

Adjustments to International Postage Rates From 1 January 2024

SINGAPORE, 7 December 2023 – Singapore Post Limited (SingPost) announces adjustments to its international postage rates from 1 January 2024, due to higher annual international postal settlement fees.

International postal settlement rates have progressively increased over the years due to annual fee revisions made by the Universal Postal Union (UPU). This settlement fee is payable to postal organisations of destination countries for mail delivery.

Starting from 1 January 2024, the rates for international airmail letters, printed papers, aerogrammes and postcards will be increased by $0.05 for Zones 1, 2 and 3.
