3 ASX Listing

On 27 October 2023, Civmec Singapore announced its proposal to change the domiciliation of the head company of the Group from Singapore to Australia by way of a scheme of arrangement between Civmec Singapore, its shareholders and the Company pursuant to section 210 of the Singapore Companies Act.

Under the Scheme, the Company will become the new ASX and SGX listed parent entity of the Group whereby the Company will acquire all of the outstanding share capital of Civmec Singapore from its shareholders (refer to Section 5 for further details). The Company will not acquire any assets other than 100% of the issued capital of Civmec Singapore such that the Scheme will not result in a change in the economic substance of the Group or the effective economic interests of its shareholders.

This Information Memorandum has been issued by the Company to satisfy certain content and admission requirements prescribed in Chapter 1 of the ASX Listing Rules (ASX Listing Rules) and to comply with various conditions imposed on the Company by certain waivers of the ASX Listing Rules granted by ASX to the Company on an 'in-principle' basis to facilitate the Company's proposed listing on ASX. Refer to Annexure A for further information on the waivers.

An application will be made to ASX on or around the date of this Information Memorandum, for the Company to be admitted to the official list of ASX and for the Shares to be granted official quotation on the securities exchange operated by ASX.

The fact that ASX may admit the Company to the official list of ASX is not to be taken in any way as an indication of the merits of the Company.

4 Name Change

In connection with the Scheme, the Company will change its name to 'Civmec Limited' and Civmec Singapore will change its name to 'Civmec Singapore Limited'. The name changes are intended to reflect the Company becoming the new listed holding company of the Group.

The name change of Civmec Singapore from 'Civmec Limited' to 'Civmec Singapore Limited' (Civmec Singapore Name Change) is subject to approval of its shareholders. The relevant resolution for the Civmec Singapore Name Change is tabled for approval by the shareholders of Civmec Singapore at the extraordinary general meeting to be held on or about 1 August 2024.

Save for the shareholders' approval for the Civmec Singapore Name Change noted above, each of the Company and Civmec Singapore have obtained all necessary approvals to effect their respective name changes and the Company anticipates that its name change will occur on or around implementation of the Scheme. 1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

On 27 October 2023, the Company announced that the Company and the NewCo had entered into an Implementation Agreement to implement the Change of Domicile through the Company Restructuring by way of the Shareholders’ Scheme in accordance with Section 210 of the Companies Act pursuant to which:

- (a) the Shareholders of the Company will exchange their Shares and CDIs in the Company (as the case may be) for NewCo Shares on a 1 for 1 basis;
- (b) the NewCo will become the new holding company of the NewCo Group; and
- (c) the existing listing status of the Company on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX will be transferred to the NewCo.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Pursuant to the Implementation Agreement, the Company and the NewCo have agreed on the terms for the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, under which:

- (d) all the issued Shares of the Company will be transferred to the NewCo (i) fully paid; (ii) free from all Encumbrances; and (iii) together with all rights, benefits and entitlements attaching thereto as of the Record Date, including the right to receive and retain all dividends, rights and other distributions (if any) declared, paid or made by the Company on or after the Record Date; and
- (e) in consideration thereof, the NewCo will allot and issue such number of new NewCo Shares, credited as fully paid, on the basis of one (1) new NewCo Share for every one (1) Share as at the Record Date, further details of which are set out in Appendix B (Shareholders' Scheme) to this Circular.

The new NewCo Shares shall be duly authorised, validly issued, credited as fully paid, free from any Encumbrances, and shall rank pari passu in all respects with one another.

For the avoidance of doubt, the treasury shares held by the Company will not be subject to the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Scheme. Pursuant to the Implementation Agreement, the Company and the NewCo have agreed and undertaken to use all reasonable endeavours to cancel all the treasury shares of the Company at least five (5) clear Business Days prior to the Record Date.

In conjunction with the Shareholders' Scheme, the NewCo will concurrently cancel the Existing NewCo Share through a capital reduction and allot and issue the new NewCo Shares to the Shareholders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Scheme.

Subject to the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Shares will be increased to the number of existing Shares as at the Record Date. Upon completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo's principal business activity will be that of investment holding. The Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NewCo. The NewCo, through the Group, will continue to own and operate the Business.

The Company will relinquish its status as a listed company on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX and in lieu, the NewCo Shares will be listed and traded on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX and the NewCo will be the new listed vehicle on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX in place of the Company.

The Shareholders' Scheme is subject to conditions precedent which must be satisfied or waived (as applicable) for the Shareholders' Scheme to be implemented. Details of such conditions precedent are set out Section 3.11 (Conditions Precedent) of this Circular and paragraph 5.1 (Conditions Precedent) of the Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement set out in Appendix A (Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement) to this Circular.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Shareholders' Scheme is not a debt restructuring scheme. There is no write-off of any debt of the Company in connection with the Shareholders' Scheme.

As at the date of this Circular, the Company intends to maintain its listing on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

The terms of the Shareholders' Scheme are more particularly described in Section 3 (The Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions) of this Circular.

The Company's application to the Court to seek certain orders including, among other things, leave to convene the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting (the "Leave Application") was heard before the Court on 4 July 2024 and the Court granted certain orders including leave to convene the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting within three (3) months from 4 July 2024, for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, approving with or without modification (which modification can be made at any time prior to and/or at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting) the Shareholders' Scheme. For more information on the Leave Application, please refer to the Company's announcements dated 19 June 2024, 21 June 2024, 27 June 2024 and 5 July 2024.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

In connection with the Shareholders' Scheme, the Company also proposes to seek Shareholders' approval for certain Ancillary Resolutions at the EGM comprising the proposed ratification of the NewCo Constitution, the Proposed Change of Names, the proposed adoption of the New PRP, the Proposed Participation of Mr James Fitzgerald in the New PRP, the Proposed Participation of Mr Patrick Tallon in the New PRP and the NewCo Share Issue Mandate Proposal, as more particularly set out in Sections 4 (The Proposed Ratification of the NewCo Constitution), 5 (The Proposed Change of Names), 6 (The Proposed Adoption of the New PRP by the NewCo) and 7 (The NewCo Share Issue Mandate Proposal) of this Circular.

1.2 Effects of the Shareholders' Scheme and Listing of the NewCo

Upon the Shareholders' Scheme becoming binding and effective in accordance with its terms, the NewCo will own the entire issued share capital of the Company, and the NewCo will allot and issue such number of NewCo Shares, credited as fully paid, on the basis of one (1) NewCo Share for every one (1) Share as at the Record Date, further details of which are set out in Appendix B (Shareholders' Scheme) to this Circular.

In conjunction with the Shareholders' Scheme, the NewCo will concurrently cancel the Existing NewCo Share through a capital reduction and allot and issue the new NewCo Shares to the Shareholders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Scheme.

The Company will relinquish its status as a listed company on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX and in lieu, the NewCo Shares will be listed and traded on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX and the NewCo will be the new listed vehicle on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX in place of the Company.

There is no change to the issuer name and ticker codes on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX. The NewCo will commence trading on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX (on a normal settlement basis) under the name of "Civmec Limited" and the ticker codes of "P9D" and "CVL", respectively, being the existing ticker codes of the Company (with further information in respect of deferred settlement trading of the NewCo Shares to be provided by the ASX at the time of admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX). In addition, it should be noted that on the SGX, there will be no changes to the security name (which will remain as "Civmec Limited"), trading name (which will remain as "Civmec") and CDP statement name (which will remain as "Civmec") following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

1.3 Overseas Shareholders

The applicability of the Shareholders' Scheme to Overseas Shareholders may be affected by the laws of the relevant overseas jurisdictions. Accordingly, all Overseas Shareholders should inform themselves about, and observe, any applicable legal requirements in their own jurisdictions. The Circular (including the Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement and the Shareholders' Scheme) will not be sent to any Overseas Shareholders due to the potential restrictions on sending such documents into the relevant overseas jurisdictions. For more information, please refer to Section 3.4 (Overseas Shareholders) of this Circular and paragraph 13.1 (Overseas Shareholders) of the Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement as set out in Appendix A (Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement) to this Circular. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shareholders' Scheme is proposed to all Shareholders and applies to all Shareholders, including those Shareholders to whom the Circular has not been and will not be sent.

Restrictions in jurisdictions (outside of Singapore and Australia) may make it impracticable or unlawful for NewCo Shares to be issued under the Shareholders' Scheme to, or received under the Shareholders' Scheme by, Shareholders in certain jurisdictions (outside of Singapore and Australia). Overseas Shareholders will not be directly issued any NewCo Shares pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme. Instead, the NewCo will allot and issue such NewCo Shares that would otherwise have been directly issued to the Overseas Shareholders under the Shareholders' Scheme to a Sale Agent, in trust for the Overseas Shareholders who are the beneficial owners thereof. The Sale Agent will sell the NewCo Shares in such manner, on such financial market conducted by the ASX, at such price and on such other terms as the Sale Agent determines in good faith as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not more than 30 Business Days after the implementation of the Shareholders' Scheme. The proceeds from such sale will be remitted to the Overseas Shareholders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Scheme set out in this Circular. For more information, please refer to Section 3.5 (Sale Facility) of this Circular and paragraph 4.5 (Sale Facility) of the Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement as set out in Appendix A (Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement) to this Circular.

This Circular does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to subscribe for or buy any security, nor is it a solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction, nor shall there be any sale, issuance or transfer of the NewCo Shares and/or any other securities referred to in this announcement in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable laws. For jurisdictional disclaimers in respect of the offer of NewCo Shares made pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme, please refer to Appendix H (Jurisdictional Disclaimers) to this Circular for more information.

1.4 Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors

1.4.1 Depositors are not shareholders of the NewCo

Under the existing Constitution of the Company, a "Member" is defined as any registered holder of shares for the time being or if the registered shareholder is the Depository, a Depositor named in the Depository Register (for such period as shares are entered in the Depositor's Securities Account) (i.e., Depositors are considered members of the Company). Subject and without prejudice to any special privileges or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any special class of shares for the time being forming part of the capital of the Company, each member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney, and (in the case of a corporation) by a representative.

Under Australian law, only persons whose name is registered as a holder of shares on the company's share register is a member of that company.

The NewCo Shares will be registered on the Singapore Share Register in the name of CDP or its nominees and held by CDP for and on behalf of persons who maintain, either directly or through Depository Agents, securities accounts with CDP. Accordingly, CDP will be recognised as the only shareholder of the NewCo Shares held by CDP as reflected on the Singapore Share Register and, therefore, Depositors and Depository Agents on whose behalf CDP holds NewCo Shares are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo. Depositors only have beneficial ownership of (instead of legal title to) the NewCo Shares.

Depositors are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo and would not be accorded the full rights of shareholders. In particular, as Depositors holding NewCo Shares through CDP are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo, they do not have a right to vote in person at general meetings of the NewCo. In order for Depositors to exercise the votes attaching to the NewCo Shares they beneficially own, Depositors must provide their voting instructions to CDP, further details of which are set out in Section 1.4.2 (Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo) of this Circular.

Depositors who wish to be recognised as shareholders of the NewCo in their own names and be accorded the full rights of shareholders of NewCo may consider effecting a removal of their NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register. For more details on how a Depositor may effect a removal of his/her/its NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register, please refer to Section 1.4.7 (Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

1.4.2 Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo

Under the Corporations Act, only a shareholder is entitled to vote at general meetings and a shareholder is not entitled to appoint more than two (2) proxies to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting (the “2-proxies Limit”), please refer to Section 7.8 (Proxies) of Appendix D (Comparison Between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act) to this Circular for more information on appointment of proxies.

As mentioned in Section 1.4.1 (Depositors are not shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular, the NewCo Shares will be registered on the Singapore Share Register in the name of CDP or its nominees and held by CDP for and on behalf of persons who maintain, either directly or through Depository Agents, securities accounts with CDP. Accordingly, CDP who will be recognised as the shareholder of NewCo on the Singapore Share Register is only entitled to appoint up to two (2) proxies due to the 2-proxies Limit as noted above. Due to the limit in the number of proxies that CDP is able to appoint, it is not possible for CDP to appoint all Depositors as CDP’s proxies to attend and vote in person at the general meetings of the NewCo.

Depositors are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo and cannot vote in person at general meetings of the NewCo. In order to vote, Depositors must submit their voting instructions to the Singapore Share Registrar for collation prior to the general meeting of the NewCo as set out below.

When a general meeting is convened by the NewCo, it is envisaged that:

- (a) prior to each general meeting of the NewCo, voting instructions forms will be despatched to the Depositors;
- (b) Depositors who wish to vote will need to complete and return the voting instructions form to CDP before the time appointed for the general meeting of the NewCo in accordance with the instructions therein, and CDP will in turn authorise the Singapore Share Registrar to, for and on behalf of CDP, collect directly from the Depositors their voting instruction(s) for collation (such voting instructions as collated, the “Collated Voting Instruction Results”) and submit such Collated Voting Instruction Results to CDP. Depositors may indicate in their voting instructions forms the respective number of votes, which are attached to the NewCo Shares they beneficially own, they wish to cast “for”, “against” or “abstain” in respect of each resolution tabled at the relevant general meeting;
- (c) CDP will thereafter complete the proxy form in respect of the relevant general meeting of the NewCo based on the Collated Voting Instruction Results and submit the completed proxy form, prior to the closure time for proxy appointment, and appoint the chairman of the general meeting as proxy of CDP to vote at the relevant general meeting of NewCo via email to the Australian Share Registrar; and
- (d) CDP shall be entitled to rely on the Collated Voting Instruction Results submitted to CDP by the Singapore Share Registrar and act upon the same without any further verification or confirmation with the Singapore Share Registrar.

Depositors will be given a reasonable time period after the date of the relevant notice of general meeting to submit any substantial and relevant questions related to the resolutions to be tabled for approval at the relevant general meeting. NewCo will respond to the substantial and relevant questions received at least 48 hours prior to the closing date and time for submission of the voting instructions forms to the Singapore Share Registrar. NewCo will respond via announcements published on the SGXNet, ASX Online and its corporate website.

Depositors are, however, permitted to attend general meetings of the NewCo in person. A Depositor attending the general meeting of the NewCo has the right to speak (but not vote in person) at the general meeting.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The NewCo will disseminate or make available any notices of meetings, reports, documents, circulars or any other communications to Depositors. If a general meeting is adjourned, the NewCo will announce the relevant details of the adjourned meeting (including the date, time and venue of the adjourned meeting) or issue a new notice of meeting, as the case may be.

Subject to the SGX-ST Listing Manual, the NewCo will continue to hold its general meetings in Singapore after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

1.4.3 Requisition of meetings of the NewCo by Depositors

Calling of meetings by directors when requested by shareholders

Under Section 249D of the Corporations Act, members with at least 5.0% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the company may requisition the directors to call, and arrange to hold, a general meeting. The company must pay the expenses of calling and holding the meeting. The requisition must be in writing, state any resolution to be proposed at the meeting, be signed by the members making the request and be given to the company. The directors must call the meeting within 21 days after the request is given to the company. The meeting of members is to be held not later than two (2) months after the request is given to the company.

As mentioned in Section 1.4 (Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors) of this Circular, Depositors are not recognised as members of the NewCo, however the NewCo Constitution contains a provision that, for the purpose of requisitioning general meetings, the NewCo Directors treat Depositors as 'members'. Accordingly, Depositors may requisition a general meeting of the NewCo through following the relevant provisions set out in the Corporations Act. For more information, please refer to Rule 34 of the NewCo Constitution set out in Appendix C (The NewCo Constitution) to this Circular.

For more information on the convening of general meetings on requisition, please refer to Section 7.6 (Convening of General Meetings on Requisition) of Appendix D (Comparison between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act) to this Circular.

Calling of meetings by shareholders

Under the Corporations Act, members with at least 5.0% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the company may call, and arrange to hold, a general meeting. The members calling the meeting must pay the expenses of calling and holding the meeting. The meeting must be called in the same way, as far as possible, in which general meetings of the NewCo are called.

As mentioned in Section 1.4 (Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors) of this Circular, Depositors are not recognised as members of the NewCo, however the NewCo Constitution contains a provision that, for the purpose of calling a general meeting by members, a Depositor will be treated as a 'member'. Accordingly, Depositors may call a general meeting of the NewCo through following the relevant provisions set out in the Corporations Act. For more information, please refer to Rule 34 of the NewCo Constitution set out in Appendix C (The NewCo Constitution) to this Circular.

For more information on the convening of general meetings on requisition, please refer to Section 7.6 (Convening of General Meetings on Requisition) of Appendix D (Comparison between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act) to this Circular.

1.4.4 Scheme of Arrangements under the Corporations Act

Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, any scheme of arrangement of the NewCo (being an Australian incorporated entity) will be subject to the Corporations Act.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Corporations Act provides for a statutory procedure called a scheme of arrangement, which can be used to, among other things, effect mergers and acquisitions between two (2) companies. A scheme of arrangement is governed by Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act.

The process involves approval by members and/or creditors or any class of them at a meeting approved by an Australian court (i.e. the Federal Court of Australia or the Supreme Court of State or Territory in which the application is made) and additionally, approved by the court itself. Once approved by statutory majorities and the court, a scheme is binding on all non-assenting members and/or creditors or any class of them. A scheme is binding on a class of members if (i) a majority, in number of members in that class, present and voting (either in person or by proxy) (the “Headcount Test”); and (ii) holding at least 75.0% of the total number of votes cast in that class, vote in favour of the scheme.

As mentioned in Section 1.4 (Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors) of this Circular, Depositors are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo and cannot vote in person at the meeting convened to seek approval for a members’ scheme of arrangement. In order to vote, Depositors must complete and return their voting instructions in the manner set out in Section 1.4.2 (Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo) of this Circular to CDP before the time appointed for the meeting convened to seek approval for the members’ scheme of arrangement in accordance with the instructions therein, and CDP will in turn authorise the Singapore Share Registrar to, for and on behalf of CDP, collect directly from the Depositors their voting instruction(s) for collation and submit the Collated Voting Instruction Results to CDP. CDP will thereafter complete the proxy form in respect of the meeting convened to seek approval for the members’ scheme of arrangement based on the Collated Voting Instruction Results and submit the completed proxy form, prior to the closure time for proxy appointment, and appoint the chairman of the meeting convened to seek approval for the members’ scheme of arrangement as proxy of CDP to vote at the relevant meeting convened to seek approval for the members’ scheme of arrangement via email to the Australian Share Registrar.

In the event that the NewCo proposes a scheme of arrangement to its members, it may need to seek orders from the Australian court in relation to the scheme meeting to dispense with the Headcount Test or orders which otherwise enable the Australian court to be satisfied that the depository system does not conceal from it a failure to satisfy the Headcount Test. These orders may include, among other things, allowing for Depositors to attend the scheme meeting by proxy and for the quorum to be determined by reference to the NewCo Shares credited to those Depositors on the Depository Register.

1.4.5 Takeovers

Currently, the Company is only subject to the Singapore Takeover Code. Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo, being an Australian incorporated entity, is also subject to the takeover provisions set out in the Corporations Act (in addition to the Singapore Takeover Code). In the event of inconsistency between the takeover provisions in the Corporations Act and the Singapore Takeover Code which cannot be overcome by simply adopting the more onerous requirement, the NewCo will seek a waiver or modification of the relevant provision from either the ASIC or the SIC. For more information on the Australian takeover provisions under the Corporations Act, please refer to the sub-paragraph below entitled “- Australian takeover provisions under the Corporations Act” of this Section 1.4.5 (Takeovers) of this Circular.

Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act deals with takeovers and applies to, among others, Australian-incorporated listed companies, including the NewCo. Section 606 of the Corporations Act prohibits the acquisition of a relevant interest in voting shares if, because of that transaction, a person’s voting power in the company (i) increases from under 20.0% to over 20.0%; or (ii) increases from a starting point that is above 20.0% and below 90.0%. A person will have a relevant interest in securities if they:

- (a) are the holder of the securities;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (b) have power to exercise, or control the exercise of, a right to vote attached to the securities; or
- (c) have power to dispose of, or control the exercise of a power to dispose of, the securities.

CDP, as the legal holder of NewCo Shares on behalf of Depositors, holds these NewCo Shares as a bare trustee, which is a situation not giving rise to a relevant interest in those NewCo Shares in accordance with clause 609(2) of the Corporations Act. On this basis, the arrangement by which CDP holds NewCo Shares on behalf of Depositors does not give rise to a breach of the takeover provisions in the Corporations Act.

Depositors may have a relevant interest in NewCo Shares if they are covered by paragraphs (a) – (c) above and a situation in section 609 of the Corporations Act does not apply. Such situations include, but are not limited to, situations where:

- (a) securities are held by a person as a bare trustee;
- (b) securities are held by a financial services licensee on behalf of someone else in the ordinary course of their financial services business;
- (c) securities are held by a person who has been appointed as a proxy or representative at a meeting of members if:
 - (i) the appointment is for one (1) meeting only; and
 - (ii) neither the person nor any associate gives valuable consideration for the appointment.

Similarly, on the basis that CDP is deemed to hold the NewCo Shares deposited with it as bare trustee for the Depositors, CDP does not trigger the takeover obligations under the Singapore Takeover Code.

CDP will be provided with the takeover offer for NewCo Shares held by it. In the context of a takeover offer for NewCo Shares, it is envisaged that the relevant takeover documents (for example, the offer document and forms of acceptances) will be made available to Depositors. Depositors who wish to accept the offer in respect of his NewCo Shares held by CDP will need to complete and submit the relevant forms containing his election instructions to CDP for processing.

Depositors will continue to be subject to the Singapore Takeover Code following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

Australian takeover provisions under the Corporations Act

Under the take-over provisions of the Corporations Act, corporate take-overs are regulated by Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act. A take-over involves the acquisition by one (1) company (bidder) of a sufficient number of shares in another company (target) to obtain control of the finances and operations of the target.

The Corporations Act prohibits an entity from acquiring an interest in voting shares in a company, where:

- (a) the company is either a listed company, or an unlisted company with more than 50 members;
- (b) the interest is acquired through a transaction in relation to securities entered into by or on behalf of the person who acquires the interest; and

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (c) because of the transaction, that person's voting power in the company increases from 20.0% or below to more than 20.0%, or increases from a starting point that is above 20.0% and below 90.0%.

The Corporations Act provides a number of exceptions to this general prohibition including:

- (a) acquisitions resulting from the acceptance of an offer under a take-over bid;
- (b) an acquisition approved by shareholders;
- (c) increased shareholding under a pro rata issue;
- (d) "creeping" provisions, which allows a person to acquire a relevant interest in excess of 20.0% of the voting shares in a company if: (i) throughout the six (6) months before the acquisition, that person had voting power of at least 19.0% in the company; and (ii) as a result of the acquisition, that person's voting power in the company does not increase by more than 3.0% from the voting power held by the person six (6) months before the acquisition. However, for every 1.0% change, a substantial holding notice must be lodged with the company and the ASX;
- (e) a downstream acquisition resulting from an acquisition of relevant interests in another listed entity; and
- (f) an acquisition resulting from a scheme of arrangement (an Australian court-approved agreement between a company and its shareholders).

A take-over may proceed by way of an off-market bid or an on-market bid. All offers to security holders in the bid class must be the same and the consideration offered must equal or exceed the maximum consideration that the bidder or an associate of the bidder provided for a security in the bid class in the four (4) months prior to the announcement of the take-over bid.

A bidder making a take-over bid will be permitted to compulsorily acquire the remaining securities in the bid class if during or at the end of the offer period:

- (a) the bidder and its associates have relevant interests in at least 90.0% (by number) of the securities in the bid class; and
- (b) the bidder and its associates have acquired at least 75.0% (by number) of the securities that the bidder offered to acquire under the bid (other than securities in which the bidder had a relevant interest in at the start of the offer period).

1.4.6 Rights of Depositors

As mentioned above, Depositors are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo under the Corporations Act and would not be accorded the full rights of shareholders.

Depositors will only enjoy the benefit of rights attached to the NewCo Shares conferred on shareholders through or with the assistance of CDP as arranged or pursuant to CDP's terms and conditions for the operation of securities accounts with CDP, as amended from time to time, and CDP's terms and conditions to act as Depository for foreign securities, as amended from time to time, or otherwise provided for in the NewCo Constitution or by the NewCo. For example:

- (a) Attendance and Voting: as mentioned in Section 1.4.2 (Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo) of this Circular, Depositors are permitted to attend general meetings of the NewCo but are not permitted to vote in person at the general meetings, and must instead submit their voting instructions in advance of the general meeting for collation as further detailed in Section 1.4.2 (Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo) of this Circular. For the avoidance of doubt, Depositors are not entitled to appoint proxies. Only CDP is entitled to appoint up to two (2) proxies due to the 2-proxies Limit as mentioned in Section 1.4.2 (Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo) of this Circular. A Depositor attending the general meeting of the NewCo has the right to speak (but not vote in person) at the general meeting.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (b) Requisition of meetings: as mentioned in Section 1.4.3 (Requisition of meetings of the NewCo by the Depositors) of this Circular, the NewCo Constitution contains a provision that, for the purpose of requesting a general meeting to be held by directors or calling a general meeting by members under the Corporations Act, the NewCo Constitution contains a provision which enables the Depositors to be treated as a 'member'. Accordingly, Depositors may requisition or call a general meeting of NewCo through following the relevant provisions set out in the Corporations Act. For more information, please refer to Rule 34 of the NewCo Constitution set out in Appendix C (The NewCo Constitution) to this Circular and Section 7.6 (Convening of General Meetings on Requisition) of Appendix D (Comparison between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act) to this Circular.
- (c) Communications from the NewCo: the NewCo will disseminate or make available to Depositors any notices of meetings, reports, documents, circulars or any other communications issued by the NewCo to shareholders.
- (d) Dividends: if and when cash dividends are paid in respect of NewCo Shares which are credited in a Depositor's Securities Account, CDP shall make payment to or credit in favour of the relevant Depositor such cash dividends, subject to CDP's terms and conditions for the operation of securities accounts with CDP, as amended from time to time, and CDP's terms and conditions to act as Depository for foreign securities, as amended from time to time.

The rights accorded to Depositors by CDP are subject to CDP's terms and conditions for the operation of securities accounts with CDP, as amended from time to time, and CDP's terms and conditions to act as Depository for foreign securities, as amended from time to time.

1.4.7 Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo

Depositors who wish to be recognised as shareholders of the NewCo in their own names and be accorded the full rights of shareholders of NewCo may effect a removal of their NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register pursuant to which the relevant Depositors may request to have their NewCo Shares registered directly in their own name on either, depending on their circumstances, the issuer sponsored sub-register (if they do not have an Australian broker) or the CHESSE sub-register (if they have an Australian broker), and hold legal title to the NewCo Shares in their own names (the "Register Removal"). For more information on the procedures to effect a removal of NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register, please refer to sub-paragraph below entitled "Register Removal Procedures – From the Singapore Share Register to the Australian Share Register" of this Section 1.4.7 (Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular.

Under ASX Listing Rule 8.2.1, the NewCo, being an Australian incorporated entity which is also listed on the ASX, is not permitted to issue physical share certificates with respect to the NewCo Shares registered on the Australian Share Register. The NewCo is an Australian incorporated entity which will have CHESSE approved securities. The Australian Share Register will comprise of the CHESSE sub-register and the issuer sponsored sub-register (being the part of the entity's register for CHESSE approved securities that is administered by the entity rather than ASX Settlement). The circumstances in which an entity may operate a third, certificated sub-register, do not apply to the Australian Share Register as (a) the Australian Share Register will be a register for quoted NewCo Shares and (b) the laws of a foreign jurisdiction do not prevent the NewCo from operating an issuer sponsored sub-register in Australia.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Depositors will hold their NewCo Shares on either the CHESSE sub-register or the issuer sponsored sub-register, as the case may be, in the form of uncertificated holdings (i.e., shares which are not represented by physical share certificates). No physical share certificates will be issued in respect of the holder's uncertificated holdings on the Australian Share Register.

Depositors who do not have an account with CHESSE (i.e., Depositors who do not have an Australian broker) may have their NewCo Shares registered on the issuer sponsored sub-register. The Australian Share Registrar would create an issuer-sponsored holding on the issuer sponsored sub-register based on the relevant Depositor's instructions set out in the request to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register. No fees will be charged by the Australian Share Registrar to create such issuer sponsored holding on the issuer sponsored sub-register.

Depositors who have an account with CHESSE may have their NewCo Shares registered on the CHESSE sub-register. There may be fees charged by the Australian broker to create a holding on the CHESSE sub-register so Depositors should check with their respective Australian broker as to the fees.

Depositors recorded on the Australian Share Register, whether the CHESSE sub-register or the issuer-sponsored sub-register, will be issued a holding statement setting out their uncertificated holdings of NewCo Shares based on the relevant sub-register, whenever there are any changes in their holdings. Additional holding statements may be requested at any other time either directly through the relevant holder's broker (in the case of a holding on the CHESSE sub-register) or through the Australian Share Registrar (in the case of a holding on the issuer sponsored sub-register). In order to request such additional holding statements, holders on the issuer sponsored sub-register should contact the Australian Share Registrar on their request and holders on the CHESSE sub-register should contract their Australian broker on their request. The Australian Share Registrar charges a fee (currently A$55 (inclusive of GST)) for an ad hoc request for holding statements. Holders on the CHESSE sub-register may wish to check with their Australian broker on any fees it may charge for an ad hoc request for holding statements.

It should be noted that holders on the issuer sponsored sub-register or the CHESSE sub-register are provided with online access to their accounts where they may check their uncertificated holdings of NewCo Shares based on the relevant sub-register.

Company to bear the Register Removal Charges on a one-time basis

There are certain charges attributable to the Register Removal from the Singapore Share Register to the Australian Share Register, and in particular, the Singapore Share Registrar will charge administrative and handling fees of S$30 (or such other amount as may be prescribed from time to time) for each removal of NewCo Shares from the Singapore Share Register, a fee of S$2 (plus applicable stamp duties) for each transfer form in respect of transfer of NewCo Shares and any applicable fee as stated in the register removal request forms and there are also withdrawal fees payable to CDP (collectively, the "Register Removal Charges"). For more information on the fees payable (including the CDP withdrawal fees), please refer to sub-paragraph below entitled "Register Removal Procedures – From the Singapore Share Register to the Australian Share Register" of this Section 1.4.7 (Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular.

On a one-time basis, the Company will bear the Register Removal Charges incurred by a Depositor who simultaneously submits (a) a withdrawal request and transfer form to CDP; and (b) a share removal form to the Singapore Share Registrar and the Australian Share Registrar to effect a removal of the shares of the Company (and following the completion of the Change of Domicile, the NewCo) credited to the securities account of the relevant Depositor as at the Record Date to the Australian Share Register on the first date of commencement of cross-border movements of the NewCo Shares after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions (expected to be 13 September 2024 based on the indicative timeline set out in the section entitled "Indicative Timetable" of this Circular).

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Following the Register Removal, the NewCo Shares will be traded on the ASX (instead of the Mainboard of the SGX-ST). Brokerage commission in respect of trades of NewCo Shares on the ASX may vary from broker to broker. There is no assurance that such brokerage commission to be paid in respect of trades of the NewCo Shares on the ASX in the future will be the same as the current rates paid for trades of the Shares on the SGX-ST.

Register Removal Procedures

All duties, fees, charges and expenses specified herein are subject to changes from time to time.

Shares (or following completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Shares) may be removed between the Singapore Share Register and the Australian Share Register. For the purpose of trading on the ASX, Shares (or following completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Shares) must be registered on the Australian Share Register. An investor who wishes to trade on the SGX-ST must have a securities account with CDP or securities sub-account with a CDP depository agent.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Indicative timing	Once Removal Form B is received and validated to be in good order, with the corresponding fees paid, the overall process to remove shares from the Australian Share Register to the Singapore Share Register and deposit into the holder's account with CDP is expected to take at least four (4) business days to be completed.

1.4.8 Depositors will not be able to withdraw their NewCo Shares from CDP in the form of physical share certificates after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions

Currently, a Depositor may withdraw Shares of the Company held by CDP on his/her/its behalf and hold such Shares of the Company in the form of physical share certificates registered in his/her/its name.

Depositors are to note that after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, Depositors who wish to have NewCo Shares registered in their own names and recognised as shareholders of the NewCo, can only do so by effecting a removal of their NewCo Shares from the Singapore Share Register to the Australian Share Register as mentioned in Section 1.4.7 (Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular. Depositors will have their NewCo Shares registered directly in their own name on the Australian Share Register in the form of uncertificated holdings. No physical share certificates will be issued in respect of the holder's uncertificated holdings on the Australian Share Register.

A holding statement setting out the holder's uncertificated holdings of NewCo Shares based on the relevant sub-register in Australia will be issued whenever there are any changes in their uncertificated holdings. Additional holding statements may be requested at any other time either directly through the relevant holder's broker (in the case of a holding on the CHESSE sub-register) or through the Australian Share Registrar (in the case of a holding on the issuer sponsored sub-register). In addition, it should be noted that holders on the issuer sponsored sub-register or the CHESSE sub-register are provided with online access to their accounts where they may check their uncertificated holdings of NewCo Shares based on the relevant sub-register. For more information, please refer to Section 1.4.7 (Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular.

It should be noted that the above removal of NewCo Shares from the Singapore Share Register to the Australian Share Register will be the only way for Depositors to have NewCo Shares registered in their own names and be recognised as shareholders of NewCo as Depositors will not be able to withdraw their NewCo Shares held by CDP on their behalf and hold such NewCo Shares in the form of physical share certificates registered in their names on the Singapore Share Register after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions. The effect of this is that CDP will be the only member registered on the Singapore Share Register after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

In accordance with Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act, a register of members must show, among other things, each member's name and address and the shares held by each member (the "Relevant Information"). A company may keep an overseas branch register of members of the company at a place outside Australia which must be kept in the same manner as the Corporations Act requires the company to keep its principal register of members. In the absence of evidence to the contrary, a register of members kept under Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act is proof of the matters shown in the register. The Singapore Share Register is required to be kept in the same manner as NewCo's register of members maintained in Australia and therefore (a) required to include, among other things, the Relevant Information noted above; and (b) the information shown in the Singapore Share Register is evidence of CDP's legal title to the securities recorded against its name in the Singapore Share Register.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

In addition, a company must allow anyone to inspect a register of member kept under Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act. Therefore, CDP may inspect the Singapore Share Register. As a member of NewCo, CDP may inspect the Singapore Share Register without charge. For the avoidance of doubt, any person (including CDP and any Depositor) can inspect the register of member of NewCo, whether it be the Australian Share Register or the Singapore Share Register.

1.4.9 Substantial Holding Reporting requirements under the Corporations Act

Under Section 671B of the Corporations Act, a person must provide a “substantial holding notice” if, in relation to an entity that is listed on ASX and incorporated in Australia, the person:

- (a) begins to have, or ceases to have, a “substantial holding”;
- (b) has a “substantial holding” and there is a movement of at least 1.0% in their holding; or
- (c) makes a takeover bid for securities of the entity.

A person has a “substantial holding” if, together with their associates, they have relevant interests in voting shares or interests carrying 5.0% or more of total votes.

Where the entity is not the subject of a takeover bid, the substantial holding notice must be given within two business days of (i) the person becoming, or ceasing to be, a substantial holder in the entity; or (ii) a movement of at least 1.0% in the person’s substantial holding in the entity. This timing is accelerated during a takeover bid, when the substantial holding notice must be given by 9.30 am on the next business day.

A relevant interest is concerned with a person’s capacity to exercise a degree of influence over securities. Accordingly, the concept encompasses connections wider than ownership, including connections giving rise to power or control over the voting or disposal of securities. Investors should seek their own legal advice in this regard.

The information required to be included in a substantial holding notice included shall be in the prescribed form and includes:

- (a) the person’s name and address;
- (b) details of their relevant interest;
- (c) details of any relevant agreement through which they would have a relevant interest;

- (h) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the Company to cancel, without shareholder approval, the Existing Outstanding Performance Rights in consideration for the grant of new Performance Rights as part of the Proposed Exchange, on the condition that full details of the terms of the new Performance Rights are set out to ASX's satisfaction in this Circular and the Shareholders' Scheme becomes effective after receiving all required approvals; and
- (i) a waiver to permit the NewCo to issue new Performance Rights to Mr Kevin Deery, a proposed NewCo Director, as part of the Proposed Exchange on the condition that full details of the terms of the Consideration Performance Rights (as such term is defined in the rules of the New PRP) are set out to ASX's satisfaction in this Circular and the Shareholders' Scheme becomes effective after receiving all required approvals.

It is expected that the information memorandum noted above, when available, will be announced on SGXNet and ASX Online so long as there are no legal restrictions preventing such announcement.

The Change of Domicile is considered a new listing of the NewCo under the ASX Listing Rules. Accordingly, the NewCo will, on or shortly after the date of this Circular, make an application to the ASX for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX and quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX. Such approval from the ASX for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX and quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX is one of the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions (the "ASX Approval"). In the event that the ASX Approval is not obtained, the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions would not be satisfied, and the Company would not be able to proceed with the completion of the Shareholders' Scheme. In which case, there will be no Change of Domicile and the head company of the Group will remain as the Company (domiciled in Singapore) and Shareholders will remain as Shareholders of the Company (domiciled in Singapore). For more information on the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions, please refer to Section 3.11 (Conditions Precedent) of this Circular.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3. THE CHANGE OF DOMICILE THROUGH THE PROPOSED TRANSACTIONS

3.1 The Shareholders' Scheme

The Change of Domicile through the Company Restructuring and the Proposed Transfer Listing is to be implemented by way of the Shareholders' Scheme.

The Shareholders' Scheme is proposed to all Shareholders.

The Shareholders' Scheme will involve, inter alia, a transfer of all the Shares as at the Record Date to the NewCo, and in consideration for the transfer of the Shares, the NewCo will allot and issue such number of NewCo Shares, credited as fully paid, on the basis of one (1) new NewCo Share for every one (1) Share, as at the Record Date, further details of which are set out in Appendix B (Shareholders' Scheme) to this Circular.

For the avoidance of doubt, the treasury shares held by the Company will not be subject to the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Scheme. Pursuant to the Implementation Agreement, the Company and the NewCo have agreed and undertaken to use all reasonable endeavours to cancel all the treasury shares of the Company at least five (5) clear Business Days prior to the Record Date.

In conjunction with the Shareholders' Scheme, the NewCo will concurrently cancel the Existing NewCo Share through a capital reduction and allot and issue the new NewCo Shares to the Shareholders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders' Scheme.

Subject to the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Shares will be increased to the number of existing Shares as at the Record Date. Upon completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo's principal business activity will be that of investment holding. The Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NewCo. The NewCo, through the Group, will continue to own and operate the Business. Please refer to Section 2.2 (The NewCo) of this Circular for the corporate structure of the Group after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

3.2 The Shares

Pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme, all the existing Shares will be transferred to the NewCo (a) fully paid; (b) free from all Encumbrances; and (c) together with all rights, benefits and entitlements attaching thereto as of the Record Date, including the right to receive and retain all dividends, rights and other distributions (if any) declared, paid or made by the Company on or after the Record Date.

3.3 The NewCo Shares

The NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued as the Scheme Consideration shall be duly authorised, validly issued, credited as fully paid and free from any Encumbrances and shall rank pari passu in all respects with one another.

It is anticipated that:

- (a) in the case of Entitled Shareholders (being Depositors and who are not Overseas Shareholders), the NewCo Shares shall be issued to CDP for the benefit and to the credit of such Entitled Shareholders' Securities Accounts;
- (b) in the case of Entitled Shareholders who hold CDIs on the CHES sub-register and the issuer-sponsored sub-register in Australia and who are not Overseas Shareholders, the NewCo Shares shall be issued to CDN. The NewCo Shares held by CDN will be subsequently transferred to such persons on the same sub-registers as the CDIs were held, based on their holding of CDIs as at the Record Date; and

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (c) in the case of the Entitled Shareholders (who are not Depositors, holders of CDIs or Overseas Shareholders), the NewCo Shares shall be issued to such Entitled Shareholders to be held on the issuer-sponsored sub-register in Australia.

There is no moratorium on NewCo Shares as a result of the listing of NewCo on the ASX.

Accordingly, immediately following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, Entitled Shareholders (who currently hold CDIs on the CHESSE sub-register and the issuer-sponsored sub-register in Australia and who are not Overseas Shareholders) and Entitled Shareholders (who are not Depositors, holders of CDIs or Overseas Shareholders) will hold their NewCo Shares on the relevant sub-registers in Australia, leaving CDP as the only registered holder of NewCo Shares on the Singapore Share Register maintained by the Singapore Share Registrar. As Depositors will not be able to withdraw their NewCo Shares held by CDP on their behalf and hold such NewCo Shares in the form of physical share certificates registered in their names on the Singapore Share Registrar after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions. The effect of this is that CDP will be the only member registered on the Singapore Share Register after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions. Please refer to Section 1.4.8 (Depositors will not be able to withdraw their NewCo Shares from CDP in the form of physical share certificates after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions) of this Circular. For more information on the procedures for the Company Restructuring and the Proposed Transfer Listing, please refer to paragraph 9.2 (Procedure for the Company Restructuring and the Proposed Transfer Listing) of the Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement set out in Appendix A (Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement) to this Circular. For more information on registration, dealings and settlement of NewCo Shares, please refer to Appendix G (Registration, Dealings and Settlement) to this Circular.

3.4 Overseas Shareholders

Restrictions in jurisdictions (outside of Singapore and Australia) may make it impracticable or unlawful for NewCo Shares to be issued under the Shareholders' Scheme to, or received under the Shareholders' Scheme by, Shareholders in certain jurisdictions (outside of Singapore and Australia). As at the Latest Practicable Date, Shareholders (whose addresses as shown in the Register of Members or the Depository Register or the CDI Register) in the following jurisdictions will be entitled to receive this Circular and have the NewCo Shares issued to them in accordance with the Shareholders' Scheme:

- (a) Singapore;
- (b) Australia;
- (c) Indonesia where the number of Shareholders is less than 50;
- (d) Ireland where (i) the Shareholder is a "qualified investor" (as defined in Article 2(e) of the Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and the Council of the European Union (the "Prospectus Regulation")) or (ii) the number of other Shareholders is less than 150;
- (e) Japan, where the number of Shareholders is less than 50;
- (f) Malaysia;
- (g) New Zealand;
- (h) Philippines, where the number of Shareholders is less than 20;
- (i) Switzerland;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (j) Thailand, where the number of Shareholders are less than 50, and subject to the relevant filing requirements under applicable Thai laws being complied with;
- (k) United Kingdom; and
- (l) any other person or jurisdiction in respect of which the Company and the NewCo reasonably believe that it is not prohibited and not unduly onerous or impracticable to issue the NewCo Shares to a shareholder with a registered address in such jurisdiction.

Nominees, custodians and other Shareholders who hold Shares on behalf of a beneficial owner resident outside Singapore, Australia, Malaysia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom may not forward this Circular (or any accompanying document) to anyone outside these countries without the consent of the Company and the NewCo.

A Shareholder whose address shown in the Register of Members of the Company or the Depository Register or the CDI Register in a jurisdiction outside Singapore, Australia, Indonesia, Ireland, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, Philippines, Switzerland, Thailand or the United Kingdom will be deemed to be an Overseas Shareholder for the purposes of the Shareholders' Scheme. For more information on how Shareholders who are deemed to be Overseas Shareholders would be treated under the Shareholders' Scheme, please refer to Section 3.5 (Sale Facility) of this Circular.

Therefore, persons into whose possession this Circular and/or the accompanying documents come should inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws and regulations of any such jurisdiction.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Shareholders' Scheme is proposed to all Shareholders and applies to all Shareholders, including those Shareholders to whom this Circular has not been and will not be sent.

This Circular does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to subscribe for or buy any security, nor is it a solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction, nor shall there be any sale, issuance or transfer of the NewCo Shares and/or any other securities referred to in this Circular in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable laws. For jurisdictional disclaimers in respect of the offer of NewCo Shares made pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme, please refer to Appendix H (Jurisdictional Disclaimers) to this Circular for more information.

3.5 Sale Facility

If you are an Overseas Shareholder, the entire NewCo Shares that would otherwise have been directly issued to you will be issued to the Sale Agent, as your nominee on trust, for sale through the Sale Facility and you will receive a pro rata share of the net proceeds from the sale of all the NewCo Shares sold through the Sale Facility. Overseas Shareholders will receive the proceeds of sale after deductions for applicable brokerage, foreign exchange, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges.

The Sale Agent will sell the NewCo Shares in such manner, on such financial market conducted by the ASX, at such price and on such other terms as the Sale Agent determines in good faith.

The Sale Facility will operate as follows:

- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable, but no more than 30 Business Days after the implementation of the Shareholders' Scheme, the Sale Agent will arrange for the sale of all the NewCo Shares allotted to it, held for the benefit of Overseas Shareholders. The sales will be effected in such manner, at such price and on such other terms as the Sale Agent determines in good faith and at the sole risk of the Overseas Shareholders; and

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (b) within five (5) Business Days of the date on which the last of the NewCo Shares allotted to the Sale Agent are sold, the Sale Agent will then remit the sale proceeds in Australian dollars, less any applicable brokerage, foreign exchange, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges, to NewCo or NewCo's account maintained with the Australian share registry as directed by NewCo which will then account to each Overseas Shareholder for their pro rata share of the aggregate sale proceeds.

Each Overseas Shareholder will receive their pro rata share of the aggregate sale proceeds on an averaged basis so that all Overseas Shareholders will receive the same Australian dollars equivalent price per NewCo Share (subject to rounding down to the nearest whole cent (in Australian dollars)).

The actual price received by an Overseas Shareholder for their NewCo Shares that are sold under the Sale Facility may be more or less than the actual price that is received by the Sale Agent for those NewCo Shares, less any applicable brokerage, foreign exchange, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges in respect of those NewCo Shares. Overseas Shareholders will receive the proceeds of the sale of their NewCo Shares as soon as reasonably practicable after the remittance of the sale proceeds to NewCo or NewCo's account maintained with the Australian share registry as directed by NewCo as noted in (b) above, by either:

- (i) a cheque in Australian dollars sent by prepaid post (at the risk of Overseas Shareholders) to their address as it appears on the Register of Members of the Company or the Depository Register on the Record Date; or
- (ii) deposit in Australian dollars into a bank account notified by the relevant Overseas Shareholders and to the Company (or the Australian Share Registrar or Singapore Registrar, as applicable) and recorded in, or for the purposes of, the Register of Members of the Company or the Depository Register at the Record Date.

3.6 Company Restructuring

The Company Restructuring pursuant to the Shareholder Scheme involves the exchange of new NewCo Shares for Shares on the basis of one (1) new NewCo Share for every one (1) Share, as at the Record Date.

The Company Restructuring is purely an internal restructuring exercise undertaken by the Company and the NewCo to enable a transfer of the shareholding interests of the Shareholders from an interest in the shareholding and capital of the Company to an interest in the shareholding and capital of the NewCo.

The principal assets of the NewCo immediately after the completion of the Company Restructuring will be the Group and the Company Restructuring will not cause or result in any substantive change in the financial position of the NewCo Group compared to that of the Group prior to the Company Restructuring. In particular, the aggregate assets and liabilities of the NewCo Group after the completion of the Company Restructuring will be substantially the same as that of the Group prior to completion of the Company Restructuring as no new assets will be injected into the NewCo Group pursuant to the Company Restructuring. For illustrative purposes only, the financial effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions are set out in Section 3.22 (Financial Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions) and paragraph 7 (Financial Effects of the Shareholders' Scheme) of the Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Document set out in Appendix A (Shareholders' Scheme Explanatory Statement) to this Circular.

Whilst there may be Overseas Shareholders who would not be directly issued NewCo Shares but will receive cash proceeds from the sale of their NewCo Shares by the Sale Agent as noted in Sections 3.4 (Overseas Shareholders) and 3.5 (Sale Facility) of this Circular, the Company Restructuring is not expected to cause or result in any substantive change in the shareholding composition or shareholding interests of the Shareholders, as the number of shareholders and shareholding composition of the NewCo immediately after the completion of the Company Restructuring are expected to be substantially the same as that of the Company prior to completion of the Company Restructuring.

The Company Restructuring is to be undertaken by way of the Shareholders' Scheme pursuant to Section 210 of the Companies Act and accordingly, is to be approved by a majority in number of Shareholders present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting, such majority holding not less than three-fourths in value of the Shares held by the Shareholders present and voting either in person or by proxy at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting, and by order of the Court, in compliance with the requirements under Section 210(3AB) of the Companies Act.

3.7 Capital structure of the NewCo upon completion of the Company Restructuring

For illustration purpose only, based on the capital structure of the Company as at the Latest Practicable Date, the capital structure of the NewCo immediately following implementation of the Shareholders' Scheme will be as set out in the following table:

	As at the Latest Practicable Date	Upon completion of the Company Restructuring
NewCo Shares	1	507,591,000
Performance Rights	Nil	5,289,000 ^{(1) (2)}

Notes:

- (1) This comprises the Performance Rights issued to Existing Civmec Performance Right Holders pursuant to the Proposed Exchange as noted in Section 6.1 (Termination of Existing PRP and the Outstanding Performance Rights issued under the Existing PRP) of this Circular.
- (2) This includes the 1,057,000 Performance Rights proposed to be issued to Mr Kevin James Deery, who is a proposed director of the NewCo. Please refer to Section 8.3 (Directors' and Substantial Shareholders' Interests in the NewCo Shares) of this Circular for more information of the interests of the proposed directors of NewCo following the implementation of the Shareholders' Scheme.

3.8 Rationale for the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions

The Change of Domicile through the Company Restructuring and the Proposed Transfer Listing to be implemented by way of the Shareholders' Scheme is purely an internal restructuring exercise undertaken by the Company and the NewCo to facilitate a migration of the shareholding interests of the Shareholders from an interest in the shareholding and capital of the Company to an interest in the shareholding and capital of the NewCo.

The Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions will enable the establishment of a corporate structure where:

- (a) the NewCo becomes an investment holding company owning 100.0% of the issued and paid-up share capital of the Company, and the listed vehicle in place of the Company;
- (b) the Company ceases its function as the listed vehicle within the NewCo Group; and
- (c) the NewCo, through the Group, will continue to own and operate the Business.

The Company is of the view that the rationale for the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions is as follows:

- (a) Australian operations: The Group has a total market capitalisation of approximately A$492 million as at the Latest Practicable Date and is one of Australia's largest heavy engineering companies and one of Australia's leading 'Tier 1' contactors, delivering multidisciplinary construction and engineering services to the Australian energy, resources, infrastructure, marine and defence sectors.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Group's head office is located in Western Australia and all of its operational facilities and projects are in Australia, including a 200,000m² heavy engineering facility located in the Australian Marine Complex in Henderson, Western Australia, being the largest facility of its kind in Australia. During FY2023, the Group employed over 3,400 people, all of whom are located in Australia. The Group's operations are conducted through its wholly-owned Australian incorporated subsidiary, Civmec Construction & Engineering Pty Ltd.

Upon completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NewCo and will relinquish its status as a listed company on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX and the NewCo Shares will be listed and quoted on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX.

Accordingly, having an Australian incorporated holding company which is listed and quoted on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX is expected to align the Group's solely Australian facilities, workforce and operations with that of the country of incorporation of the Group's holding company.

- (b) Australian Clients: The Company has observed that Australian corporations and government departments are increasingly introducing "local content" assessment criteria on capital and operating expenditure, in relation to which the Company's jurisdiction of incorporation, being Singapore, may potentially limit the number and value of opportunities which the Group is able to successfully tender.

The Company believes that it is in the best interests of the Shareholders to undertake the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions. In the near term and following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company believes that there will be a sustained and increasing demand for Australian local manufacturing, boosted by ongoing public and private sector capital expenditure across the resources, energy, infrastructure, marine and defence sectors and in the number and value of opportunities available to the NewCo Group.

The need to have in place an Australian incorporated holding company has become of increased importance to the Group during 2023, given the outcomes of the Australian Government's 2023 Defence Strategic Review, which affirmed Australia's need to take greater responsibility for its security and acknowledged the need to develop its sovereign defence industrial capability, including a commitment to continuous naval shipbuilding of which the Group (and following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Group) could be well placed to be an important and meaningful participant. This is particularly the case given Australia's participation in the AUKUS defence arrangement with the United Kingdom and the United States of America.

- (c) Access to capital: Having the NewCo (an Australian incorporated holding company which is listed on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX) is expected to enhance the NewCo Group's ability to raise capital to fund future growth via the ASX, which in turn, is expected to offer greater liquidity for Shareholders on both the SGX-ST and the ASX.

3.9 Future Plans for the Company and the NewCo Group

Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo will become the listed entity in place of the Company on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX. The NewCo's principal business activity will be that of investment holding. The Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of NewCo. The NewCo, through the Group, will continue to own and operate the Business.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.10 No cash outlay

Shareholders should note that no cash outlay (including any stamp duties or brokerage expenses) will be required from the Shareholders under the Shareholders' Scheme. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company will bear any cash outlay (including any stamp duties or brokerage expenses) that is required and no cash outlay will be required from Shareholders under the Shareholders' Scheme.

3.11 Conditions Precedent

- (c) the grant of an order by the Court for the approval of the Shareholders' Scheme (the "Shareholders' Scheme Court Order") and such Shareholders' Scheme Court Order having become final, and the registration of the Shareholders' Scheme Court Order with the ACRA pursuant to Section 210(5) of the Companies Act;
- (d) the listing and quotation notice from the SGX-ST having been obtained for the listing of, and quotation for, all the NewCo Shares (including the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme and the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the vesting of the performance rights to be granted under the New PRP) on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST, and the same not having been withdrawn prior to the Effective Date;
- (e) the approval of the ASX having been obtained for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of the ASX and for the quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX, subject to any conditions which the ASX may reasonably require, including implementation of the Shareholders Scheme, and the same not having been withdrawn prior to the Effective Date;

- (h) all Regulatory Approvals (as set out in Section 3.12 (Regulatory Approvals for the Shareholders' Scheme) of this Circular to the extent required) having been obtained and not withdrawn, suspended, varied or revoked prior to the Effective Date, on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Company;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (i) all consents, waivers and approvals which are necessary or required to be obtained by the Company from any third parties in connection with the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions (including consents required under change of control provisions in any agreements which any member of the Group is party to) having been obtained or completed on terms and conditions satisfactory to the Company and the same not having been withdrawn, suspended, varied or revoked prior to the Effective Date;
- (j) between the date of the Implementation Agreement and the Effective Date, no Prescribed Occurrence in relation to the Company or the NewCo (as the case may be) occurs other than as already publicly disclosed on or prior to the date of the Implementation Agreement and as required or contemplated by the Implementation Agreement or the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions;
- (k) the Company's warranties being true and accurate, as of the date of the Implementation Agreement and as of the Effective Date as though made on and as of that date; and
- (l) the NewCo's warranties being true and accurate, as of the date of the Implementation Agreement and as of the Effective Date as though made on and as of that date.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, all the conditions precedent have been satisfied (save for subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (e), (f) and (i)).

3.12 Regulatory Approvals for the Shareholders' Scheme

3.12.1 Court Sanction

The Shareholders' Scheme is subject to the sanction of the Court, as referred to in Section 3.11(c) (Conditions Precedent) of this Circular.

3.12.2 SGX-ST

The Company had on 15 March 2024 applied to the SGX-ST for the listing and quotation of all NewCo Shares (including the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme and the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the vesting of the performance rights to be granted under the New PRP), for which approval in-principle was obtained on 29 May 2024, subject to certain conditions set out in Section 1.5 (Application to the SGX-ST) of this Circular.

The approval in-principle of the SGX-ST is not to be taken as indication of the merits of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Ancillary Resolutions, the New PRP, the NewCo Shares, the Award Shares and the NewCo, the Company and/or its subsidiaries.

In addition, the Company had on 15 March 2024 applied to the SGX-ST and the SGX-ST had on 29 May 2024 advised that the SGX-ST has no objections to the Company's views that the listing requirements under Chapter 2 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual and the delisting requirements under Chapter 13 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual will not apply to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

3.12.3 MAS

Under Division 1 of Part XIII of the SFA, every offer of securities or securities-based derivatives contracts is considered a public offer for which a Singapore-law compliant prospectus is required to be registered, unless such offer is exempted from the prospectus requirements.

The MAS had on 31 May 2024, pursuant to Section 273(5) of the SFA, declared that Subdivisions (2) and (3) of Division 1 of Part XIII of the SFA (other than Section 257 of the SFA) shall not apply to the offer of shares in the NewCo to the Shareholders made pursuant to the Shareholders' Scheme and the Proposed Transfer Listing, for a period of six (6) months from 31 May 2024.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.12.4 SIC

As the Company Restructuring is a corporate restructuring implemented by way of a scheme of arrangement where there is no change in the effective control of the Company, the provisions of the Singapore Takeover Code are not applicable to the Company Restructuring.

3.12.5 ASX

An in-principle application has been made by the Company to the ASX (on its own behalf and on behalf of the NewCo) on 30 November 2023, for certain waivers from the listing rules of the ASX, including in relation to the Proposed Exchange (further details of which are set out in Section 6.1 (Termination of Existing PRP and the Outstanding Performance Rights issued under the Existing PRP) of this Circular), and other relief considered customary in relation to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

On 25 January 2024, the Company received in-principle advice from ASX that it is likely to grant the Company and the NewCo the following confirmations and waivers in connection with the NewCo's application to be admitted to the official list of ASX and the quotation of the NewCo Shares on ASX:

- (a) confirmation that ASX will accept the NewCo will satisfy the free-float requirements of ASX Listing Rule 1.1 condition 7 provided the Company is in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 12.4 at the time it ceased to be admitted to the official list of ASX;
- (b) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the NewCo to be admitted to the official list of ASX without satisfying the spread requirements of ASX Listing Rule 1.1 condition 8, on the condition that the Company was in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 12.4 at the time it ceased to trade on ASX;
- (c) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the NewCo to be admitted to the official list of ASX without complying with either ASX Listing Rule 1.2 or ASX Listing Rule 1.3, on the condition that the Company is in compliance with ASX Listing Rules 12.1 and 12.2 at the time it ceases to trade on ASX;
- (d) confirmation that ASX will accept that the directors, CEO and CFO of the NewCo are of good fame and character (to the extent that each person was a director, CEO and CFO of the Company prior to completion of the Shareholders' Scheme) on the condition that no further director appointments or resignations are made prior to the NewCo's admission to the official list of ASX;
- (e) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the NewCo's information memorandum not to state that it contains all the information required under section 710 of the Corporations Act, subject to the following conditions:
 - (i) the information memorandum incorporates this Circular;
 - (ii) the NewCo releases all the documents incorporated into this Circular by reference to the market as pre-quotation disclosure; and
 - (iii) the NewCo provides a statement to the market that the Company was in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 3.1 at the time the Company ceased trading on ASX;
- (f) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the information memorandum not to include a statement that the NewCo has not raised any capital for the three (3) months before the date of issue of the information memorandum and will not need to raise capital in the three (3) months after the date of issue of the information memorandum;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (g) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the information memorandum not to include a statement that a supplementary information memorandum will be issued if, between the issue of the information memorandum and the date the NewCo's securities are quoted on ASX, the NewCo becomes aware of any of the matters referred to in that rule, on the condition that the Company undertakes in a form acceptable to ASX to release such information to the market;
- (h) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the Company to cancel, without shareholder approval, the Existing Outstanding Performance Rights in consideration for the grant of new Performance Rights as part of the Proposed Exchange, on the condition that full details of the terms of the new Performance Rights are set out to ASX's satisfaction in this Circular and the Shareholders' Scheme becomes effective after receiving all required approvals; and
- (i) a waiver to permit the NewCo to issue new Performance Rights to Mr Kevin Deery, a proposed NewCo Director, as part of the Proposed Exchange on the condition that full details of the terms of the Consideration Performance Rights (as such term is defined in the rules of the New PRP) are set out to ASX's satisfaction in this Circular and the Shareholders' Scheme becomes effective after receiving all required approvals.

The Change of Domicile is considered a new listing of the NewCo under the ASX Listing Rules. Accordingly, the NewCo will, on or shortly after the date of this Circular, make an application to the ASX for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX and quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX. Such approval from the ASX for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX and quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX is one of the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions (the "ASX Approval"). In the event that the ASX Approval is not obtained, the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions would not be satisfied, and the Company would not be able to proceed with the completion of the Shareholders' Scheme. In which case, there will be no Change of Domicile and the head company of the Group will remain as the Company (domiciled in Singapore) and Shareholders will remain as Shareholders of the Company (domiciled in Singapore). For more information on the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions, please refer to Section 3.11 (Conditions Precedent) of this Circular.

3.13 Right to Terminate

The Implementation Agreement may be terminated at any time on or prior to the Effective Date as follows:

- (a) by either the Company or the NewCo, if any court or Governmental Agency has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions or any part thereof, or has refused to do anything necessary to permit the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions or any part thereof, and such order, decree, ruling, other action or refusal shall have become final and non-appealable;
- (b) by either:
 - (i) the Company, if the NewCo is in material breach of any provision of the Implementation Agreement or a Prescribed Occurrence has occurred in relation to the NewCo; or
 - (ii) the NewCo, if the Company is in material breach of any provision of the Implementation Agreement or a Prescribed Occurrence has occurred in relation to the Company, in each case provided that either the Company or the NewCo (as the case may be) has given written notice to the other party of its intention to terminate the Implementation Agreement. In this circumstance, the Implementation Agreement shall be terminated on the date falling five (5) business days after the date of such notice of termination; or

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (c) by either the Company or the NewCo, if (i) the Shareholders' Scheme submitted to the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting is not approved by the requisite majority of the Shareholders; (ii) the approval of the Shareholders for the Ancillary Resolutions is not obtained; (iii) the listing and quotation notice is not obtained from the SGX-ST; or (iv) the ASX's conditional admission approval of the NewCo has not been obtained by the hearing of the Court in respect of the application to sanction the Shareholders' Scheme.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Implementation Agreement, the Implementation Agreement shall, save for certain clauses thereunder, ipso facto terminate if any of the Shareholders' Scheme Conditions has not been satisfied (or, where applicable, has not been waived) by the Cut-off Date (being 27 October 2024 (which is a date falling 12 months from the date of the Implementation Agreement) or such other date as may be agreed in writing between the Company and the NewCo).

In the event of termination of the Implementation Agreement by either the Company or the NewCo pursuant to the above provisions: (a) the Implementation Agreement shall cease to have any further force or effect (save for certain clauses thereunder); (b) no party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other party; but (c) such termination shall not prejudice the rights of either party which have accrued or arisen prior to such termination, including, without limitation, any claim in respect of a breach of the Implementation Agreement.

There is no change to the issuer name and ticker codes on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX. The NewCo will commence trading on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX (on a normal settlement basis) under the name "Civmec Limited" and the ticker codes of "P9D" and "CVL", respectively, being the existing ticker codes of the Company (with further information in respect of deferred settlement trading of the NewCo Shares to be provided by ASX at the time of admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX). In addition, it should be noted that on the SGX, there will be no changes to the security name (which will remain as "Civmec Limited"), trading name (which will remain as "Civmec") and CDP statement name (which will remain as "Civmec") following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.19 Constitution of the NewCo

The NewCo was incorporated in Australia as a public limited company under the Corporations Act on 26 October 2023. As a result of the Proposed Transactions, there will be a change of domicile of the head company of the Group from the Company (domiciled in Singapore) to the NewCo (domiciled in Australia).

The Corporations Act may provide shareholders of Australian incorporated companies with certain rights and protection of which there may be no corresponding or similar provisions under the Companies Act. Accordingly, Shareholders may or may not be accorded the same level of shareholder rights and protections that a shareholder of a Singapore incorporated company would be accorded under the Companies Act and vice versa. Please refer to Appendix C entitled “The NewCo Constitution” to this Circular for the full text of the NewCo Constitution, Appendix D entitled “Comparison between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act” to this Circular for a comparison of certain provisions under the corporation laws of Australia and the companies law in Singapore and Section 4.2 (Material Differences between the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution) of this Circular for a summary of the key differences between the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution (noting that this summary should be read in conjunction with the NewCo Constitution set out in its entirety in Appendix C entitled “The NewCo Constitution” to this Circular). Subject to the laws of Australia (being the laws of incorporation of NewCo), the NewCo Constitution is in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the SGX-ST Listing Manual.

The abovementioned summaries are not exhaustive and are not intended to be and do not constitute legal advice and any person wishing to obtain advice on the differences between the Corporations Act and the Companies Act and/or the laws of any jurisdiction with which the Shareholder is not familiar is recommended to seek independent legal advice.

The proposed ratification of the NewCo Constitution is tabled as a special resolution at the EGM, please refer to Special Resolution 1 set out in the Notice of EGM on pages NE-1 to NE-8.

The existing Shareholders of the Company will be bound by the NewCo Constitution immediately after the completion of the Company Restructuring and the Shareholders’ Scheme.

3.20 Rights attaching to the NewCo Shares

A summary of the rights attaching to the NewCo Shares is set out below. This summary is qualified by the full terms of the NewCo Constitution and does not purport to be exhaustive or to constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of holders of the NewCo Shares. These rights and liabilities can involve complex questions of law arising from an interaction of the NewCo Constitution with statutory and common law requirements. For a holder of NewCo Shares to obtain a definitive assessment of the rights and liabilities which attach to the NewCo Shares in any specific circumstances, they should seek independent legal advice.

- (a) Ranking of New Co Shares: All NewCo Shares are of the same class and rank equally in all respects. Specifically, the NewCo Shares issued pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme will rank equally with the Existing NewCo Share. In conjunction with the Shareholders’ Scheme, the NewCo will concurrently cancel the Existing NewCo Share through a capital reduction and allot and issue the new NewCo Shares to the Shareholders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders’ Scheme.
- (b) Voting rights: Subject to any rights or restrictions, at general meetings:
 - (i) every holder of NewCo Shares present and entitled to vote may vote in person or by attorney, proxy or representative;
 - (ii) has one (1) vote on a show of hands; and
 - (iii) has one (1) vote for every NewCo Share held, upon a poll.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (c) Dividends rights: Holders of NewCo Shares will be entitled to dividends, distributed among members in proportion to the capital paid up, from the date of payment. No dividend carries interest against the NewCo. The NewCo must not pay a dividend unless the NewCo's assets exceed its liabilities immediately before the dividend is declared and the excess is sufficient for the payment of the dividend.
- (d) Variation of rights: The rights attaching to the NewCo Shares may only be varied by the consent in writing of the holders with at least 75.0% of votes in the class of shares, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a general meeting.
- (e) Transfer of NewCo Shares: NewCo Shares can be transferred upon delivery of a proper instrument of transfer to the NewCo or by a transfer in accordance with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules. The instrument of transfer must be in writing, in the approved form, and signed by the transferor and the transferee. Until the transferee has been registered, the transferor is deemed to remain the holder, even after signing the instrument of transfer. In some circumstances, the directors of the NewCo may refuse to register a transfer if upon registration the transferee will hold less than a marketable parcel (being a parcel of shares valued at more than A$500). The board of the NewCo may refuse to register a transfer of New Shares upon which the NewCo has a lien.
- (f) General meetings: Holders of NewCo Shares are entitled to be present in person, or by proxy, attorney or representative to attend and vote at general meetings of the NewCo.

The directors of the NewCo may convene a general meeting at their discretion. General meetings shall also be convened on requisition as provided for by the Corporations Act.

- (g) Unmarketable parcels: If the directors of the NewCo determine that a shareholder of NewCo holds an unmarketable parcel (being a parcel of shares valued at less than A$500), the NewCo Constitution provides that a notice may be given to the holder of the unmarketable parcel of NewCo Shares stating that the NewCo intends to sell their unmarketable parcel of NewCo Shares and remit the proceeds to the shareholder (a "Divestment Notice") unless a 'retention notice (being a written notice from the relevant shareholder who has received a Divestment Notice to the NewCo stating that the shareholder wishes to retain the unmarketable parcel of NewCo Shares) is received by the NewCo by a specified date. A Divestment Notice may be given only once in any 12-month period. The Company may also effect a disposal (without notice or "opt out" right) in relation to new holdings which comprised less than a marketable parcel at the time of creation of the holding. The provisions on the sale of unmarketable parcels of NewCo Shares applies to members of NewCo. Therefore, such provisions are not applicable to Depositors who hold an interest in NewCo Shares through CDP as CDP (and not the Depositors) is treated, under the Corporations Act and the NewCo Constitution, as a member of the Company in respect of the number of NewCo Shares credited to the respective securities accounts of such Depositors with CDP. However, it should be noted that in the event that a Depositor effects a removal of their NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register to hold the NewCo Shares in his/her/its name and is recognised as a member of NewCo, the provisions on the sale of unmarketable parcels of NewCo Shares will apply to such person (as a member of NewCo). For more information, please refer to Section 1.4.1 (Depositors are not shareholders of the NewCo) and Section 1.4.7 (Depositors may choose to effect a removal of their NewCo Shares and be registered directly on the Australian Share Register to become shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular.
- (h) Rights on winding up: If the NewCo is wound up, the liquidator may with the sanction of a special resolution, divide among the holders of NewCo Shares in kind the whole or any part of the property of the NewCo and may for that purpose set such value as the liquidator considers fair on any property to be so divided and may determine how the division is to be carried out as between the holders of NewCo Shares.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

3.21 The Proposed Change of Names

The NewCo is incorporated under the name of “Civmec Australia Limited”. On the basis that the listing of the NewCo on the ASX is effectively a re-listing of the Company, it is proposed that the NewCo will change its name to “Civmec Limited” (i.e., the existing name of the Company). In addition, it is proposed that the Company changes its name to “Civmec Singapore Limited”. Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company may be converted into a private company. Please refer to Section 5 (The Proposed Change of Names) of this Circular for more information on the Proposed Change of Names.

It is expected that the Company will change its name from “Civmec Limited” to “Civmec Singapore Limited” on 4 September 2024 and NewCo will change its name from “Civmec Australia Limited” to “Civmec Limited” on 13 September 2024. For more information, please refer to the indicative timetable set out in the Section entitled “Indicative Timetable” of this Circular. It should be noted that the dates and times set out in the indicative timetable are indicative only and may be subject to change. For the events listed in the indicative timetable as “expected”, please refer to future announcement(s) by the Company or the NewCo, as the case may be, for the exact dates and times of these events. The Company’s registration with ASIC as a registered foreign company will also be updated to reflect the Company’s new name.

There is no change to the issuer name and ticker codes on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX. The NewCo will commence trading on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX (on a normal settlement basis) under the name “Civmec Limited” and the ticker codes of “P9D” and “CVL”, respectively, being the existing ticker codes of the Company (with further information in respect of deferred settlement trading of the NewCo Shares to be provided by ASX at the time of admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX). In addition, it should be noted that on the SGX, there will be no changes to the security name (which will remain as “Civmec Limited”), trading name (which will remain as “Civmec”) and CDP statement name (which will remain as “Civmec”) following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

The Proposed Change of Names is tabled as two separate special resolutions at the EGM, one for the proposed change of name of the Company and the other for the proposed change of name for the NewCo, please refer to Special Resolutions 2 and 3, respectively, in the Notice of EGM on pages NE-1 to NE-8.

3.22 Financial Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions

There is no change in the share capital, net tangible asset and earnings per share of the Group pursuant to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions (before completion of the Shareholders’ Scheme and upon completion of the Shareholders’ Scheme), save for (a) estimated expenses of approximately A$1.0 million to be incurred in relation to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions; and (b) the cancellation of any existing treasury shares of the Company, neither of which is expected to have a material impact on the share capital, net tangible asset and earnings per share of the Group.

3.23 Tax Implications

The Shareholders’ Scheme may have tax implications for Shareholders. Please refer to Appendix F entitled “Tax Implications for Certain Entitled Shareholders” to this Circular for a summary of the general Australian and Singapore income tax, stamp duty and GST consequences of the Shareholders’ Scheme for certain Entitled Shareholders. It should be noted that this summary is general in nature and does not take into account the individual circumstances of each Entitled Shareholder. The tax consequences of the Shareholders’ Scheme may vary depending on the nature and characteristic of each Entitled Shareholder and their individual circumstances. Accordingly, Entitled Shareholders should not rely solely on the summary in substitution for specific advice on their own affairs from a registered tax agent.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Nothing in this Circular is to be construed as investment, legal, accounting, regulatory, tax or other advice. Shareholders should consult with their own business, legal, accounting, regulatory, tax or other advisers for independent advice to determine the appropriateness and consequences if the Shareholders' Scheme becomes effective in such Shareholder's specific circumstances.

3.24 Suspension in Trading

In connection with the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, Shareholders should note, subject to agreement of the SGX-ST and the Shareholders' Scheme becoming effective in accordance with its terms, the following indicative key dates in relation to the suspension of trading of the Shares on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and ASX:

- (a) On the SGX-ST: The expected last date for trading of the Shares on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST is expected to be 3 September 2024. The expected date for the commencement of trading of the NewCo Shares on the SGX-ST is expected to be on 9 September 2024.

The expected date for commencement of trading of the NewCo Shares on the ASX on a normal settlement basis is expected to be 13 September 2024.

After the Record Date, Shareholders who are issued NewCo Shares on the Australian Share Register will be able to call the Australian Share Registrar on 1300 850 505 (within Australian) or +61 3 9415 4000 (international) in each case, open from 8.30 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. (Melbourne time) Monday to Friday to confirm their number of NewCo Shares.

It is the responsibility of each person who trades in the NewCo Shares on the ASX to confirm their holdings before trading in the NewCo Shares.

If a person were to sell the NewCo Shares before receiving a holding statement, he/she/it shall do so at his/her/its own risk. The Company, the NewCo, the Singapore Share Registrar and the Australian Share Registrar disclaim all liability, whether in negligence or otherwise, if such person sells his/her/its NewCo Shares before receiving his/her/its holding statement, even if he/she/it has obtained details of his/her/its holding from the Singapore Share Registrar or the Australian Share Registrar.

4. THE PROPOSED RATIFICATION OF THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

4.1 The NewCo Constitution

The NewCo was incorporated in Australia as a public limited company under the Corporations Act on 26 October 2023. As a result of the Proposed Transactions, there will be a change of domicile of the head company of the Group from the Company (domiciled in Singapore) to the NewCo (domiciled in Australia).

The Corporations Act may provide shareholders of Australian incorporated companies with certain rights and protection of which there may be no corresponding or similar provisions under the Companies Act. Accordingly, Shareholders may or may not be accorded the same level of shareholder rights and protections that a shareholder of a Singapore incorporated company would be accorded under the Companies Act and vice versa. Please refer to Appendix C entitled "The NewCo Constitution" to this Circular for the full text of the NewCo Constitution, Appendix D entitled "Comparison between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act" to this Circular for a comparison of certain provisions under the corporation laws of Australia and the companies law in Singapore and Section 4.2 (Material Differences between the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution) of this Circular for a summary of the key differences between the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution (noting that this summary should be read in conjunction with the New Constitution set out in its entity in Appendix C entitled "The NewCo Constitution" to this Circular).

The abovementioned summaries are not exhaustive and are not intended to be and do not constitute legal advice and any person wishing to obtain advice on the differences between the Corporations Act and the Companies Act and/or the laws of any jurisdiction with which the Shareholder is not familiar is recommended to seek independent legal advice.

The proposed ratification of the NewCo Constitution is tabled as a special resolution at the EGM, please refer to Special Resolution 1 set out in the Notice of EGM on pages NE-1 to NE-8.

The existing Shareholders of the Company will be bound by the NewCo Constitution immediately after the completion of the Company Restructuring and the Shareholders' Scheme.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

4.2 Material Differences between the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution

The following sets out a summary of the material differences between the provisions of the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution for Shareholders' reference. The rights and liabilities attaching to the ownership of the NewCo Shares arise from a combination of the NewCo Constitution, statute, the ASX Listing Rules and general law.

This summary is not exhaustive nor does it constitute a definitive statement of the rights and liabilities of shareholders of the NewCo. Shareholders are advised to refer to Appendix C (The NewCo Constitution) to the Circular which sets out the NewCo Constitution in its entirety and Appendix D (Comparison between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act) to this Circular for a comparison of certain provisions under the corporation laws of Australia and the companies act in Singapore.

This summary is not intended to be and do not constitute legal advice and any person wishing to obtain advice on the differences between the Constitution and the NewCo Constitution as well as the differences between the Corporations Act and the Companies Act and/or the laws of any jurisdiction with which the Shareholder is not familiar is recommended to seek independent legal advice.

(a) Depositors are not shareholders of the NewCo

The Constitution defines the terms "Member", "holder of a/any share" or "shareholder" to mean any registered holder of shares for the time being or if the registered shareholder is the Depository, a Depositor named in the Depository Register (for such period as shares are entered in the Depositor's Securities Account).

On the other hand, the term "shareholder" is not defined in the NewCo Constitution. Under the Corporations Act, a person is a member of a company if they: (a) are a member of the company on its registration; (b) agree to become a member of the company after its registration and their name is entered on the register of members; or (c) become a member of the company under section 167 of the Corporation Act (membership arising from conversion of a company from one limited by guarantee to one limited by shares). Accordingly, only persons whose names appear on the share register(s) of the NewCo are shareholders of the NewCo so only CDP will be recognised as shareholder of the NewCo on the Singapore Share Register. Depositors are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo under the Corporations Act and would not be accorded the rights of shareholders. Depositors may only have the benefit of rights attaching to the NewCo Shares conferred on shareholders through or with the assistance of CDP as arranged or pursuant to CDP's terms and conditions for the operation of securities accounts with CDP, as amended from time to time, and CDP's terms and conditions to act as Depository for foreign securities, as amended from time to time, or otherwise provided for in the NewCo Constitution or by the NewCo.

Please refer to Section 1.4 (Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors) of this Circular for more information on the effects of Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors.

(b) Proxies

The Constitution provides that, save for members which are relevant intermediaries (as such term is defined in the Companies Act) who may appoint more than two (2) proxies to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting, a member may appoint not more than two (2) proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting.

The NewCo Constitution provides that a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the NewCo may appoint a person as a proxy to attend and vote for the shareholder in accordance with the Corporations Act but not otherwise. Under the Corporations Act, if a member is entitled to cast two (2) or more votes at the meeting, they may appoint two (2) proxies. Consequently, for public companies a member is not entitled to appoint more than two (2) proxies. For more information on appointment of proxies, please refer to Section 7.8 (Proxies) of Appendix D (Comparison Between the Singapore Companies Act and Australian Corporations Act) to this Circular. In addition, there is no concept of “relevant intermediaries” under the Corporations Act, and in turn, the Corporations Act also does not similarly provide for members who are “relevant intermediaries” to appoint two (2) or more proxies to attend, speak and vote at a general meeting.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, “relevant intermediaries” holding NewCo Shares through CDP are not recognised as shareholders of the NewCo and will not be able to appoint any proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meeting. As mentioned in Section 1.4.1 (Depositors are not shareholders of the NewCo) of this Circular, only CDP will be recognised as the shareholder of the NewCo Shares on the Singapore Share Register and be able to appoint not more than two (2) proxies. Accordingly, “relevant intermediaries” holding NewCo Shares through CDP will not be recognised as shareholder of the NewCo and may only have the benefit of rights attaching to those shares which are conferred on shareholders through or with the assistance of CDP. Therefore, investors who hold NewCo Shares through “relevant intermediaries” may exercise their votes by instructing their “relevant intermediaries” to specify their voting instructions in accordance with the instructions and timeline stipulated by the “relevant intermediaries”. The “relevant intermediaries” will in turn collate the respective aggregate number of votes cast “for”, “against” and “abstain” they have received in respect of each resolution and provide their clients’ voting instructions by completing and submitting the voting instructions form in accordance with the procedures set out in Section 1.4.2 (Attendance and Voting by Depositors at general meetings of the NewCo) of this Circular. For the avoidance of doubt, a “relevant intermediary” may indicate in their voting instruction form to be submitted the respective aggregate number of votes cast “for”, “against” and “abstain” in respect of each resolution.

Investors who hold NewCo Shares through “relevant intermediaries” are, however, permitted to attend general meetings of the NewCo in person. Such investors who hold NewCo Shares through “relevant intermediaries” attending the general meetings of the NewCo have the right to speak (but not vote in person) at the general meeting.

(c) Treasury Shares

The concept of treasury shares does not exist under Australian law. Under the Corporations Act, only in limited circumstances may a company hold shares in itself. Such limited circumstances include, inter alia, under a share buy-back in accordance with the Corporations Act and under a court order. Shares which are bought back must be cancelled.

The concept of treasury shares exists under the Companies Act. Under the Constitution, it is provided that notwithstanding anything in the Constitution, a treasury share shall be subject to such rights and restrictions as may be prescribed in the Companies Act and may be dealt with by the Company in such manner as may be permitted by, and in accordance with, the Companies Act.

(d) Share Certificates

The NewCo Constitution provides that so long as dealings in Securities (as defined in the NewCo Constitution) of the NewCo takes place under an Uncertificated Transfer System (as defined in the NewCo Constitution), the Company need not issue any certificate in respect of Securities held as an Uncertificated Securities Holding (as defined in the NewCo Constitution). Under the Corporations Act, the directors of the NewCo (so long as the shares are held through an Uncertificated Transfer System) may decide to issue a share certificate but a shareholder is not entitled to share certificates.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Constitution provides that every member shall be entitled to receive share certificates in reasonable denominations for his holding.

As mentioned in Section 1.4.8 (Depositors will not be able to withdraw their NewCo Shares from CDP in the form of physical share certificates after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions) of this Circular, following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, Depositors will no longer be able to withdraw their NewCo Shares from CDP in the form of physical share certificates registered in their own name. Instead, Depositors who wish to have NewCo Shares registered in their own names and recognised as shareholders of the NewCo can only effect a removal of their NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register pursuant to which they would be registered directly in their own name on the Australian Share Register. Shareholders who are registered on the Australian Share Register hold the NewCo Shares as uncertificated holdings. No physical share certificates will be issued in respect of the holder's uncertificated holdings on the Australian Share Register. Instead, a holding statement setting out the holder's uncertificated holdings of the NewCo Shares based on the relevant sub-register in Australia will be issued whenever there are any changes in their uncertificated holdings.

Additional holding statements may be requested at any other time either directly through the relevant holder's broker (in the case of a holding on the CHESS sub-register) or through the Australian Share Registrar (in the case of a holding on the issuer sponsored sub-register). In order to request such additional holding statements, holders on the issuer sponsored sub-register should contact the Australian Share Registrar on their request and holders on the CHESS sub-register should contract their Australian broker on their request. The Australian Share Registrar charges a fee (currently A$55 (inclusive of GST)) for an ad hoc request for holding statements. Holders on the CHESS sub-register may wish to check with their Australian broker on any fees it may charge for an ad hoc request for holding statements.

It should be noted that holders on the issuer sponsored sub-register or the CHESS sub-register are provided with online access to their accounts where they may check their uncertificated holdings of NewCo Shares based on the relevant sub-register.

For more information, please refer to Section 1.4 (Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions on Depositors) of this Circular.

(e) Direct voting

The NewCo Constitution permits the board to allow for 'direct voting' at general meetings (such as electronic or postal voting), in which case every shareholder has one (1) vote for each share held.

The Constitution provides that members may, subject to approval of the Directors of the Company at their sole discretion, be granted the option to vote in absentia if unable to vote in person at any general meeting, via such voting methods as may be approved by the Directors of the Company, including but not limited to voting by mail, electronic mail or facsimile, subject to the Constitution, applicable laws and the rules of the SGX-ST Listing Manual.

(f) Notice of meetings

Under the NewCo Constitution, the NewCo is required to give at least 28 days' written notice for all general meetings (regardless of whether ordinary or special resolutions are being tabled at the general meeting) in accordance with the Corporations Act, whereas the Constitution provides that at least 14 clear days' notice in writing is required (in the case of ordinary resolutions tabled at the general meeting) and at least 21 clear days' notice in writing is required (in the case of special resolutions tabled at the general meeting).

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

If and when a general meeting of NewCo is convened, the notice of meeting, together with the relevant meeting documents (which may include the annual report or the circular to shareholders, as the case may be) will generally be despatched on or around the time the notice of meeting is issued.

(g) Proxy forms

Proxy forms must be received by the NewCo not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time appointed for the holding of the meeting.

Under the Constitution, the instrument appointing a proxy (i) if delivered personally or sent by post, shall be deposited at the office or such other place within Singapore as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting; or (ii) where submitted by electronic communication, must be received through such means as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the general meeting, and in either case not less than seventy-two (72) hours (or such other period as may be required or permitted under the Companies Act) before the time appointed for holding the meeting.

(h) Unmarketable pieces

Subject to the NewCo Constitution, the Corporations Act, the ASX Listing Rules and ASX Settlement Operating Rules, the NewCo may sell the shares of a shareholder who holds less than a 'marketable parcel' of shares (being a parcel of shares valued at less than A$500) and remit the proceeds to the shareholder, provided that the NewCo must provide the shareholder with at least six (6) weeks' notice and upon receipt of the notice the shareholder may elect that their shares are not sold in which case the shareholder will retain the shares. Where a shareholder has acquired an unmarketable parcel after the date of the NewCo Constitution, the NewCo need only provide that shareholder seven (7) days' notice and the shareholder does not have the option to retain those shares (in which case the shareholder must dispose of the shares or acquire more shares such that they no longer hold an unmarketable parcel to avoid the NewCo disposing of those shares and remitting the proceeds to the shareholder). For more information on the sale of unmarketable parcel of shares, please refer to Section 3.20(g) (Rights attaching to the NewCo Shares – Unmarketable parcels) of this Circular. On the other hand, there is no such regulation in the Constitution.

The provisions on the sale of unmarketable parcels of NewCo Shares applies to members of NewCo. Therefore, such provisions are not applicable to Depositors who hold an interest in NewCo Shares through CDP as CDP (and not the Depositors) is treated, under the Corporations Act and the NewCo Constitution, as a member of the Company in respect of the number of NewCo Shares credited to the respective securities accounts of such Depositors with CDP. However, it should be noted that in the event that a Depositor effects a removal of their NewCo Shares to the Australian Share Register to hold the NewCo Shares in his/her/its name and is recognised as a member of NewCo, the provisions on the sale of unmarketable parcels of NewCo Shares will apply to such person (as a member of NewCo). For more information on the sale of unmarketable parcels of shares, please refer to Section 3.20(g) (Rights attaching to the NewCo Shares – Unmarketable parcels) of this Circular.

(i) Proportional takeover provisions

A proportional off-market takeover bid ("PT Bid") is a takeover offer sent to all shareholders but only for a specified portion of each shareholder's securities. Accordingly, if a shareholder accepts in full the offer under a PT Bid, it will dispose of the specified portion of its securities in the company and retain the balance of the securities.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The NewCo Constitution contains provisions for shareholder approval to be required in relation to any PT Bid. These provisions will cease to apply unless renewed by special resolution of the shareholders in general meeting by the third anniversary of the date of the NewCo Constitution's adoption. The proportional takeover provisions do not apply to full takeover offers.

If a PT Bid is made, NewCo Directors must hold a meeting of shareholders of the class of securities the subject of the PT Bid, to consider passing an approving resolution in respect of the PT Bid. The provisions of the NewCo Constitution relating to general meetings apply to the meeting with any modifications the board decides are required in the circumstances.

The resolution will be passed if more than 50.0% of votes are cast in favour of the resolution. The bidder and its associates are excluded from voting on the resolution. An approving resolution must be voted on before the 14th day before the end of the PT Bid period. If no such resolution is considered by the deadline, a resolution approving the PT Bid is taken to have been passed.

On the other hand, the Constitution does not contain provisions in relation to proportional takeover bid.

(j) Variation of class rights

The NewCo's only class of shares on issue is ordinary shares. Subject to the Corporations Act and the terms of issue of a class of shares, the rights attaching to any class of shares may be varied or cancelled:

- (i) with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters of the issued shares included in that class; or
- (ii) by a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of those shares.

In either case, in accordance with the Corporations Act, the holders of not less than 10.0% of the votes in the class of shares, the rights of which have been varied or cancelled, may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to exercise its discretion to set aside such variation or cancellation.

Under the Constitution, if at any time the share capital is divided into different classes, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied or abrogated either with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters of the issued shares of the class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of the class and to every such special resolution the provisions of the Companies Act shall with such adaptations as are necessary apply, provided that the necessary quorum requirements are satisfied.

(k) Declaration of dividends

Under the NewCo Constitution, the board may from time to time declare or determine that a dividend is payable, subject to any special rights or restrictions attached to any shares.

Under the Constitution, the directors may, with the sanction of a general meeting, from time to time declare dividends, subject to but no such dividend shall (except as by applicable law expressly authorised) be payable otherwise than out of the profits.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

(l) Dividend reinvestment plan

The NewCo Constitution authorises the board, on any terms and at their discretion, to establish a dividend reinvestment plan (under which any shareholder may elect that the dividends payable by the NewCo be reinvested by a subscription for securities).

The Constitution does not contain regulations on dividend reinvestment plan.

(m) Directors – number and composition of the board

Under the NewCo Constitution, the minimum number of directors that may comprise the board is two (2) and the maximum is fixed by the board (if any). The Constitution currently provides that the number of Directors shall not be less than two (2) but there shall be no maximum number of Directors (until otherwise determined by a general meeting).

(n) Directors – re-election

Under the NewCo Constitution, no person other than a retiring director or a director vacating office (where they were appointed by the board to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the board) is eligible to be elected a director at any general meeting unless a notice of the person's candidature (signed by the person) is given to the NewCo at its registered office at least 35 business days before the meeting (or, in the case of a meeting that shareholders have requested the board to call, 30 business days).

Under the Constitution, a person, other than a Director retiring at the meeting, shall be eligible for election to office as a Director at any general meeting if not less than eleven (11) nor more than forty-two (42) clear days before the day appointed for the meeting there shall have been left at the office notice in writing signed by some member duly qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given of his intention to propose such person for election and also notice in writing duly signed by the nominee giving his consent to the nomination and signifying his candidature for the office or the intention of such member to propose him, Provided That in the case of a person recommended by the Directors for election nine (9) clear days' notice only shall be necessary, and notice of each and every candidate for election shall be served on all members at least seven (7) clear days prior to the meeting at which the election is to take place.

(o) Directors – retirement

In respect of the NewCo, retirement will occur on a rotational basis so that any director who has held office for three (3) or more years or three or more annual general meetings (other than a managing director) retires at the next annual general meeting of the NewCo. A retiring director will be eligible for re-election without needing to give any prior notice of an intention to submit for re-election and will hold office as a director (subject to re-election) until the end of the general meeting at which the director retires. However, for so long as the NewCo is listed on the SGX-ST, a managing director will remain subject to the rotational retirement.

It should be noted that ASX Listing Rule 14.4 provides, among other things, that a director of an entity must not hold office (without re-election) past the third annual general meeting following the director's appointment or 3 years, whichever is longer. It is further noted that ASX Listing Rule 14.5 provides that an entity which has directors must hold an election of directors at each annual general meeting. The note to ASX Listing Rule 14.5 further explains that ASX Listing Rule 14.5 applies even where no director is required to stand for re-election at an annual general meeting under ASX Listing Rule 14.4. An entity must have at least one director stand for election or re-election at each annual general meeting. If it is not having a new director stand for election and no director is due to stand for re-election under ASX Listing Rule 14.4, the entity must select at least one of its existing director to stand for re-election.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The Constitution provides that, subject to the Constitution and the Companies Act, at each annual general meeting all the Directors for the time being shall retire from office. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

(p) Directors – remuneration

In respect of the NewCo, the directors (other than executive directors) will be paid by way of fees for services as determined by the directors of NewCo, provided that the maximum aggregate sum per annum may not exceed (i) the amount last approved by NewCo in general meeting; or (ii) in the case where a general meeting has not been held to approve the amount, the amount fixed by the directors of NewCo prior to NewCo being admitted to the official list of the ASX as disclosed in a prospectus or equivalent disclosure provided in connection with that admission. Any change to that maximum aggregate sum needs to be approved by shareholders of NewCo.

The directors of NewCo have fixed the maximum aggregate sum per annum that may be paid to directors (other than executive directors) as S$368,000 (equivalent to approximately A$404,800 calculated based on the exchange rate of S$1.00: A$1.10 as at 4 July 2024)¹⁴ (being the maximum aggregate sum per annum approved by shareholders of the Company at the 2023 AGM). Any change to that maximum aggregate sum needs to be approved by shareholders of the NewCo.

The NewCo Constitution also makes provision for the NewCo to pay reasonable expenses of directors in attending meetings and carrying on their duties.

Under the Constitution, it is provided that:

- (i) the fees of the Directors shall be determined from time to time by the Company in general meetings and such fees shall not be increased except pursuant to an ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting where notice of the proposed increase shall have been given in the notice convening the meeting;
- (ii) notwithstanding any other regulation in the Constitution, the remuneration in the case of non-executive Directors shall be payable by a fixed sum and shall not at any time be by commission on or percentage of the profits or turnover, and no Director (whether an executive Director or otherwise) shall be remunerated by a commission on or percentage of turnover; and
- (iii) the Directors shall be entitled to be repaid all travelling or such reasonable expenses as may be incurred in attending and returning from meetings of the Directors or of any committee of the Directors or general meetings or otherwise howsoever in or about the business of the Company in the course of the performance of their duties as Directors.

(q) Indemnities

The NewCo, to the extent permitted by law, indemnifies each director, secretary and other officer of the NewCo and, if the board considers it appropriate, each director, secretary and other officer of any subsidiary of the NewCo against any liability incurred by that person as an officer of the NewCo or its subsidiaries (which includes legal costs incurred by that person in defending an action for a liability of that person), unless the liability is incurred in circumstances that the board resolves do not justify indemnification.

¹⁴ No representation is being made that the S$ or A$ amounts referred herein could have been or could be converted into S$ or A$, as the case may be, at any particular rate, or at all.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The NewCo, to the extent permitted by law, may pay, or agree to pay, a premium for a contract insuring any director, secretary and other officer of the NewCo and any subsidiary of the NewCo against any liability incurred by that person as an officer of the NewCo or its subsidiaries (which includes legal costs incurred by that person in defending an action for a liability of that person).

The NewCo may give a former director access to certain papers, including documents provided or available to the directors and other papers referred to in those documents.

The NewCo, to the extent permitted by law, may enter into an agreement or deed with any director, secretary and other officer of the NewCo and any subsidiary of the NewCo under which it agrees to indemnify that person, maintain insurance or provide access to documents in a manner consistent with the above provisions.

The Constitution provides that, subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted under the Companies Act, every Director, managing director, manager, agent, auditor, secretary and other officer for the time being of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred or to be incurred by him in the execution and discharge of his duties or in relation thereto.

5. THE PROPOSED CHANGE OF NAMES

The NewCo is incorporated under the name of “Civmec Australia Limited”. On the basis that the listing of the NewCo on the ASX is effectively a re-listing of the Company, it is proposed that the NewCo will change its name to “Civmec Limited” (i.e., the existing name of the Company). In addition, it is proposed that the Company changes its name to “Civmec Singapore Limited”. Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company may be converted into a private company.

It is expected that the Company will change its name from “Civmec Limited” to “Civmec Singapore Limited” on 4 September 2024 and NewCo will change its name from “Civmec Australia Limited” to “Civmec Limited” on 13 September 2024. For more information, please refer to the indicative timetable set out in the Section entitled “Indicative Timetable” of this Circular. It should be noted that the dates and times set out in the indicative timetable are indicative only and may be subject to change. For the events listed in the indicative timetable as “expected”, please refer to future announcement(s) by the Company or the NewCo, as the case may be, for the exact dates and times of these events. The Company’s registration with ASIC as a registered foreign company will also be updated to reflect the Company’s new name.

There is no change to the issuer name and ticker codes on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX. The NewCo will commence trading on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX (on a normal settlement basis) under the name “Civmec Limited” and the ticker codes of “P9D” and “CVL”, respectively, being the existing ticker codes of the Company (with further information in respect of deferred settlement trading of the NewCo Shares to be provided by ASX at the time of admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX). In addition, it should be noted that on the SGX, there will be no changes to the security name (which will remain as “Civmec Limited”), trading name (which will remain as “Civmec”) and CDP statement name (which will remain as “Civmec”) following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

The Proposed Change of Names is tabled as two separate special resolutions at the EGM, one for the proposed change of name of the Company and the other for the proposed change of name for the NewCo, please refer to Special Resolutions 2 and 3, respectively, in the Notice of EGM on pages NE-1 to NE-8.

6. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW PRP BY THE NEWCO

6.1 Termination of Existing PRP and the Outstanding Performance Rights issued under the Existing PRP

6.1.1 Termination of Existing PRP and Existing Outstanding Performance Rights and Proposed Exchange

The Existing PRP was adopted by Shareholders at the annual general meeting of the Company held on 25 October 2018, and caters principally to the key senior executives of the Group. As at the Latest Practicable Date, there were 17 Existing Civmec Performance Right Holders with an aggregate of 5,289,000 Existing Civmec Performance Rights outstanding, including 1,057,000 Existing Civmec Performance Rights held by Mr Kevin James Deery (who is a proposed director of the NewCo), 529,000 Existing Civmec Performance Rights held by Mr Charles Sweeney (who is an existing director of the NewCo), 529,000 Existing Civmec Performance Rights held by Mr Adam Goldsmith (who is an existing director of the NewCo) and 396,000 held by Mr Peter Ricciardello (who is an existing director of the NewCo) (the “Existing Outstanding Performance Rights”). As mentioned in Section 2.2 (The NewCo) of this Circular, it is anticipated that the existing directors of NewCo, being Mr Peter Ricciardello, Mr Adam Goldsmith and Mr Charles Sweeney, will resign as directors of NewCo on or from the Effective Date. As at the Latest Practicable Date, Mr Peter Ricciardello, Mr Adam Goldsmith and Mr Charles Sweeney are executive officers of the Company and it is anticipated that they will be executive officers of the NewCo. For more information, please refer to Section 3.16 (Corporate Information of the Company) and Section 3.17 (Corporate Information of the NewCo) of this Circular.

In connection with the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company and the NewCo propose to enter into performance rights exchange deed with each Existing Civmec Performance Right Holders pursuant to which the Existing Outstanding Performance Rights held by such holders will be cancelled and will no longer be exercisable and they would be issued new performance rights under the New PRP on substantially the same terms as their Existing Outstanding Performance Rights, which, upon vesting, will entitle the holder to be issued new NewCo Shares (the “Proposed Exchange”). Save for being issued new NewCo Shares upon vesting of the new performance rights under the New PRP, the terms of the new performance rights to be issued to the Existing Civmec Performance Right Holders pursuant to the Proposed Exchange remain the same.

The Proposed Exchange is conditional on the Shareholders’ Scheme becoming effective and the ASX granting a waiver of ASX Listing Rule 6.23.2 to the extent necessary for the cancellation of the Existing Outstanding Performance Rights in accordance with the terms of the respective performance rights exchange deed with each Existing Civmec Performance Right Holders, and any conditions to such waiver being satisfied. ASX Listing Rule 6.23.2 provides that a change which has the effect of cancelling an option for consideration can only be made if holders of the ordinary securities approve the change. If any condition is not satisfied or waived before the date on which the Implementation Agreement is terminated (or such later date as the parties agree), the respective performance rights exchange deed will automatically terminate. Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the relevant conditions, the Proposed Exchange will take place on the date the Shareholders are issued NewCo Shares in accordance with the Shareholders’ Scheme (the “Proposed Exchange Effective Date”).

As at the Latest Practicable Date, all of the Existing Holders have agreed to the Proposed Exchange.

In addition, it is also proposed that the Existing PRP be terminated and the NewCo adopts the New PRP. Rule 16.2 the Existing PRP provides that the Existing PRP may be terminated at any time by the committee, subject to all relevant approvals which may be required and if the Existing PRP is so terminated, no further performance rights shall be granted by the committee thereunder. The committee will by way of resolution resolved to, inter alia, terminate the Existing PRP with effect from the Effective Date, subject to Shareholders’ approval being obtained for the proposed adoption of the New PRP and the Shareholders’ Scheme becoming effective.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

6.2 Proposed Adoption of the New PRP

The adoption of the New PRP (including the grant of new Performance Rights by the NewCo pursuant to the Proposed Exchange) is tabled as Ordinary Resolution 4 at the EGM, please refer to the Notice of EGM on pages NE-1 to NE-8. If so approved, the New PRP will take effect on the Effective Date.

6.3 Material differences between the Existing PRP and the New PRP

Given the proposed change of domicile of the head company of the Group from a Singapore incorporated company to an Australian incorporated entity, certain changes have been made to the Existing PRP mainly to bring the provisions in line with the Corporations Act (which NewCo, being an Australian incorporated company, is required to comply).

If a Performance Right is granted:

- (a) under a performance rights plan which has been approved by shareholders within three (3) years before the date of grant, then such performance rights will not be included in calculating NewCo's 15.0% issuance capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1 (the "ASX Exception") which operates to limit the number of equity securities a company may issue, or agree to issue, without shareholder approval over a rolling 12 month period to 15.0% of the number of equity securities the company had on issue at the start of the 12 month period (subject to certain exceptions such as issues on a pro rata basis). For more information on ASX Listing Rule 7.1, please refer to Section 7.3 (Limits under the NewCo Share Issue Mandate) of this Circular; and
- (b) in accordance with the Corporations Act, the NewCo will be relieved from, among other things, the disclosure requirements for the issue, sale and transfer of securities under the Corporations Act which would include, among other things, the requirement to lodge a prospectus or cleansing notice when Award Shares are delivered to a Participant (the "Disclosure Relief"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Company is still required to comply with the applicable disclosure obligations under the SGX-ST Listing Manual even if the Disclosure Relief is relied on.

A summary of the material differences between the Existing PRP and the New PRP is set out below:

(a) Key Senior Executives

In order to rely on the Disclosure Relief, a grant of Performance Rights under the New PRP must be to an 'ESS participant' (as such term is defined in the Corporations Act). Under the Corporations Act, an 'ESS participant' includes directors and all employees.

Accordingly, it is clarified in the definition of "Key Senior Executives" that such persons must be an 'ESS participant'. It should be noted that the categories of persons listed in the existing definition of "Key Senior Executives" already fall within the definition of "ESS participant" (as such term is defined in the Corporations Act) and accordingly, this clarification does not have an impact on the scope of "Key Senior Executives" eligible to participate in the New PRP.

(b) Controlling Shareholders and their Associates

A grant of equity securities (including the Performance Rights) to a Controlling Shareholder who is not also an 'ESS participant' cannot be made in reliance on the Disclosure Relief as noted above (being the relief from disclosure requirements under the Corporations Act for the issue, sale and transfer of securities which includes, among other things, the requirement to lodge a prospectus or cleansing notice when Award Shares are delivered to a Participant under the New PRP). Accordingly, it is clarified that Controlling Shareholders and their Associates who are not also an 'ESS participant' are no longer eligible to participate in the New PRP.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

For the avoidance of doubt, Controlling Shareholders and their Associates who meet the eligibility criteria under the rules of the New PRP are eligible to participate in the New PRP, provided that (i) the participation of each Controlling Shareholder or their Associates; and (ii) the actual number and terms of the Performance Rights to be granted to them have been approved by independent Shareholders in separate resolutions for each such person. For a summary of the rules of the New PRP, please refer to Section 6.6 (Summary of the rules of the New PRP) of this Circular. The summary of the rules of the New PRP should be read in conjunction with the full text of the rules of the New PRP set out in Appendix E (Rules of the New PRP) to this Circular.

(c) Consideration Performance Rights

The requirements under the Corporations Act and applicable law in respect of a grant of a Consideration Performance Right under the New PRP is clarified, including the requirement to provide the grantee with an offer document setting out, among other things, the key terms of, and risks associated with, the proposed grant, and not grant the Performance Rights until 14 days have lapsed since such information has been provided to the grantee.

(d) Termination Benefits Restrictions under Part 2D.2 Division 2 of the Corporations Act

Part 2D.2 Division 2 of the Corporations Act restricts the benefits which can be given without shareholders' approval to individuals who hold, or have held, in the last three (3) years, a managerial or executive office on leaving employment with a company or its related bodies corporate (the "Termination Benefits Restrictions"). To ensure that NewCo does not inadvertently breach the Termination Benefits Restrictions, a new provision has been included in the rules of the New PRP to provide that NewCo does not need to issue any Award Shares under the New PRP if such an issue would be in breach of the Termination Benefits Restrictions.

(e) Trust

The rules of the New PRP provides that the Committee shall have the power to establish a trust for the sole purpose of acquiring and holding NewCo Shares in respect of which a Key Senior Executive may exercise, or has exercised, vested Performance Rights including for the purposes of enforcing the disposal restrictions and appoint a Trustee to act as trustee of the trust. It is clarified that any such trust must be in accordance with section 1100S(2) of the Corporation Act.

Section 1100S(2) of the Corporation Act requires the trust deed of the trust to provide, among other things, that (a) the activities of the trustee (in its capacity as trustee of the trust) are limited to managing employee share schemes of the NewCo; (b) the trustee of the trust is required to keep written records of the administration of the trust; (c) the trustee of the trust is prevented from charging any fees or charges for administering the trust, other than reasonable disbursements charged to the trust or amounts charged to the NewCo; and (d) if the trustee of the trust is an associated entity of the NewCo, the trustee may only exercise any voting rights associated with the Performance Rights or Award Shares in accordance with the instructions of the holder of such securities or consistent with the trustee's fiduciary duties.

(f) Governing Law

Given that NewCo is an Australian incorporated entity, the governing law of the rules of the NewCo's New PRP has been amended to the laws of Western Australia, Australia.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The NewCo will comply with the applicable laws, rules and regulations with respect to the disclosure of Directors' and Controlling Shareholders' existing interests in NewCo Shares and any additional interests in NewCo Shares acquired to the New PRP, including the SFA and Chapter 8 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual.

The NewCo will make an immediate announcement upon any grant of Performance Rights under the New PRP and include therein such information as required under Rule 704(29) of the SGX-ST Listing Manual, provided that if any of the information so required is not applicable, an appropriate negative statement shall be included instead.

6.4 Rationale for the New PRP

The New PRP aims to increase the NewCo Group's overall effectiveness in its continuing efforts to reward, motivate and retain Key Senior Executives whose contributions are essential to the well-being and prosperity of the NewCo Group, and to give recognition to outstanding Key Senior Executives of the NewCo Group who have contributed to the growth of the NewCo Group.

The New PRP caters primarily to the NewCo Group's Key Senior Executives who include (but is not limited to) the Executive Chairman, the CEO and executives who report directly to the CEO, provided that such persons are an 'ESS participant' (as such term is defined in the Corporations Act) in relation to the NewCo or an Associated Body Corporate. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Group had 17 Key Senior Executives, but please note that such number may vary from time to time depending on the NewCo Group's recruitment efforts, staffing requirements and employee turnover.

the main objective of the New PRP is to reinforce the vital equity culture at the top management level, and to further align the interests of the NewCo's top management with those of Shareholders. The New PRP also serves as an incentive for the recruitment and retention of talented senior executives who are categorised as Key Senior Executives under the New PRP. Such executives who decide on a career switch often have to forgo substantial equity incentives when they join the NewCo Group. Through the New PRP, the NewCo will be able to attract and retain the Key Senior Executives by compensating them for the equity incentives that they might have forgone when they opt to join the NewCo Group. The New PRP will therefore enforce the NewCo Group's overall compensation packages, and strengthen the NewCo Group's ability to attract and retain high-performing talent.

A Participant's Performance Rights under the New PRP will be determined at the sole discretion of the Committee. In considering a Performance Right to be granted to a Participant, the Committee may take into account, inter alia, the Participant's capability, creativity, entrepreneurship, innovativeness, scope of responsibility and skills set.

Performance Rights granted under the New PRP are principally performance-based with performance conditions to be set over a performance period. Performance conditions set are intended to be based on the financial performance of the NewCo in a given performance period. The performance conditions are stretched targets aimed at sustaining long term growth.

6.5 Basis for participation by Controlling Shareholders and their Associates

One of the objectives of the New PRP is to motivate Participants to optimise their performance and to maintain a high level of contribution. The objectives of the New PRP apply equally to the Key Senior Executives who are Controlling Shareholders or Associates of Controlling Shareholders.

The Company (and following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the New Co) is of the view that all deserving and eligible Participants should be motivated, regardless of whether they are Controlling Shareholders. The NewCo believes that as the New PRP is designed to motivate, retain and reward Key Senior Executives who contribute to the growth and profits of the NewCo, Key Senior Executives who are also Controlling Shareholders or Associates of Controlling Shareholders should be entitled to the same benefits as other Key Senior Executives and should not be excluded from benefiting under the New PRP solely for the reason that they are Controlling Shareholders or Associates of the Controlling Shareholders. The NewCo is also of the view that the extension of the New PRP to Controlling Shareholders will enhance the long-term commitment of the Controlling Shareholders to the Company as it will ensure that such Controlling Shareholders will continue to have a stake in the NewCo even if they decrease their shareholdings in the NewCo in the future. In contrast, to deny participation by the Controlling Shareholder and their Associates may serve to demotivate them and undermine the objectives of the New PRP.

The Company (and following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the New Co) also believes that the New PRP does not unduly favour Controlling Shareholders over all eligible Key Senior Executives. The terms and conditions of the New PRP do not differentiate the Controlling Shareholders from other Key Senior Executives in determining the eligibility of such persons to participate in the New PRP and be granted Performance Rights thereunder. Accordingly, the Controlling Shareholders and/or their Associates will be subject to the same rules as those applicable to other Participants. In addition, the factors taken into account in determining the number of Performance Rights for grants to other Key Senior Executives (who are not Controlling Shareholders) are, where relevant to the rank and job scope of that Participant, substantially similar as those applicable to Controlling Shareholders. Such factors include the Participant's rank, job performance, creativity, innovativeness, entrepreneurship, resourcefulness, years of service and potential for future development, the Participant's contribution to the success and development of the Group (and following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Group) and the degree of difficulty of fulfilling the specified performance conditions within the performance period. As such, the New PRP does not unduly favour the Controlling Shareholders over other eligible Key Senior Executives.

Mr James Finbarr Fitzgerald is a Controlling Shareholder and Executive Chairman. He provides leadership to the board, guides the company's corporate direction and ensures compliance with corporate governance procedures. He actively engages in and encourages business improvement initiatives and enhancements to work methodology, aiming to enhance safety, quality and overall business performance.

Mr Patrick John Tallon is a Controlling Shareholder and Chief Executive Officer. He oversees the company's overall operational and financial performance and is responsible for the establishment and implementation of strategic plans for the long-term sustainability of the overall business. He is responsible for the development and performance of the company including in the areas of safety, workplace diversity, operational innovation, improving productivity and sustainability.

Mr Patrick John Tallon and Mr James Finbarr Fitzgerald were amongst the founders of the Group (and following completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Group).

The Directors (save for Mr James Finbarr Fitzgerald, Mr Patrick John Tallon and Mr Kevin James Deery, who are eligible to participate in, and are therefore interested in the New PRP and have abstained from making any recommendation on the New PRP) believe that both Mr James Finbarr Fitzgerald and Mr Patrick John Tallon will continue to contribute substantially to the growth of the NewCo Group and allowing them to participate in the New PRP will serve to reward as well as to instill in them a commitment to continue to contribute to the growth of the NewCo Group. As full-time employees of the Group (and following completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Group), Mr James Finbarr Fitzgerald and Mr Patrick John Tallon should also be eligible to participate in the New PRP alongside other Key Senior Executives, and benefit from its fair and equitable system of remuneration.

The NewCo will seek shareholders' approval for the actual number of Award Shares and the terms of the Performance Rights proposed to be granted to each of Mr James Finbarr Fitzgerald or Mr Patrick John Tallon or any Controlling Shareholder or their respective Associates pursuant to the New PRP, in compliance with the requirements of the rules of the SGX-ST Listing Manual and the ASX Listing Rules.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

6.6 Summary of the rules of the New PRP

The following is a summary of the rules of the New PRP and should be read in conjunction with the full text of the rules of the New PRP set out in Appendix E (Rules of the New PRP) to this Circular.

(a) Eligibility

Key Senior Executives who have attained the age of 21 years and hold such rank as may be designated by the Committee from time to time, will be eligible to participate in the New PRP.

Subject to the absolute discretion of the Committee, Controlling Shareholders and their Associates who meet the criteria as set out above are eligible to participate in the New PRP, provided that (i) the participation of each Controlling Shareholder or their Associates; and (ii) the actual number and terms of the Performance Rights to be granted to them have been approved by independent Shareholders in separate resolutions for each such person.

Non-Executive Directors shall not be eligible to participate in the New PRP.

It should be noted that a grant of Performance Rights to any director of NewCo must be subject to shareholders' approval in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 10.14. ASX Listing Rule 10.14 requires approval of shareholders to be obtained if a director, an associate of a director or any person whose relationship with the entity is such that, in ASX's opinion, shareholder approval should be obtained is to acquire equity securities under an employee incentive scheme. If shareholders' approval has been obtained in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 10.14, the NewCo will be able to proceed with the issue of the relevant Performance Rights to the relevant director of the NewCo under the New PRP within three (3) years after the date of such approval (or such later date as permitted by any ASX waiver or modification of the ASX Listing Rules).

(b) Performance Rights

Performance Rights represent the right of a Participant to receive fully paid NewCo Shares free of charge, provided that certain prescribed performance targets are met and/or after expiry of the prescribed vesting period(s) (where applicable), in accordance with the rules of the New PRP.

A Performance Right shall be personal to the Participant to whom it is granted and, prior to the delivery to the Participant of the Award Shares, shall not be transferred, charged, assigned, pledged or otherwise disposed of, in whole or in part, except with the prior approval of the Committee. In addition, a Performance Right shall not entitle the holder to vote or receive any dividends paid by the NewCo.

(c) Participants

The selection of a Participant and the number of Performance Rights to be granted to a Participant in accordance with the New PRP shall be determined at the discretion of the Committee, which may take into account such criteria as it considers fit, including (but not limited to) their rank, job performance, creativity, innovativeness, entrepreneurship, resourcefulness, years of service and potential for future development, their contribution to the success and development of the NewCo Group and the degree of difficulty of fulfilling the performance condition(s) within the performance period.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

(d) Details of Performance Rights

The Committee shall decide, in relation to each Performance Right to be granted to a Participant:

- (i) the Award Date;
- (ii) the performance condition(s) and relevant performance period;
- (iii) the number of Performance Rights which shall vest on the performance condition(s) being satisfied (whether fully or partially) or exceeded or not being satisfied, as the case may be, at the end of the performance period;
- (iv) the vesting date(s);
- (v) the vesting period(s), if any; and
- (vi) whether:
 - (1) the Award Shares shall be delivered within the prescribed automatic timeline stipulated in the rules of the New PRP; or
 - (2) the Participant has the ability to manually exercise some or all of the Vested Performance Rights upon which the NewCo shall deliver the Award Shares underlying the exercised Vested Performance Rights to the Participant, subject to the following:
 - (A) one (1) or more Notices of Exercise must be made by the Participant and notified to the NewCo prior to expiration of the Relevant Period; and
 - (B) in the event that no Notice of Exercise has been delivered to the NewCo by the Participant in respect of a Vested Performance Right prior to the expiration of the Relevant Period, the NewCo shall deliver the aggregate number of Award Shares underlying the aggregate corresponding number of Vested Performance Rights within 14 calendar days from the expiration of the Relevant Period;
- (vii) the time and circumstances when Performance Rights lapse, provided that once Vested, the Performance Rights shall not lapse; and
- (viii) any other condition which the Committee may determine in relation to that Performance Right.

(e) Timing

The Committee may grant Performance Rights as the Committee may select, on an annual basis, typically following the NewCo's annual general meeting, or at any time during the period when the New PRP is in force.

An Award Letter confirming the Performance Right and specifying, inter alia, the Award Date, the number of Award Shares, the prescribed performance condition(s), the performance period during which the prescribed performance condition(s) is/are to be attained or fulfilled, the extent to which the number of Performance Rights will vest on satisfaction of the prescribed performance condition(s), the vesting date(s) and the vesting period(s) (if any) will be sent to each Participant as soon as is reasonably practicable after the grant of a Performance Right.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

(f) Events Prior to Vesting

Special provisions for the vesting and lapsing of Performance Rights apply in certain circumstances including the following:

- (i) the Participant ceasing to be in the employment of the NewCo Group for any reason whatsoever (other than as specified in paragraphs (vi), (vii) and (viii) below);
- (ii) the bankruptcy of a Participant or the happening of any other event which results in them being deprived of the legal or beneficial ownership of the Performance Right;
- (iii) the misconduct on the part of a Participant as determined by the Committee in its discretion;
- (iv) an order being made or a resolution passed for the winding-up of the NewCo on the basis, or by reason, of its insolvency;
- (v) any breach of the rules of the New PRP by the Participant;
- (vi) the retirement of the Participant;
- (vii) the Participant ceasing to be in the employment of the NewCo Group by reason of (1) ill health, injury or disability (in each case, evidenced to the satisfaction of the Committee) or death; (2) redundancy; or (3) any other reason approved in writing by the Committee; or
- (viii) the Participant ceasing to be in the employment of the NewCo Group by reason of:
 - (1) the company by which he is employed ceasing to be a company within the NewCo Group or the undertaking or part of the undertaking of such company being transferred otherwise than to another company within the NewCo Group;
 - (2) (where applicable) the Participant's transfer of employment between members of the NewCo Group; or
 - (3) any other event approved by the Committee.

Upon the occurrence of any of the events specified in paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v) above, a Performance Right then held by a Participant shall, as provided in the rules of the New PRP and to the extent not yet Vested, lapse without any claim whatsoever against the NewCo.

Upon the occurrence of any of the events specified in paragraphs (vi), (vii) and (viii) above, the Committee may, in its discretion, determine whether a Performance Right then held by such Participant, to the extent not yet Vested, shall lapse or that all or any part of such Performance Right shall be Vested. If the Committee determines that a Performance Right (to the extent not yet Vested) shall lapse, then such Performance Right shall lapse without any claim whatsoever against the NewCo. If the Committee determines that a certain number of, or all Performance Rights shall be vested, the aggregate number of Award Shares underlying that aggregate number of Vested Performance Rights shall be delivered to the Participant within the prescribed automatic timeline stipulated in the New PRP.

In exercising its discretion, the Committee will have regard to all circumstances on a case-by-case basis, including (but not limited to) the contributions made by that Participant and the extent to which the prescribed performance condition(s) has/have been satisfied.

If before a vesting date, any of the following occurs:

- (i) a take-over offer for the NewCo Shares becomes or is declared unconditional;

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (ii) an amalgamation or a compromise or arrangement proposed for the purposes of, or in connection with, a proposal or scheme for the reconstruction of the NewCo or its amalgamation with another company or companies being approved by shareholders of NewCo and/or sanctioned by the court under the Corporations Act;
- (iii) an order being made or a resolution passed for the winding-up of the NewCo (other than as provided in paragraph (iv) above); or
- (iv) a proposal to sell all or substantially all of the assets of the NewCo, the Committee may, at its discretion: (1) amend or waive the vesting period and any condition applicable to a Performance Right, the performance period and/or the performance condition and/or the extent to which the number of Performance Rights shall Vest on the performance condition being satisfied (whether fully or partially) or exceeded or not being satisfied, as the case may be, at the end of the performance period in respect of that number of Performance Rights, and shall notify the Participant of such change or waiver; and/or (2) determine whether or not any Performance Right shall Vest, and will take into account all circumstances on a case-by-case basis, including (but not limited to) the contributions made by that Participant. If the Committee decides that certain Performance Rights shall Vest, then in determining the number of Performance Rights to be Vested, the Committee will (if applicable) have regard to the proportion of the vesting period(s) which has elapsed and, the extent to which the performance condition has been satisfied.

(g) Size and Duration

The total number of Award Shares which may be delivered pursuant to Performance Rights granted under the New PRP on any date, when added to:

- (i) the total number of shares of the Company allotted and issued or delivered pursuant to the vesting of the performance rights under the Existing PRP;
- (ii) the total number of new NewCo Shares allotted and issued and/or to be allotted and issued and issued NewCo Shares delivered and/or to be delivered, pursuant to Performance Rights granted under the New PRP; and
- (iii) the number of new NewCo Shares allotted and issued and/or to be allotted and issued and issued NewCo Shares delivered and/or to be delivered, in respect of any other options or grants under share option schemes or share schemes adopted by the NewCo for the time being in force, as the case may be,

shall not exceed 15.0% of the total number of issued NewCo Shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) (or such other limit as may be prescribed by the SGX-ST and the ASX and any other stock exchange on which the NewCo Shares are quoted or listed) of the NewCo on the date preceding the date of grant of the relevant Performance Right.

The maximum limit of 15.0% will provide for sufficient NewCo Shares to support the use of Performance Rights in the NewCo's overall long-term incentive and compensation strategy. In addition, it will provide the NewCo with the means and flexibility to grant Performance Rights as incentive tools in a meaningful and effective manner to encourage staff retention and to align Participants' interests more closely with those of Shareholders.

In addition, the aggregate number of NewCo Shares available to Controlling Shareholders and their Associates shall not exceed 25.0% of the total number of NewCo Shares available under the New PRP, and the number of NewCo Shares available to each Controlling Shareholder or their Associate shall not exceed 10.0% of the total number of NewCo Shares available under the New PRP.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The New PRP shall continue in force at the absolute discretion of the Committee, subject to a maximum of 10 years commencing on the date the Shareholders' Scheme becomes effective in accordance with its terms, provided always that the New PRP may continue beyond this stipulated period with the approval of Shareholders in general meeting and of any relevant authorities which may then be required.

Notwithstanding the expiry or termination of the New PRP, any Performance Rights granted to Participants prior to such expiry or termination, whether such Performance Rights have been vested (whether fully or partially) or not, will continue to remain valid.

(h) Operation

Subject to the prevailing legislation and the SGX-ST Listing Manual, the NewCo will have the flexibility to deliver Award Shares to Participants by way of an issue of new NewCo Shares and/or the delivery of existing NewCo Shares.

In determining whether to issue new NewCo Shares or to deliver existing NewCo Shares to Participants, the NewCo will take into account factors such as (but not limited to) the number of NewCo Shares to be delivered, the prevailing market price of the NewCo Shares and the cost to the NewCo of either issuing new NewCo Shares or delivering existing NewCo Shares.

The financial effects of the above methods of delivery of Award Shares are discussed in Section 6.10 (Financial Effects of the New PRP) of this Circular.

The new NewCo Shares allotted and issued, and existing NewCo Shares procured by the NewCo for transfer, pursuant to the vesting of a Performance Right, shall rank in full for all entitlements, including dividends or other distributions declared or recommended in respect of the then existing NewCo Shares, the record date for which is on or after the relevant vesting date, and shall in all other respects rank pari passu with other existing NewCo Shares then in issue.

The Committee shall have the discretion to determine whether the performance condition has been satisfied (whether fully or partially) or exceeded and in making any such determination, the Committee may make reference to the audited results of the NewCo or the NewCo Group (as the case may be), taking into account such factors as the Committee may determine to be relevant, such as changes in accounting methods, taxes and extraordinary events, and further, the Committee shall have the right to amend the performance condition if the Committee decides that a changed performance target would be a fairer measure of performance.

6.7 Adjustments and Modifications

The following describes the adjustment events under, and provisions relating to modifications of the New PRP.

(a) Adjustment Events

If a variation in the ordinary share capital of the NewCo (whether by way of a capitalisation of profits or reserves or rights issue, reduction, subdivision, consolidation, distribution or otherwise) shall take place or if the NewCo shall make a capital distribution or a declaration of a special dividend (whether in cash or in specie), then the Committee may, in its discretion, determine whether:

- (i) the number of Performance Rights and corresponding number of Award Shares to the extent not yet Vested; and/or
- (ii) the number of NewCo Shares in respect of which future Performance Rights may be granted under the New PRP,

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

shall be adjusted and if so, the manner in which such adjustments should be made, provided always that the adjustment will not result in a Participant receiving a benefit that a Shareholder does not receive.

The issue of securities as consideration for an acquisition or a private placement of securities, or the cancellation of issued NewCo Shares purchased or acquired by the NewCo during the period when a share purchase mandate granted by Shareholders (including any renewal of such mandate) is in force, shall not normally be regarded as a circumstance requiring adjustment.

Any adjustment (except in relation to a bonus issue) must be confirmed in writing by the Auditors (acting only as experts and not as arbitrators) to be in their opinion, fair and reasonable.

(b) Modifications

The New PRP may be modified and/or altered at any time and from time to time by a resolution of the Committee and must be made in compliance with the SGX-ST Listing Manual and the ASX Listing Rules where applicable, and subject to such approval of any regulatory authorities as may be necessary.

However, no modification or alteration shall adversely affect the rights attached to any Performance Right granted prior to such modification or alteration except with the consent in writing of such number of Participants who, if their Performance Rights were vested upon the performance conditions for their Performance Rights being satisfied in full, would thereby become entitled to not less than three-quarters in number of all the Award Shares which would fall to be vested under all outstanding Performance Rights upon the performance conditions for all outstanding Performance Rights being satisfied in full.

No modification or alteration shall be made to rules of the New PRP which relate to matters contained in Rules 844 to 849 and Rules 853 to 854 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual to the advantage of the Participants except with the prior approval of Shareholders in general meeting.

6.8 Disclosures in Annual Reports

The NewCo will make such disclosures or appropriate negative statements (as applicable) in its annual report for so long as the New PRP continues in operation as from time to time required by the SGX-ST Listing Manual and the ASX Listing Rules, including the following (where applicable):

- (a) the names of the members of the Committee;
- (b) in respect of the following Participants of the New PRP:
 - (i) Directors;
 - (ii) Participants who are controlling shareholders of the NewCo and their associates; and
 - (iii) Participants (other than those in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) above) who have received NewCo Shares pursuant to the Vesting of Performance Rights granted under the New PRP which, in aggregate, represent 5.0% or more of the total number of NewCo Shares available under the New PRP,

the following information:

- (i) the name of the Participant;
- (ii) the aggregate number of Award Shares which have been granted under the New PRP during the financial year under review (including terms);

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (iii) the aggregate number of Award Shares which have been granted under the New PRP since its commencement to the end of the financial year under review;
- (iv) the aggregate number of Award Shares which have Vested under the New PRP since its commencement to the end of the financial year under review; and
- (v) the aggregate number of Award Shares granted under the New PRP which have not Vested, as at the end of the financial year under review.

6.9 Role and Composition of the Committee

The remuneration committee, whose function is to assist the board of directors in reviewing directors' and key executives' remuneration in the NewCo as set out in its terms of reference, will be designated as the Committee responsible for the administration of the New PRP, and will comprise directors to administer the New PRP.

In compliance with the requirements of the Listing Manual, a Participant of the New PRP who is a member of the remuneration committee shall not be involved in its deliberations in respect of Performance Rights to be granted to or held by that member of the remuneration committee.

6.10 Financial Effects of the New PRP

Financial Reporting Standard 102, Share-based payment ("FRS 102") applies to the financial statements of the NewCo and the NewCo Group. As the Participants will receive NewCo Shares, the Performance Rights will be accounted for as equity-settled share-based transactions, as described in the following paragraphs.

The fair value of employee services received in exchange for the grant of the Performance Rights would be recognised as a charge to the income statement over the period between the grant date and the vesting date of a Performance Right. The total amount of the charge over the performance period is determined by reference to the fair value of each Performance Right granted at the grant date and the number of Shares vested at the vesting date, with a corresponding credit to the reserve account. Before the end of the performance period, at each reporting date, the estimate of the number of Performance Rights that are expected to vest by the vesting date is revised, and the impact of the revised estimate is recognised in the income statement with a corresponding adjustment to the reserve account. After the vesting date, no adjustment to the charge to the income statement is made.

The amount charged to the income statement would be the same whether the NewCo settles the Performance Rights using new Shares or existing Shares. The amount charged to the income statement also depends on whether or not the performance condition attached to a Performance Right is a "market condition", that is, a condition which is related to the market price of the Shares. If the performance condition is a market condition, the probability of the performance condition being met is taken into account in estimating the fair value of the Shares granted at the grant date, and no adjustments to the amounts charged to income statement is made if the market condition is not met. On the other hand, if the performance condition is not a market condition, the probability of the condition being met is not taken into account in estimating the fair value of the Shares granted at the grant date. Instead, it is subsequently considered at each reporting date in assessing whether the Performance Rights would vest. Thus, where the performance conditions do not include a market condition, there would be no charge to the income statement (on a cumulative basis) if the Performance Rights do not ultimately vest.

(a) Share Capital

The New PRP will result in an increase in the NewCo's issued ordinary share capital only if new NewCo Shares are issued to Participants. The number of new NewCo Shares issued will depend on, inter alia, the size of the Performance Rights granted under the New PRP.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

In any case, the New PRP provides that the aggregate number of new Shares to be issued and existing Shares to be delivered pursuant to Performance Rights granted under the New PRP will be subject to a maximum limit of 15.0% of the NewCo's issued Shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) from time to time. If, instead of issuing new NewCo Shares to Participants, existing NewCo Shares are purchased for delivery to Participants on vesting, the New PRP will have no impact on the NewCo's ordinary share capital.

(b) NTA

As described below in the paragraph on EPS, the New PRP is likely to result in a charge to the income statement over the period from the grant date to the vesting date of the Performance Rights. The amount of the charge will be computed in accordance with FRS 102. If new NewCo Shares are issued under the New PRP, there would be no effect on the NTA. However, if instead of issuing new NewCo Shares to Participants, existing NewCo Shares are purchased for delivery to Participants, the NTA would be impacted by the cost of the NewCo Shares purchased.

Nonetheless, it should be noted that the delivery of NewCo Shares to Participants under the New PRP will generally be contingent upon the Participants meeting prescribed performance conditions.

(c) EPS

The New PRP is likely to result in a charge to earnings over the period from the grant date to the vesting date, computed in accordance with FRS 102.

Nonetheless, it should again be noted that the delivery of NewCo Shares to Participants under the New PRP will generally be contingent upon the Participants meeting prescribed performance conditions.

(d) Dilutive Impact

It is expected that the dilutive impact of the New PRP on the NTA per Share and EPS will not be significant.

The New PRP provides that the aggregate number of existing NewCo Shares to be delivered pursuant to Performance Rights granted under the New PRP will be subject to a maximum limit of 15.0% of the NewCo's issued Shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) on the date preceding the date of the relevant Performance Right.

7. THE NEWCO SHARE ISSUE MANDATE PROPOSAL

7.1 Existing General Share Issue Mandate

The Shareholders have approved the Existing General Share Issue Mandate at the 2023 AGM. The Existing General Share Issue Mandate shall terminate upon the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions. As at the Latest Practicable Date, 60,000 Shares were issued under the Existing General Share Issue Mandate on vesting of the performance rights issued under the Existing PRP. As at the Latest Practicable Date, it is not contemplated that any Shares will be issued under the Existing General Share Issue Mandate prior to the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.¹⁵

¹⁵ Assumes that the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions completes prior to 30 August 2024.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

7.2 NewCo Share Issue Mandate

The proposed adoption of the NewCo Share Issue Mandate is conditional on and subject to the Shareholders' Scheme being approved by the Shareholders at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting, the Shareholders' approval for the NewCo Share Issue Mandate Proposal and the other Ancillary Resolutions being obtained at the EGM and the Shareholders' Scheme becoming effective. If so approved, the NewCo Share Issue Mandate will take effect on the Effective Date.

The NewCo Share Issue Mandate will thereafter, unless revoked or varied by the NewCo Shareholders in a general meeting, continue to bind the NewCo and the NewCo Shareholders until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of the NewCo or the date by which the next annual general meeting of the NewCo is required by law to be held, whichever is the earlier.

7.3 Limits under the NewCo Share Issue Mandate

Under the NewCo Share Issue Mandate, it is proposed that the NewCo Directors be authorised to issue shares in the capital of the NewCo and to make or grant instruments (such as warrants and debentures) convertible into shares of NewCo, and to issue shares in pursuance of such instruments, up to an amount not exceeding in total 50.0% of the issued shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the NewCo with reference to the number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the Company at the time of passing the resolution to approve the Existing General Share Issue Mandate at the 2023 AGM, with a sub-limit of 20.0% of the total number of issued shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the NewCo with reference to the number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the Company at the time of passing the resolution to approve the Existing General Share Issue Mandate at the 2023 AGM for issues other than on a pro rata basis to shareholders of NewCo.

Under Rule 806(3) of the SGX-ST Listing Manual, the total number of issued shares excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings to be used for the purposes of computing the limits under a general share issue mandate under Rule 806(2) of the SGX-ST Listing Manual shall be based on an issuer's total number of issued shares excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings at the time of passing of the resolution approving the mandate, after adjusting for:

- (a) new shares arising from the conversion or exercise of convertible securities;
- (b) new shares arising from exercising share options or vesting of share awards, provided that the options or awards were granted in compliance with Part VIII of Chapter 8 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual; and
- (c) any subsequent bonus issue, consolidation or subdivision of shares.

Adjustments in accordance with (a) or (b) are only to be made in respect of new shares arising from convertible securities, share options or share awards which were issued and outstanding or subsisting at the time of the passing of the resolution approving the mandate.

As the NewCo will only have an issued share capital of A$1.00 comprising one (1) ordinary share at the EGM, the Company had made an application to the SGX-ST to seek, inter alia, the SGX-ST's concurrence that strict compliance with Rule 806(3) of the SGX-ST Listing Manual may be dispensed with and that the NewCo Share Issue Mandate may be based on the total number of issued NewCo Shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) with reference to the number of issued Shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the Company at the time of passing the Existing General Share Issue Mandate at the 2023 AGM instead.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

The SGX-ST had, by way of letter dated 29 May 2024, advised that the SGX-ST has no objection in granting the Company a dispensation to comply with Rule 806(3) of the SGX-ST Listing Manual in relation to the NewCo Share Issue Mandate, subject to the following:

- (a) the NewCo Share Issue Mandate being made in compliance with Rule 806 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual;
- (b) the NewCo Share Issue Mandate may be based on the total number of issued ordinary shares of the NewCo with reference to the total number of issued shares in the capital of the Company at the time of passing the Existing General Share Issue Mandate at the 2023 AGM and the aggregate number of shares which can be issued under the NewCo Share Issue Mandate will not exceed the unutilised balance under the Existing General Share Issue Mandate; and
- (c) shareholders' approval being obtained for the NewCo Share Issue Mandate.

The aggregate number of NewCo Shares which may be issued under the NewCo Share Issue Mandate shall be adjusted to deduct such number of Shares (if any) which may be allotted and issued by the Company pursuant to the Existing General Share Issue Mandate approved by Shareholders at the 2023 AGM and prior to the Effective Date. This is to ensure that the maximum number of shares that can be issued pursuant to the Existing General Share Issue Mandate and the NewCo Share Issue Mandate on a collective and aggregate basis shall not exceed the maximum number of shares that can otherwise be issued pursuant to the Existing General Share Issue Mandate, if not for the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the proposed adoption of the NewCo Share Issue Mandate and the termination of the Existing General Share Issue Mandate in connection therewith.

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the NewCo does not have any convertible securities which are or will be in existence, or any share options or share awards which are or will be outstanding or subsisting and which NewCo is a party or subject to or which is otherwise binding on the NewCo, immediately after the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

Please note that any issue of securities pursuant to the NewCo Share Issue Mandate is also subject to the NewCo's compliance with the ASX Listing Rules, including but not limited to, the NewCo's 15.0% placement capacity under ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

ASX Listing Rule 7.1 prohibits companies from issuing or agreeing to issue equity securities (which include options) in excess of 15.0% of their capital without shareholder approval. The 15.0% threshold is calculated in accordance with a formula set out in ASX Listing Rule 7.1. The requirement for shareholder approval is subject to a number of exceptions, including: (i) an issue to shareholders under a pro rata issue; (ii) an issue on conversion of convertible securities where the original issue complied with the rule; (iii) an issue under a dividend reinvestment plan or share purchase plan; (iv) an issue under an employee incentive scheme if, within three (3) years before the date of issue, shareholders approved the issue of securities under the scheme as an exception to the prohibition; or (v) an issue of securities as consideration, or to fund the cash consideration, under a takeover bid or merger by way of scheme of arrangement (except for a reverse takeover, where the bidder proposes to issue new securities equal to or greater than its existing securities). Where shareholder approval is required, the notice of the meeting must include certain matters set out in ASX Listing Rule 7.3, including the names of the proposed subscribers or the basis for identifying them, a summary of the terms of the securities to be issued (if not fully paid ordinary securities), the purpose of the issue and the intended use of the funds to be raised, and a voting exclusion statement indicating that a participant in the issue and any other person who may obtain a material benefit (and their associates) may not vote in favour of its approval.

Shareholders, in deciding whether to vote in favour of the Ordinary Resolutions and/or Special Resolutions relating to the Change of Domicile through the Company Restructuring and the Proposed Transfer Listing to be implemented by way of the Shareholders' Scheme at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and the Ancillary Resolutions at the EGM, should read carefully the terms, rationale for and benefits of the Proposals. Where a member appoints a proxy for the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting, he/she/it must give specific instructions as to voting or abstention from voting, in respect of the resolution in the form of proxy, failing which the appointment of a proxy for that resolution will be treated as invalid.

CPFIS Members and SRS Investors who wish to appoint the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting as proxy should approach their respective CPF Agent Banks or SRS Operators to submit their votes at least seven (7) business days before the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting (i.e. by 10.30 a.m. on 23 July 2024). LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

11.4 Voting by holders of CDIs

The Company would like to remind CDI holders of the particular requirements and restrictions that their votes will be subject to.

A CDI represents an uncertificated unit of beneficial ownership in the Shares of the Company. CDI holders do not actually own direct legal title to Shares, which is held for and on behalf of CDI holders by CDN, a wholly owned subsidiary of ASX. CDN is authorised by its Australian Financial Services Licence to operate custodial and depositary services, other than investor directed portfolio services, to wholesale and retail clients.

CDI holders may attend the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and/or EGM. However, they are unable to speak or vote at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and/or EGM. As CDIs are technically rights to Shares held on behalf of CDI holders by CDN, CDI holders need to provide confirmation of their voting intentions to CDN before the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and/or EGM. CDN will then exercise the votes on behalf of CDI holders.

CDN is required to follow the voting instructions properly received from registered holders of CDIs. If a CDI holder holds its interest in CDIs through a broker, dealer or other intermediary, it will need to follow the instructions of its intermediary.

In order to have votes cast at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and/or EGM on their behalf, each CDI holder will need to direct CDN to vote the Shares underlying their holding by voting online or by completing, signing and returning, in the return envelope provided, the CDI Voting Instruction Form to Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited, the CDI Registrar in Australia. CDN will lodge the relevant proxy form to appoint the chairman of the Shareholders Scheme Meeting and/or the EGM to attend, speak and vote the Shares underlying its holding in the Company. A CDI Voting Instruction Form may be lodged in one (1) of the following ways:

- (a) online at www.investorvote.com.au following the instructions on the website;
- (b) by mobile by scanning the QR Code on the CDI Voting Instruction Form and following the prompts;
- (c) by post to Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited, GPO Box 242, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia 3001; or
- (d) by fax to 1800 783 447 (from within Australia) or +61 3 9473 2555 (from outside Australia).

Completed CDI Voting Instruction Forms must be provided to Computershare no later than 10.30 a.m. AWST on 26 July 2024 (being the deadline for the lodgement of CDI Voting Instruction Forms for the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting) and no later than 11.00 a.m. AWST on 26 July 2024 (being the deadline for the lodgement of the CDI Voting Instruction Forms for the EGM), in accordance with the instructions on that form. The CDI voting deadline is one (1) business day prior to the date that proxies are due, so that CDN has sufficient time to vote the Shares underlying the applicable CDIs. CDI holders that wish to change their vote must, no later than the due date for the lodgement of the CDI Voting Instruction Forms as noted above, contact Computershare to arrange to change their vote.

A CDI holder may convert their CDIs into Shares prior to the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and/or EGM in order to speak or vote at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and/or EGM.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

11.5 Voting at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting

Pursuant to the Order of Court, for the purposes of determining whether the condition under Section 210(3AB)(b) of the Companies Act is satisfied, (a) a Shareholder who is not a relevant intermediary may only cast all the votes he/she/it uses at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting in one way; (b) a Shareholder who is a relevant intermediary need not cast all the votes it uses in the same way provided that each vote is exercised in relation to a different Share; and (c) a CDI holder may only cast all the votes he/she/it has in respect of the shares underlying his/her/its holding in the Company in one way.

For the purposes of determining whether the condition under Section 210(3AB)(a) of the Companies Act is satisfied:

- (a) each Shareholder that appoints the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting as its proxy to vote at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting shall be deemed to be present at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and shall be included in the count of the Shareholders present and voting at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting. Where the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting has been appointed as proxy of more than one (1) Shareholder to vote at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting, the votes of the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting shall be counted as the votes of the number of appointing Shareholders;
- (b) the Company shall treat a relevant intermediary that casts votes both for and against the Shareholders' Scheme as follows:
 - (i) the the Company shall treat the relevant intermediary as casting one (1) vote in favour of the Shareholders' Scheme if the relevant intermediary casts more votes for the Shareholders' Scheme than against the Shareholders' Scheme;
 - (ii) the Company shall treat the relevant intermediary as casting one (1) vote against the Shareholders' Scheme if the relevant intermediary casts more votes against the Shareholders' Scheme than for the Shareholders' Scheme; and
 - (iii) the Company shall treat the relevant intermediary as casting one (1) vote for and one (1) vote against the Shareholders' Scheme if the Relevant Intermediary casts equal votes for and against the Shareholders' Scheme; and
- (c) each CDI holder that directs CDN to vote the shares underlying their holding and for which CDN subsequently submits a Shareholders' Scheme Meeting Proxy Form for appointing the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting to attend, speak and vote the shares underlying its holding in the Company shall be deemed to be present at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting and shall be included in the count of the Shareholders present and voting at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting. Where more than one (1) CDI holder has provided their direction to CDN and for which CDN has appointed the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting to attend, speak and vote at the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting, the votes of the Chairman of the Shareholders' Scheme Meeting shall be counted as the votes of the number of appointing CDI holders.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

PROPOSED CHANGE OF DOMICILE OF THE HEAD COMPANY OF THE GROUP FROM CIVMEC LIMITED (DOMICILED IN SINGAPORE) TO CIVMEC AUSTRALIA LIMITED (DOMICILED IN AUSTRALIA) THROUGH THE COMPANY RESTRUCTURING AND TRANSFER OF LISTING STATUS TO CIVMEC AUSTRALIA LIMITED BY WAY OF A SCHEME OF ARRANGEMENT UNDER SECTION 210 OF THE COMPANIES ACT

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Announcement

On 27 October 2023, the Company announced that the Company and the NewCo had entered into an Implementation Agreement to implement the Change of Domicile through the Company Restructuring by way of Shareholders’ Scheme in accordance with Section 210 of the Companies Act pursuant to which:

- (a) the Shareholders of the Company will exchange their Shares and CDIs in the Company (as the case may be) for NewCo Shares on a 1 for 1 basis;
- (b) the NewCo will become the new holding company of the NewCo Group; and
- (c) the existing listing status of the Company on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX will be transferred to the NewCo.

Upon completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo’s principal business activity will be that of investment holding. The Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NewCo. The NewCo, through the Group, will continue to own and operate the Business.

The Company will relinquish its status as a listed company on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX and in lieu, the NewCo Shares will be listed and traded on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX and the NewCo will be the new listed vehicle on the Mainboard of SGX-ST and the ASX in place of the Company.

1.2 Explanatory Statement

The purpose of this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement is to provide Shareholders with information on the Shareholders’ Scheme and to explain the rationale for and effect of the Shareholders’ Scheme. It should be read in conjunction with the full text of the circular to Shareholders dated 10 July 2024 (the “Circular”), including the Shareholders’ Scheme set out in Appendix B (Shareholders’ Scheme) to the Circular. Capitalised terms used in this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement which are not defined herein or in the Shareholders’ Scheme, shall bear the same meanings as ascribed to them in the Section entitled “Definitions” of the Circular, as set out from pages 1 to 12 of the Circular.

2. GENERAL

2.1 What is a Scheme of Arrangement?

Under Singapore law, a scheme of arrangement of the kind proposed here is a compromise or arrangement provided for under Section 210 of the Companies Act to take effect between a company and its members or creditors. The arrangement becomes legally binding on all of the members or creditors to whom it is intended to apply if a majority in number and representing three-fourths in value of the members or creditors, present and voting, either in person or by proxy, vote in favour of it at the meeting convened with the permission of the Court and if the Court subsequently approves it.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

2.2 What are Shareholders required to do?

The Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting will be held in Singapore at Carlton Hotel Singapore, 76 Bras Basah Road, Singapore 189558 (the “Physical Meeting”) and using virtual meeting technology (the “Virtual Meeting”) on 1 August 2024 at 10.30 a.m., notice of which is set out on pages NS-1 to NS-6 of the Circular.

Shareholders, and (where applicable) duly appointed proxy (in accordance with paragraph 14.1 (Appointment of Proxy) of this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement) will be able to ask questions and vote at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting by attending the Physical Meeting in person or by participating in the Virtual Meeting using virtual meeting technology.

CDI holders may attend the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting; however, they are unable to speak or vote at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. As CDIs are technically rights to Shares held on behalf of CDI holders by CDN, CDI holders need to provide confirmation of their voting intentions to CDN before the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. CDN will then exercise the votes on behalf of CDI holders. For more information, please refer to paragraph 14.4 (Voting by holders of CDIs) of this Shareholders Scheme Explanatory Statement.

3. RATIONALE

The rationale for the Shareholders’ Scheme is set out in Section 3.8 (Rationale for the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions) of the Circular.

4. THE SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME

4.1 Scheme

The Shareholders’ Scheme is proposed to all existing Shareholders.

The Shareholders’ Scheme will involve, inter alia, a transfer of all the Shares on issue as at the Record Date to the NewCo, and in consideration for the transfer of the Shares, the NewCo will allot and issue such number of NewCo Shares, credited as fully paid, on the basis of one (1) new NewCo Share for every one (1) Share, as at the Record Date, in accordance with the Shareholders’ Scheme.

For the avoidance of doubt, the treasury shares held by the Company will not be subject to the terms and conditions of the Shareholders’ Scheme. Pursuant to the Implementation Agreement, the Company and the NewCo have agreed and undertaken to use all reasonable endeavours to cancel all the treasury shares of the Company at least five (5) clear Business Days prior to the Record Date.

In conjunction with the Shareholders’ Scheme, the NewCo will concurrently cancel the Existing NewCo Share through a capital reduction and allot and issue the new NewCo Shares to the Shareholders in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders’ Scheme.

Subject to the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo Shares will be increased to the number of existing Shares as at the Record Date. Upon completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the NewCo’s principal business activity will be that of investment holding. The Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NewCo. The NewCo, through the Group, will continue to own and operate the Business.

The Shareholders’ Scheme is subject to, inter alia, the approval of a majority in number of the existing Shareholders holding not less than three-fourths in value of the Shares who are present and voting, either in person or by proxy, at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting, and the Shareholders’ Scheme has to be sanctioned by the Court, upon which the Shareholders’ Scheme will be binding on the Company and all Shareholders, whether or not they were present, in person or by proxy, or voted at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. Thereafter, the Shareholders’ Scheme Court Order will be lodged with ACRA and the Shareholders’ Scheme will take effect on and from the date of lodgement or such earlier date as the Court may determine and as may be specified in the Shareholders’ Scheme Court Order.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

Subject to the Shareholders’ Scheme being effective, all profit or loss attributable to the Company with effect from the Effective Date shall accrue to the NewCo Group, including for the avoidance of doubt, all expenses incurred by the Company and the NewCo in connection with the Shareholders’ Scheme.

4.2 The Shares

As at the Latest Practicable Date, the Company:

- (a) had an issued and paid-up share capital of approximately S$39,541,680 comprising 507,591,000 Shares (excluding 15,000 treasury shares and nil subsidiary holdings). Such Shares are listed and quoted on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX; and
- (b) save for the 5,289,000 outstanding performance rights issued under the Existing PRP, where each performance right granted under the Existing PRP is a right to one (1) issued ordinary share of the Company, there were no other outstanding securities convertible into Shares of the Company.

Pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme, all the existing Shares will be transferred to the NewCo (a) fully paid; (b) free from all Encumbrances; and (iii) together with all rights, benefits and entitlements attaching thereto as of the Record Date, including the right to receive and retain all dividends, rights and other distributions (if any) declared, paid or made by the Company on or after the Record Date.

4.3 The NewCo Shares

The NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued as the Scheme Consideration shall be duly authorised, validly issued, credited as fully paid and free from any Encumbrances and shall rank pari passu in all respects with one another.

4.4 Overseas Shareholders

Restrictions in jurisdictions (outside of Singapore and Australia) may make it impracticable or unlawful for NewCo Shares to be issued under the Shareholders’ Scheme to, or received under the Shareholders’ Scheme by, Shareholders in certain jurisdictions (outside of Singapore and Australia). As at the Latest Practicable Date, Shareholders (whose addresses as shown in the Register of Members or the Depository Register or the CDI Register) in the following jurisdictions will be entitled to receive the Circular and have the NewCo Shares issued to them in accordance with the Shareholders’ Scheme:

- (a) Singapore;
- (b) Australia;
- (c) Indonesia, where the number of Shareholders is less than 50;
- (d) Ireland, where (i) the Shareholder is a “qualified investor” (as defined Article 2(e) of the Prospectus Regulation) or (ii) the number of other Shareholders is less than 150;
- (e) Japan, where the number of Shareholders is less than 50;
- (f) Malaysia;
- (g) New Zealand;
- (h) Philippines, where the number of Shareholders is less than 20;
- (i) Switzerland;

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

- (j) Thailand, where the number of Shareholders is less than 50, and subject to the relevant filing requirements under applicable Thai laws being complied with;
- (k) United Kingdom; and
- (l) any other person or jurisdiction in respect of which the Company and the NewCo reasonably believe that it is not prohibited and not unduly onerous or impracticable to issue the NewCo Shares to a shareholder with a registered address in such jurisdiction.

Nominees, custodians and other Shareholders who hold Shares on behalf of a beneficial owner resident outside Singapore, Australia, Malaysia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom may not forward the Circular (or any accompanying document) to anyone outside these countries without the consent of the Company and the NewCo.

A Shareholder whose address shown in the Register of Members of the Company or the Depository Register or the CDI Register in a jurisdiction outside Singapore, Australia, Indonesia, Ireland, Japan, Malaysia, New Zealand, Philippines, Switzerland, Thailand or the United Kingdom will be deemed to be an Overseas Shareholder for the purposes of the Shareholders’ Scheme. For more information on how Shareholders who are deemed to be Overseas Shareholders would be treated under the Shareholders’ Scheme, please refer to Section 3.5 (Sale Facility) of the Circular and paragraph 4.5 (Sale Facility) of this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement.

Therefore, persons into whose possession the Circular and/or the accompanying documents come should inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions. Any failure to comply with these restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws and regulations of any such jurisdiction.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Shareholders’ Scheme is proposed to all Shareholders and applies to all Shareholders, including those Shareholders to whom the Circular has not been and will not be sent.

4.5 Sale Facility

If you are an Overseas Shareholder, the entire NewCo Shares that would otherwise have been directly issued to you will be issued to the Sale Agent, as your nominee on trust, for sale through the Sale Facility and you will receive a pro rata share of the net proceeds from the sale of all the NewCo Shares sold through the Sale Facility. Overseas Shareholders will receive the proceeds of sale after deductions for applicable brokerage, foreign exchange, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges.

The Sale Agent will sell the NewCo Shares in such manner, on such financial market conducted by the ASX, at such price and on such other terms as the Sale Agent determines in good faith.

The Sale Facility will operate as follows:

- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable, but no more than 30 Business Days after the implementation of the Shareholders’ Scheme, the Sale Agent will arrange for the sale of all the NewCo Shares allotted to it, held for the benefit of Overseas Shareholders. The sales will be effected in such manner, at such price and on such other terms as the Sale Agent determines in good faith and at the sole risk of the Overseas Shareholders; and
- (b) within five (5) Business Days of the date on which the last of the NewCo Shares allotted to the Sale Agent are sold, the Sale Agent will then remit the sale proceeds in Australian dollars, less any applicable brokerage, foreign exchange, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges, to NewCo or NewCo’s account maintained with the Australian share registry as directed by NewCo which will then account to each Overseas Shareholder for their pro rata share of the aggregate sale proceeds.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

Each Overseas Shareholder will receive their pro rata share of the aggregate sale proceeds on an averaged basis so that all Overseas Shareholders will receive the same Australian dollars equivalent price per NewCo Share (subject to rounding down to the nearest whole cent (in Australian dollars)).

The actual price received by an Overseas Shareholder for their NewCo Shares that are sold under the Sale Facility may be more or less than the actual price that is received by the Sale Agent for those NewCo Shares, less any applicable brokerage, foreign exchange, stamp duty and other selling costs, taxes and charges in respect of those NewCo Shares. Overseas Shareholders will receive the proceeds of the sale of their NewCo Shares as soon as reasonably practicable after the remittance of the sale proceeds to NewCo or NewCo’s account maintained with the Australian share registry as directed by NewCo as noted in (b) above, by either:

- (i) a cheque in Australian dollars sent by prepaid post (at the risk of Overseas Shareholders) to their address as it appears on the Register of Members of the Company or the Depository Register on the Record Date; or
- (ii) deposit in Australian dollars into a bank account notified by the relevant Overseas Shareholders and to the Company (or the Australian Share Registrar or Singapore Registrar, as applicable) and recorded in, or for the purposes of, the Register of Members of the Company or the Depository Register at the Record Date.

4.6 SGX-ST’s listing and quotation notice for the NewCo Shares

An application was made by the Company to the SGX-ST on 15 March 2024 for the listing and quotation of all NewCo Shares (including the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme and the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the vesting of the performance rights to be granted under the New PRP) on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST, for which approval in-principle was obtained on 29 May 2024, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) compliance with the SGX-ST listing requirements and guidelines;
- (b) the Company having obtained the relevant approvals and/or confirmations from the MAS and the ASX (where applicable) on a declaration that subdivisions (2) and (3) of Division 1 of Part XIII of the SFA shall not apply to the offer of the new NewCo Shares made pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme;
- (c) Shareholders’ approval being obtained for the Shareholders’ Scheme and the Ancillary Resolutions, save for the proposed adoption of the New PRP which shall be subject to independent Shareholders’ approval;
- (d) the sanction of the Shareholders’ Scheme by the Court;
- (e) submission of an undertaking in Appendix 2.3.1 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual from the NewCo; and
- (f) submission of an undertaking from each of the proposed NewCo directors and executive officers to comply with the SGX-ST’s listing rules. The undertaking must be in the form set out in Appendix 7.7 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual.

The approval in-principle of the SGX-ST is not to be taken as indication of the merits of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Ancillary Resolutions, the New PRP, the NewCo Shares, the Award Shares and the NewCo, the Company and/or its subsidiaries.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

4.7 Listing of the NewCo in place of the Company on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and ASX

The Company is currently listed on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX.

If the Shareholders’ Scheme becomes effective in accordance with its terms, the Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the NewCo following the completion of the Company Restructuring.

In connection with the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company will seek to have its listing on the SGX-ST and the ASX transferred to the NewCo and it is anticipated that the Company will change its name to “Civmec Singapore Limited” and the NewCo will change its name to “Civmec Limited”. Following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Company may be converted into a private company. Please refer to Section 5 (The Proposed Change of Names) of the Circular for more information on the Proposed Change of Names.

It is expected that the Company will change its name from “Civmec Limited” to “Civmec Singapore Limited” on 4 September 2024 and NewCo will change its name from “Civmec Australia Limited” to “Civmec Limited” on 13 September 2024. For more information, please refer to the indicative timetable set out in the Section entitled “Indicative Timetable” of the Circular. It should be noted that the dates and times set out in the indicative timeline are indicative only and may be subject to change. For the events listed in the indicative timetable as “expected”, please refer to future announcement(s) by the Company or the NewCo, as the case may be, for the exact dates and times of these events. The Company’s registration with ASIC as a registered foreign company will also be updated to reflect the Company’s new name.

There is no change to the issuer name and ticker codes on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX. The NewCo will commence trading on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST and the ASX (on a normal settlement basis) under the name of “Civmec Limited” and the ticker codes of “P9D” and “CVL”, respectively, being the existing ticker codes of the Company (with further information in respect of deferred settlement trading of the NewCo Shares to be provided by ASX at the time of admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX). In addition, it should be noted that on the SGX, there will be no changes to the security name (which will remain as “Civmec Limited”), trading name (which will remain as “Civmec”) and CDP statement name (which will remain as “Civmec”) following the completion of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

- (b) by either:
 - (i) the Company, if the NewCo is in material breach of any provision of the Implementation Agreement or a Prescribed Occurrence has occurred in relation to the NewCo; or

6. REGULATORY APPROVALS

6.1 Court Sanction

The Shareholders’ Scheme is subject to the sanction of the Court, as referred to in paragraph 5.1(c) (Conditions Precedent) of this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

6.2 SGX-ST

The Company had on 15 March 2024 applied to the SGX-ST for the listing and quotation of all NewCo Shares (including the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme and the new NewCo Shares to be allotted and issued pursuant to the vesting of the performance rights to be granted under the New PRP), for which approval in-principle was obtained on 29 May 2024, subject to certain conditions set out in paragraph 4.6 (SGX-ST’s listing and quotation notice for the NewCo Shares) of this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement.

The approval in-principle of the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions, the Ancillary Resolutions, the New PRP, the NewCo Shares, the Award Shares and the NewCo, the Company and/or its subsidiaries.

In addition, the Company had on 15 March 2024 applied to the SGX-ST and the SGX-ST had on 29 May 2024 advised that the SGX-ST has no objections to the Company’s views that the listing requirements under Chapter 2 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual and the delisting requirements under Chapter 13 of the SGX-ST Listing Manual will not apply to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

6.3 MAS

Under Division 1 of Part XIII of the SFA, every offer of securities or securities-based derivatives contracts is considered a public offer for which a Singapore-law compliant prospectus is required to be registered, unless such offer is exempted from the prospectus requirements. The MAS had on 31 May 2024, pursuant to Section 273(5) of the SFA, declared that Subdivisions (2) and (3) of Division 1 of Part XIII of the SFA (other than Section 257 of the SFA) shall not apply to the offer of Shares in the NewCo to the Shareholders made pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme and the Proposed Transfer Listing, for a period of six (6) months from 31 May 2024.

6.4 Securities Industry Council

As the Company Restructuring is a corporate restructuring implemented by way of a scheme of arrangement where there is no change in the effective control of the Company, the provisions of the Singapore Takeover Code are not applicable to the Company Restructuring.

6.5 ASX

An in-principle application has been made by the Company to the ASX (on its own behalf and on behalf of the NewCo) on 30 November 2023, for certain waivers from the listing rules of the ASX, including in relation to the Proposed Exchange (further details of which are set out in Section 6.1 (Termination of Existing PRP and the Outstanding Performance Rights issued under the Existing PRP) of the Circular), and other relief considered customary in relation to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions.

On 25 January 2024, the Company received in-principle advice from ASX that it is likely to grant the Company and the NewCo the following confirmations and waivers in connection with the NewCo’s application to be admitted to the official list of ASX and the quotation of the NewCo Shares on ASX:

- (a) confirmation that ASX will accept the NewCo will satisfy the free-float requirements of ASX Listing Rule 1.1 condition 7 provided the Company is in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 12.4 at the time it ceased to be admitted to the official list of ASX;
- (b) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the NewCo to be admitted to the official list of ASX without satisfying the spread requirements of ASX Listing Rule 1.1 condition 8, on the condition that the Company was in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 12.4 at the time it ceased to trade on ASX;

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

- (c) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the NewCo to be admitted to the official list of ASX without complying with either ASX Listing Rule 1.2 or ASX Listing Rule 1.3, on the condition that the Company is in compliance with ASX Listing Rules 12.1 and 12.2 at the time it ceases to trade on ASX;
- (d) confirmation that ASX will accept that the directors, CEO and CFO of the NewCo are of good fame and character (to the extent that each person was a director, CEO and CFO of the Company prior to completion of the Shareholders’ Scheme) on the condition that no further director appointments or resignations are made prior to the NewCo’s admission to the official list of ASX;
- (e) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the NewCo’s information memorandum not to state that it contains all the information required under section 710 of the Corporations Act, subject to the following conditions:
 - (i) the information memorandum incorporates the Circular;
 - (ii) the NewCo releases all the documents incorporated into the Circular by reference to the market as pre-quotations disclosure; and
 - (iii) the NewCo provides a statement to the market that the Company was in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 3.1 at the time the Company ceased trading on ASX;
- (f) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the information memorandum not to include a statement that the NewCo has not raised any capital for the three (3) months before the date of issue of the information memorandum and will not need to raise capital in the three (3) months after the date of issue of the information memorandum;
- (g) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the information memorandum not to include a statement that a supplementary information memorandum will be issued if, between the issue of the information memorandum and the date the NewCo’s securities are quoted on ASX, the NewCo becomes aware of any of the matters referred to in that rule, on the condition that the Company undertakes in a form acceptable to ASX to release such information to the market;
- (h) a waiver to the extent necessary to permit the Company to cancel, without shareholder approval, the Existing Outstanding Performance Rights in consideration for the grant of new Performance Rights as part of the Proposed Exchange, on the condition that full details of the terms of the new Performance Rights are set out to ASX’s satisfaction in the Circular and the Shareholders’ Scheme becomes effective after receiving all required approvals; and
- (i) a waiver to permit the NewCo to issue new Performance Rights to Mr Kevin Deery, a proposed NewCo Director, as part of the Proposed Exchange on the condition that full details of the terms of the Consideration Performance Rights (as such term is defined in the rules of the New PRP) are set out to ASX’s satisfaction in the Circular and the Shareholders’ Scheme becomes effective after receiving all required approvals.

The Change of Domicile is considered a new listing of the NewCo under the ASX Listing Rules. Accordingly, the NewCo will, on or shortly after the date of the Circular, make an application to the ASX for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX and quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX. Such approval from the ASX for the admission of the NewCo to the official list of ASX and quotation of the NewCo Shares on the ASX is one of the Shareholders’ Scheme Conditions (the “ASX Approval”). In the event that the ASX Approval is not obtained, the Shareholders’ Scheme Conditions would not be satisfied, and the Company would not be able to proceed with the completion of the Shareholders’ Scheme. In which case, there will be no Change of Domicile and the head company of the Group will remain as the Company (domiciled in Singapore) and

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

Shareholders will remain as Shareholders of the Company (domiciled in Singapore). For more information on the Shareholders’ Scheme Conditions, please refer to Section 3.11 (Conditions Precedent) of the Circular.

7. FINANCIAL EFFECTS OF THE SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME

There is no change in the share capital, net tangible asset and earnings per share of the Group pursuant to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions (before completion of the Shareholders’ Scheme and upon completion of the Shareholders’ Scheme), save for (a) estimated expenses of approximately A$1.0 million to be incurred in relation to the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions; and (b) the cancellation of any existing treasury shares of the Company, neither of which is expected to have a material impact on the share capital, net tangible asset and earnings per share of the Group. Please refer to Section 3.22 (Financial Effects of the Change of Domicile through the Proposed Transactions) of the Circular.

The Circular (including this Shareholders’ Scheme Explanatory Statement and the Shareholders’ Scheme) will not be sent to any Overseas Shareholders due to the potential restrictions on sending such documents into the relevant overseas jurisdictions. For more information, please refer to Section 3.4 (Overseas Shareholders) of the Circular. For the avoidance of doubt, the Shareholders’ Scheme is proposed to all Shareholders and applies to all Shareholders, including those Shareholders to whom the Circular has not been and will not be sent.

Overseas Shareholders will not be directly issued any NewCo Shares pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme. Instead, the NewCo will allot and issue such NewCo Shares that would otherwise have been directly issued to the Overseas Shareholders under the Shareholders’ Scheme to a Sale Agent, in trust for the Overseas Shareholders who are the beneficial owners thereof. The Sale Agent will sell the NewCo Shares in such manner, on such financial market conducted by the ASX, at such price and on such other terms as the Sale Agent determines in good faith as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event not more than 30 business days after the implementation of the Shareholders’ Scheme. The Circular does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to subscribe for or buy any security, nor is it a solicitation of any vote or approval in any jurisdiction, nor shall there be any sale, issuance or transfer of the NewCo Shares and/or any other securities referred to in the Circular in any jurisdiction in contravention of applicable laws. For jurisdictional disclaimers in respect of the offer of NewCo Shares made pursuant to the Shareholders’ Scheme, please refer to Appendix H (Jurisdictional Disclaimers) to the Circular for more information.

in each case by 5.00 p.m. on 24 July 2024.

When submitting questions for the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting, Shareholders, CPFIS Members and SRS Investors are requested to indicate that their questions relate to the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting.

Shareholders, CPFIS Members and SRS Investors will need to identify themselves when posing questions by email or by post by providing the following details: (a) the member’s full name as it appears on his/her/its CDP/CPF/SRS/Scrip-based share records; (b) the member’s NRIC/Passport/UEN number; (c) the member’s contact number and email address; and (d) the manner in which the member holds his/her/its Shares (e.g., via CDP, CPF, SRS or scrip-based).

Please note that the Company will not be able to answer questions from persons who provide insufficient details to enable the Company to verify his/her/its status as Shareholders.

Shareholders, including CPFIS Members and SRS Members and, where applicable, appointed proxy and representatives can also ask live at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting substantial and relevant questions related to the resolution to be tabled for approval at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. Attendees at the Virtual Meeting (whether attending through live audio-visual webcast or live audio-only stream) who wish to ask questions at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting can do this by submitting text-based questions via the live chat function on the online platform for the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. Questions or follow-up questions (which are related to the resolutions to be tabled for approvals at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting) received after 5.00 p.m. on 24 July 2024 will be answered within a reasonable timeframe before the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting, or at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting itself. Where substantially similar questions are received, the Company will consolidate such questions and consequently not all questions may be individually addressed.

The Company or the NewCo, as the case may be, will publish the minutes of the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting on SGXNet and ASX Online and on the Company’s or the NewCo’s website within one (1) month from the date of Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting, and the minutes will include the responses to substantial and relevant questions from Shareholders which are addressed during the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting.

14.4 Voting by holders of CDIs

The Company would like to remind CDI holders of the particular requirements and restrictions that their votes will be subject to.

A CDI represents an uncertificated unit of beneficial ownership in the Shares of the Company. CDI holders do not actually own direct legal title to Shares, which is held for and on behalf of CDI holders by CDN, a wholly owned subsidiary of ASX. CDN is authorised by its Australian Financial Services Licence to operate custodial and depositary services, other than investor directed portfolio services, to wholesale and retail clients.

APPENDIX A – SHAREHOLDERS’ SCHEME EXPLANATORY STATEMENT (IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 211 OF THE COMPANIES ACT)

CDI holders may attend the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting; however, they are unable to speak or vote at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. As CDIs are technically rights to Shares held on behalf of CDI holders by CDN, CDI holders need to provide confirmation of their voting intentions to CDN before the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting. CDN will then exercise the votes on behalf of CDI holders.

CDN is required to follow the voting instructions properly received from registered holders of CDIs. If a CDI holder holds its interest in CDIs through a broker, dealer or other intermediary, it will need to follow the instructions of its intermediary.

In order to have votes cast at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting on their behalf, each CDI holder will need to direct CDN to vote the Shares underlying their holding by voting online or by completing, signing and returning, in the return envelope provided, the CDI Voting Instruction Form to Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited, the CDI Registrar in Australia. CDN will lodge the relevant proxy form to appoint the Chairman of the Shareholders Scheme Meeting to attend, speak and vote the Shares underlying its holding in the Company. A CDI Voting Instruction Form may be lodged in one (1) of the following ways:

- (a) online at www.investorvote.com.au following the instructions on the website;
- (b) by mobile by scanning the QR Code on the CDI Voting Instruction Form and following the prompts;
- (c) by post to Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited, GPO Box 242, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia 3001; or
- (d) by fax to 1800 783 447 (from within Australia) or +61 3 9473 2555 (from outside Australia).

Completed CDI Voting Instruction Forms must be provided to Computershare no later than 10.30 a.m. AWST on 26 July 2024 (being the deadline for the lodgement of CDI Voting Instruction Forms for the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting) and no later than 11.00 a.m. AWST on 26 July 2024 (being the deadline for the lodgement of the CDI Voting Instruction Forms for the EGM), in accordance with the instructions on that form. The CDI voting deadline is one (1) business day prior to the date that proxies are due, so that CDN has sufficient time to vote the Shares underlying the applicable CDIs. CDI holders that wish to change their vote must, no later than the due date for the lodgement of the CDI Voting Instruction Forms as noted above, contact Computershare to arrange to change their vote.

A CDI holder may convert their CDIs into Shares prior to the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting in order to speak or vote at the Shareholders’ Scheme Meeting.

Capital

5 Issue of Securities

- (a) Subject to the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules, this Constitution and any special rights conferred on the holders of any Securities, the issue of Securities is under the control of the Board, which may issue and cancel Securities and grant options over unissued Securities, on the terms the Board considers appropriate.
- (b) Without affecting any special rights conferred on the holders of any Securities, any Securities may be issued with preferred, deferred or other special rights, obligations or restrictions, whether in regard to dividends, voting, return of share capital, payment of calls or otherwise, as the Board may determine and on any terms the Board considers appropriate.
- (c) Unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue, the issue of any new Securities ranking equally with existing Securities is not a variation of the rights conferred on the holders of the existing Securities.

6 Offer of new shares

For so long as any Securities of the Company are listed or quoted on the SGX-ST and as subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in the general meeting or except as permitted under the Listing Rules, all new shares shall, before issue, be offered to such persons who as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion, as far as circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined. After the expiration of the aforesaid time or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board may dispose of those shares in a manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the Board, be conveniently offered under this rule 6.

7 Preference Shares

If the Company at any time proposes to create and issue any preference shares:

- (a) the preference shares may be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of either or both the Company and the holder are liable, to be redeemed out of profits or the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of the redemption, or otherwise as permitted by the Corporations Act;
- (b) each preference share is to confer on its holder the right to convert the preference share into ordinary shares if and on the basis the Board decides at the time of issue of the preference share;
- (c) each preference share is to confer on its holder a right to receive a preferential Dividend at the rate or of the amount (which may be subject to an index) and on the basis decided by the Board at the time of issue of the preference share;
 - (i) in addition to the preferential Dividend, each preference share may participate with the ordinary shares in Dividends declared or determined by the Board if and to the extent the Board decides at the time of issue of the preference share; and
 - (ii) the preferential Dividend may be cumulative if and to the extent the Board decides at the time of issue of the preference share;
- (d) each preference share is to confer on its holder:
 - (i) the right on redemption and in a winding up to payment in cash in priority to any other class of shares (except for any class of preference shares ranking equally in the relevant respect with the preference share) of:
 - (A) the amount paid or agreed to be considered as paid on the preference share; and
 - (B) the amount (if any) equal to the aggregate of any Dividends accrued (whether declared or determined or not) but unpaid on the preference share, and of any arrears of Dividends on the preference share; and
 - (ii) the right, in priority to any payment of Dividend on any other class of shares (except for any class of preference shares ranking equally in the relevant respect with the preference share), to the preferential Dividend, in each case on the basis the Board decides at the time of issue of the preference share;

- (e) the preference shares are to confer on the holders the right to a bonus issue or capitalisation of profits in favour of holders of those shares only, if and on the basis the Board decides at the time of issue of the preference shares;

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (f) a preference share does not confer on its holder any further rights to participate in assets or profits of the Company;
- (g) the holder of a preference share shall have the same rights as the holders of ordinary shares to receive notices, reports, accounts and balance sheets of the Company and to attend and be heard at all general meetings, but is not to have the right (in that capacity) to vote at general meetings except as follows:
 - (i) on any question considered at a meeting if, at the date of the meeting, a Dividend (or any part of a Dividend) on the preference share is in arrears for more than six months;
 - (ii) on a proposal:
 - (A) to reduce the share capital of the Company;
 - (B) that directly affects rights and privileges of the holders of the preference share;
 - (C) to wind up the Company;
 - (D) for sanctioning a sale of property, business and undertaking of the Company; and
 - (iii) on a resolution to approve the terms of a buy-back agreement; and
 - (iv) on any question considered at a meeting held during the winding up of the Company; and
 - (v) in any other circumstances in which the Listing Rules require or permit holders of preference shares to vote; and
- (h) the Company may issue further preference shares ranking equally, with, or in priority to, other preference shares already issued.

provided that the total number of issued preference shares shall not exceed the total number of issued ordinary shares issued at any time.

8 Alteration of rights

The repayment of preference capital other than redeemable preference capital, or any alteration of preference shareholders' rights, may only be made pursuant to a special resolution of the preference shareholders concerned, provided always that where the necessary majority for such a special resolution is not obtained at the general meeting, consent in writing if obtained from holders of at least three-fourths of the preference shares concerned within two months of the general meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as a special resolution being carried out at the general meeting.

9 Recognition of Third Party Interests

- (a) Except as required by law, the Company is not bound to recognise a person as holding a Security on any trust.
- (b) Whether or not it has notice of the rights or interests concerned, the Company is not bound to recognise:
 - (i) any equitable, contingent, future or partial claim to, or interest in, any Security or unit of a Security; or
 - (ii) any other right in respect of a Security, except an absolute right of ownership of the Security holder or as otherwise provided by this Constitution or by law.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

10 Surrender of Securities

In its discretion, the Board may accept a surrender of Securities by way of compromise of any question as to whether or not those Securities have been validly issued or in any other case where the surrender is within the powers of the Company. Any Securities surrendered may be sold or re-issued in the same manner as forfeited shares.

11 Joint Holders

Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any Securities, they are considered to hold the Securities as joint tenants with benefits of survivorship, subject to the following provisions:

- (a) the Company is not bound to register more than three persons as the holders of the Securities, except in the case of executors, administrators or trustees of the estate of a deceased holder of the Securities;
- (b) the joint holders of the Securities are liable severally as well as jointly in respect of all payments which ought to be made in respect of the Securities;
- (c) on the death of any one of the joint holders, the remaining joint holders are the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Securities but the Board may require evidence of death and the estate of the deceased joint holder is not released from any liability in respect of the Securities;
- (d) any one of the joint holders may give a receipt for any Dividend, bonus or return of capital payable to the joint holders in respect of the Securities;
- (e) only the person whose name stands first in the Securities register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register as one of the joint holders of the Securities is entitled, if the Company determines to issue certificates for Securities, to delivery of a certificate relating to the Securities or to receive notices from the Company and any notice given to that person is considered notice to all the joint holders; and
- (f) any one of the joint holders may vote at any general meeting of the Company in person, or by properly authorised representative, proxy or attorney or by Direct Vote, in respect of the Securities as if that joint holder was solely entitled to the Securities. If more than one of the joint holders tender a vote in person or by properly authorised representative, proxy or attorney or by Direct Vote, only the vote of the joint holder whose name appears first in the Securities register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register counts.

Certificates for Securities

12 Uncertificated Holdings

If and for so long as dealings in any Securities take place under an Uncertificated Transfer System:

- (a) the Company need not issue any certificate in respect of Securities held as an Uncertificated Securities Holding; and
- (b) the Securities register may distinguish between Securities held in certificated form and Securities held as an Uncertificated Securities Holding.

Lien

13 Lien

The Company has first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) and on dividends from time to time declared or payable in respect thereof. Such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such monies are due and unpaid; and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of the shares of the shareholder or deceased shareholder.

Forfeiture

14 Liability to Forfeiture

- (a) If a shareholder fails to pay when due any sum payable in respect of any shares (including amounts payable on issue, calls, instalments, interest or expenses) the Board may serve a notice on the shareholder requiring payment of the unpaid sum, together with accrued interest and all expenses of the Company incurred by reason of the non-payment.
- (b) The notice must:
 - (i) specify:
 - (A) a time by which payment must be made, which must not be earlier than close of business (local time at the registered office of the Company) 14 days after the date of service of the notice; and
 - (B) the required manner of payment; and
 - (ii) state that the shares are liable to be forfeited, if payment is not made as required by the notice.

15 Power to Forfeit

If the requirements of a notice with respect to a share under rule 14 are not complied with then, subject to the Listing Rules and the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, at any time the share may be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect unless, before the resolution the payment required by the notice is paid together with interest (if determined by the Board) at the rate determined by the Board.

16 Consequences of Forfeiture

- (a) A person whose shares have been forfeited:
 - (i) ceases to be a shareholder in respect of the forfeited shares at the time and on the date of the passing of a resolution of the Board approving the forfeiture;
 - (ii) has no claims or demands against the Company in respect of those shares including any Dividends;
 - (iii) has no other rights incident to the shares; and
 - (iv) unless otherwise approved by the Company in general meeting, remains liable to pay to the Company all money that, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by the person to the Company in respect of the shares (including, if the Board determines, interest from the date of forfeiture at the rate the Board determines). The Board may enforce the payment of all or any part of the money as it determines.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (b) If any amounts due in respect of any shares (including amounts payable on issue, calls, instalments, interest or expenses) are unpaid by the shareholder:
 - (i) the shareholder is not entitled to any rights or privileges as a shareholder;
 - (ii) the Company is entitled to set off any amount owed by it to the shareholder against the amounts the shareholder owes to it; and
 - (iii) the Company may refuse to register a transfer of the shares.
- (c) Nothing in this rule 16 affects any other right or remedy of the Company against the shareholder or anyone else.

17 Notice of Forfeiture

When any share is forfeited, the Company will note it in the share register and notify the affected shareholder. Failure to do so does not invalidate the forfeiture. At any time before any forfeited share is cancelled or reissued, the Board may annul the forfeiture on any conditions it determines.

18 Reissue of Forfeited Shares

- (a) Subject to applicable law and the Listing Rules, the Board may reissue the forfeited shares in any manner it determines and, to the extent permitted by law, with or without any money previously paid on the shares being credited as paid up.
- (b) Unless otherwise agreed, the acquirer of a reissued share is:
 - (i) discharged from liability for any calls which may have been due before the reissue of the forfeited share; and
 - (ii) not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.
- (c) If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue of the net proceeds of the sale after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls, accrued interest and expenses, and such other amounts as the Company may be called upon pursuant to applicable laws to pay in respect of such shares, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited, or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs.

19 Transfers After Forfeiture and Sale

- (a) The Company may:
 - (i) receive the consideration (if any) given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition of the share; and
 - (ii) effect a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of.
- (b) On the completion of the transfer, the transferee is to be registered as the holder of the share in the Securities register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register and is not bound to see to the application of any money paid as consideration.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (a) If the law of any place imposes or purports to impose any immediate or future or possible liability on the Company to make any payments or empowers any government or taxing authority or government official to require the Company to make any payment:
- (i) in respect of any Securities held either jointly or solely by any holder;
 - (ii) in respect of any transfer of those Securities;
 - (iii) in respect of any interest, Dividends, bonuses or other moneys due or payable or accruing or which may become due or payable to the holder by the Company on or in respect of any Securities; or

21 Board's Power to Make Calls

- (a) Subject to the terms of issue of any shares and the Listing Rules, the Board may make calls on the relevant shareholders in respect of any money unpaid on the shares.
- (b) Each shareholder must pay the amount of the call on that shareholder's shares in the manner, by the time or times, and at the place, specified by the Board.
- (c) The Board may revoke or postpone a call.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (d) A call may be required to be paid by instalments.
- (e) A call is made at the time of or as specified in the resolution of the Board authorising the call.
- (f) The non-receipt of a notice of a call by, or the accidental omission to give notice of a call to, any shareholder does not invalidate the call.
- (g) If the Board thinks fit, the Company may receive from any shareholder all or any part of the moneys unpaid on all or any of the shares held by that shareholder beyond the sums actually called up and then due and payable either as a loan repayable or as a payment in advance of calls. The Company may pay interest on the moneys advanced at the rate and on the terms agreed by the Board and the shareholder paying the sum in advance. Capital paid on shares in advance of calls shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits.

22 Interest on Unpaid Amounts

- (a) If a sum called or otherwise payable to the Company in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day for payment, the person from whom the sum is due must pay:
 - (i) interest on the sum from the due date to the time of actual payment at the rate determined by the Board; and
 - (ii) any costs and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of non-payment or late payment of the sum.
- (b) The Board may waive payment of some or all of the interest, costs and expenses under rule 22(a).

23 Differentiation between Holders

The Board may differentiate on the issue of shares between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

Transfer of Securities

24 Transfers

- (a) Subject to this Constitution, a transfer of any Securities may be effected by:
 - (i) a written transfer in the usual or common form or in any form the Board may prescribe or in a particular case accept, properly stamped (if necessary), being delivered to the Company, provided that, if required by the Listing Rules, it shall be in such a form approved by the Exchange;
 - (ii) a book-entry in the Depository Register in accordance with applicable law;
 - (iii) a proper ASTC transfer, which is to be in the form required or permitted by the Corporations Act or the ASX Settlement Operating Rules; or
 - (iv) any other electronic system established or recognised by the Listing Rules in which the Company participates in accordance with the rules of that system.
- (b) Except in the case of a proper ASTC transfer, the transferor is considered to remain the holder of the Securities transferred until the name of the transferee is entered on the Securities register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register. A proper ASTC transfer is considered recorded in the Securities register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register and the name of the transferee to be registered as the holder of the Securities comprised in the proper ASTC transfer, as provided in the ASX Settlement Operating Rules.

- (c) The Board may take any action it determines to comply with the ASX Settlement Operating Rules and may request ASX Settlement to apply a holding lock to prevent a transfer of Securities the subject of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules if the Board determines.
- (d) The Company may do anything necessary or desirable to facilitate participation by the Company in any Uncertificated Transfer System.

25 Board may Refuse to Register

- (a) There shall be no restriction on the transfer of fully paid shares except where required by applicable law or the Listing Rules. The Board may refuse to register any transfer of Securities:
 - (i) if the registration of the transfer would result in a contravention of or failure to observe the provisions of any applicable law or the Listing Rules;
 - (ii) which are subject to forfeiture; or
 - (iii) if permitted to do so under the Listing Rules.
- (b) The decision of the Board relating to the registration of a transfer is absolute. Failure to give notice of refusal to register any transfer as may be required under the Corporations Act does not invalidate the decision of the Board.

26 Transfer and Certificate (if any)

- (a) Every transfer must be left for registration at the registered office of the Company or any other place the Board determines. Without limiting rule 26(b), the transfer is to be accompanied by such evidence that the Board may require to prove the title of the transferor, the transferor's right to transfer the Securities, execution of the transfer or compliance with the provisions of any applicable laws.
- (b) Unless the Board otherwise determines either generally or in a particular case, each application to register the transfer of any Securities, or to register any person as the holder in respect of any Securities transmitted to that person by operation of law or otherwise, is to be accompanied by the certificate for the relevant Securities. The certificate is considered to have been cancelled on such registration.
- (c) Each transfer that is registered may be retained by the Company for any period determined by the Board, after which the Company may destroy it.
- (d) Without limiting any other entitlement the Company may have to charge fees, the Company may, to the extent permitted by the Listing Rules, charge a reasonable fee in relation to any transfer of Securities that is not a Market Transfer or the issue of any certificates for Securities, provided that subject to the Listing Rules and for so long as any Securities of the Company are listed or quoted on the SGX-ST, any fee charged on the transfer of Securities shall not exceed S$2 (or foreign currency equivalent) per transfer (or such other fee as the Board may from time to time determine having regard to any limitation thereof as may be prescribed by the Exchange upon which Securities the Company are listed).

27 Suspension of Transfers

 - (i) the legal personal representatives of the deceased, where the Security holder was a sole holder or a joint holder holding as a tenant in common; and
 - (ii) the survivor or survivors, where the Security holder was a joint holder, are the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Security holder's interest in the Securities (as the case may be).
- (b) Subject to the Corporations Act, the Board may require evidence of a Security holder's death as it determines.
- (c) This rule 29 does not release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any Security that had been jointly held by the holder with other persons.

30 Transmission by Operation of Law

A person (a transmittee) who establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that the right to any Securities has devolved on the transmittee by will or by operation of law may be registered as a holder in respect of the Securities (or such person's name shall have been entered in the Depository Register) or may (subject to the provisions in this Constitution relating to transfers) transfer the Securities. The Board has the same right to refuse to register the transmittee as if the transmittee was the transferee named in a transfer presented for registration.

- (d) The Company must refuse to acknowledge a disposal (including registering a transfer) of Restricted Securities during the Escrow Period except as permitted by the ASX Listing Rules or the ASX.
- (e) A holder of Restricted Securities will not be entitled to participate in any return of capital on those Restricted Securities during the Escrow Period applicable to those Restricted Securities except as permitted by the ASX Listing Rules or the ASX.
- (f) If a holder of Restricted Securities breaches a Restriction Agreement or a provision of this Constitution restricting a disposal of those Restricted Securities, the holder of those Restricted Securities is not entitled to any Dividend or distribution, or to exercise any voting rights, in respect of those Restricted Securities for so long as the breach continues.

Alteration of Capital

32 Power to Alter Share Capital

The Company may reduce or alter its share capital in any manner provided for by the Corporations Act. - (c) By resolution of the Board, any general meeting may be cancelled or postponed prior to the date on which it is to be held, except where the cancellation or postponement would be contrary to the Corporations Act. The Board may give notice of cancellation or postponement as it determines, but any failure to give notice of cancellation or postponement does not invalidate the cancellation or postponement or any resolution passed at a postponed general meeting.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

34 Right of Depositor to Convene

For the purpose of sections 249D, 249E and 249F of the Corporations Act, a 'member' shall include a Depositor whose votes in the Company shall be calculated based on the number of votes attaching to the Securities entered against the Depositor's name in the Depository Register.

 - (iv) shall include any other information required to be included in the notice by the Listing Rules.
- (c) The non-receipt of a notice convening a general meeting by, or the accidental omission to give notice to, any person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the meeting.

36 Annual General Meeting

For so long as any Securities of the Company are listed or quoted on the SGX-ST, an annual general meeting shall be held in accordance with the requirements of the SGX-ST Listing Rules, and that the interval between the close of a financial year of the Company and the date of the Company's annual general meeting shall not exceed four months (or such other period as may be required or allowed under the SGX-ST Listing Rules).

37 Business of Annual and Other General Meetings

- (c) If there is not a quorum at a general meeting within 30 minutes after the time specified in the notice of the meeting, the meeting is dissolved unless the chair of the meeting or the Board adjourns the meeting to a date, time and place determined by that chair or the Board. If no quorum is present at any adjourned meeting within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

39 Conduct of General Meetings

- (a) Subject to rule 39(b), the chair of the Board is entitled to preside as chair at every general meeting.
- (b) Where a general meeting is held and:
 - (i) there is no chair of the Board; or

- (e) The chair of a general meeting of the Company may require the adoption of any procedures that are in that chair's opinion necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly casting or recording of votes at the meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll.
- (f) The chair of a general meeting of the Company or a person acting with that chair's authority may require any person who wishes to attend the meeting to comply with searches, restrictions or other security arrangements that chair or a person acting with that chair's authority considers appropriate. The chair of the meeting or a person acting with that chair's authority may refuse entry to any person who does not comply with the arrangements, any person who possesses a recording or broadcasting device without the consent of that chair or a person acting with that chair's authority, or any person who possesses an article which that chair or a person acting with that chair's authority considers to be dangerous, offensive or liable to cause disruption.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (g) If at any time the chair of a general meeting of the Company considers it necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting, that chair may demand the cessation of debate or discussion on any business, question, motion or resolution being considered by the meeting and require the business, question, motion or resolution to be put to a vote of the Shareholders Present.
- (h) Any determination by the chair of a general meeting in relation to matters of procedure (including any procedural motions moved at, or put to, the meeting) or any other matter arising directly or indirectly from the business is final (including any procedural motions moved at, or put to, the meeting). Any challenge to a right to vote (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) or to a determination to allow or disregard a vote (including in either case a Direct Vote) may only be made at the meeting and may be determined by the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.
- (i) If a person purports to cast a vote (including a Direct Vote) at or for the purposes of a general meeting in contravention of the Corporations Act or Listing Rules, the chair of the meeting may determine that the vote be disregarded and treated as not having been cast.

40 Acting Chair

- (a) If during any general meeting the chair of the meeting acting under rule 39 is unwilling to chair any part of the proceedings, that chair may withdraw during the relevant part of the proceedings and may nominate any person who immediately before the general meeting was a Director or who has been nominated for election as a Director at the meeting to be acting chair of the meeting during the relevant part of the proceedings. On the conclusion of the relevant part of the proceedings the acting chair of the meeting is to withdraw and the chair of the meeting acting under rule 39 is to resume to chair the meeting.
- (b) Where an instrument of proxy appoints the chair of a general meeting as proxy for the part of the proceedings for which an acting chair of the meeting has been nominated, the instrument of proxy is taken to be in favour of that acting chair for the relevant part of the proceedings.

41 Adjournment of General Meetings

- (a) During the course of a general meeting the chair of the meeting may adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question or resolution being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting or any debate or discussion either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting to be held at the time and place determined by that chair.
- (b) If the chair of a general meeting exercises a right of adjournment of the meeting under this rule 41, that chair has the sole discretion to decide whether to seek the approval of the Shareholders Present to the adjournment and, unless that chair exercises that discretion, no vote may be taken by the Shareholders Present in respect of the adjournment.
- (c) No business may be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

- (c) A question must be decided on a poll without first submitting the question to the meeting to be decided by a show of hands if:
 - (i) the question is a resolution set out in the notice of meeting provided in accordance with rule 35; or
 - (ii) the chair of a general meeting determines that the question be determined by a poll without first submitting the question to the meeting to be decided by a show of hands; or
 - (iii) otherwise required by law or the Listing Rules.
- (d) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair of a general meeting following a vote on a show of hands at the meeting that a resolution has been passed or lost is conclusive, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (e) At any general meeting, a poll may be demanded by a shareholder in accordance with the Corporations Act (and not otherwise) or by the chair of the meeting. No poll may be demanded on the election of a chair of the meeting or, unless that chair otherwise determines, the adjournment of the meeting. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (f) The Board may, subject to law, determine that, at any meeting of shareholders or a class of shareholders, a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at that meeting is entitled to give their vote by Direct Vote.

43 Special Meetings

All the provisions of this Constitution as to general meetings apply to any special meeting of any class of shareholders that may be held under the operation of this Constitution or the Corporations Act.

- (b) The result of a poll may be announced in the manner and at the time (whether during the relevant meeting or afterwards) that the chair of the meeting considers appropriate.
- (c) The result of a poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (d) The demand for a poll does not prevent a meeting from continuing for the transaction of any business other than that on which a poll has been demanded. Subject to rules 41 and 42(e), a poll demanded on any question of adjournment is to be taken at the meeting and without adjournment.

45 Chair has Casting Vote

In the case of an equality of votes on a show of hands or on a poll, at or for the purposes of a general meeting of the Company, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any vote to which that chair may be entitled as a shareholder or as a proxy, attorney or properly appointed representative of a shareholder.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

46 Representation and Voting of Shareholders

Subject to this Constitution and any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares:

- (a) at meetings of shareholders or a class of shareholders each shareholder entitled to attend and vote may:
 - (i) attend and vote in person; or
 - (ii) be represented and vote by proxy, by attorney or (where the shareholder is a body corporate) by representative; or
 - (iii) if a determination has been made by the Board in accordance with rule 42(f), vote by Direct Vote;
- (b) a shareholder may only vote by one of the permitted methods in rule 46(a) in respect of a share although, without limiting rules 50(b) and 51(a), a shareholder may attend and participate in a meeting even though the shareholder has previously appointed a proxy or attorney, or has given a Direct Vote, in respect of that meeting;
- (c) on a show of hands in respect of a resolution:
 - (i) subject to rules 46(c)(ii) and 46(c)(iii), each Shareholder Present has one vote;
 - (ii) where a shareholder has appointed more than one person as representative, proxy or attorney for the shareholder, none of the representatives, proxies or attorneys is entitled to vote;
 - (iii) where a person is entitled to vote because of rule 46(c)(i) in more than one capacity, that person is entitled only to one vote; and
 - (iv) a Direct Vote is not counted; and
- (d) on a poll in respect of a resolution, subject to rules 46(b) and 51:
 - (i) every Shareholder Present; and
 - (ii) if a determination has been made by the Board in accordance with rule 42(f), every shareholder who gives a Direct Vote, having the right to vote on the resolution has:

- (iii) one vote for each fully paid share they hold;
- (iv) in the case of a partly paid share, that fraction of a vote equivalent to the proportion that the amount paid up on that shareholder's share bears to the total amount paid and payable for that share. Amounts paid in advance of a call are ignored when calculating the proportion; and
- (v) in respect of every shareholder who gives a Direct Vote, their vote is treated as if the shareholder cast the vote in the poll at the meeting, and must be counted accordingly.

47 Restriction on Voting Rights

- (a) A shareholder is not entitled to vote at a general meeting or to be counted for the purpose of constituting a quorum unless all calls and other sums presently payable by the shareholder in respect of shares have been paid.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (b) The Board may grant a person with beneficial interest in the Securities of the Company the right to attend and speak at a general meeting, provided that the necessary evidence of such interest is furnished to the Company as requested.

48 Form of Proxy

- (a) A shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company may appoint a person as a proxy to attend and vote for the shareholder in accordance with the Corporations Act but not otherwise. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company and shall be entitled to vote on any matter at any general meeting. A proxy appointed in accordance with the Corporations Act to attend and vote may exercise the rights of the shareholder on the basis and subject to the restrictions provided in the Corporations Act but not otherwise. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and shall comply with the Listing Rules.
- (b) An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is in accordance with the Corporations Act or in any form (including electronic) that the Board may prescribe or accept.
- (c) If a proxy appointment is not properly executed or validated, incomplete or unclear, the following provisions apply. Nothing obliges the Board or the Company to do anything referred to in those provisions.
 - (i) If the name of the proxy is not included, the name of any Director or Secretary may be inserted by the Secretary on the authority of the Board (which may occur later than the time specified in the relevant notice of meeting for the receipt of proxy appointments).
 - (ii) If the appointment has not been duly signed or validated, the Company may:
 - (A) return the appointment to the appointing shareholder; and
 - (B) request that the shareholder sign or validate the appointment and return it to the Company within a period decided by the Board (which may be later than the time specified in the relevant notice of meeting for the receipt of proxy appointments).
 - (iii) If the appointment is otherwise incomplete or unclear, the Company may, by written or oral communication, clarify with a shareholder any instruction on the appointment and complete or amend the contents of any appointment to reflect any clarification in instruction received from the shareholder (which completion or amendment may occur later than the time specified in the relevant notice of meeting for the receipt of proxy appointments). For this purpose the shareholder appoints the Company as its attorney.
- (d) Where a notice of meeting provides for electronic lodgement of proxy appointments, an appointment lodged at the electronic address or by the electronic means specified in the notice is taken to have been received at the registered office of the Company and validated by the shareholder if there is compliance with the requirements set out in the notice.

49 Form of Direct Vote

- (a) The Board may, subject to this Constitution, prescribe regulations, rules and procedures in relation to the giving of Direct Votes (including specifying the form, method and timing of giving a Direct Vote at or for the purposes of a meeting in order for the vote to be valid) and for revoking a Direct Vote. Without limitation, such regulations, rules and procedures may permit a shareholder to give a Direct Vote prior to the relevant meeting. The Board must specify in the notice of meeting, or in any document accompanying the notice of meeting or otherwise made available to shareholders for the purpose of the meeting, the form, method and timing of giving a Direct Vote in order for the Direct Vote to be valid.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (b) Unless the Board determines otherwise (whether in any regulations, rules and procedures it may prescribe, by resolution or otherwise), the following provisions apply:
- (i) if sent by post, a Direct Vote must be signed by the shareholder or properly authorised attorney or, if the shareholder is a company, either under seal or by a duly authorised officer or attorney.
 - (ii) if sent or lodged electronically, a Direct Vote is taken to have been signed if it has been signed or authorised by the shareholder in the manner approved by the Board or specified in the notice of meeting.
 - (iii) at least 48 hours (or any shorter period as the Board may permit or specified by the Corporations Act) before the time for holding the relevant meeting, adjourned meeting or a poll at which a person proposes to cast a notice of their voting intention, the Company must receive at its registered office or at such other electronic address or by such other electronic means specified for that purpose in the notice of meeting:
 - (A) the Direct Vote; and
 - (B) if relevant, any authority or power under which the Direct Vote was signed or a certified copy of that power or authority if not already lodged with the Company; and
 - (iv) a notice of voting intention is valid if it contains the following information:
 - (A) the shareholder's name and address or any applicable identifying notations such as the holder identification number or similar approved by the Board or specified in the notice of meeting; and
 - (B) the shareholder's voting intention on any or all of the resolutions to be put before the meeting, in respect of which meeting a determination has been made by the Board in accordance with rule 42(f).

50 Validity of Proxies, Attorneys and Representatives

- (a) A vote exercised in accordance with the terms of a proxy appointment, a power of attorney or other relevant instrument of appointment is valid despite:
- (i) the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal;
 - (ii) the revocation of the appointment, power or instrument (or of the authority under which it was made or given); or
 - (iii) the transfer of the share in respect of which the appointment, power or instrument is made or given,

if no notice in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind, revocation or transfer (as the case may be) has been received by the Company at its registered office at least 48 hours (or any shorter period as the Board may permit or specified by the Corporations Act) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.

- (b) Subject to the Listing Rules, a proxy appointment or power of attorney (subject to its terms) is not revoked by the principal attending the relevant meeting unless the principal instructs the Company (or at the Company's instruction, the Company's Securities registry) prior to the meeting that the shareholder wishes to vote in person on any or all of the resolutions to be put before the meeting, in which case the proxy appointment or power of attorney is revoked entirely for that meeting.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (c) Voting instructions given by a shareholder to a Director or employee of the Company who is held out by the Company in material sent to shareholders as willing to act as proxy and who is appointed as proxy (Company Proxy) are valid only if contained in the form of appointment of the Company Proxy. If a shareholder wishes to give a Company Proxy appointed by the shareholder new instructions or variations to earlier instructions, the new or varied instructions are only valid if either they are received at the registered office of the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting or adjourned meeting by a notice in writing signed by the shareholder or they are otherwise validated by the shareholder in a manner acceptable to the Board in its discretion prior to the commencement of the meeting.

51 Validity of Direct Votes

Where the Board determines that, at a meeting of shareholders or a class of shareholders, shareholders will be entitled to vote by Direct Vote, the following provisions apply:

- (a) a Direct Vote by a shareholder is not revoked by the shareholder attending the meeting unless the shareholder instructs the Company (or at the Company's instruction, the Company's Securities registry) prior to the meeting that the shareholder wishes to vote in person on any or all of the resolutions to be put before the meeting, in which case the Direct Vote by the shareholder is revoked;
- (b) a Direct Vote by a shareholder is automatically revoked if the Company receives a further valid Direct Vote from the shareholder;
- (c) a Direct Vote by a shareholder is automatically revoked if, after the Direct Vote is received, the Company receives a valid proxy appointment in respect of that shareholder for the relevant meeting;
- (d) a Direct Vote by a shareholder revokes the authority of a previously provided proxy appointment, power of attorney or other relevant instrument of appointment in respect of that shareholder for the relevant meeting;
- (e) a Direct Vote by a shareholder is valid even if prior to the vote being counted:
- (i) the shareholder becomes of unsound mind or dies;
 - (ii) subject to rule 51(a), the shareholder wishes to change their vote; or
 - (iii) where the Direct Vote is given on behalf of the shareholder by an attorney, the appointment of the attorney or the authority under which the appointment was made is revoked,

if no notice in writing of the relevant event has been received by the Company at its registered office at least 48 hours (or any shorter period as the Board may permit or specified by the Corporations Act) before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which the Direct Vote relates; and

- (f) if the chair of the meeting determines it is appropriate, a Direct Vote by a shareholder on a resolution is taken to be a Direct Vote on the resolution as amended.

52 Number of Directors

- (a) All Directors are to be natural persons.
- (b) The number of Directors(not including alternate Directors) must not be less than two nor more than the maximum number of Directors set by the Board (if any) (or, subject to rule 53(c), such lower number that the Board may determine from time to time in accordance with the Corporations Act, provided that the Board may not reduce the number below the number of Directors in office at the time of the reduction).

53 Appointment and Removal of Directors

- (a) The Company in general meeting may by resolution:
 - (i) appoint any person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, provided that the number of Directors(not including alternate Directors) does not exceed the maximum number determined under rule 52(b); and
 - (ii) remove any Director from office.
- (b) No person other than a retiring Director or a Director vacating office under rule 53(c) is eligible to be elected a Director at any general meeting unless a notice of the person's candidature (signed by the person) is given to the Company at its registered office at least 35 Business Days before the meeting (or, in the case of a meeting that shareholders have requested the Board to call, 30 Business Days). Subject to rule 35(b), the notice of such general meeting shall include details of each candidate proposed to be elected as a Director.
- (c) The Board may at any time appoint any person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, provided that the number of Directors (not including alternate Directors) does not exceed the maximum number of Directors (if any). Any Director appointed under this rule 53(c) may hold office only until the next annual general meeting of the Company and is then eligible for election at that meeting without needing to give any prior notice of an intention to submit for election.

54 No Share Qualification for Directors

55 Retirement of Directors

- (a) Subject to rules 53(c), 55(c) and 63(d), a Director may not hold office for a continuous period in excess of three years or past the conclusion of the third annual general meeting following the Director's last election or re-election, whichever is the longer, without submitting for re-election by the Company.
- (b) If no Director would otherwise be required to submit for election or re-election at an annual general meeting but the Listing Rules require that an election of Directors be held, the Director to retire at the annual general meeting is the Director who has been longest in office since last being elected. As between Directors who were last elected on the same day, the Director to retire is (in default of agreement between them) determined by lot.
- (c) A retiring Director under this rule 55 is eligible for re-election without needing to give any prior notice of an intention to submit for re-election and holds office as a Director (subject to re-election) until the end of the general meeting at which the Director retires.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

56 Remuneration of Directors

- (a) The Directors are to be paid for their services as Directors.
- (b) Each non-executive Director is to be paid or provided remuneration for services, of the amount, at the time and in the manner determined by the Board, provided that the aggregate amount or value of the remuneration paid or provided to all non-executive Directors in any year may not exceed:
 - (i) unless rule 56(b)(ii) applies, the amount fixed by the Board prior to the Company being admitted to the official list of the ASX, as disclosed in a prospectus or equivalent disclosure provided in connection with that admission; or
 - (ii) the amount last approved by the Company in general meeting.

Except to the extent otherwise required by the Listing Rules, the expression remuneration in this rule does not include any amount that may be paid by the Company under any of rules 56(e), 56(f), 59 and 85.

- (c) The remuneration to be paid or provided under rule 56(b) is to be divided among the Directors in the proportions as they may agree or, if they cannot agree, equally among them.
- (d) The remuneration to which a Director is entitled may be provided to a Director in cash or in any other form as is agreed between the Company and the Director. A Director may elect to forgo some or all of the Director's entitlement to cash remuneration in favour of another agreed form of remuneration and vice versa, provided the total cost to the Company of that Director's remuneration is not increased above the maximum amount for that Director under rule 56(c).
- (e) The Directors are also entitled to be paid or reimbursed for all travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from any meeting of the Board or of a committee of the Board or any general meeting of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business or affairs of the Company.
- (f) If any Director, with the approval of the Board, performs extra services or makes any special exertions for the benefit of the Company, the Board may approve the payment to that Director of special and additional remuneration as the Board determines having regard to the value to the Company of the extra services or special exertions. Any special or additional remuneration must not include a commission on or percentage of profits or operating revenue or turnover.
- (g) An executive Director may be appointed on terms as to remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as may be determined by the Board.
- (h) Subject to the Corporations Act, a Director may be engaged by the Company in any other capacity (other than auditor) and may be appointed on such terms as to remuneration, tenure of office and otherwise as may be determined by the Board.
- (i) For so long as any Securities of the Company are listed or quoted on the SGX-ST and if required by the SGX-ST Listing Rules, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Constitution:

- (a) In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant:

- (i) under the Corporations Act; and
- (ii) under rules 53(a)(ii) and 55,

 - (vii) dies.
- (b) The office of a Director who is an employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries is terminated on the Director ceasing to be employed (but the person concerned is eligible for reappointment or re-election as a Director), unless the Board resolves that the person should remain a Director until the next annual general meeting, in which case that Director is treated as a retiring Director at that annual general meeting under rule 55.

58 Disqualification of a Director

If a Director is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds, that Director shall immediately resign from office.

59 Retirement Allowance for Directors

- (a) Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, the Company may pay, provide or make any payment, pension, retiring allowance or other benefit (whether in the form of Securities, securities in any other corporation or otherwise) to any Director or a director of a subsidiary or any other person in connection with the Director's retirement, resignation from or loss of office or death while in office.
- (b) Subject to rule 59(a) the Board may:
 - (i) make contracts or arrangements with a Director or a person about to become a Director or a director of a subsidiary under which the Director or any person nominated by the Director is paid or provided with a payment, pension, retiring allowance or other benefit (whether in the form of Securities, securities in any other corporation or otherwise) on or after the Director or person about to become a Director or a director of a subsidiary ceases to hold office for any reason; and

- (c) Without limiting rules 59(a) and 59(b), the Company may pay superannuation contributions for each Director to the extent necessary for the avoidance or minimisation of any penalty, charge, tax, or other impost on the Company under any applicable legislation which imposes a penalty, charge, tax or other impost on employers if a minimum level of superannuation contributions is not paid for an employee (within the meaning of the legislation).

60 Directors May Lend to the Company

Any Director may lend money to the Company at interest with or without security or may, for a commission or profit, guarantee the repayment of any money borrowed by the Company or underwrite or guarantee the subscription of Securities or securities of any corporation in which the Company may be interested without being disqualified in respect of the office of Director and without being liable to account to the Company for the commission or profit.

61 Exercise of Voting Power in Other Corporations

The Board may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares in any corporation held or owned by the Company as the Board determines (including the exercise of the voting power in favour of any resolution appointing the Directors or any of them directors of that corporation or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors of that corporation) and a Director may vote in favour of the exercise of those voting rights, despite the fact that the Director is, or may be about to be appointed, a director of that other corporation and may be interested in the exercise of those voting rights.

62 Alternate Directors

Subject to this Constitution, each Director may appoint any person (other than another Director) approved by a majority of the other Directors to act as an alternate Director in the Director's place, either for a stated period or until the happening of a specified event, whenever by absence or illness or otherwise the Director is unable to attend to duties as a Director. The appointment must be in writing and signed by the Director and a copy of the appointment must be given to the registered office of the Company or to a meeting of the Board. The appointment takes effect on approval by a majority of the other Directors or, where the approval has been granted, at any later time specified in the appointment. The following provisions apply to any alternate Director:

- (a) the appointment of the alternate Director is terminated or suspended on receipt at the registered office of the Company of notice in writing signed by the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed;
- (b) the alternate Director is entitled to receive notice of meetings of the Board and to attend and vote at the meetings if the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed is not present;
- (c) the alternate Director is entitled to exercise all the powers (except the power to appoint an alternate Director) and perform all the duties of a Director, to the extent the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed has not exercised or performed them or they have not been limited by the instrument appointing the alternate Director;
- (d) the alternate Director is not, unless the Board otherwise determines, (without affecting the right to reimbursement for expenses under rule 56) entitled to receive any remuneration as a Director from the Company, and any remuneration (not including remuneration authorised by the Board or reimbursement for expenses) paid to the alternate Director as a Director by the Company is to be deducted from the remuneration of the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed;

- (e) unless previously terminated, the office of the alternate Director is terminated on the death of, or termination of office by, the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed;
- (f) the alternate Director is not to be taken into account in determining the number of Directors;
- (g) the alternate Director is, while acting as a Director, responsible to the Company for the alternate Director's own acts and defaults and is not the agent of the Director by whom the alternate Director was appointed; and
- (h) the alternate Director shall not act as an alternate Director to more than one Director at the same time.

Powers of the Board and Executives

- (d) Unless any Securities of the Company are listed or quoted on the SGX-ST in which case this rule 63(d) does not apply and is inoperative, an exempt Managing Director is not subject to election and re-election. An exempt Managing Director is the Managing Director or, if there is more than one Managing Director, the Managing Director designated by the Board to be an exempt Managing Director.

- (b) The Board may, on the terms and conditions and with any restrictions as it determines, delegate to a Managing Director any of the powers exercisable by it and may at any time withdraw, suspend or vary any of those powers conferred on the Managing Director.
- (c) Without limiting the exercise of the fiduciary and statutory duties of a Managing Director, a Managing Director (or a person holding an equivalent position) shall be subject to the control of the Board.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

68 Directors' Voting Rights and Exercise of Powers

- (a) Without limiting rule 71, a meeting of the Board of which notice has been given to all Directors and at which a quorum is present, is competent to exercise any of the authorities, powers and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Board. Nothing in this rule 68(a) limits the exercise of any authority, power or discretion of the Board which has been delegated by the Board in accordance with law or this Constitution.
- (b) Subject to this Constitution, questions arising at a meeting of the Board are decided by a majority of votes of Directors present and voting.
- (c) In the case of an equality of votes at a meeting of the Board, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to the chair's deliberative vote, unless where two Directors form the quorum, the chair of the meeting at which only such a quorum is present, or at which only two Directors are competent to vote on the matter at issue, shall not have a casting vote.

- (g) Subject to the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules, a Director or any person who is an associate of a Director may participate in any issue by the Company of financial products.

 - (i) the fact that the Director signed the document evidencing the contract or arrangement will not in any way affect its validity;

A delegate of the Board may be authorised to sub-delegate any of the powers for the time being vested in the delegate.
- (b) The meetings and proceedings of any committee are to be governed by the provisions of this Constitution for regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as they are applicable and are not in conflict with or superseded by any regulations made by the Board under rule 70(a).
- (c) Nothing in this rule 70 limits the power of the Board to delegate.

71 Written Resolutions of Directors

- (a) The Board may pass a resolution without a Board meeting being held if all Directors, or a majority of the Directors (where notice of the resolution has been given to all Directors), who are entitled to vote on the resolution (not being less than the number required for a quorum at a meeting of the Board) assent to a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
- (b) A Director may signify assent to a document under this rule 71 by signing the document or by notifying a Secretary of the assent of the Director by any technology including email. APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

72 Defects in Appointments of Directors

- (b) If the number of Directors is reduced below the minimum number fixed under this Constitution, the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to that number or of calling a general meeting of the Company but for no other purpose.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

80 Distributions in Kind

If the Board has declared or determined to pay a Dividend or if the Company is to reduce its capital in accordance with rule 32, wholly or partly by the distribution of specific assets (including by the issue of Securities or other financial products or by the transfer of securities or financial products), the Board may do one or more of the following:

- (e) authorise any person to make, on behalf of all the shareholders entitled to any securities or financial products, an agreement with the Company (or other relevant body corporate) providing for the issue or transfer to them of any further securities or financial products and, in executing the document, the person acts as agent and attorney for the shareholders; and
- (f) if the Dividend or reduction of capital is by way of a distribution of shares or other securities in another corporation, then each shareholder is taken to have agreed to become a shareholder or securityholder of that corporation and to have agreed to be bound by the constitution of that corporation. APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (B) any other address as the Security holder or joint holders in writing directs or direct; or
- (ii) by electronic funds transfer to an account with a bank or other financial institution nominated by the Security holder or joint holders in writing and acceptable to the Company.
- (b) Without limiting rule 81(d), if the Board decides to make a payment by electronic funds transfer under rule 81(a) and an account is not nominated by the shareholder or joint holders in accordance with the requirements of rule 81(a), the Company may hold the amount payable in a separate account of the Company until the holder or joint holders nominate an account in accordance with the requirements of rule 81(a).
- (c) Payments of Dividends and other distributions by the Company may be made in Australian dollars or any other currency determined by the Board in its discretion. Payments in different currencies may be made to different Security holders as determined by the Board in its discretion. If a payment is made in a currency other than Australian dollars the Board may determine in its discretion the appropriate exchange rate and the time of calculation to calculate the amount payable in the relevant currency. The determinations of the Board are, in the absence of manifest error, final.
- (d) Subject to law, all Dividends unclaimed may be invested or otherwise used by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed or otherwise disposed of according to law.

Capitalisation of Profits

82 Capitalisation of Profits

- (a) The Company in general meeting or the Board may resolve:

 - (ii) that the sum referred to in rule 82(a)(i) be applied, in any of the ways mentioned in rule 82(b), for the benefit of Security holders in full satisfaction of their interest in the capitalised sum, in the proportions to which those Security holders would have been entitled in a distribution of that sum by way of Dividend or if there is no proportional entitlement, as the Board determines.
- (b) The ways in which a sum may be applied for the benefit of Security holders under rule 82(a) are:
 - (i) in paying up any amounts unpaid on Securities held by Security holders;
 - (ii) in paying up in full unissued Securities to be issued to Security holders as fully paid;
 - (iii) partly as mentioned in rule 82(b)(i) and partly as mentioned in rule 82(b)(ii); or
 - (iv) any other application permitted by law and the Listing Rules.
- (c) Where the conditions of issue of a partly paid Security provide, the holder is entitled to participate in any application of a sum under rule 82(b) to a greater extent than would have been the case had those funds been distributed by Dividend but not to any greater extent than permitted by the terms of issue.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (d) The Board may do all things that it considers necessary to give effect to the resolution and, in particular, to the extent it considers necessary to adjust the rights of the Security holders amongst themselves, may:
- (i) fix the value for distribution of the specific assets or any part of those assets;

- (d) Additionally, the Directors may, at their discretion, at any time give a Security holder an opportunity to elect within a specified period of time whether to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy, and a Security holder shall be deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if such Security holder was given such an opportunity and an election was not made within the specified time, and such Security holder shall not in such an event have a right to receive a physical copy of such notice or document, unless otherwise provided under applicable law and/or the Listing Rules. An election or deemed election by a such Security holder pursuant to this rule is a standing election but such Security holder may make a fresh election at any time, provided that until the such Security holder makes a fresh election, the election or deemed election that is conveyed to the Company last in time prevails over all previous elections as that such Security holder's valid and subsisting election in relation to all notices or documents to be sent.

Any document sent to a Security holder by electronic means is conclusively considered to have been served when the electronic transmission is sent. Any document made available to a Security holder by electronic means as contemplated by rule 83(a)(iv) is conclusively considered to have been served when notification that the document is available for access by that means is sent.
- (g) Every person who, by operation of law, transfer or any other means, becomes entitled to be registered as the holder of any Securities is bound by every document that, prior to the person's name and address being entered in the Securities register or (as the case may be) the Depository Register in respect of the Securities, was properly given to the person from whom the person derived title to those Securities.
- (h) A document served in accordance with this Constitution is (despite the fact that the Security holder is then dead and whether or not the Company has notice of the Security holder's death) conclusively considered to have been properly served in respect of any registered Securities, whether held solely or jointly with other persons by the Security holder, until some other person is registered in the Security holder's place as the holder or joint holder. The service is sufficient service of the document on the Security holder's personal representative and any persons jointly interested with the Security holder in the Securities.

- (c) Where the Board considers it appropriate, the Company may:

Small Shareholdings

86 Sale of Small Holdings

- (a) (i) In this rule 86 unless the context otherwise requires:

Divestment Notice means a notice in writing stating or to the effect that the Company intends to sell or arrange the sale of the shares of a shareholder unless within the Specified Period (which must be set out in the notice):

- (A) the shareholding of the shareholder increases to at least a Marketable Parcel and the shareholder notifies the Company in writing of the increase;
- (B) the shares are sold by the shareholder; or
- (C) except in respect of a Divestment Notice sent to a Prescribed New Small Holder, the shareholder gives to the Company a written notice that the shareholder wishes to retain the shares.

Effective Date means the date on which this rule 86 was included in this Constitution.

New Small Holder means a shareholder who holds less than a Marketable Parcel of shares in the Company where:

- (A) the holding is a new holding created by the transfer of a parcel of shares that was less than a Marketable Parcel at the time a proper ASTC transfer was initiated or a paper based transfer was lodged; and
- (B) the transfer occurred after the Effective Date.

Notice Date means the date on which the Company sends to a shareholder a Divestment Notice.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

Prescribed New Small Holder means a New Small Holder that the Board determines should be treated as a Prescribed New Small Holder with the consequences set out in this rule 86 and, accordingly, is a person to whom the Board determines to send a Divestment Notice specifying seven days as the Specified Period.

Sale Period means the period of either seven days following the expiration of the Specified Period or, where rule 86(b)(iv) applies, seven days following the date of receipt by the Company of revocation of the notice referred to in rule 86(b)(iii)(C).

Small Holder means a shareholder who holds less than a Marketable Parcel of shares in the Company but does not include a Prescribed New Small Holder.

Specified Period means either:

- (A) a period of not less than six weeks after the Notice Date, as determined by the Board; or
- (B) if the Board in its discretion determines in the case of a New Small Holder, the period of seven days after the Notice Date.

The terms Marketable Parcel and Takeover have the same meaning as they are given in the ASX Listing Rules and the terms CHESS Holding, Holding Adjustment and Issuer Sponsored Holding have the same meaning as they are given in the ASX Settlement Operating Rules.

- (ii) Where under this rule 86 powers are conferred on a Secretary the powers may be exercised either by the Secretary or by any person nominated by the Secretary.
- (b) (i) If the Board determines that a shareholder is a Small Holder or a Prescribed New Small Holder, a Secretary may send (subject to rule 86(b)(ii)) a Divestment Notice on behalf of the Company to the shareholder.
- (ii) Subject to rule 86(e), the Company may not give more than one Divestment Notice to a particular shareholder in any 12 month period.
- (iii) Where the Company has sent to a shareholder a Divestment Notice then, unless within the Specified Period:
 - (A) the shareholding of the shareholder increases to at least a Marketable Parcel and the shareholder has notified the Company in writing of the increase;
 - (B) the relevant shares are sold by the shareholder; or
 - (C) (save in respect of Prescribed New Small Holders who are not entitled to give notice of a wish to retain the relevant shares) the shareholder gives to the Company a written notice that the shareholder wishes to retain the relevant shares, the shareholder is deemed to have irrevocably appointed the Company as the shareholder's agent to sell the shares the subject of the Divestment Notice during the Sale Period at the price and on the terms determined by a Secretary in the Secretary's sole discretion and to receive the proceeds of sale on behalf of the shareholder. Nothing in this rule obliges the Company to sell the shares. Any such sale shall be subject to applicable laws and the Listing Rules. For the purposes of the sale, the Company may initiate a Holding Adjustment to move all the shares from a CHESS Holding to an Issuer Sponsored Holding or a certificated holding or to take any other action the Company considers necessary or desirable to effect the sale.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (iv) Where a shareholder (not being a Prescribed New Small Holder) has given to the Company notice under rule 86(b)(iii)(C) the shareholder may at any time revoke the notice and on revocation the Company is constituted the shareholder's agent as provided in rule 86(b)(iii).
- (v) A Secretary may execute on behalf of a shareholder a transfer of the shares in respect of which the Company is appointed agent under rule 86(b)(iii) in the manner and form the Secretary considers necessary and to deliver the transfer to the purchaser. The Secretary may take any other action on behalf of the shareholder as the Secretary considers necessary to effect the sale and transfer of the shares.
- (vi) The Company may register a transfer of shares whether or not any certificate for the shares has been delivered to the Company.
- (vii) If the shares of two or more shareholders to whom this rule 86 applies are sold to one purchaser, the transfer may be effected by one transfer.
- (viii) If shares are sold under this rule 86, the Company must:
 - (A) within a reasonable time after completion of the sale, inform the former shareholder of the sale and the total sale proceeds received by the Company; and
 - (B) if any certificate for the shares the subject of the transfer has been received by the Company (or the Company is satisfied that the certificate has been lost or destroyed or that its production is not essential), within 60 days after completion of the sale, cause the proceeds of sale to be sent to the former shareholder (or, in the case of joint holders, to the holder whose name appeared first in the Securities register (or as the case may be) the Depository Register in respect of the joint holding). Payment may be made in any manner and by any means as determined by the Board and is at the risk of the former shareholder.
- (ix) The Company bears the costs of sale of the transferor of shares sold under this rule 86 (but is not liable for tax on income or capital gains of the former shareholder).
- (x) All money payable to former shareholders under this rule 86 which is unclaimed for one year after payment may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed or otherwise disposed of according to law. No money payable under this rule 86 by the Company to former shareholders bears interest as against the Company.
- (c)
 - (i) A certificate signed by a Secretary stating that shares sold under this rule 86 have been properly sold discharges the purchaser of those shares from all liability in respect of the purchase of those shares.
 - (ii) When a purchaser of shares is registered as the holder of the shares, the purchaser:
 - (A) is not bound to see to the regularity of the actions and proceedings of the Company under this rule 86 or to the application of the proceeds of sale; and
 - (B) has title to the shares which is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the actions and proceedings of the Company.
- (d) Any remedy of any shareholder to whom this rule 86 applies in respect of the sale of the shareholder's shares is limited to a right of action in damages against the Company to the exclusion of any other right, remedy or relief against any other person.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (e) On the date on which there is announced a Takeover, the operation of this rule 86 is suspended. Despite rule 86(b)(ii), on the close of the offers under the Takeover the Company may invoke the procedures set out in this rule 86.

Dividend Reinvestment Plans

87 Dividend Reinvestment Plans

- (a) The Board may:

- (b) Any plan takes effect in accordance with its terms and the Board may do all things necessary and convenient for the purpose of implementing the plan, including the making of each necessary allotment or transfer of shares and of each necessary appropriation, capitalisation, application, payment and distribution of funds which may lawfully be appropriated, capitalised, applied, paid or distributed for the purpose of the allotment or transfer.
- (c) For the purpose of giving effect to a plan, appropriations, capitalisations, applications, payments and distributions as referred to in this rule 87 may be made and the powers of the Board under this rule 87 apply and may be exercised (with any adjustments as may be required) even if only some of the shareholders or holders of shares of any class participate in the appropriation, capitalisation, application, payment or distribution.
- (d) In offering opportunities to shareholders to participate in a plan, the Board may give information that in its opinion may be useful to assist shareholders in assessing the opportunity and making requests to their best advantage.  - (ii) vary, suspend or terminate the plan.
- (b) For the purposes of the plan, the Board may in its absolute discretion offer to shareholders of the Company:
 - (i) an opportunity to participate in the plan in respect of all or some of their shares; and
 - (ii) an opportunity to request that, instead of participating in any Dividends in respect of the shares, they have allotted and issued to them shares under the plan credited as fully paid.
- (c) The Board may under the plan credit shares in the capital of the Company as fully paid by capitalising any sum standing to the credit of the Company's profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and may apply that sum in crediting shares in the Company as fully paid up.
- (d) If a participant in the plan requests that in respect of certain shares the shareholder not be entitled to participate in any Dividend, the Dividend must be taken to relate only to the balance of the shares held by that participant at the time of the record date for the payment of that Dividend.

APPENDIX C – THE NEWCO CONSTITUTION

- (f) In offering opportunities to shareholders to participate in the plan, the Board may give information which in their opinion may be useful to assist shareholders in assessing the opportunity and making requests to their best advantage. 8.2 For so long as a Share is subject to any disposal restrictions under this Plan, the Participant will not:

8.2.1 transfer, encumber or otherwise dispose of, or have a Security Interest granted over that Share; or 8.2.2 take any action or permit another person to take any action to remove or circumvent the disposal restrictions without the express written consent of the Company.

APPENDIX E – RULES OF THE NEW PRP

Expiry of restriction

- 8.3 Subject at all times to the Company's securities trading policy, upon the expiry of any disposal restriction over a Share, the Company will take all action necessary to ensure that the Participant can deal with that Share.

Share entitlements

- 8.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the imposition of a restriction on a Share held by a Participant will not affect the Participant's entitlement to receive a notice of, or to vote or attend at, a meeting of the members of the Company, and to receive any dividends declared by the Company during the relevant disposal restriction period on that Share. If a Trust arrangement is implemented in respect of this Plan, the Committee may implement such procedures it deems appropriate to give effect to the intent of this Rule.

9 Limitation on the size of the Plan

- 9.1 The total number of Ordinary Shares which may be delivered pursuant to Performance Rights granted under the Plan on any date, when added to:

9.1.1 the total number of shares of the Prior Listco allotted and issued or delivered pursuant to the vesting of the performance rights under the Previous Plan;

9.1.2 the total number of new Ordinary Shares allotted and issued and/or to be allotted and issued and issued Ordinary Shares delivered and/or to be delivered, pursuant to Performance Rights granted under the Plan; and

9.1.3 the number of new Ordinary Shares allotted and issued and/or to be allotted and issued and issued Ordinary Shares delivered and/or to be delivered, in respect of any other options or grants under share option schemes or share schemes adopted by the Company for the time being in force, as the case may be,

shall not exceed fifteen per cent. of the total number of issued Ordinary Shares (excluding subsidiary holdings) (or such other limit as may be prescribed by an Exchange) of the Company on the date preceding the date of the relevant Performance Right, provided that:

9.1.4 the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares which may be offered by any grant of Performance Rights to Participants who are Controlling Shareholders and their Associates shall not exceed 25% of the total number of Ordinary Shares available under the Plan; and

9.1.5 the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares which may be offered by way of grant of Performance Rights to each Participant who is a Controlling Shareholder or an Associate of a Controlling Shareholder under the Plan shall not exceed 10% of the total number of Ordinary Shares available under the Plan.

- 9.2 Award Shares which are the subject of Performance Rights which have lapsed for any reason whatsoever may be the subject of further Performance Rights granted by the Committee under the Plan.

10 Adjustment Events

- 10.1 If a variation in the ordinary share capital of the Company (whether by way of a capitalisation of profits or reserves or rights issue, reduction, subdivision, consolidation, distribution or otherwise) shall take place or if the Company shall make a capital distribution or a declaration of a special dividend (whether in cash or in specie), then the Committee may, in its discretion, determine whether:

10.1.1 the number of Performance Rights and the corresponding number Award Shares to the extent not yet Vested; and/or

APPENDIX E – RULES OF THE NEW PRP

10.1.2 the number of Ordinary Shares in respect of which future Performance Rights may be granted under the Plan, shall be adjusted and if so, the manner in which such adjustments should be made, provided always that the adjustment will not result in a Participant receiving a benefit that a shareholder of the Company does not receive.

10.2 The issue of securities as consideration for an acquisition or a private placement of securities, or the cancellation of issued Ordinary Shares purchased or acquired by the Company during the period when a share purchase mandate granted by shareholders of the Company (including any renewal of such mandate) is in force, shall not normally be regarded as a circumstance requiring adjustment.

10.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 10.1, any adjustment (except in relation to a bonus issue) must be confirmed in writing by the Auditors (acting on as experts and not as arbitrators) to be in their opinion, fair and reasonable.

10.4 Upon any adjustment required to be made pursuant to this Rule 10, the Company shall notify the Participant (or their duly appointed personal representatives where applicable) in writing and deliver to him (or their duly appointed personal representatives where applicable) a statement setting forth the number of Performance Rights and the corresponding number of Award Shares which are the subject of the adjusted Performance Right. Any adjustment shall take effect upon such written notification being given or on such date as may be specified in such written notification.

11 Administration of the Plan

11.1 The plan shall be administered by the Committee. No member of the Committee shall participate in any deliberation or decision in respect of Performance Rights to be granted to him or held by him.

11.2 Without limiting the generality of Rule 11.1, the Committee shall have the power to:

11.2.1 determine appropriate procedures for administration of the plan consistent with these terms and conditions;

11.2.2 resolve conclusively all questions of fact or interpretation in connection with the plan; and

11.2.3 establish a trust for the sole purpose of acquiring and holding Shares in respect of which a Key Senior Executive may exercise, or has exercised, vested Performance Rights including for the purposes of enforcing the disposal restrictions and appoint a Trustee to act as trustee of the trust, providing that, notwithstanding anything else in this Plan, the trust complies with section 1100S(2) of the Act.

11.3 The Committee shall have the power, from time to time, to make and vary such arrangements, guidelines and/or regulations (not being inconsistent with the Plan) for the implementation and administration of the Plan, to give effect to the provisions of the Plan and/or to enhance the benefit of the Performance Rights to the Participants, as it may think fit. Any matter pertaining or pursuant to the Plan and any dispute and uncertainty as to the interpretation of the Plan or any rule, regulation or procedure thereunder or any rights under the Plan shall be determined by the Committee.

11.4 Neither the Plan nor the grant of Performance Rights under the Plan shall impose on the Company, its Board of Directors or the Committee or any of its members any liability whatsoever in connection with:

11.4.1 the lapsing of any Performance Rights pursuant to any provision of the Plan;

APPENDIX E – RULES OF THE NEW PRP

11.4.2 the failure or refusal by the Committee to exercise, or the exercise by the Committee of, any discretion under the Plan; and/or 11.4.3 any decision or determination of the Committee made pursuant to any provision of the Plan.

11.5 Any decision or determination of the Committee made pursuant to any provision of the Plan (other than a matter to be certified by the Auditors) shall be final, binding and conclusive (including for the avoidance of doubt, any decisions pertaining to disputes as to the interpretation, administration and/or application of the Plan or any rule, regulation or procedure hereunder or as to any rights under the Plan). The Committee acts in its absolute discretion and shall not be required to furnish any reason for any decision or determination made by it.

11.6 For the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the Plan, each Participant hereby irrevocably appoints the Company or its authorised officer or agent to be the Participant's true and lawful attorney, to execute or do all acts, deeds, matters and things in connection with any Performance Right granted in the Participant's favour and at the expense of the Participant.

(a) in accordance with the timeline stipulated under Rule 7.6(a); or

(b) pursuant to Rule 7.6(b), where the Participant has the ability to elect to choose a deferred timeline subject to the limitation in Rule 5.3.9.

12.3 Where the Company instructs the Trustee to subscribe for, acquire and / or allocate Award Shares to or for the benefit of a Key Senior Executive in accordance with Rule 12.2:

12.3.1 the Trustee will hold those Award Shares in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed;

12.3.2 the Company must, or the Company must instruct the Trustee to, notify the Key Senior Executive that the Trustee holds Award Shares on the Key Senior Executive's behalf; and 12.3.3 subject to the Trustee receiving from the Company sufficient funds to subscribe for or acquire the Award Shares, the Committee may, in its absolute discretion, instruct the Trustee to either subscribe for new Shares or acquire Shares on-market to be held on a Key Senior Executive's behalf, or instruct the Trustee to use a combination of both alternatives.

12.4 The Committee shall provide directions to the Trustee in connection with the administration of the plan in accordance with these terms and the parties acknowledge and agree that the Trustee is bound by these directions in performing its obligations under this document.

13 Notices

13.1 Any notice required to be given by a Participant to the Company shall be sent or made to the registered office of the Company or such other addresses (including electronic mail addresses) or facsimile number, and marked for the attention of the Committee, as may be notified by the Company to him in writing.

13.2 Any notices or documents required to be given to a Participant or any Communication shall be delivered to him by hand or sent to him at this home address, electronic mail address or facsimile number according to the records of the Company or the last known address, electronic mail address or facsimile number of the Participant.

14.1.1 the definitions of "Associate", "Committee", "Group", "Key Senior Executive", and "Participant" and the provisions of Rules 4.1, 4.4, 5.5, 5.6, 5.7, 7.8, 7.9, 9.1, 10, 11.1 and this Rule 14 shall not be altered to the advantage of Participants except with the prior approval of the Company's shareholders in general meeting; and 14.1.2 no modification or alteration shall be made without the requisite prior approval of an Exchange and such other regulatory authorities as may be necessary.

For the avoidance of doubt nothing in this Rule 14.1 shall affect the right of the Committee under any other provision of the Plan to amend or adjust any Performance Right.

- 14.2 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Rule 14.1, the Committee may at any time by resolution (and without any other formality, save for the prior approval of an Exchange) amend or alter the Plan in any way to the extent necessary or desirable, in the opinion of the Committee, to cause the Plan to comply with, or take into account, any statutory provision (or any amendment or modification thereto, including amendment of or modification to the Act) or the provision or the regulations of any regulatory or other relevant authority or body (including an Exchange).
- 14.3 Written notice of any modification or alteration made in accordance with this Rule 14 shall be given to all Participants.

15 Terms of Employment Unaffected

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

1. INTRODUCTION

This Appendix provides a general overview of the:

- Australian tax implications (including income tax, goods and services tax (“GST”) and stamp duty); and
- Singaporean tax implications (including income tax, GST and stamp duty), for Entitled Shareholders if the Shareholder’s Scheme becomes effective.

The summary is based on the Australian and Singapore tax laws, regulations, interpretations of such laws and regulations, and administrative practices in effect as at the date of this Circular. Tax laws are complex and subject to change periodically as is their interpretation by the courts and tax authorities.

This summary is general in nature, is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement of the applicable law and does not take into account the particular circumstances of each Entitled Shareholder. The comments contained in this summary should not be a substitute for independent advice from an appropriate professional advisor having regard to each Entitled Shareholder’s individual circumstances.

Entitled Shareholders are strongly advised to obtain and rely only on their own independent professional taxation advice from their own tax advisors based on their own particular circumstances and should not rely solely upon the comments contained in this summary.

1.1 Scope of the Australian Tax Implications

The Australian tax implications outlined below are relevant to the Shareholders’ Scheme and in particular Entitled Shareholders who are individuals, companies, trusts and complying superannuation funds that hold their Shares on capital account, as trading stock or as revenue assets for Australian income tax purposes. This summary does not cover Entitled Shareholders who:

- may be subject to special rules, such as banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, certain trusts, superannuation funds (unless otherwise stated) or dealers in securities;
- are ‘temporary residents’ of Australia as that term is defined in subsection 995-1(1) of the ITAA;
- change their tax residence whilst holding their Shares;
- are not tax residents of Australia for Australian income tax purposes and who hold their Shares as an asset of a permanent establishment in Australia;
- are not tax residents of Australia for Australian income tax purposes who, together with their associates, hold 10.0% or more of the Shares;
- are subject to the taxation of financial arrangements rules in Division 230 of the ITAA in relation to gains and losses on their Shares; or
- are subject to the Investment Manager Regime under Subdivision 842-I of the ITAA in relation to their Shares.

This summary does not take into account the tax laws of jurisdictions other than Australia. Accordingly, Entitled Shareholders who may be subject to tax in any jurisdiction outside Australia should obtain independent professional taxation advice on their particular circumstances.

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

1.2 Class Ruling Request

The Company intends to apply for a ATO Class Ruling on behalf certain Entitled Shareholders within the scope of this Appendix (see section 1.1 above), regarding the Australian income tax treatment of the Shareholders' Scheme to those shareholders. The income tax comments provided below are likely to be consistent with the positions expressed in the ATO Class Ruling application to be lodged with the ATO.

When the final ATO Class Ruling is published, it will be available on the ATO website at www.ato.gov.au, and will also be published on the Company's website at: www.civmec.com.au/investors/announcements/ and SGXNet at the URL: <https://www.sgx.com/securities/company-announcements>. Entitled Shareholders should review the final ATO Class Ruling when it is issued.

1.3.1 Exchange of Shares for NewCo Shares

Overview

Under the Shareholders' Scheme, each Share is being exchanged for a NewCo Share. Each Entitled Shareholder will transfer their Shares to NewCo in exchange for receiving an equivalent number of NewCo Shares.

Generally, a capital gains tax event will occur for Entitled Shareholders when they dispose of their Shares under the Shareholders' Scheme.

However, as NewCo will replace the Company as the head company of a tax consolidated group, any such income tax consequences will automatically be deferred until an Entitled Shareholder disposes of their Shares in NewCo. This is due to roll-over relief under Division 615 of the ITAA automatically applying in these circumstances to defer the recognition of any taxable gains or losses until a subsequent disposal of the NewCo Shares held by an Entitled Shareholder. It is not necessary for an Entitled Shareholder to make any choice or election for this roll-over to apply.

How are the Shares held?

The income tax consequences of participating in the Shareholders' Scheme will depend on whether an Entitled Shareholder holds their shares:

- on capital account (paragraph (a) below);
- as trading stock (paragraph (b) below); or
- as revenue assets (paragraph (c)below).

Division 615 roll-over relief

(a) Shares held on capital account

Each Entitled Shareholder who holds their Shares on capital account (i.e., not as trading stock or for the purposes of resale at a profit) will disregard any capital gain or loss they make on their Shares under the Shareholders' Scheme.

The first element of the cost base (or reduced cost base, if applicable) of each NewCo Share acquired by an Entitled Shareholder under the Shareholders' Scheme will be equal to the cost base (or reduced cost base) of their corresponding Share disposed of to the NewCo.

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

For the purposes of determining whether the capital gains tax discount concession is available on a subsequent disposal of the NewCo Shares (section 1.3.3 below), an Entitled Shareholder will be taken to have acquired their NewCo Shares at the same time they acquired their original Company Shares.

(b) Shares held as trading stock

The assessable income of each Entitled Shareholder who holds their Shares as trading stock will include an amount equal to:

- if the Shares have been held as trading stock since the start of the income year, the total value of each Share at the start of the income year and the amount (if any) by which the cost has increased since the start of the income year; or
- otherwise, the cost of each Share at the time of the disposal.

The amount taken to have been paid by a relevant Entitled Shareholder for each NewCo Share acquired as trading stock is equal to the amount included in assessable income on disposal of the Shares (calculated as provided for above) divided by the number of NewCo Shares acquired as trading stock.

(c) Shares held as revenue assets

The gross proceeds received for the disposal of each Share, by each Entitled Shareholder who holds their Shares as revenue assets, is taken to be the amount needed to have a nil profit and nil loss for that disposal.

The amount taken to have been paid by a relevant Entitled Shareholder for each NewCo Share acquired as a revenue asset is equal to the amount needed to have a nil profit and nil loss for that disposal (as calculated above) divided by the number of NewCo Shares acquired as revenue assets.

1.3.2 Tax treatment of future distributions by the NewCo to an Entitled Shareholder

Generally, dividends received from the NewCo will be included in an Entitled Shareholder's assessable income together with any franking credit attached to the dividend. Where the franking credit is included in an Entitled Shareholder's assessable income, the Entitled Shareholder will generally be entitled to a corresponding tax offset.

Relevantly, to be eligible for the franking credit and tax offset, an Entitled Shareholder must have held the NewCo Shares at risk for at least 45 days (not including the date of acquisition or the date of disposal) and free of any related payment obligations. An Entitled Shareholder will not be taken to have held NewCo Shares at risk where the Entitled Shareholder or an associate holds 'positions' (such as options or other hedging arrangements) which materially diminish the risks of loss or opportunities for gain in respect of those NewCo Shares.

The period during which an Entitled Shareholder held their Shares is not relevant to determining whether the Entitled Shareholder satisfies this holding period rule in respect of their NewCo Shares.

This holding period rule will not apply to an Entitled Shareholder who is an individual whose tax offset entitlement (for all franked distributions received in the income year) does not exceed A$5,000 for the income year in which the franked dividend from the NewCo is received.

Where an Entitled Shareholder is an Australian tax resident individual, complying superannuation entity, or registered charity (in certain circumstances) and satisfies the above requirements, the Entitled Shareholder will generally be entitled to a refund of tax to the extent that the franking credit attached to the Entitled Shareholder's dividends exceeds their income tax liability for the relevant income year.

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

Where the Entitled Shareholder is an Australian tax resident company, franked dividends received by the Entitled Shareholder will generally give rise to a franking credit in their franking account. No refund of tax is available for companies for excess franking credits.

1.3.3 Tax treatment of future disposals of the NewCo Shares

(a) NewCo Shares held on capital account

Following the Shareholders' Scheme, an Entitled Shareholder who disposes of their NewCo Shares will make:

- a capital gain if the capital proceeds for the disposal of their NewCo Shares are greater than the cost base of their NewCo Shares (rolled over from their Shares), subject to the application of any further roll-over relief applicable in the circumstances of the disposal; or
- a capital loss if the reduced cost base of their NewCo Shares (rolled over from their Shares) is greater than the capital proceeds for the disposal of their NewCo Shares.

The capital proceeds for the disposal of the NewCo Shares will generally be the aggregate of the money and market value of any property the Entitled Shareholder receives or is entitled to receive in respect of the disposal of the NewCo Shares.

The cost base and reduced cost base of the NewCo Shares will generally be equal to the cost base and reduced base of their Shares (see section 1.3.1 above).

An Entitled Shareholder who is an individual, complying superannuation fund or trustee and who has held their NewCo Shares for at least 12 months, including the period that the corresponding shares were originally held, should be entitled to discount the amount of their net capital gain (after the application of any current year or carry forward capital losses).

The amount of this discount is 50.0% for individuals and trustees and 33.33% for complying superannuation funds. No discount is available for a net capital gain made by an Entitled Shareholder that is a company.

(b) NewCo Shares held as trading stock

The assessable income of an Entitled Shareholder who holds their NewCo Shares as trading stock will generally include an amount equal to the aggregate of the money and the market value of any property received as consideration for the disposal (see section 1.3.1 above).

Any capital gain or loss also arising on disposal will be disregarded for the NewCo Shares held as trading stock.

(c) NewCo Shares held as revenue assets

If an Entitled Shareholder holds their NewCo Shares on revenue account, then the profit calculated as the excess of the proceeds received over the 'cost' of the NewCo Shares will be included in the Entitled Shareholder's assessable income. An Entitled Shareholder's 'cost' for their NewCo Shares will generally be equal to the amount that they are taken under Division 615 to have paid for them (see section 1.3.1 above).

On the other hand, any loss calculated as the excess of the cost of the NewCo Share over the proceeds received will be deductible to the Entitled Shareholder.

Broadly, under anti-overlap provisions, any capital gain or capital loss also arising on disposal should be reduced by the amount of the assessable gain or deductible loss, as appropriate.

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

1.4 Foreign (i.e. non Australian) tax resident Entitled Shareholders

1.4.1 Overview

Entitled Shareholders who are foreign tax residents (including Singapore tax residents) will need to consider the Australian tax implications of the Shareholders' Scheme and the tax implications of the Shareholders' Scheme in their own jurisdiction.

The general Australian income tax consequences of the Shareholders' Scheme for Entitled Shareholders who are foreign tax residents are outlined below.

1.4.2 Exchange of Shares for NewCo Shares

Broadly, any capital gain or loss arising to an Entitled Shareholder who is a foreign tax resident and holds their Shares on capital account will be automatically disregarded, with no election required.

The Australian income tax implications for an Entitled Shareholder who is a foreign tax resident and holds their shares as trading stock or on revenue account should be subject to similar tax consequences as Australian tax residents (see sections 1.3.1(b) and 1.3.1(c) above).

An Entitled Shareholder who is a foreign tax resident who hold their Shares as trading stock or on revenue account should seek independent professional advice in relation to their own particular circumstances, including whether any protection will be available under a relevant double tax treaty.

1.4.3 Tax treatment of future distributions by the NewCo

Franked dividends received by an Entitled Shareholder who is a foreign tax resident from the NewCo Shares should generally be exempt from Australian dividend withholding tax.

Unfranked dividends will be subject to Australian dividend withholding tax. The withholding rate is 30.0% but is generally reduced to a lower withholding tax rate for dividends paid to residents of countries with which Australia has double tax agreement in force. The applicable dividend withholding tax rate will depend on the double tax agreement relevant to the foreign tax resident. The dividend withholding tax represents a final tax liability for Entitled Shareholders (i.e., there is no further tax on an assessment basis in respect of these dividends in Australia).

1.4.4 Tax treatment of future disposals of the NewCo Shares

Provided the foreign resident Entitled Shareholder does not hold 10.0% or more of the NewCo Shares on issue (on an associate-inclusive basis), then any capital gain or loss arising upon disposal for a foreign resident Entitled Shareholder who holds their NewCo Shares on capital account will be automatically disregarded.

An Entitled Shareholders who is a foreign tax resident should seek independent professional advice in relation to their own particular circumstances, including whether any protection will be available under a relevant double tax treaty.

No discount is available for a net capital gain made by an Entitled Shareholder that is not a tax resident of Australia.

1.5 Stamp Duty

Entitled Shareholders should not be liable for any stamp duty on the disposal of their Shares or on the receipt of any NewCo Shares as Scheme Consideration.

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

1.6 GST

GST should not be payable by Entitled Shareholders on the disposal of their Shares or on the receipt of any NewCo Shares as Scheme Consideration.

Entitled Shareholders may be charged GST on costs incurred by them in relation to the Shareholders' Scheme (e.g. tax, legal or other advisers fees). Entitled Shareholders may not be entitled to claim input tax credits (or reduced input tax credits) in relation to GST incurred on these costs.

Entitled Shareholders should seek their own independent tax advice on the impact of GST having regard to their own particular circumstances.

1.7 Scope of the Singaporean Tax Implications

The Singaporean tax implications outlined below in respect of the Shareholders' Scheme are intended for Singapore tax resident shareholders. Entitled Shareholders whether they are residents or non-residents of Singapore should obtain independent professional taxation advice on their particular circumstances.

1.8 Singaporean tax resident Shareholders

Under the Shareholders' Scheme, each Share is being exchanged for a NewCo Share. Each Entitled Shareholder will transfer their Shares to NewCo in exchange for receiving an equivalent number of NewCo Shares.

Corporate income tax

Singapore adopts a territorial basis of taxation. Generally, companies and individuals are taxed on Singapore sourced income and foreign sourced income that is received or deemed received in Singapore, unless otherwise exempted.

Singapore generally does not impose tax on gains of a capital nature. Any gains from the disposal of Shares which are considered to be capital in nature will not be taxable in Singapore. However, gains from the disposal of investments may be construed to be of an income nature and hence subject to Singapore income tax if they arise from or are otherwise connected with a trade or business carried on in Singapore for which such gains are derived. Such gains would be subject to tax in Singapore at the prevailing corporate tax rate (currently at 17.0%). There are no specific laws or regulations which deal with the characterisation of whether a gain is income or capital in nature. The characterisation of gains arising from the disposal of the Shares will depend primarily on the facts and circumstances of each Shareholder. As the precise facts and circumstances of one Shareholder will vary from another, Shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisers on the Singapore tax consequences that may be applicable to their individual circumstances.

In addition, Singapore has a safe harbour provision that provides for certainty on non-taxability of gains derived by a company from the disposal of ordinary shares (certain exceptions apply) during the period from 1 June 2012 to 31 December 2027 (both dates inclusive) where the divesting company has held at least 20.0% of the ordinary shares in the investee company for a continuous period of at least 24 months immediately prior to disposal.

Stamp duty

Stamp duty is not applicable to electronic transfers of the Shares through the scripless trading system operated by CDP, if such transfers are not pursuant to an instrument of transfer entered into.

GST

This is relevant if the Shareholder is registered for GST in Singapore.

APPENDIX F – TAX IMPLICATIONS FOR CERTAIN ENTITLED SHAREHOLDERS

The transfer of Shares by a GST-registered Shareholder to the NewCo qualifies for zero-rating (i.e., subject to GST at 0%) if the NewCo belongs outside Singapore for GST purposes and the transfer of Shares does not directly benefit a non-GST registered person who belongs in Singapore.

As the Shareholders' Scheme entails both a transfer of Shares to the NewCo and an acquisition of shares in the NewCo, a GST-registered Shareholder should seek its own tax advice on the recoverability of input tax on expenses incurred (if any) in connection with the Shareholders' Scheme.

1.8.1 Tax treatment of future distributions by the NewCo to an Entitled Shareholder

Foreign dividends received in Singapore by resident individuals, except those received through a Singapore partnership, are exempt from tax in Singapore.

Foreign dividends received in Singapore by Singapore tax resident companies are subject to Singapore tax at the prevailing corporate tax rate (currently 17.0%), unless the foreign dividends qualify for tax exemption under Section 13(8) of the Income Tax Act 1947. To qualify for this tax exemption, the following conditions must be satisfied:

- The foreign dividend has been subject to tax in the foreign jurisdiction from which it is received;
- The highest corporate income tax rate of the foreign jurisdiction from which the dividend is received is at least 15.0% at the time the foreign dividend is received in Singapore; and
- The Comptroller of Income Tax is satisfied that the tax exemption is beneficial to the Singapore tax resident company.

1.8.2 Tax treatment of future disposals of the NewCo Shares

As discussed in 1.8.1 above, gains derived from the sale of an investment are not subject to tax if it is a capital gain whereas a gain of an income nature would be subject to tax if they arise from or are otherwise connected with the activities of a trade or business carried on in Singapore. Such gains would be subject to tax in Singapore at the prevailing corporate tax rate (currently at 17.0%). In addition, gains derived by a company from the disposal of ordinary shares (certain exceptions apply) during the period from 1 June 2012 to 31 December 2027 (both dates inclusive) are exempt from tax if the conditions for the safe harbour provision are met.

With effect from 1 January 2024, gains from the sale or disposal of foreign assets derived by an entity that does not have substance in Singapore are subject to tax, if such gains are received in Singapore, even if such gains are capital in nature and/or exempted from under the safe harbour provision.

APPENDIX G – REGISTRATION, DEALINGS AND SETTLEMENT

The summary below is general in nature and does not take into account the individual circumstances of each Shareholder and has been provided for informational purposes only. If any Shareholder is in any doubt as to the action he/she/it should take, he/she/it should consult his/her/its stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant, tax adviser or other professional advisers immediately. All duties, fees, charges and expenses specified herein are subject to changes from time to time.

REGISTRATION, DEALINGS AND SETTLEMENT

REGISTRATION

The Singapore Share Register is maintained in Singapore by Tricor Barbinder Share Registration Services (a division of Tricor Singapore Pte. Ltd.) at 9 Raffles Place, #26-01 Republic Plaza, Singapore 048619 (the “Singapore Share Registrar”). The NewCo will also maintain an Australian Share Register, which will be maintained by Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited at Level 17, 221 St Georges Terrace, Perth WA 6000 (the “Australian Share Registrar”).

NewCo Shares will be registered on the Singapore Share Register in the name of CDP or its nominees and held by CDP for and on behalf of persons who maintain, either directly or through depository agents, securities accounts with CDP. NewCo Shares held on the Australian Share Register will be held in electronic form and holders will be issued with holding statements.

The NewCo will participate in the Clearing House Electronic Sub-register System (“CHESS”). ASX Settlement Pty Ltd (“ASX Settlement”), a wholly owned subsidiary of ASX, operates CHESS in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules and the ASX Settlement Operating Rules.

Where NewCo Shares are held through a broker or non-broker participant, ASX Settlement will send the Shareholder a CHESS holding statement. The CHESS holding statement will include the number of NewCo Shares held, the holder identification number (“HIN”) and the participant identification number of the sponsor.

If a Shareholder is registered on the issuer-sponsored sub-register, the statement will be despatched by the Australian Share Registrar and will contain the number of NewCo Shares held and the securityholder reference number (“SRN”).

CHESS holding statements or issuer-sponsored statements (as appropriate) will routinely be sent out to Shareholders at the end of any calendar month during which the balance of their holding changes. Shareholders may request a statement at any other time, however there may be a charge associated with the provision of this service.

DEALINGS

Dealings in the NewCo Shares on ASX and the SGX-ST will be conducted in Australian dollars and Singapore dollars, respectively. The NewCo Shares will be traded on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST in board lots of 100 shares.

The brokerage commission in respect of trades of NewCo Shares on ASX varies from broker to broker. Some brokers may charge a flat fee and others may charge fees based on the total value of the trade (according to a predetermined scale). ASX may charge brokers and non-broker participants a clearing fee based on the transaction value, which participants may choose to pass on to Shareholders within brokerage fees.

The brokerage commission in respect of trades of NewCo Shares on the SGX-ST varies depending on the rates charged by the relevant broker. A clearing fee in Singapore is payable at the current rate of 0.0325% of the contract value. The clearing fee is subject to goods and services tax in Singapore at the prevailing rate.

SETTLEMENT

Settlement of Dealings in Singapore

NewCo Shares are listed and traded on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST under the book-entry settlement system of CDP and all dealings in and transactions of NewCo Shares through the SGX-ST are effected in accordance with the terms and conditions for the operation of securities accounts with CDP, as amended from time to time.

CDP, a wholly owned subsidiary of the SGX-ST, acts as a depository and clearing organisation. CDP holds securities for its account holders and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between account holders through electronic book-entry changes in the securities accounts maintained by such account holders with CDP.

NewCo Shares will be registered on the Singapore Share Register in the name of CDP or its nominees and held by CDP for and on behalf of persons who maintain, either directly or through depository agents, securities accounts with CDP.

Transactions in NewCo Shares under the book-entry settlement system will be reflected by the seller's securities account being debited with the number of NewCo Shares sold and the buyer's securities account being credited with the number of NewCo Shares acquired. No transfer stamp duty in Singapore is currently payable for the transfer of NewCo Shares that are settled on a book-entry basis.

A Singapore clearing fee for trades in NewCo Shares on the SGX-ST is payable at the current rate of 0.0325% of the contract value. The clearing fees, instrument of transfer deposit fees and share withdrawal fees are subject to Singapore goods and services tax at the prevailing rate (currently 9.0%).

Dealings in NewCo Shares on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST will be carried out in Singapore dollars and will be effected for settlement in CDP on a scripless basis. Settlement of trades executed on SGX-ST takes place on the second market day after the trade date, T+2, and payment for the securities is generally settled on the following day. The timing for the settlement of trades may change in accordance with CDP's prevailing policies from time to time. CDP holds securities on behalf of investors in securities accounts. An investor may open a direct securities account with CDP or a securities sub-account with a depository agent. A depository agent may be members of the SGX-ST, members of CDP or approved financial institutions.

Settlement of Dealings in Australia

Investors can transfer the NewCo Shares listed on ASX on-market or off-market.

On-market share transfers occur on ASX through a broker, who acts as the investor's agent to buy or sell the NewCo Shares on the investor's behalf in exchange for a fee. On-market share transfers are settled electronically through CHESS in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules and ASX Settlement Operating Rules. Under the ASX Settlement Operating Rules, on-market transfers of the NewCo Shares on ASX settle automatically on the second business day of ASX following the date of the transaction (referred to as T+2).

Off-market transfers of the NewCo Shares held on the CHESS sub-register are settled electronically through CHESS by contacting the broker or non-broker participant with instructions to complete the transfer. An off-market transfer of the NewCo Shares held on the issuer-sponsored sub-register can be conducted using a transfer form for non-market transactions forwarded to the Australian Share Registrar, who will register the transfer subject to applicable laws. Off-market transfers may be settled at a date agreed by the parties.

Investors will receive a holding statement by mail to their registered address at the end of each month in which a transaction has occurred from ASX Settlement (in the case of NewCo Shares on the CHESS sub-register) or from the Australian Share Registrar (in the case of NewCo Shares on the issuer-sponsored sub-register) within five (5) business days of the holdings being established.
