PROJECT WIN - GOVTECH

Health Minister Ong Ye Kung holding the "wireless alert alarm system" at the NTUC Health Active Ageing Centre on Nov 16, 2023, as National Development Minister Desmond Lee and Acting Transport Minister Chee Hong Tat look on.

iWOW Technology has secured a $50 million contract with a Singaporean statutory board. The contract is for the design, deployment, and maintenance of a Wireless Alarm Alert System (WAAS) over ten years, with potential for further value increases through optional extensions and eldercare solutions. This system will be used in HDB rental flats to provide emergency assistance to elderly residents.

Help at the push of a button

Wireless alert devices will be installed in more public rental flats at no charge over the next five years.
