Notice concerning extraordinary loss

Suzuki Motor Corporation (“the Company”) hereby announces that the Company has recorded following extraordinary loss in the fiscal year ending 31 March, 2019.

1. Details of extraordinary loss

Further to the announcement “Publication of investigation results on improper conducts regarding the final vehicle inspection in the plants” issued today, in view of cases where factory inspection was conducted solely by assistant inspectors under training process, and likelihood of inappropriate confirmation of conformity to the Japanese vehicle safety standards at the factory inspection, the Company plans to conduct recall campaign of corresponding vehicles that have not undergone initial state inspection. Details such as range of subject vehicles are now under verification. Once they are identified, the Company shall immediately report to the authority and conduct recall campaign.

In the fourth quarter accounting period (January-March 2019), the Company has decided to record an extraordinary loss of 80 billion yen.

2. Future outlook

Forecast of consolidated accounts for the full year of financial period ending 31st March, 2019 shall be promptly modified and disclosed, if necessity arises.
