

Media statement

01 July 2014

Auckland Council CFO Resignation

Auckland Council has today confirmed Andrew McKenzie has resigned as Chief Financial Officer to take up a role with Fletcher Building.

Auckland Council CE Stephen Town says, “Andrew has made an outstanding contribution to the successful establishment of the Auckland Council and Group and we wish him all the best in his new role.”

Andrew will remain at council until 30 September to ensure a smooth transition for his successor following a comprehensive recruitment process.

Ends