Review of Consolidated Statement of Profit or Loss and Other Comprehensive Income

Revenue

Revenue and gross profit decreased to zero from 1Q 2014 as no sales were made during the period under review.

Other operating income

Other operating income in the first half year 2015 decreased by approximately S$0.9 million to S$0.8 million, as compared to S$1.7 million for the corresponding period in 2014. The decrease was mainly attributable to the fair value gain on forward foreign exchange contract of S$0.5 million in first half year 2014, while nil amount was recorded in the period under review since the contract was expired in 2014.

Administrative expenses

Administrative expenses decreased from S$3.0 million in the corresponding period in 2014 to S$2.0 million in the first half year 2015. This was mainly due to the decrease in staff cost and tighter costs control on general administrative expenses.

Other operating expenses

Other operating expenses decreased from S$3.9 million in the corresponding period in 2014 to S$0.5 million in the first half year 2015. This was mainly due to a decrease in storage fee incurred for inventory from S$1.5 million to zero, and a decrease in net foreign exchange loss from S$1.5 million to S$0.2 million.

Share of results of associates

The share of results of associates decreased by S$2.3 million from the corresponding period in 2014, mainly due to the decrease in profit share from one of the associated companies, Tianjin Lant Development Ltd, as its trading volume decreased.

Loss after tax

In view of the above, the Group recorded loss after tax of S$1.9 million for the half year ended 30 June 2015, as compared to loss after tax of S$2.1 million for the corresponding period in 2014.

8. A review of the performance of the group, to the extent necessary for a reasonable understanding of the group's business. It must include a discussion of the following:- Continued

Review of Consolidated Statement of Financial Position

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents of the Group decreased from S$1.7 million at as 31 December 2014 to S$1.5 million as at 30 June 2015. See the Review of Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.

Other receivables, deposits and prepayments

Other receivables, deposits and prepayments increased from S$62.0 million as at 31 December 2014 to S$62.7 million as at 30 June 2015. The increase is mainly due to exchange translation difference on consolidating deposits denominated in Renminbi.

Other payables and accruals

Other payables and accruals increased S$0.1 million from S$15.2 million as at 31 December 2014 to S$15.3 million as at 30 June 2015. The increase was mainly due to the advance from the immediate holding company of S$0.4 million, net of other settlements.

Review of Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows

Cash flows used in operating activities was S$1.8 million for the first half year 2015 compared to cash flows generated from operating activities of S$14.1 million in the corresponding period of 2014. The net cash outflow was mainly due to the payment of various administrative and operating expenses.

Cash flows from an investing activity for the first half year 2015 represented sales proceeds from disposal of items of office equipment in certain overseas representative offices. No such cash flow was noted in the corresponding period in 2014.

Cash flows from financing activities showed a net inflow of S$1.6 million for the first half year 2015 mainly due to the proceeds from a new loan of S$2.0 million and the advance from the immediate holding company, net of repayment of bank borrowings.

9. Where a forecast, or a prospect statement, has been previously disclosed to shareholders, any variance between it and the actual results.

Not applicable.

10. A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the group in the next reporting period and the next 12 months.

The China Iron & Steel Association forecasts that it will be difficult for iron ore prices to rally again given falling steel prices and output in China.[1] Coupled with a weak global economy[2], the Group expects the outlook for its trading business to remain challenging. Subject to the completion, proceeds from the divestment of Abterra's 22.8% stake in Zuoquan Xinrui Metallurgy Mine Co., Ltd would provide an injection of working capital for ongoing operational expenses.

On the property front, the sector in China has demonstrated signs of recovery and is likely to continue to improve in the second half of 2015 according to the National Development and Reform Commission.[3] The recovery is on the back of supportive monetary and fiscal policies such as the relaxation of loan-to-value requirements and the reduction of benchmark interest rates.[4] The recent move by China's central bank to devalue the yuan could also help to support the Chinese economy.[5]

Abterra has been actively exploring investment opportunities in the regional property markets. In July 2015, the Group entered into a conditional sale and purchase agreement to acquire a commercial property in Beijing, PRC. The property is a mixed-use development located in the Beijing Media Village situated in Chao Yang District of Beijing, PRC. If completed, the proposed acquisition will diversify Abterra's existing businesses and provide an alternative income stream.

Going forward, the Group will continue to optimise its internal resources and tap its network of trading partners to bolster its core business while exploring investment opportunities in the regional property market.
