

Further to the announcement on 22 September 2022, Singtel Optus Pty Limited and certain of its wholly-owned subsidiaries have received notices of the intention to commence formal investigations by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner ("OAIC") and Australian Communications and Media Authority ("ACMA") in connection with the recent cyberattack.

Optus is committed to working with governments and regulators as it responds to the impact of the cyberattack and will fully engage with the OAIC and ACMA as they undertake investigations.

Statement made on 11 October 2022.
