E. Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (Cont'd)

2. Basis of preparation

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the second quarter and half year ended 31 March 2023 have been prepared in accordance with SFRS(I) 1-34 Interim Financial Reporting issued by the Accounting Standards Council Singapore. The condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not include all the information required for a complete set of financial statements. However, selected explanatory notes are included to explain events and transactions that are significant to an understanding of the changes in the Group's financial position and performance of the Group since the last audited financial statements for the year ended 30 September 2022 ("FY2022").

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial period which were prepared in accordance with SFRS(I)s, except for the adoption of new and amended standards as set out in Note 2.1.

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements are presented in Singapore dollar which is the Company's functional currency and all values in the tables are rounded to the nearest thousand (S$'000), except when otherwise indicated.

Going concern assumption

As at 31 March 2023, the Group and the Company's current liabilities exceeded their current assets by S$154,267,000 (30 September 2022 - S$154,504,000) and S$152,910,000 (30 September 2022 - S$150,435,000) respectively. At the Company level, the net current liabilities are due mainly to payables to certain subsidiaries and former subsidiaries, and provision for corporate guarantees issued to counterparties for performance bonds and claims made against certain former subsidiaries. These factors give rise to material uncertainties on the ability of the Group and the Company to continue as going concerns.

As disclosed in Note 1, the Company entered into a conditional subscription agreement on 18 August 2022 with Meta5 Pte. Ltd. to raise an equity fund of S$15,000,000 by issuance of new shares and share options in the Company. Furthermore, the Company is also proposing a rights issue to raise S$3,500,000, bringing the total of equity fund to S$18,500,000 to be raised. The Company is also undertaking a scheme of arrangement (the "TIL Scheme") with its creditors for, inter alia, the restructuring of the Company's debts as part of the proposed restructuring exercise.

Based on the aforementioned, the condensed interim financial statements of the Company and the Group for the period ended 31 March 2023 have been prepared on the assumption that the Company and its subsidiaries is able to continue as a going concern. As the completion of the Subscription Agreement and proposed restructuring exercise including discussions with creditors are still in progress, the final outcome is uncertain and accordingly, the actual impact, whether financial or non-financial, is not easily determinable as at the date of this announcement. It should therefore be noted that the going concern assumption is premised upon, inter alia, (i) the successful completion of the Subscription Agreement, (ii) the successful completion of the proposed restructuring exercise, (iii) the continuing availability of the existing facilities and financing to the Group for the next twelve months and (iv) the sufficiency of cash flows generated from the Group's operating activities.

The condensed interim financial statements in this announcement, explanatory notes and other information have not been audited or reviewed by the Company's auditors. Accordingly, depending on the eventual outcome of the aforementioned, the Company and/or its subsidiaries may have to make material adjustments to its financial performance and financial position for the period ended 31 March 2023 as contained herein. In this regard, the Company will make appropriate announcements accordingly when more information is available.

Basis of consolidation

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- Has power over the investee;
- Is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- Has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Company reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Company obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Company loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the period are included in the interim condensed consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date the Company gains control until the date when the Company ceases to control the subsidiary.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

E. Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (Cont'd)

2. Basis of preparation (cont'd)

Change in the Group's ownership interests in existing subsidiaries

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss and is calculated as the difference between (i) the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest and (ii) the previous carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), and liabilities of the subsidiary and any non-controlling interests. All amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in relation to that subsidiary are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities of the subsidiary (i.e. reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable SFRS(I)s. The fair value of any investment retained in the former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition for subsequent accounting under SFRS(I) 9, or when applicable, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or a joint venture.

Following the liquidation of Trans Equatorial[1] in 2QFY2022 and the winding up of TEE E&C (M)[2] in 3QFY2022, the consolidation of these entities ceased when the Company lost its control of these entities.

In 1QFY2023, AWM was placed under creditors' voluntary liquidation (the "CVL") on 5 December 2022. Mr. Abuthahir Abdul Gafoor and Ms. Yessica Budiman, care of AAG Corporate Advisory Pte Ltd have been appointed as joint and several liquidators of AWM. As a result, the Company no longer has control over AWM and the consolidation of AWM ceased accordingly. Detailed information is disclosed in Note 20.

Non-current assets (or disposal groups) held for sale and discontinued operations

Non-current assets and disposal groups are classified as held-for-sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. This condition is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable and the asset (or disposal group) is available for immediate sale in its present condition. Management must be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as completed sale within one year from the date of classification.

When the Group is committed to a sale plan involving loss of control of a subsidiary, all of the assets and liabilities of that subsidiary are classified as held-for-sale when the criteria described above are met, regardless of whether the Group will retain a non-controlling interest in its former subsidiary after the sale.

Non-current assets (and disposal groups) classified as held-for-sale are measured at the lower of their previous carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

A discontinued operation is a component of an entity that either has been disposed of, or is classified as held-for-sale, and:

- Represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations;
- Is part of a single co-ordinated plan to dispose of a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations; or
- Is a subsidiary acquired exclusively with a view to resale.

As disclosed in Note 1, these events were taken place in FY2022 within Engineering and Construction Segment:

- Trans Equatorial was placed into creditors' voluntary liquidation (the "CVL") on 12 January 2022
- Winding up of TEE E&C (M) on 24 June 2022
- Proposed disposal of PBT Engineering

Following the events described above and in compliance with SFRS (I) 5 Non-current Assets Held-for-sale and Discontinued Operations, the Group has classified Engineering and Construction Segment as discontinued operations in FY2022.

[1] Trans Equatorial and its subsidiaries i.e. PBT Engineering Sdn Bhd (Brunei), PBT Engineering Sdn Bhd (Malaysia), TEE Philippines, Inc., Trans Equatorial Indochina Co., Ltd, Oscar Estate Management Co., Ltd and Oscar Design & Decoration Co., Ltd (collectively, the "Trans Group") were de-recognised upon loss of control in 2QFY2022 when Trans Equatorial was placed under CVL as at 12 January 2022.

[2] TEE E&C (M) and its subsidiary i.e. TEE Project Solutions Sdn Bhd (collectively, the "TEE E&C (M) Group") were de-recognised upon loss of control in 3QFY2022 when TEE E&C (M) was wound up under provisions of the Companies Act 2016 of Malaysia.

2. Basis of preparation (cont'd)

2.1 New and amended standards adopted by the Group

A number of amendments to Standards have become applicable for the current reporting period. The Group did not have to change its accounting policies or make retrospective adjustments as a result of adopting those standards

2.2 Use of judgements and estimates

In preparing the condensed interim consolidated financial statements, management has made judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The significant judgements made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the audited consolidated financial statements as at and for the financial year ended 30 September 2022 ("FY2022").

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and on other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

Information about critical judgements in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amount recognised in the condensed financial statements is included in the following notes:

(a) Going concern assumption

As at 31 March 2023, the Group and the Company's current liabilities exceeded their current assets by S$154,267,000 (30 September 2022 - S$154,504,000) and S$152,910,000 (30 September 2022 - S$150,435,000) respectively. At the Company level, the net current liabilities are due mainly to payables to certain subsidiaries and former subsidiaries, and provision for corporate guarantees issued to counterparties for performance bonds and claims made against certain former subsidiaries. These factors give rise to material uncertainties on the ability of the Group and the Company to continue as going concerns.

As disclosed in Note 1, the Company entered into a conditional subscription agreement on 18 August 2022 with Meta5 Pte. Ltd. to raise an equity fund of S$15,000,000 by issuance of new shares and share options in the Company. Furthermore, the Company is also proposing a rights issue to raise S$3,500,000, bringing the total of equity fund to S$18,500,000 to be raised. The Company is also undertaking a scheme of arrangement (the "TIL Scheme") with its creditors for, inter alia, the restructuring of the Company's debts as part of the proposed restructuring exercise.

Based on the aforementioned, the condensed interim financial statements of the Company and the Group for the period ended 31 March 2023 have been prepared on the assumption that the Company and its subsidiaries is able to continue as a going concern. As the completion of the Subscription Agreement and proposed restructuring exercise including discussions with creditors are still in progress, the final outcome is uncertain and accordingly, the actual impact, whether financial or non-financial, is not easily determinable as at the date of this announcement. It should therefore be noted that the going concern assumption is premised upon, inter alia, (i) the successful completion of the Subscription Agreement, (ii) the successful completion of the proposed restructuring exercise, (iii) the continuing availability of the existing facilities and financing to the Group for the next twelve months and (iv) the sufficiency of cash flows generated from the Group's operating activities.

In the event that the Group and the Company are unable to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, the Group and the Company may be unable to discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business ad adjustments may have to be made to reflect the situation that assets may need to be realised other than in the normal course of business and at amounts which could differ significantly from the amounts at which they are currently recorded in the statement of financial position. In addition, the Group and the Company may have to provide for further liabilities which may arise, ad to reclassify non-current assets as current assets and non-current liabilities as current liabilities. No such adjustments have been made to the condensed interim financial statements.

(b) Determination of lease terms

When estimating the lease term of the respective lease arrangement, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not to exercise a termination option, including any expected changes in facts and circumstances from the commencement date until the exercise date of the option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated).

E. Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (Cont'd)

2. Basis of preparation (cont'd)

2.2 Use of judgements and estimates (cont'd)

Information about assumptions and estimation uncertainties that have a significant risk of resulting in a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities within the next period are included in the following notes:

(a) Revenue recognition

The Group recognises revenue from the following major sources:

- Construction engineering contracts (from discontinued operation)
- Sale of goods
- Revenue from services rendered
- Interest income
- Rental income

As described in the FY2022 audited consolidated financial statements, the Group recognises revenue either at a point in time or over time, depending on the contractual terms. Revenue from construction engineering contracts are recognised over time, based on the construction and other costs incurred to date as a proportion of the estimated total construction and other costs to be incurred. Management considers that this input method is an appropriate measure of the progress towards complete satisfaction of these performance obligations.

Significant management judgements are required to estimate the total budgeted contract costs which include estimation for variation works and any other claims from contractors or sub-contractors. Any changes to the total budgeted contract costs will impact the percentage of completion, resulting in an impact to the revenue recognised.

Revenue arising from additional claims and variation orders, whether billed or unbilled, is recognised when negotiations have reached an advanced stage such that it is probable that the customer will accept the claims or approve the variation orders, and the amount that it is probable will be accepted by the customer can be measured reliably.

For projects that are liable to additional charges payable to the relevant authorities if the projects are not completed within the stipulated time, management takes into consideration the reasons for and the length of the time exceeded, the past experience of applying for extension of time and the likely outcome of such application for extension of time. Such charges are accrued only if it is probable that it will result in a liability.

(b) Calculation of loss allowances

When measuring ECL, the Group uses reasonable and supportable forward-looking information, which is based on assumptions for the future movement of different economic drivers and how these drivers will affect each other.

Loss given default is an estimate of the loss arising from default. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the Group would expect to receive.

Probability of default constitutes a key input in measuring ECL. Probability of default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon, the calculation of which includes reference to historical data, assumptions and expectations of future conditions.

(c) Contract assets arising from construction engineering contracts (from discontinued operation)

The Group recognises contract revenue to the extent of contract costs incurred where it is probable those costs will be recoverable and recognised over time on a cost-to-cost method i.e. based on the proportion of contract costs incurred for work performed to date relative to the estimated total contract costs.

Significant assumptions are required in determining the over-time revenue recognition on cost-to-cost method. The estimated total contract revenue and estimated total construction costs include estimation for variation works and any other claims from contractors. In making these estimates, the Group relies on past experience and the work of external specialists.

Management has performed the cost studies, taking into account the costs to date and costs to complete on each contract. Management has also reviewed the status of such contracts and is satisfied that the cost estimates to complete, the total contract costs and the expected profitability are realistic.

Additional claims and variation orders, whether billed or unbilled, is recognised when negotiations have reached an advanced stage such that it is probable that the customer will accept the claims or approve the variation orders, and the amount that it is probable will be accepted by the customer can be measured reliably.

E. Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (Cont'd)

2. Basis of preparation (cont'd)

2.2 Use of judgements and estimates (cont'd)

(d) Impairment of investment in associates and subsidiaries, and property, plant and equipment

Management exercises their judgement in estimating recoverable amounts of its investment in associates of the Group and Company and subsidiaries of the Company, and the Group's property, plant and equipment.

The recoverable amounts of these assets are reviewed at the end of each reporting period to determine whether there is any indication that those investments and assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less cost to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, management needs to estimate the future cash flows expected from the cash-generating units and an appropriate discount rate in order to calculate the present value of the future cash flows.

(e) Estimation of incremental borrowing rate

The Group and the Company cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease. Therefore, it uses the IBR to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is defined as the rate of the interest that the lessee would have to pay to borrow over a similar security the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the ROU asset in a similar economic environment.

The Group and the Company estimates the IBR relevant to each lease by using observable inputs such as market interest rate and asset yield where available, and then making certain lessee specific adjustments such as Group entity's credit rating.

(f) Estimation of provisions made on various claims

In conjunction with the proposed restructuring exercises as disclosed in Note 1, the Group and the Company continue to assess the adequacy of the various provisions for liabilities made from the claims received.

3. Seasonal operations

The Group's businesses are not affected significantly by seasonal or cyclical factors during the financial period.

4. Segment and revenue information

For management purposes, the Group is organised into two major business segments/operating divisions based on their services as follows:

i. Segment 1: Infrastructure – infrastructure business offers infrastructure solutions in the areas of water and energy related projects and commercial and industrial real estate management. This includes comprehensive sustainable solutions to meet demands for integrated infrastructure, utilities and environmental services

ii. Segment 2: Corporate & Others – involves a range of activities from corporate exercises and include income and expenses not attributable to other operating segments such as rental income from industrial building

The Group Chief Executive and Managing Director monitors the operating results of its operating segments for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment.

Information regarding the results of each reportable segment is included in the following table. Performance is measured based on segment profit/(loss) before taxation. Segment profit/(loss) is used to measure performance as management believes that such information is the most relevant in evaluating the results of certain segments relative to other entities that operate within these industries.

Group

The details of the restructuring exercise are explained in Note 1 under Section E above in this announcement. Based on the aforementioned, as of 18 August 2022, the Company entered into a conditional subscription agreement with Meta5 Pte. Ltd. (the "Meta5" or "Subscriber") to issue new shares in the Company worth S$7.5 million. Meta5 will also subscribe S$7.5 million of share options in the Company. Furthermore, the Company is also proposing a rights issue to raise S$3.5 million, bringing the total of equity fund to S$18.5 million to be raised. The completion of the Subscription Agreement is subject to the fulfilment (or waiver) of the conditions precedent therein. As part of the completion of the Subscription Agreement, the Company worked with RSM and its legal advisors to apply for lifting of the trading suspension of the Company's shares under Chapter 13 of the listing manual of the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the "SGX-ST"). On 31 March 2023, the Company had submitted the relevant application to SGX-ST for review and to sought for approval.

The Company will also be undertaking a scheme of arrangement (the "TIL Scheme") with its creditors for, inter alia, the restructuring of the Company's debts as part of the proposed restructuring exercise. On 24 February 2023, the Company proposed a pre-packaged TIL Scheme with its creditors and it has been approved by majority in number representing at least three-fourths in value of the creditors. As such, The Company intends to make an application under Section 71 of IRDA for Court sanction of the proposed TIL Scheme.

Infrastructure Business

With the easing of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Group is seeing higher business transactions among some of its key customers thus leading to a busier operation for the waste management service. However, the environmental business also continues to face stiff market competition and inflationary cost pressures, which will affect the profit margin. There is also a reduction in the demand for disinfection services for COVID-19 as companies in Singapore start to live with the COVID-19 virus. The Group will continue to focus on niche areas with cost advantage and leverage on opportunistic projects to optimise profits.

The Group will continue its efforts to divest its investment in overseas infrastructure assets.

Overall, the Group will continue to work on the operations of its remaining operating segments and any potential opportunities on new businesses will be reviewed from time-to-time post-restructuring. The Group will also continue to work with RSM and legal advisors on the restructuring plan.
