

Appendix 1

Working experience and occupation during the last 10 years

G John Liang Jun Howe

Has been a career investment banking professional since 1988. He was the Vice President, Corporate Banking and Capital Markets with ABN-AMRO Bank in 2000, Associate Director, Asian Capital Markets with IBJ Asia in 1997 and Assistant Director, Capital Markets of ANZ Investment Bank in 1994 and is very conversant with Treasury, Corporate Finance, debt and Equity Capital markets in Asia.

He graduated with a Master of Business Administration Degree from IMD International Management Development Institute in Lausanne, Switzerland and a B.Sc. Degree in Electronics from the University of Kent, England. He had passed with distinction the US Financial Securities Professional Examinations during his career.