Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalised terms and references used herein shall bear the same meaning ascribed to them in the Company's announcement dated 16 July 2026.

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Edition Ltd. (the "Company" and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") refers to the Company's announcement dated 16 July 2026 in relation to the Notice of Arbitration that Company's direct wholly-owned subsidiary, MEOD has received on 13 July 2026.

The Board wishes to update that MEOD has engaged the legal advisers on 21 July 2026 and responded to the Notice of Arbitration with a counter-claim on 27 July 2026.

MEOD has filed its response to the Notice of Arbitration, denying the Claimant's claims in their entirety and stating that it will advance a counterclaim against the Claimant for approximately S$997,000 in respect of, among others:

1. damages incurred in instructing third parties to create the software required for the Moving Gutter System ("MGS");

2. a delay penalty pursuant to the Contract;

3. damages to complete the MGS and to rectify defects in the MGS including the costs of on-site modifications and rectifications as a result of the Claimant's incomplete materials and design deficiencies;

4. damages arising from the delay in completion of the MGS and the loss of business suffered by MEOD, which is unable to operate its MEOD farm without the MGS in full operation. These damages are being assessed; and

5. interest and costs.

The Company is currently assessing the potential financial impact of the Aggregate Arbitration Claims. Based on the information currently available, the Company expects that the Aggregate Arbitration Claims, if the Claimant is successful in its claims, may have a material impact on the financial performance of the Group for the financial year ending 31 December 2026.

The Company will make further announcements to keep its shareholders informed of any material developments in accordance with its disclosure obligations and as may be necessary or appropriate.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company and to refrain from taking any action that may be prejudicial to their interests.
