Structural steel specialist T T J grows order book to S$167 million with S$19 million in new projects

SINGAPORE – 22 July 2021 – T T J Holdings Limited (“T T J” or together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) today announced it has secured several new structural steel contracts worth S$19 million. Comprising mainly projects from the private sector, the newly-secured contracts will bring the Group’s total order book to S$167 million to date. The Group expects to substantially complete its order book between FY2021 and FY2023.

T T J’s Chairman and Managing Director, Mr Teo Hock Chwee (张福水) said, “We are encouraged by this set of contract wins, achieved amidst the uncertainty brought about by the more transmissible Delta variant of the Covid-19 virus. With 50% of Singapore’s population fully vaccinated and the government’s continued efforts to speed up national vaccination, we believe the economy and construction industry will find new equilibrium relatively quickly. Over the past year, we have focussed on operating our business sustainably, delivering high quality work, managing costs and cash flow, while implementing measures to protect our employees and workers at work. Having marked our 40th anniversary in 2021, we believe T T J is resilient and in a good position to operate sustainably in the long-term.”
