Dear Sir/Madam

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Directors are convening an SGM to be held on 28 July 2023 at 10:30 a.m. (Singapore Time) to seek Shareholders' approval for the Proposed Amendments to the Existing Bye-laws of the Company. The purpose of this Circular is to provide Shareholders with information relating to the Proposed Amendments to the Existing Bye-laws of the Company and to seek Shareholders' approval at the SGM. The Notice of SGM is set out on pages N-1 to N-3 of this Circular.
- 1.2 The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness or accuracy of any of the statements or opinions made, reports contained and opinions expressed in this Circular.

2. THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE EXISTING BYE-LAWS OF THE COMPANY

2.1 Background

The Company is proposing to amend the Existing Bye-laws to allow for electronic communication of notices and documents to be issued or despatched to Shareholders from time to time if express, deemed, or implied consent of Shareholders are obtained and to allow for general meetings to be held by way of electronic means (in addition to physical meetings i.e. hybrid meetings), subject to compliance with the Act and all relevant laws and regulations. The option to also hold meetings electronically will afford greater flexibility for the Company, while allowing electronic communications of documents from the Company to Shareholders will enable greater efficiency and cost savings.

Additionally, the Proposed Amendments to the Existing Bye-laws are intended to bring the relevant provisions in line with the Mainboard Rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date.

The Company is also taking this opportunity to introduce certain other provisions to the Existing Bye-laws, inter alia, to address other regulatory changes such as the personal data protection regime in Singapore under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 in respect of the collection, use and disclosure of personal data.

The Board would also like to refer to the Company's previous announcements dated 31 December 2021, 30 June 2022, and 8 July 2022 (the "said Announcements") regarding the intention to seek a secondary listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market (the "Potential NASDAQ Listing"). As disclosed in the said Announcements, the Potential NASDAQ Listing and the Placement will involve extensive preparatory work. Such preparatory work includes the amending of the Existing Bye-laws of the Company to meet the listing requirements of the NASDAQ. As such, some of the Proposed Amendments are accordingly being made to comply with all the relevant rules of NASDAQ.

2.2 Summary and Rationale of Proposed Amendments

The Proposed Amendments to the Existing Bye-laws are set out in the Appendix to this Circular.

To facilitate understanding of all the Proposed Amendments, the following table sets out the reference to the relevant Existing Bye-law(s) which is to be amended pursuant to the Proposed Amendments (in the first column of the table), the reference to the relevant Amended Bye-law(s) following the Proposed Amendments (in the second column of the table), a summary of the Proposed Amendments (in the third column of the table) and a brief explanation of the basis and reason(s) for the Proposed Amendments (in the fourth column of the table).

For the avoidance of doubt, the entirety of the Proposed Amendments are set out in Appendix to this Circular.

Shareholders are advised to read the following table and the Appendix to this Circular in its entirety before deciding on the Special Resolution relating to the Proposed Amendments.

In the table below, for convenience, the "Amended Bye-law(s)" will refer to the relevant provision(s) under the Amended Bye-laws while the expression "Existing Bye-law(s)" will refer to the relevant provision(s) under the Existing Bye-laws which is to be amended by, or which is similar to or otherwise most proximate to the Amended Bye-law(s) in question.

Capitalised terms not defined in this Circular shall have the meanings as ascribed to them in the Amended Bye-laws.

Existing Bye-laws	Amended Bye-laws	Summary of the proposed amendment	Basis /reasons for the proposed amendment
1	1	The Amended Bye-law 1, which is the interpretation section of the Amended Bye-laws, adds the definitions of "central depository entity", "clearing house", "electronic", "electronic communication", "electronic facilities", "Electronic Transactions Act", "hybrid meeting", "Meeting Location", "Nasdaq", "physical meeting", "Principal Meeting Place", "SGX-ST", "shares" and "S$". Amended Bye-law 1 also amends the definition of "Designated Stock Exchange" to include the Nasdaq Stock Market and/or any other stock exchange in the United States of America on which any shares of the Company are listed for trading.	–

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Existing Bye-laws	Amended Bye-laws	Summary of the proposed amendment	Basis /reasons for the proposed amendment
2	2	Amended Bye-law 2(e) which relates to the interpretation of “expressions referring to writing” broadens the term to include email, any visible substitute for writing including electronic communication. New Bye-law 2(l) which relates to the interpretation of “meeting” defines the term broadly to include a meeting held by means of electronic facilities. New Bye-law 2(m) defines “electronic facilities”. New Bye-law 2(n) defines the scope of a “Member’s participation in the business of a general meeting”.	This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being filled and submitted in either physical or electronic form.
3(1)	3(1)	Amended Bye-law 3(1) updates the par value of shares of the Company to its current par value.	The Company undertook and completed a share consolidation exercise in May 2015, pursuant to which every fifty (50) of the then existing Shares of par value S$0.10 each had been consolidated into one Share of par value S$5.00 each, resulting in the par value change from S$0.10 to S$5.00 each (the “Share Consolidation”). Details of the Share Consolidation can be found in the Company’s Addendum to Shareholders dated 10 April 2015. Bye-law 3(1) states and sets out the par value of the share capital of the Company as at the date on which the Existing Bye-laws came into effect, being 10 September 2007. The par value of the Shares was then S$0.10 each.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Existing Bye-laws	Amended Bye-laws	Summary of the proposed amendment	Basis /reasons for the proposed amendment
			As mentioned above, the par value was subsequently increased to S$5.00 after completion of the Share Consolidation. The said increase was not conditional upon the amendment of Bye-law 3(1). The Company wishes to take the opportunity, while amending its Existing Bye-laws, to also update the par value in Bye-law 3(1) to reflect the current par value of the Shares, being S$5.00 each. A Bermuda company cannot issue shares at a price below its par value. Accordingly, no Share can be issued by the Company for an issue price less than the par value of that share, which is S$5.00 after completion of the Share Consolidation.
–	8(3)	New Bye-law 8(3) provides for rights attaching to shares of a class other than ordinary shares to be expressed in the Bye-laws.	This is in line with Paragraph 1(b) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
9(1)	9(1)	Amended Bye-law 9(1) amends the reference to “total nominal value of” issued preference shares and issued ordinary shares of the Company to the “total number of” issued preference shares and issued ordinary shares of the Company.	This is in line with Paragraph 1(a) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Manual.
46	46	Amended Bye-law 46 provides that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bye-laws, shares that are listed or admitted to trading on an appointed stock exchange may be transferred in accordance with the rules and regulations of such stock exchange.	Section 48(4) of the Act provides, inter alia , that nothing in the Act shall operate to prevent shares in a Bermuda company from being transferred in accordance with the rules or regulations of an appointed stock exchange on which the shares are listed or admitted to trading.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Amended Bye-law 47 further clarifies the modes of execution that would be considered as acceptable where the transferor or transferee is the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity or its nominee(s).	–
55	55	Amended Bye-law 55 differentiates the requirements under the listing rules of the SGX-ST and the Nasdaq listing rules on the interval between the Company's financial year end and the holding of the Company's annual general meeting. ## LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Existing Bye-laws	Amended Bye-laws	Summary of the proposed amendment	Basis /reasons for the proposed amendment
80	80	Amended Bye-law 80 clarifies that instruments of proxy shall include any form approved by a clearing house or a central depository entity in addition to the Depository. Bye-law 80 also gives the Board the discretion to treat a proxy appointment as valid notwithstanding that the appointment and information relating to the proxies required under the Bye-laws has not been received in accordance with the requirements of the Bye-laws. Subject to the aforesaid, such appointees are not entitled to vote as a result of the non-receipt of the appointment and information required under the Bye-laws.	This provides for greater flexibility for the Company to determine how to treat or deal with proxy forms which may not be properly completed with the proxy's information.
–	81(2)	New Bye-law 81(2) provides that the deposit of an instrument appointing a proxy by a Member does not preclude such Member from attending and voting in person at the meeting to which the instrument of proxy relates and where a Member submits a proxy form and subsequently attends the general meeting in person and votes, the appointment of the proxy shall be deemed to be revoked at the point when the Member attends the meeting.	This is in line with paragraph 3.3 of Practice Note 7.5 of the Listing Manual which provides that if a shareholder submits a proxy form and subsequently attends the meeting in person and votes, the appointment of the proxy should be revoked, and that there must be sufficient systems or processes in place at the meeting to identify and cancel the appointment of the proxy at the point when the shareholder attends the meeting.
83(2)	83(2)	Amended Bye-law 83(2) clarifies that in addition to the Depository, a clearing house or a central depository entity (or its nominees) may authorise persons to act as their representatives on their behalf at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members provided that the number and class of shares is specified in the authorisation. Each person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers as if such person was the registered holder of the shares of the Company held by the clearing house or the central depository entity (or its nominee(s)), in addition to the Depository.	–

94	94	Amended Bye-law 94 relates to the cessation of an alternate Director if his appointer ceases for any reason to be a Director. The proposed amendment clarifies that if the appointing Director retires but is re-elected at the same meeting, any appointment of his alternate Director pursuant to the Bye-laws which was in force immediately before retirement of such appointing Director shall remain in force as though he had not retired.	The proposed amendments provide clarification that the appointment of an alternate Director shall remain in force where the appointing Director retires but is re-elected in the same meeting.
102	102	Amended Bye-law 102(1) which relates to the prohibition imposed on a Director against voting on any Board resolution in respect of any contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement in which he has directly or indirectly a personal material interest is proposed to be amended to further specify that at a Board meeting, a Director shall not be counted in the quorum in relation to any resolution on which he is debarred from voting.  Additional amendments to Bye-law 102 relate to the replacement of the words “Designated Stock Exchange” with “SGX-ST” in Bye-laws 102(1)(d), 102(2) and 102(3). ### SHARE CERTIFICATES

16. Every share certificate shall be issued under the Seal or a facsimile thereof or bearing the signature (or a facsimile thereof) of a Director or the Secretary or a person expressly authorised to sign and shall specify the number and class and distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares to which it relates, and the amount paid up thereon and may otherwise be in such form as the Directors may from time to time determine. No certificate shall be issued representing shares of more than one class. In the case of destruction, loss or theft, a shareholder or person entitled to whom such renewed certificate is given shall also bear the loss and pay to the Company all expenses incidental to the investigations by the Company of the evidence of such destruction or loss.

LIEN

22. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on all the shares not fully paid up registered in the name of a Member (whether solely or jointly with others). Such lien shall be restricted to unpaid calls and instalments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid, and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends or other moneys payable thereon or in respect thereof. To give effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares so transferred and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

25. Subject to these Bye-laws and to the terms of allotment, the Board may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium), and each Member shall (subject to being given at least fourteen (14) clear days' Notice specifying the time and place of payment) pay to the Company as required by such notice the amount called on his shares. A call may be extended, postponed or revoked in whole or in part as the Board determines but no Member shall be entitled to any such extension, postponement or revocation except as a matter of grace and favour.

26. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed and may be made payable either in one lump sum or by instalments.

APPENDIX – THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

30. On the trial or hearing of any action or other proceedings for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member sued is entered in the Register as the holder, or one of the holders, of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book, and that notice of such call was duly given to the Member sued, in pursuance of these Bye-laws; and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call, nor any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

31. Any amount payable in respect of a share upon allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of nominal value or premium or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment and if it is not paid the provisions of these Bye-laws shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

32. On the issue of shares the Board may differentiate between the allottees or holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

33. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, and either in money or money's worth, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid or instalments payable upon any shares held by him and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (if any) as the Board may decide. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such Member not less than one month's Notice of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced. Such payment in advance shall not entitle the holder of such share or shares to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared or in profits.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

34. (1) If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable the Board may give to the person from whom it is due not less than fourteen (14) clear days' Notice:-

- (b) stating that if the Notice is not complied with the shares on which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

(2) If the requirements of any such Notice are not complied with, any share in respect of which such Notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls and interest due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect, and such forfeiture shall include all dividends and bonuses declared in respect of the forfeited share but not actually paid before the forfeiture.

(2) If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls and any accrued interests and expenses, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited, or his executors, administrators or assignees, or as he directs.

38. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares but nevertheless shall remain liable to pay the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares, with (if the Directors shall in their discretion so require) interest thereon from the date of forfeiture until payment at such rate (not exceeding ~~twenty per cent.~~percent (20%) per annum) as the Board determines. The Board may enforce payment thereof if it thinks fit, and without any deduction or allowance for the value of the forfeited shares, at the date of forfeiture, but his liability shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares. For the purposes of this Bye-law any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, is payable thereon at a fixed time which is subsequent to the date of forfeiture, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall notwithstanding that time has not yet arrived be deemed to be payable at the date of forfeiture, and the same shall become due and payable immediately upon the forfeiture, but interest thereon shall only be payable in respect of any period between the said fixed time and the date of actual payment.

39. A declaration by a Director or the Secretary that a share has been forfeited on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and such declaration shall (subject to the execution of an instrument of transfer by the Company if necessary) constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share. When any share shall have been forfeited, notice of the declaration shall be given to the Member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or make any such entry.

40. Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid the Board may at any time, before any shares so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, permit the shares forfeited to be bought back upon the terms of payment of all calls and interest due upon and expenses incurred in respect of the share, and upon such further terms (if any) as it thinks fit.

41. The forfeiture of a share shall not prejudice the right of the Company to any call already made or instalment payable thereon.

APPENDIX – THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

42. The provisions of these Bye-laws as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

46. Subject to these Bye-laws, any Member may transfer all or any of his shares by an instrument of transfer in the form acceptable to the Board provided always that the Company shall accept for registration an instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Designated Stock Exchange. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bye-laws, shares that are listed or admitted to trading on an appointed stock exchange may be transferred in accordance with the rules and regulations of such stock exchange.

47. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be signed by or on behalf of both the transferor and the transferee and be witnessed, provided always that an instrument of transfer in respect of which the transferee is the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity or its nominee(s) shall be effective although not signed or witnessed by or on behalf of the Depository or the clearing house or the central depository entity or its nominee(s) (as the case may be) and provided further that when a corporation executes an instrument of transfer under seal, the affixation and attestation of the corporation's seal may be accepted as compliance with the requirements of this Bye-law. If the transferor or transferee is the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity or its nominee(s), an instrument of transfer may be signed by hand or by machine imprinted signature or by such other manner of execution as the Board may approve from time to time. The Board may also resolve, either generally or in any particular case, upon request by either the transferor or transferee, to accept mechanically executed transfers. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. Nothing in these Bye-laws shall preclude the Board from recognising a renunciation of the allotment or provisional allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

48. (1) The Board may, in its absolute discretion and without giving any reason therefor, refuse to register a transfer of any share (not being a fully paid up share) to a person of whom it does not approve, or any share issued under any share incentive scheme for employees upon which a restriction on transfer imposed thereby still subsists, and it may also, without prejudice to the foregoing generality, refuse to register a transfer of any share (not being a fully paid up share) on which the Company has a lien or, except in the case of a transfer to executors, administrators or trustees of the estate of a deceased Member, a transfer of any share to more than three (3) joint holders.

(2) No transfer shall be made to an infant or to a person of unsound mind or under other legal disability.

(3) The Board in so far as permitted by any applicable law may, in its absolute discretion, at any time and from time to time transfer any share upon the Register to any branch register or any share on any branch register to the Register or any other branch register. In the event of any such transfer, the shareholder requesting such transfer shall bear the cost of effecting the transfer unless the Board otherwise determines.

(4) Unless the Board otherwise agrees (which agreement may be on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board in its absolute discretion may from time to time determine, and which agreement the Board shall, without giving any reason therefor, be entitled in its absolute discretion to give or withhold), no shares upon the Register shall be transferred to any branch register nor shall shares on any branch register be transferred to the Register or any other branch register and all transfers and other documents of title shall be lodged for registration, and registered, in the case of any shares on a branch register, at the relevant Registration Office, and, in the case of any shares on the Register, at the Office or such other place in Bermuda at which the Register is kept in accordance with the Act.

(5) Save as provided in the Bye-laws, there shall be no restriction on the transfer of fully paid up shares (except where required by law or the rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange).

49. Without limiting the generality of the last preceding Bye-law, the Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless:-

- (a) a fee of such sum (not exceeding two Singapore dollars (S$2.00) or such other maximum sum as the Designated Stock Exchange may determine to be payable) as the Board may from time to time require is paid to the Company in respect thereof;
- (b) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share;
- (c) the instrument of transfer is lodged at the Office or such other place in Bermuda at which the Register is kept in accordance with the Act or the Registration Office (as the case may be) accompanied by the relevant share certificate(s) and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do); and
- (d) if applicable, the instrument of transfer is duly and properly stamped.

50. If the Board refuses to register a transfer of any share, it shall, within one (1) month after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to each of the transferor and transferee notice of the refusal.

51. The registration of transfers of shares or of any class of shares may, after notice has been given by advertisement in an appointed newspaper and in accordance with the requirements of the Designated Stock Exchange be suspended at such times and for such periods (not exceeding in the whole thirty (30) days in any year) as the Board may determine.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

52. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased Member was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased Member where the deceased Member was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the deceased Member's interest in the shares. Nothing herein shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by such deceased Member with other persons. Subject to the provisions of the Act, for the purpose of this Bye-law, legal personal representative means the executor or administrator of a deceased Member or such other person as the Board may, in its absolute discretion, decide as being properly authorised to deal with the shares of a deceased Member. Where two or more persons are registered as joint holders of a share or shares, then in the event of the death of any joint holder or holders the remaining joint holder or holders shall be absolutely entitled to the said share or shares and the Company shall recognise no claim in respect of the estate of any joint holder except in the case of the last survivor of such joint holders.

Subject to Section 52 of the Act, any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy or winding-up of a Member may, upon such evidence as to his title being produced as may be required by the Board, elect either to become the holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof. If he elects to become the holder he shall notify the Company in writing either at the Registration Office or Office, as the case may be, to that effect. If he elects to have another person registered he shall execute a transfer of the share in favour of that person. The provisions of these Bye-laws relating to the transfer and registration of transfers of shares shall apply to such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the Member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by such Member.

54. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy or winding-up of a Member shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share. However, the Board may, if it thinks fit, withhold the payment of any dividend payable or other advantages in respect of such share until such person shall become the registered holder of the share or shall have effectually transferred such share, but, subject to the requirements of Bye-law 74(2) being met, such a person may vote at meetings.

63B. The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman of the meeting may from time to time make arrangements for managing attendance and/or participation and/or voting at the Principal Meeting Place, any Meeting Location(s) and/or participation in a hybrid meeting by means of electronic facilities (whether involving the issue of tickets or some other means of identification, passcode, seat reservation, electronic voting or otherwise) as it shall in its absolute discretion consider appropriate, and may from time to time change any such arrangements, provided that a Member who, pursuant to such arrangements, is not entitled to attend, in person or by proxy, at any Meeting Location shall be entitled so to attend at one of the other Meeting Locations; and the entitlement of any Member so to attend the meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting at such Meeting Location or Meeting Locations shall be subject to any such arrangement as may be for the time being in force and by the Notice of meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting stated to apply to the meeting. All business conducted at the meeting up to the time of such adjournment shall be valid.

63D. The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman of the meeting may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction the Board or the chairman of the meeting, as the case may be, considers appropriate to ensure the security and orderly conduct of a meeting (including, without limitation, requirements for evidence of identity to be produced by those attending the meeting, the searching of their personal property and the restriction of items that may be taken into the meeting place, determining the number and frequency of and the time allowed for questions that may be raised at a meeting). Members shall also comply with all requirements or restrictions imposed by the owner of the premises at which the meeting is held. Any decision made under this Bye-law shall be final and conclusive and a person who refuses to comply with any such arrangements, requirements or restrictions may be refused entry to the meeting or ejected (physically or electronically) from the meeting.

63E. If, after the sending of Notice of a general meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held, the Directors, in their absolute discretion, consider that it is inappropriate, impracticable, unreasonable or undesirable for any reason to hold the general meeting on the date or at the time or place or by means of electronic facilities specified in the Notice calling the meeting, they may change or postpone the meeting to another date, time and/or place and/or change the electronic facilities and/or change the form of the meeting (a physical meeting or a hybrid meeting) without approval from the Members. This Bye-law shall be subject to the following:

- (a) when a meeting is so postponed, the Company shall post a notice of such postponement on the Company's website and by way of an announcement to the

SGX-ST as soon as practicable (provided that failure to post such a notice shall not affect the automatic postponement of such meeting):

- (b) when the form of the meeting or electronic facilities specified in the Notice are changed, the Board shall notify the Members of details of such change in such manner as the Board may determine;
- (c) when a meeting is postponed or changed in accordance with this Bye-law, subject to and without prejudice to Bye-law 63, unless already specified in the original Notice of the meeting, the Board shall fix the date, time, place(s) and electronic facilities (if applicable) for the postponed or changed meeting and shall notify the Members of such details in such manner as the Board may determine; further all proxy forms shall be valid (unless revoked or replaced by a new proxy) if they are received as required by these Bye-laws not less than 48 hours before the time of the postponed or changed meeting; and
- (d) notice of the business to be transacted at the postponed or changed meeting shall not be required, nor shall any accompanying documents be required to be recirculated, provided that the business to be transacted at the postponed or changed meeting is the same as that set out in the original Notice of general meeting circulated to the Members.

63F. All persons seeking to attend and participate in a hybrid meeting shall be responsible for maintaining adequate facilities to enable them to do so. Subject to Bye-law 63C, any inability of a person or persons to attend or participate in a general meeting by way of electronic facilities shall not invalidate the proceedings of and/or resolutions passed at that meeting.

63G. Without prejudice to other provisions in Bye-law 63, a physical meeting may also be held by means of such telephone, electronic or other communication facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously, and participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

64. If an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration but is in good faith ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling. In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment thereto (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted upon.

VOTING

65. (1) Subject to any special rights or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any shares by or in accordance with these Bye-laws, at any general meeting (i) on a show of hands every Member present in person (or being a corporation, is present by a duly authorized representative ~~duly authorised under Section 78 of the Act~~), or by proxy shall have one vote and the chairman of the meeting shall determine which proxy shall be entitled to vote where a Member (other than the Depository or a Member which is a clearing house or a central depository entity (or its nominee(s))) is represented by two proxies, and (ii) on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy or, in the case of a Member being a corporation, by its duly authorised representative shall have one vote for every fully paid share of which he is the holder or which he represents and in respect of which all calls due to the Company have been paid, but so that no amount paid up or credited as paid up on a share in advance of calls or instalments is treated for the foregoing purposes as paid up on the share. ~~In~~ if required by the event that a Member participates in a

- (e) where the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity is a Member, by at least three (3) proxies representing the Depository or the clearing house or the central depository entity (as the case may be).

A demand by a person as proxy for a Member or in the case of a Member being a corporation by its duly authorised representative shall be deemed to be the same as a demand by a Member.

(3) Subject to these Bye-laws, the Statutes and the listing rules of the Designated Stock Exchange, the Directors may, at their sole discretion approve and implement, subject to such security measures as may be deemed necessary or expedient, such voting methods to allow Members who are unable to vote in person at any general meeting the option to vote in any other manner, including but not limited to voting by mail, electronic-mail or facsimile.

The chairman of the meeting may, or (for so long as the shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange) if required by the rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange shall, appoint scrutineer(s), who shall be independent of the persons undertaking the polling process, and the chairman of the meeting may adjourn the meeting to some place (if applicable) and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll.

69. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting or the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded, and, with the consent of the chairman, it may be withdrawn at any time before the close of the meeting or the taking of the poll, whichever is the earlier.

70. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

the objection or error shall not vitiate the decision of the meeting, postponed meeting or adjourned meeting on any resolution unless the same is raised or pointed out at the meeting or, as the case may be, the postponed meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the chairman decides that the same may have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.

The Company shall, in determining rights to vote and other matters in respect of a completed CDP Proxy Form submitted to it, have regard to the instructions given by and the notes (if any) set out in the CDP Proxy Form. The submission of any CDP Proxy Form shall not affect the operation of Bye-law 77(1)(b) and shall not preclude a Depositor appointed as a proxy by virtue of Bye-law 77(1)(b) from attending and voting at the relevant meeting but in the event of attendance by such Depositor the CDP Proxy Form submitted bearing his name as the Nominating Depositor shall be deemed to be revoked;
  - (d) the Company shall reject any CDP Proxy Form of a Nominating Depositor if his name is not shown in the records of the Depository as at a time not earlier than ~~forty-eight~~seventy-two (4872) hours prior to the time of the relevant general meeting supplied by the Depository to the Company; and

- (2) In any case where an instrument of proxy appoints more than one proxy (including the case when a CDP Proxy Form is used), the proportion of the shareholding concerned to be represented by each proxy shall be specified in the instrument of proxy.

(3) A proxy need not be a Member. In addition, subject to Bye-law 77(1), a proxy or proxies representing either a Member who is an individual or a Member which is a corporation shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the Member which he or they represent as such Member could exercise, including, notwithstanding Bye-law 65, the right to vote individually on a show of hands. 78. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under its seal or under the hand of an officer, attorney or other person authorised to sign the same or, in the case of the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity, signed by its duly authorised officer by some method or system of mechanical signature as the Depository or the clearing house or the central depository entity may deem appropriate. ## APPENDIX – THE PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

79. (1) The Company may, at its absolute discretion, provide an electronic address for the receipt of any document or information relating to proxies for a general meeting (including any instrument of proxy or acceptance of an invitation to appoint a proxy, any document necessary to show the validity of, or otherwise relating to, an appointment of proxy (whether or not required under these Bye-laws) and notice of termination of the authority of a proxy). If such an electronic address is provided, the Company shall be deemed to have agreed that any such document or information (relating to proxies as aforesaid) may be sent by electronic communication to that address, subject as hereafter provided and subject to any other limitations or conditions specified by the Company when providing the address. Without limitation, the Company may from time to time determine that any such electronic address may be used generally for such matters or specifically for particular meetings or purposes and, if so, the Company may provide different electronic addresses for different purposes. The Company may also impose any conditions on the transmission of and its receipt of any document or information sent by electronic communication including, for the avoidance of doubt, imposing any security or encryption arrangements as may be specified by the Company. If any document or information required to be sent to the Company under this Bye-law is sent to the Company by electronic means, such document or information shall not be treated as validly delivered to or deposited with the Company unless the same is received by the Company at its designated electronic address provided in accordance with this Bye-law.

~~79.~~(2) The instrument appointing a proxy and (if required by the Board) the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed on behalf of the appointor (which shall, for this purpose, include a Depositor), or a certified copy of such power or authority, shall be delivered;

- (a) if sent personally or by post, to such place or one of such places (if any) as may be specified for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the meeting (or, if no place is so specified at the Registration Office or the Office, as may be appropriate); or
- (b) if submitted by electronic communication, to the electronic address provided by the Company in accordance with Bye-law 79(1), or as may be otherwise specified by the Company for that purpose in or by way of note to or in any document accompanying the notice convening the general meeting.

in either case not less than ~~forty-eight~~seventy-two (48/72) hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll taken subsequently to the date of a meeting or adjourned meeting or postponed meeting, not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

(3) No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date named in it as the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or postponed meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting or postponed meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve (12) months from such date. Delivery of an instrument appointing a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person at the meeting convened and in such event, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be revoked.

80. Instruments of proxy shall be in any usual or common form (including any form approved from time to time by the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity) or in such other form as the Board may approve (provided that this shall not preclude the use of the two-way form) and the Board may, if it thinks fit, send out with the notice of any meeting forms of instrument of proxy for use at the meeting. The instrument of proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any amendment of a resolution put to the meeting for which it is given as the proxy thinks fit. The instrument of proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated therein, be valid as well for any adjournment or postponement of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates. The Board may decide, either generally or in any particular case, to treat a proxy appointment as valid notwithstanding that the appointment or any of the information relating to proxies for a general meeting required under these Bye-laws has not been received in accordance with the requirements of these Bye-laws. Subject to aforesaid, if the proxy appointment and any of the information required under these Bye-laws is not received in the manner set out in these Bye-laws, the appointee shall not be entitled to vote in respect of the shares in question.

81. (1) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the instrument of proxy or of the authority under which it was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity or revocation shall have been received by the Company at the Office or the Registration Office (or such other place as may be specified for the delivery of instruments of proxy in the notice convening the meeting or other document sent therewith) two (2) hours at least before the commencement of the meeting, postponed meeting or adjourned meeting, or the taking of the poll, at which the instrument of proxy is used.

(2) Notwithstanding Bye-law 81(1) above, the deposit of an instrument appointing a proxy by a Member does not preclude such Member from attending and voting in person at the general meeting to which the instrument of proxy relates, as well as at any adjourned meeting to which it relates, and in such an event, the instrument appointing the proxy or proxies shall be deemed to be revoked by such Member at the point when the Member attends the general meeting.

82. Anything which under these Bye-laws a Member may do by proxy he may likewise do by his duly appointed attorney and the provisions of these Bye-laws relating to proxies and instruments appointing proxies shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to any such attorney and the instrument under which such attorney is appointed.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES

83. (1) Any corporation which is a Member may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members. The person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of such corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member and such corporation shall for the purposes of these Bye-laws be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present thereat.

(2) Where a Member is the Depository or a clearing house or a central depository entity (or its nominee(s), in each case, being a corporation), it may authorise such persons as it thinks fit to act as its representatives at any meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class of Members provided that the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such representative is so authorised. (2) Notice of a written resolution shall be given, and a copy of the resolution shall be circulated to all Members who would be entitled to attend a meeting and vote thereon. The accidental omission to give notice to, or the non-receipt of a notice by, any Member does not invalidate the passing of a resolution. A resolution in writing signed (in such manner as to indicate, expressly or impliedly, unconditional approval) by or on behalf of Members who at the date that the notice is given represent such majority of votes as would be required if the resolution was voted on at a meeting of Members at which all Members entitled to attend and vote thereat were present and voting, shall, for the purposes of these Bye-laws, be treated as a resolution duly passed at a general meeting of the Company and, where relevant, as a special resolution so passed. For the purposes of this Bye-law, the effective date of the resolution is the date when the resolution is signed by, or in the case of a Member that is a corporation whether or not a company within the meaning of the Act, on behalf of, the last Member whose signature results in the necessary voting majority being achieved and any reference in any Bye-law to the date of passing of a resolution is, in relation to a resolution made in accordance with this Bye-law, a reference to such date. Where the resolution states a date as being the date of his signature thereof by any Member the statement shall be prima facie evidence that it was signed by him on that date. Such a resolution may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more relevant Members.

(3) Notwithstanding any provisions contained in these Bye-laws, a resolution in writing shall not be passed for the purpose of removing a Director before the expiration of his term of office under Bye-law 85(4) or for the purposes set out in Bye-law 152(3) relating to the removal and appointment of the Auditor.

(3) The Company at the meeting at which a Director retires under any provision of these Bye-laws may by ordinary resolution fill the office being vacated by electing thereto the retiring Director or some other person eligible for appointment. In default the retiring Director shall be deemed to have been re-elected except in any of the following cases:-

(a) where at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such office or a resolution for the re-election of such Director is put to the meeting and lost; or

(b) where such Director has given notice in writing to the Company that he is unwilling to be re-elected.

The retirement shall not have effect until the conclusion of the meeting except where a resolution is passed to elect some other person in the place of the retiring Director or a resolution for his re-election is put to the meeting and lost and accordingly a retiring Director who is re-elected or deemed to have been re-elected will continue in office without a break.

Notwithstanding Bye-laws 95, 96, 97 and 98, an executive director appointed to an office under Bye-law 89 hereof shall receive such remuneration (whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise or by all or any of those modes) and such other benefits (including pension and/or gratuity and/or other benefits on retirement) and allowances as the Board may from time to time determine, and either in addition to or in lieu of his remuneration as a Director, but he shall not in any circumstances be remunerated by a commission on or a percentage of turnover.

The payment by the Board of any unclaimed dividend or other sums payable on or in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof.

144. Whenever the Board or the Company in general meeting has resolved that a dividend be paid or declared, the Board may further resolve that such dividend be satisfied wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets of any kind and in particular of paid up shares, debentures or warrants to subscribe securities of the Company or any other company, or in any one or more of such ways, and where any difficulty arises in regard to the distribution the Board may settle the same as it thinks expedient, and in particular may issue certificates in respect of fractions of shares, disregard fractional entitlements or round the same up or down, and may fix the value for distribution of such specific assets, or any part thereof, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Board and may appoint any person to sign any requisite instruments of transfer and other documents on behalf of the persons entitled to the dividend, and such appointment shall be effective and binding on the Members. The Board may resolve that no such assets shall be made available to Members with registered addresses in any particular territory or territories where, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, such distribution of assets would or might, in the opinion of the Board, be unlawful or impracticable and in such event the only entitlement of the Members aforesaid shall be to receive cash payments as aforesaid. Members affected as a result of the foregoing sentence shall not be or be deemed to be a separate class of Members for any purpose whatsoever.

145. (1) For so long as the shares of the Company are listed on the Designated Stock Exchange, any scheme which enables the Members to elect to receive securities in lieu of cash amount of any dividend must be approved by the Members in general meeting in accordance with applicable rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange.

(2) The Board shall have full power to make such provisions as it thinks fit for the implementation of a scheme approved pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Bye law, and the Board may do all acts and things considered necessary or expedient to give effect to such a scheme.

RESERVES

146. Before recommending any dividend, the Board may set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as it determines as reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied and pending such application may, also at such discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Board may from time to time think fit and so that it shall not be necessary to keep any investments constituting the reserve or reserves separate or distinct from any other investments of the Company. The Board may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to distribute.

CAPITALISATION

147. The Company may, upon the recommendation of the Board, at any time and from time to time pass an ordinary resolution to the effect that it is desirable to capitalise all or any part of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including the profit and loss account) whether or not the same is available for distribution and accordingly that such amount be set free for distribution among the Members or any class of Members who would be entitled thereto if it were distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on the footing that the same is not paid in cash but is applied either in or towards paying up the amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares in the Company held by such Members respectively or in paying up in full unissued shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company, to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid up among such Members, or partly in one way and partly in the other, and the Board shall give effect to such resolution provided that, for the purposes of this Bye-law, a share premium account and any reserve or fund representing unrealised profits, may be applied only in paying up in full unissued shares of the Company to be issued to such Members credited as fully paid. In carrying sums to reserve and in applying the same the Board shall comply with the provisions of the Act.

148. The Board may settle, as it considers appropriate, any difficulty arising in regard to any distribution under the last preceding Bye-law and in particular may issue certificates in respect of fractions of shares or authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions or may resolve that the distribution should be as nearly as may be practicable in the correct proportion but not exactly so or may ignore fractions altogether, and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members in order to adjust the rights of all parties, as may seem expedient to the Board. The Board may appoint any person to sign on behalf of the persons entitled to participate in the distribution any contract necessary or desirable for giving effect thereto and such appointment shall be effective and binding upon the Members.

(2) Subject to compliance with Sections 87A and 87B of the Act and the rules or regulations of the Designated Stock Exchange, the Company may send to Entitled Persons summarised financial statements, derived from the Financial Statements for the relevant period, instead of the Financial Statements. The summarised financial statements shall be accompanied by the Auditors' report and shall be sent to Entitled Persons not less than twenty-one (21) days before the general meeting at which the Financial Statements are to be laid.
