PEC Ltd. (PEC, and together with its subsidiaries and associated companies, the Group) has demonstrated once again its commitment to the safety and well-being of its workers, by garnering four awards from the Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) Council this year.

The annual WSH Awards recognise Singapore companies that have excelled in setting the highest standards for health, safety, security and environment (HSSE) practices, allowing them to protect and strengthen their workforce while enhancing productivity.

For 2016, the Group garnered two of the awards in the Safety and Health Award Recognition for Projects (SHARP) category. These accolades are presented for projects or worksites that have upheld industry best practices through well-developed WSH management systems. These awards bear witness to PEC's ability to effectively manage HSSE issues for major projects even under tight deadlines and the most challenging conditions.

In addition, the Group's subsidiary, Plant General Services Pte Ltd (PGS), received a WSH Performance Award (Silver) for its successful efforts to implement rigorous safety and health management systems that have also contributed significantly to project efficiency. As a scaffolding specialist serving the process, marine and construction industries, PGS is keenly aware of the need for vigilance in eliminating on-site hazards.

Another subsidiary, Testing Inspection & Solution Pte Ltd, was recognised for developing robust risk management practices that have raised the bar in safety and health performance across its operations. Earning the WSH Risk Management Award reaffirms its skill in identifying and anticipating risks, boosting its ability to offer heat treatment and inspection services that can fully serve the needs of its clients.

Mr Robert Dompeling, PEC's Group Chief Executive Officer, said: "Our people's safety must always come first. We have worked hard to build an enduring culture based on that principle, constantly underscoring the need to prevent rather than react.

"These four awards validate our ongoing efforts to forge a progressive workplace where we can protect our people and improve the quality of our workforce even while expediting project delivery and meeting service standards."
