Structural steel specialist T T J secures new contracts bringing order book to a record $217 million

SINGAPORE – 26 April 2018 – T T J Holdings Limited (“T T J” or together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) today announced it has successfully secured a series of new contracts, boosting its latest order book from $136 million as at 7 March 2018 to $217 million today. The Group expects to substantially complete the orders in its book between FY2018 and FY2021.

T T J’s Chairman and Managing Director, Mr Teo Hock Chwee (张福水) said, “The latest set of wins has lifted T T J’s order book to the highest on record, demonstrating our strength in the market and is also a strong encouragement for the Group and an endorsement of the competitive strategy it has adopted. We have maintained our focus on delivering high quality work and building our reputation as a preferred structural steelworks provider in the market, and this has allowed us to compete well in tenders. With the anticipated pick-up in construction demand this year by the Singapore government<sup>(1)</sup>, we will continue our efforts in pursuing new business opportunities which are lucrative and sustain the momentum in our order book building.”
