APPENDIX A

Questions submitted to the Company prior to the Meeting:-

Please refer to Appendix B.

Questions raise during the course the Meeting:-

Question 1

Since the Company has ample cash on hand, why the Company did not purchase its own shares for the last 2 years?

Over the last two years, the Company had deployed its cash on hand to fund the working capital of its operations and overseas expansion programmes. In addition, it is also keeping aside funds for the purchase of a new premises to house substantially its business operations. Given the current Covid-19 situation and the low oil prices which will affect the expenditure of our Customers, the Company has adopted a cautious stance on deploying its finite cash balances. The Company has taken note of Shareholders' request and agreed to initiate some purchase buy back using its excess funds.

Question 2

Will the Company take on external debts to fund its operations? How much working capital is required for the Malaysia project?

The Company took note of Shareholders' view that the Company should take on external debt to fund its operations and not to rely on its internal funds. As for Malaysia operations, Petronas has yet to release details of the upcoming project works and the Company will then assess the cash requirements of these projects. If need to, as mentioned earlier, the Company will take on external debt to fund it. As part of the Singapore Government Budget, the Company had applied and obtained approval from two banks for the Temporary Bridging Loan. The Temporary Bridging Loan is to assist companies to tide over the Covid-19 crisis. The Company will draw down this loan totalling $5 million in the near future.

Question 3

Provide an update and assessment on the Singapore market and whether the Company can gain more margins in the future.

As consistent with our past announcements, the Group foresees that the number of service providers to the petrochemical plants and refineries will be reduced. The attrition of some of these services providers will gradually benefit the Group. In view of the current depressed oil prices, our customers have since taken a cautious stance towards their capital expenditure and many projects were either deferred or put on hold. This have affected our profit margins. The Company will continue with its strategy of building a stronger base foundation with our existing customers and will reap benefits when the current Covid-19 situation is over.

Question 4

In view of the current Covid-19 situation, will the Company consider building its own dormitory on site?

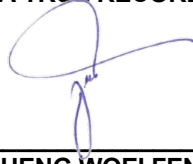

We understand that there will be changes to the current rules and regulations governing dormitories. We will study these changes first before making any decisions. Any decisions made we will update the Shareholders.

Question 5

How many of our workers are affected by the COVID-19?

At the date of this Meeting, there were 8 workers that are tested positive on COVID-19. Four of the workers have recovered and the remaining four are still undergoing treatment.
