Re: Decision of the Cartel Court in the Republic of Austria

To: President
The Stock Exchange of Thailand / Singapore Exchange

Sri Trang Agro-Industry Public Company Limited (the "Company") previously disclosed in its financial statements that Semperit Technische Produkte Gesellschaft m.b.H. ("Semperit"), its joint venture partner, had filed arbitral claims against the Company, Siam Sempermed Corp., Ltd. (the joint venture company) and other related parties in Switzerland for breach of the joint venture agreement and other related agreements. One of the disputed matters is Semperit's allegation that the Company and the joint venture company have breached the agreement for non-competition in Europe, which is the area in which Semperit claims to have exclusive right to distribute rubber gloves manufactured by the joint venture company. Semperit requested that the arbitral tribunals order the Company and the joint venture company to cease and desist from distributing the gloves in countries in Europe. The Company, therefore, raised the issue of the legality of the said non-competition agreement for the consideration of the competent European competition authorities.

On 27 June 2016, the Cartel Court in the Republic of Austria, the country in which Semperit's headquarters is located, having considered the facts of the case, rendered a decision that the agreement providing Semperit's exclusive right for the distributing of rubber gloves manufactured by the joint venture company in Europe constitutes an infringement of competition law applicable in Austria and in the European Union and ordered that Semperit be forbidden from relying on such agreement.

Semperit has the right to appeal against this decision of the Court. The Company will keep you informed if there are further developments on this issue.

Please be informed accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

Pacharin A.

(Mrs. Pacharin Anuwongwattanachai)
