Subject: The ruling of Supreme Administrative Court on dispute between DPC and CAT regarding revenue share

To: President
The Stock Exchange of Thailand

The reference is made to the dispute that CAT Telecom Public Company Limited (“CAT”) submitted in 2008 to the Arbitration Institute demanding Digital Phone Company Limited (“DPC”), a subsidiary of Advanced Info Service Public Company Limited (“the Company” or “AIS”) to make additional payment of revenue share under the Digital PCN (Personal Communication Network) 1800 Agreement in the amount of Baht 2,449 million plus penalty at the rate of 1.25% per month. The claim was based on the fact that DPC had delivered the revenue share after deducting excise tax in accordance with the Cabinet’s resolution. The Arbitral Tribunal and the Central Administrative Court resolved to dismiss CAT’s claim and subsequently CAT appealed to the Supreme Administrative Court.

On June 30, 2021, the Supreme Administrative Court resolved to dismiss the CAT’s claim, which aligns to the resolution of the Central Administrative Court. As a result, the legal dispute is considered final and DPC has no duty to make any additional payment nor penalty as claimed by CAT.
