RESPONSE TO TODAY ARTICLE OF 2 SEPTEMBER 2022

The Board of Directors of Medinex Limited (the “Company”) refers to the announcement made by the Company on 20 August 2021 (the “Previous Announcement”) and the Today article of 2 September 2022 “Doctor fined for secretly prescribing cough syrup to treat addicted patients who refused help at IMH” (the “Article”).

The Company had in the Previous Announcement, announced that Dr. Jitendra Kumar Sen (“Dr. Sen”), the director of the Company’s subsidiary, Sen Med Holdings Pte. Ltd. had been charged by the Health Sciences Authority (“HSA”) for the supply by retail sale of codeine cough preparation to the same individual more than once within a period of four (4) days. It was also stated in the Article that charges in relation to the aforementioned had been dealt with separately outside the Court. The Article had stated that a fine of $6,000 (the “Fine”) was issued by the Court on 2 September 2022 after Dr. Sen pleaded guilty to three counts of failing to maintain proper medical records.
