SINGAPORE – 3 November 2026 – Leading multinational food and beverage company, Food Empire Holdings Limited ("Food Empire", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"), has risen 43 places to rank 421st in the 2026 Fortune Southeast Asia 500, up from 464th in 2025. This marks the second consecutive year that the Group has been included in the list, which ranks the region's 500 largest companies by annual revenue.

Food Empire was represented by Mr Amrish Rungta, Group Chief Operating Officer, at the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 Summit held in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, on 3 November 2026, where he accepted the recognition on behalf of the Group. Held under the theme "New Horizons, Enduring Growth", the Summit brought together business leaders to discuss growth opportunities and the evolving business landscape in Southeast Asia.

Food Empire's improved ranking reflects its continued progress among leading businesses in Southeast Asia and marks another milestone in the Group's development as an international food and beverage company. Its inclusion in the list for two consecutive years reflects its growing presence, strong growth trajectory and established operations across multiple markets.

Mr Rungta said: "I am honoured to represent Food Empire and all my colleagues here at the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 Summit. Over the years, we have built a growing presence across Southeast Asia, and as a Singapore-headquartered company, it means a great deal to be counted among the region's leading businesses. This recognition belongs to our teams across the Group, whose dedication to our brands and consumers has driven our growth. Taking place in Vietnam, where our flagship CaféPHỐ brand has built a strong following, made the Summit especially meaningful to us. We will keep investing in our brands, people and capabilities so that we can grow sustainably in the region and beyond."
