SINGAPORE, 17 SEPTEMBER 2024

Fraser's Property Limited ("Fraser's Property", and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") has been awarded Joint Winner for the Most Transparent Company Award 2024 (Real Estate Category) at the Securities Investors Association (Singapore) (SIAS) Investors' Choice Awards 2024 today.

The award recognises companies that demonstrate strong corporate governance practices and timely, transparent disclosures.

Mr Loo Choo Leong, Group Chief Financial Officer of Frasers Property, said, “In line with our Purpose - Inspiring experiences, creating places for good. - we are committed to upholding good corporate governance standards and practices and providing transparency and fairness to all our stakeholders. We are encouraged by SIAS’ recognition and will continue to progress on the Group’s focus areas and priorities to ensure we operate as a future-ready, resilient and responsible business.”

This achievement marks another milestone in Frasers Property’s corporate governance journey. Frasers Property is placed a joint 14th position in the annual Singapore Governance and Transparency Index 2024, climbing 22 places from the previous year. The improved placement affirms the Group’s collective efforts in upholding strong governance, transparency and disclosures standards.

The SIAS Investors’ Choice Awards recognises excellence in companies and individuals adopting the best environmental, social and governance (ESG) & corporate governance practices. The 2024 edition of the Awards has accorded only ‘Winner’ titles to all award recipients to recognise individuals and companies which have excelled beyond performance benchmarks and to encourage others to achieve this standard.
