pte Ltd intend that the change in the interest in the Shares take effect on 31 March 2016. The actual transfers from MIPL to the transferees are pending submission to and clearance by the CDP. Until the actual transfers are complete, MIPL holds (1) 300,283,000 Shares for MIB Investments Pte Ltd (2) 300,283,000 Shares for Wroclaw Holdings Pte Ltd, and (3) 300,284,000 Shares for Bellerophon Holdings Pte Ltd as bare trustee / nominee.
