

HEINEKEN confirms review of CFO succession plans

Amsterdam, 19 September 2014 – Heineken N.V. has taken note of the recent media speculation about the position of its Chief Financial Officer. The Supervisory Board of Heineken N.V. confirms that it has recently initiated a process to identify a successor for René Hooft Graafland as CFO and member of the Executive Board as his current four year term expires on 23 April 2015. This process is on-going and no decisions have been made regarding candidates or timing. Further announcements will be made if and when appropriate.
