To: The Shareholders of HL Global Enterprises Limited

Dear Shareholders,

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 We refer to Special Resolution 7 relating to the proposed adoption of the New Constitution set out in the Notice of AGM.
- 1.2 The purpose of this Appendix is to provide Shareholders with information relating to the above-mentioned proposals to be tabled at the 2024 AGM, and to seek Shareholders' approval at the 2024 AGM for the same.
- 1.3 The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made, reports contained or opinions expressed in this Appendix.

2 THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION

2.1 Amendment Acts and the Companies, Business Trusts And Other Bodies (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2023

The Amendment Acts, which were passed in Parliament on 8 October 2014 and 10 March 2017 respectively, introduced wide-ranging amendments to the Companies Act previously in force. The changes to the Companies Act pursuant to the Amendment Acts aim to reduce the regulatory burden on companies, provide for greater business flexibility and improve the corporate governance landscape for companies in Singapore. The key changes under the 2014 Amendment Act included the introduction of a multiple proxies regime to enfranchise indirect investors and CPF investors, as well as provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents. In addition, what had been previously the memorandum and articles of association of a company have now been merged into a single constitutive document called the "constitution".

The key changes under the 2017 Amendment Act introduced further changes to the Companies Act to reduce regulatory burden on companies, including new requirements for the alignment of timelines for holding AGMs and filing of annual returns with the financial year-end for both listed and non-listed companies, and the removal of the requirement for a common seal.

The Company has also taken this opportunity to update certain provisions in the Company's constitution to take into account certain changes to the Companies Act which took effect on 1 July 2023, pursuant to the Companies, Business Trusts and Other Bodies (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2023.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

2.2 New Constitution

- (a) Pursuant to the new Section 4(13) of the Companies Act (as amended by the 2014 Amendment Act), the memorandum and articles of association of the Company that were in force immediately before 3 January 2016 are collectively deemed to constitute, and have effect as, the constitution of the Company with effect from 3 January 2016 (the “Existing Constitution”).
- (b) Instead of making alterations throughout the Existing Constitution in order to update and streamline its provisions generally and to be in line with the changes to the regulatory framework, the Company is proposing to adopt a new constitution (the “New Constitution”) in place of the Existing Constitution, and incorporate amendments to take into account the changes to the Companies Act introduced pursuant to the Amendment Acts as well as the Companies, Business Trusts and Other Bodies (Miscellaneous Amendments) Act 2023. The proposed New Constitution also contains updated provisions which are consistent with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual. In addition, the Company is taking the opportunity to include provisions in the New Constitution to address the personal data protection regime in Singapore, and also to streamline and rationalise the language used and certain other provisions.

2.3 Shareholders’ Approval

The proposed adoption of the New Constitution is subject to Shareholders’ approval at the 2024 AGM. If so approved, the New Constitution will take effect from the date of the 2024 AGM. Shareholders are advised to read the New Constitution in its entirety as set out in Annex 2 to this Appendix before deciding on the Special Resolution relating to the proposed adoption of the New Constitution.

2.4 Summary of Principal Provisions

The following is a summary of the principal provisions of the proposed New Constitution which are considered significantly different from the equivalent provisions in the Existing Constitution, or which have been included in the proposed New Constitution as new provisions, and should be read in conjunction with the proposed New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Annex 2 to this Appendix. In the paragraphs below, the expression “Regulation” refers to the provisions under the New Constitution, and the expression “Article” is used for the relevant cross-references to the equivalent provisions under the Existing Constitution.

(a) Companies Act

The following Regulations are proposed to be revised or inserted as new provisions such that these provisions would be consistent with the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts. In line with Section 35 of the Companies Act, all references to “Article” or “Articles” in the Existing Constitution have been amended to “Regulation” or “Regulations” in the New Constitution:

- (i) Regulation 1 (Article 2 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 1, which is the interpretation section of the New Constitution, includes the following new and/or updated provisions:
 - (A) a new definition of “Constitution” to mean the constitution of the Company as may be amended from time to time. This aligns the terminology used in the New Constitution with the Companies Act, as amended by the 2014 Amendment Act. In particular, the new Section 4(13) of the Companies Act collectively deems the memorandum and articles of association of a company prior to 3 January 2016 (being the date on which Section 4(13) of the Companies Act came into effect) to be the Company’s constitution;

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- (B) an updated definition of “in writing” to provide that this expression, where used in the New Constitution, includes any representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether physical or electronic or otherwise. This seeks to facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form;
 - (C) new definitions of “registered address” and “address” to make it clear that these expressions mean, in relation to any Member, his physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post, except where otherwise expressly specified;
 - (D) a new provision stating that the expressions “Depositor”, “Depository”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the SFA. This follows the migration of the provisions in the Companies Act which relate to the Central Depository System to the SFA pursuant to the Amendment Acts; and
 - (E) a new provision stating that the expressions “current address”, “electronic communications” and “relevant intermediary” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Companies Act. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communication and the multiple proxies regime pursuant to the Amendment Acts.
- (ii) New Regulation 7(2). Regulation 7(2) is a new provision which provides that new shares may be issued for no consideration. This provision is in line with the new Section 68 of the Companies Act, which clarifies that a company having a share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company.
 - (iii) Regulations 21, 152, 153 and 154 (Articles 24, 148, 149 and 150 of the Existing Constitution). The requirement to disclose the amount paid on the shares in the share certificate relating to those shares has been removed in Regulation 21, which relates to share certificates. A share certificate need only state, inter alia, the number and class of the shares, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares. This follows the amendments to Section 123(2) of the Companies Act pursuant to the Amendment Acts.

Regulation 21 has also been revised to provide for an alternative means for executing share certificates. Pursuant to the new Section 41A of the Companies Act (as introduced by the 2017 Amendment Act), it is no longer mandatory for a Singapore company to have a common seal. Consequently, the specific requirements relating to the contents of share certificates and for share certificates to be issued under the common seal of the Company, have been removed and replaced with a general provision that every share certificate shall be issued in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act and be under the common seal or signed in the manner set out in the Companies Act. Although Section 123(2) of the Companies Act stipulates that a share certificate is to be issued under the common seal of the Company, pursuant to new Section 41C of the Companies Act (as introduced by the 2017 Amendment Act), the affixation of the common seal to a share certificate may be dispensed with provided that the share certificate is signed:

- (A) on behalf of the Company by a Director and a Secretary of the Company;
- (B) on behalf of the Company by at least two Directors; or
- (C) on behalf of the Company by a Director in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Consequential editorial changes have been made to Regulations 152, 153 and 154 (previously Articles 148, 149 and 150) to make it clear that these provisions are applicable where the Company has a common seal.

- (iv) Regulation 71 (Article 13 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 71, which relates to the Company's power to alter its share capital, has new provisions which empower the Company:
- (A) by ordinary resolution, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with the new Section 73 of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such re-denominations; and
 - (B) by special resolution, subject to the provisions of the Statutes (and to the extent permitted under the Listing Manual), to convert one class of shares into another class of shares. This is in line with the new Section 74A of the Companies Act, which sets out the procedure for such conversions.

For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions in the New Constitution and the Listing Manual do not permit the Company to have a dual-class share structure under which shares in another class carry multiple votes, as such structure is currently only permitted for new listing applicants.

- (v) Regulation 73 (Articles 70 and 71 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 73 relates to the timeline for holding annual general meetings. Regulation 73 is proposed to be revised to (A) remove the specific requirement that, save as otherwise permitted under the Companies Act, an annual general meeting is to be held once in every year, but so that not more than 15 months shall be allowed to elapse between any two annual general meetings, and (B) insert a general provision that an annual general meeting shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act. The proposed revision to Regulation 73 is in line with Section 175 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the 2017 Amendment Act, and will also accommodate any amendments which may be made to the Companies Act from time to time with regard to the timeline for the holding of annual general meetings.

It is to be noted that, as the Company has a primary listing on the SGX-ST, in determining the time and place of a general meeting pursuant to Regulation 73, the Directors are required to comply with Rule 707(1) of the Listing Manual which stipulates that an issuer must hold its annual general meeting within four (4) months from the end of its financial year, and Rule 730A(1) of the Listing Manual, which requires the Company to hold all its general meetings in Singapore, unless prohibited by the relevant laws and regulations of Singapore.

- (vi) Regulation 78 (Article 76 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 78, which relates to the routine business that is transacted at an AGM, includes updates which:
- (A) substitute the reference to "accounts" with "financial statements", and the reference to "reports of the Directors and Auditors" with "Directors' statement" and "Auditor's report", for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act; and
 - (B) clarify the types of Directors' remuneration which will be subject to approval by Shareholders as routine business.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- (vii) Regulation 84(2) (Article 82 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 84(2), which relates to the method of voting at a general meeting where mandatory polling is not required, contains reduced thresholds for the eligibility to demand a poll of 5% (previously one-tenth) of the total voting rights of the members having the right to vote at the meeting, and 5% (previously 10%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right. This is in line with Section 178 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts. Notwithstanding the above, Shareholders should note that voting by poll is mandatory pursuant to Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual.
- (viii) Regulations 90(2), 90(3), 94 and 96(1) (Articles 89, 94 and 96 of the Existing Constitution). Regulations 90(2), 90(3), 94 and 96(1), which relate to the voting rights of Shareholders and the appointment and deposit of proxies, contain new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the Amendment Acts. The multiple proxies regime allows “relevant intermediaries”, such as banks, capital markets services licence holders which provide custodial services for securities and the Central Provident Fund Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meetings. In particular:
- (A) Regulation 90(2) provides that in the case of a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” and who is represented at a general meeting by two or more proxies, each proxy has the right to vote on a show of hands. This is in line with the new Section 181(1D) of the Companies Act;
- (B) Regulation 94(1) provides that subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, a Shareholder who is a “relevant intermediary” may appoint more than two (2) proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder’s form of proxy appoints more than two (2) proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is in line with the new Section 181(1C) of the Companies Act;
- (C) In connection with the above, the relevant time periods for the appointment of proxies before a general meeting have been amended as well.
- Regulation 94(2) provides that the Company will be entitled and bound to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at seventy-two (72) (previously forty-eight (48)) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. Consequential changes have also been made in Regulation 90(3) to provide that the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at seventy-two (72) hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with the new Section 81SJ(4) of the SFA; and
- (D) Regulation 96(1) has been amended to increase the cut-off time for the deposit of instruments appointing proxies from 48 to 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting. This is in line with Section 178(1)(c) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act.
- (ix) Regulation 106(2) (Article 104(2) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 106(2), which relates to the disclosure requirements imposed on Directors in respect of their interest(s) in transactions or proposed transactions or of any office or property held by him which might create duties or interests in conflict with his duties or interests as a Director or such officer (as the case may be), has been amended to extend such disclosure requirements to any relevant officer of the Company to whom Section 156 of the Companies Act applies. This is in line with the new Section 156 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- (x) Regulation 115 (Article 118 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 115, which relates to the Directors' power to fill casual vacancies and to appoint additional Directors, provides that the Company may also do so by ordinary resolution. This is in line with the new Section 149B of the Companies Act, which provides that unless the constitution otherwise provides, a company may appoint a director by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting.
- (xi) Regulation 120 (Article 127 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 120, which relates to the general powers of the Directors to manage the Company's business, has been amended to clarify that the business and affairs of the Company are to be managed by, or under the direction of or, additionally, under the supervision of, the Directors. This is in line with Section 157A of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act.
- (xii) Regulation 147 (Article 146 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 147, which relates to the keeping of minutes and company records, has been amended to provide that the Company's records may be kept either in hard copy or electronic form. This is in line with the new Section 395 of the Companies Act. Where the Company's records are kept otherwise than in hard copy, the Directors must take reasonable precautions to ensure the proper maintenance and authenticity of such records. This is in line with the new Section 396 of the Companies Act.
- (xiii) Regulation 152 (Article 148 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 152, which relates to the use of the common seal of the Company, has been updated in the New Constitution to take into account the new Sections 41B and 41C of the Companies Act which remove the formal execution requirement and affixation of a common seal onto a document to be executed as a deed by the Company. This is related to the elimination of the requirement of companies to have a common seal under Section 41A of the Companies Act. Section 41B provides that a company may execute a document described or expressed as a deed without affixing a common seal but may do so by way of a signature (a) on behalf of the company by a director of the company and a secretary of the company; (b) on behalf of the company by at least two directors of the company; or (c) on behalf of the company by a director of the company in the presence of a witness who attests the signature, and a document executed in accordance with this manner would have the same effect as a document executed under the common seal of the company. Section 41C extends the effect of Section 41B by providing, inter alia, that where any written law or rule of law requires a document to be executed under the common seal of a company, that requirement of execution by way of common seal is satisfied if the document is signed in the manner as set out in Section 41B.
- (xiv) Regulation 176 (Articles 172 and 173 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 176, which relates to the sending of the Company's financial statements and related documents to Shareholders, now provides that such documents may, subject to the listing rules of the SGX-ST, be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings. This is in line with the new Section 203(2) of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this proviso, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing Manual, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholders and the SGX-ST at least 14 days before the date of its annual general meeting. The requirement to send these documents to debenture holders has also been removed in Regulation 176.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Where applicable, the references to the Company's "accounts", "profit and loss account(s)" and Directors' "reports" have also been updated/substituted with references, or additional references, to "financial statements" and Directors' "statements", as appropriate, for consistency with the updated terminology in the Companies Act. This is in line with the new Section 201 of the Companies Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts.

- (xv) Regulations 181 and 182 (Articles 178, 179, 183 and 185 of the Existing Constitution). Regulations 181 and 182, which relate to the service of notices and documents to Shareholders, facilitates the electronic transmission of notices and documents following the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to the new Section 387C of the Companies Act. Companies may, subject to certain statutory safeguards, make use of these simplified procedures where a member has given express, implied or deemed consent for the company to do so in accordance with the constitution of the company.

In this regard:

- (A) there is express consent if a shareholder expressly agrees with the company that notices and documents may be given, sent or served on him using electronic communications;
- (B) there is deemed consent if the constitution:
- (I) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
 - (II) specifies that shareholders will be given an opportunity to elect, within a specified period of time, whether to receive electronic or physical copies of such notices and documents, and the shareholder fails to make an election within the specified period of time.

This is also provided for in Rule 1209(1)(a) of the Listing Manual; and

- (C) there is implied consent if the constitution:
- (I) provides for the use of electronic communications and specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
 - (II) provides that shareholders agree to receive such notices or documents by way of electronic communications and do not have a right to elect to receive physical copies of such notices and documents.

This is also provided for in Rule 1209(2) of the Listing Manual.

Regulation 182(1) has therefore been amended to provide that notices and other documents may be sent to Members using electronic communications either to a Member's current address (which may be an email address), by making it available on a website prescribed by the Company or in such manner as such Member expressly consents to by giving notice in writing to the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraphs above, the Company's introduction and use of electronic transmission of notice and/or documents are subject to the Listing Manual and any additional safeguards and/or restrictions as the SGX-ST may impose from time to time.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Regulation 182(2) is a new regulation which provides that a Shareholder is implied to have given his consent, and agrees to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications and does not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document, unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act, the Listing Manual or applicable laws.

Regulation 182(3) further states that notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Directors may, at their discretion, decide to give Shareholders an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications, if he was given such an opportunity but failed to make an election within the specified time, unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act, the Listing Manual or applicable laws.

Regulation 182(5) provides for when service is deemed to have been effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it shall be treated as sent to a person on the date on which the notice or document is first made available on the website unless otherwise provided under the Companies Act and/or other applicable regulations or procedures.

Regulation 182(6) is inserted to provide for certain safeguards in relation to the use of the deemed consent and implied consent regimes. Where a notice or document is made available on a website, the Company shall give separate notice to the Member of the following:

- I. the publication of the document on the website;
- II. if the document is not available on the website on the date of notification, the date on which it will be available;
- III. the address of the website;
- IV. the place on the website where the document may be accessed; and
- V. how to access the document.

This is in line with regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations made pursuant to Section 411 of the Companies Act.

Under Section 387C(4) of the Companies Act, regulations may be made to exclude any notice or document or any class of notices or documents from the application of Section 387C of the Companies Act, provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communication under Section 387C of the Companies Act, and provide that a shareholder who is deemed to have consented to receive notices or documents by way of electronic communication may make a fresh election to receive such notice or document as a physical copy and the manner in which the fresh election may be made. Under regulation 89D of the Companies Regulations, notices or documents relating to take-over offers and rights issues are excluded from the application of Section 387C of the Companies Act.

On 22 March 2017, the SGX-ST announced that listed companies can electronically transmit documents to members, and the Listing Manual amended in connection therewith took effect on 31 March 2017, subject to additional safeguards prescribed under the Listing Manual. The Company will comply with the requirements of the Companies Act and the Listing Manual, in particular Rules 1209 to 1212 of the Listing Manual, if and when it decides to transmit notices and documents electronically to its Members.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Rule 1211 of the Listing Manual provides that when an issuer uses electronic communications to send a document to a shareholder, the issuer shall inform the shareholder as soon as practicable of how to request for a physical copy of that document from the issuer and the issuer shall provide a physical copy of that document upon such request. Therefore, Regulation 182(4) has been inserted in the New Constitution to provide that the Company shall send to Members physical copies of such notices or documents as may be specified by law or the listing rules of the SGX-ST.

Rule 1210 of the Listing Manual provides that an issuer shall send the following documents to its shareholders by way of physical copies: (i) forms of acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to complete; (ii) notices of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred to in that notice; (iii) notices and documents relating to takeover offers and rights issues; and (iv) notices under Rules 1211 and 1212 of the Listing Manual. This is provided for in the new Regulation 182(4) of the New Constitution that notwithstanding Regulations 182(2) and 182(3), the Company shall send physical copies of any notices or documents where the Companies Act or the Listing Manual provides that such notices or documents must be by way of physical copies.

- (xvi) Regulation 191 (Article 190 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 191, which relates to Directors' indemnification, has been expanded to permit the Company, subject to the provisions of and so far as may be permitted by the Companies Act, to indemnify a Director against losses "to be incurred" by him in the execution of his duties. This is in line with the new Sections 163A and 163B of the Companies Act, which permit a company to lend, on specified terms, funds to a director for meeting expenditure incurred "or to be incurred" by the director in defending court proceedings or regulatory investigations.

(b) Listing Manual

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent documents, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of amendment.

The following regulations have been updated to ensure consistency with the listing rules of the SGX-ST prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Manual:

- (i) New Regulation 84(1). Regulation 84(1), which relates to the method of voting at general meetings, has new provisions to make it clear that, if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, all resolutions at general meetings shall be voted by poll (unless such requirement is waived by the SGX-ST). These changes are in line with Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Manual which requires all resolutions at general meetings to be voted by poll.
- (ii) Regulation 86 (Articles 84 and 85 of Existing Constitution). Regulation 86, which relates to conduct of the poll and incidental matters, makes it clear that scrutineers will be appointed, if so required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST. This is in line with Rule 730A(3) of the Listing Manual which took effect on 1 August 2015.
- (iii) Regulation 94 (Article 94 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 94, which sets out provisions relating to proxies including rights relating to their appointment, has been amended to provide that:

- (iv) Regulations 109 and 113 (Articles 112 and 115 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 109, which relates to the vacation of office of a Director in certain events, additionally provides that a Director shall cease to hold office if he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. Consequential changes have been made to Regulation 113, which relates to the filling of the office vacated by a retiring Director in certain default events, to provide that a retiring Director is deemed to be re-elected in certain default circumstances except, additionally, where he is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. (c) PDPA

In general, under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012, an organisation can only collect, use or disclose personal data of an individual with the individual's consent, and for a reasonable purpose which the organisation has been made known to the individual. The new Regulation 193 specifies, inter alia, the purposes for which the Company and/or its agents and service providers would collect, use and disclose personal data of Shareholders and their appointed proxies or representatives.

(d) General

The following regulations have been included in the New Constitution, or have been removed, updated, streamlined and rationalised generally:

- (i) Removal of Articles 8A, 8B and 8C of the Existing Constitution. These Articles set out the terms of the Series A Preference Shares, Series B Preference Shares and Non-Redeemable Convertible Cumulative Preference Shares previously issued, which have been converted in full to ordinary shares in the capital of the Company (with the last conversion taking place in 2018). As the Company does not intend to issue any such shares having such terms in the future, these Articles have been removed in the New Constitution.
- (ii) Regulations 29, 38, 91 and 109 (Articles 37, 47, 90 and 112 of the Existing Constitution). These Regulations have been updated to substitute the references to insanity, lunatics and persons of unsound mind with references to mental disorder and persons who are "mentally disordered" and incapable of managing themselves or their affairs, following the enactment of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) Act 2008 of Singapore, which repealed and replaced the Mental Disorders and Treatment Act.
- (iii) Regulations 95 and 96 (Articles 93 and 96 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 95, which relates to the appointment of proxies, has new provisions to facilitate the appointment of a proxy through electronic means online. In particular, it provides that a Shareholder can elect to authorise the appointment of a proxy via electronic communication, through such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors, in lieu of the present requirement of signing, or where applicable, the affixation of the corporate Shareholders' common seal or execution thereof as a deed in accordance with the Companies Act.

APPENDIX TO NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

For the purpose of accommodating the deposit by Shareholders, and receipt by the Company, of electronic proxy instructions by Shareholders who elect to use the electronic appointment process, Regulation 96, which relates to the deposit of proxies, has new provisions which allow the deposit of the instrument appointing a proxy through electronic means, which must be specified by the Company in the notice convening the meeting. This is in line with the new Section 181(1B) and (1BA) of the Companies Act.

- (iv) New Regulation 100. Regulation 100 will be inserted to allow for the Board to implement such voting methods to allow for members to vote in absentia, including but not limited to voting by mail, electronic mail, or facsimile, subject to necessary security measures. This is in line with Provision 11.4 of the 2018 Code of Corporate Governance.
- (v) Regulation 172 (Article 167 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 172, which relates to the Directors' power to issue free shares and/or to capitalise reserves for share-based incentive plans, has been expanded to empower the Directors to do the same for the benefit of non-executive Directors as part of their Directors' remuneration. This will enable the Company, if it so desires, to remunerate its non-executive Directors by way of Directors' fees in the form of shares, or in a combination of cash and shares, using these methods.
- (vi) New Regulation 188 and Regulation 190 (Article 187 of the Existing Constitution). With effect from 30 July 2020, certain provisions relating to corporate insolvency and restructuring were migrated from the Companies Act to the IRDA. In line with these changes, a new Regulation 188 has been inserted to provide that subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and the IRDA, the Directors shall have the power to present a petition to court in the name of the Company for the Company to be wound up. Consequential amendments have been made to Regulation 190, which relates to the distribution of assets in specie, to, inter alia, clarify that such distributions may only be made with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Companies Act as well as the IRDA.

60. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell all or any of the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until a notice in writing stating the amount due and demanding payment and giving notice of intention to sell in default, shall have been served in such a manner as the Directors shall think fit on such Member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, and default in payment shall have been made by him or them for fourteen (14) days after such notice. After his name has been entered in the Register of Members or the Depository Register the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

ANNEX 2 – NEW CONSTITUTION

- | | | |
|-----|--|-------------------------|
| 65. | When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may transfer their respective interests therein or any part of such interests in such manner as the Company in general meeting shall direct, but in the absence of such direction, the respective interests may be transferred in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as the shares from which the stock arose would have been transferred prior to conversion or as near thereto as circumstances will admit. But the Directors may if they think fit from time to time fix the minimum number of stock units transferable. | Transfer of stock |
| 66. | The holders of stock shall, according to the number of stock units held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividend, return of capital, voting and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except as regards dividend and return of capital and the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by the number of stock units which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage, and no such conversion shall affect or prejudice any preference or other special privileges attached to the shares so converted. | Rights of stock-holders |

The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined. After the expiration of that time or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares), in the opinion of the Directors, cannot be conveniently offered under this regulation 68(1). | Offer of new shares to members |

Except as herein otherwise provided, two (2) Members present in person shall form a quorum. For the purposes of this regulation, 'Member' includes a person attending as a proxy and a corporation being a Member shall be deemed to be personally present if represented in accordance with the provisions of Section 179(3) of the Act and such corporation's representative is not otherwise entitled to be present at the meeting as a Member or proxy or as a corporate representative of another Member. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (or if that day is a public holiday then the next business day following that public holiday) at the same time and place or to such other day, time or place as the Directors may determine. ANNEX 2 – NEW CONSTITUTION

83. The Chairman of any meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time (or sine die) and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Where a meeting is adjourned sine die, the time and place for the adjourned meeting shall be fixed by the Directors. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more or sine die, not less than seven (7) days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in like manner as in the case of the original meeting. - (2) Subject to regulation 84(1), at any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by:

Mandatory Polling

Method of voting
where mandatory
polling not required

A demand for a poll made pursuant to regulation 84(2) may be withdrawn only with the approval of the Chairman of the meeting, and any such demand shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded. Unless a poll is so demanded (and the demand is not withdrawn), a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost and an entry to that effect in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

ANNEX 2 – NEW CONSTITUTION

85. In the case of an equality of votes whether on a poll or on a show of hands, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled to as a Member or as a proxy of a Member. Equality of votes
86. Subject to regulation 87, where a poll is taken, it shall be taken in such manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) and at such time (not being more than thirty (30) days from the date of the meeting) and place as the Chairman of the meeting may direct and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken. No notice need be given of a poll not taken at once. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the Chairman shall determine the same and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive. The Chairman of the meeting may (and, if required by the listing rules of the Exchange (and where applicable, any other securities exchange upon which the shares in the Company are listed) or if so directed by the meeting shall) appoint scrutineer(s) and may adjourn the meeting to some place and time fixed by him for the purpose of declaring the result of the poll. How a poll is to be taken
87. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on a question of adjournment. A poll on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such subsequent time as the Chairman of the meeting may direct. No notice need be given of a poll not taken at once. Time for taking a poll
88. Subject to the listing rules of the Exchange (and where applicable, any other securities exchange upon which the shares in the Company are listed), if at any general meeting any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted or might have been rejected, or if votes are not counted which ought to have been counted, the error shall not vitiate the result of the vote unless it is pointed out at the same meeting at which the vote is taken or at any adjournment thereof, and is in the opinion of the Chairman of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the result of the voting. The decision of the Chairman of the meeting on such matters shall be final and conclusive. Error in counting votes
89. Subject to the Act and to the listing rules of the Exchange (and where applicable, any other securities exchange upon which the shares in the Company are listed) the Members may, if the Directors at their absolute discretion deem fit, participate at a general meeting by telephone or video conference or by means of similar communication equipment whereby all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and be heard, see and speak by any means of synchronous communication that the Directors may determine and such participation shall constitute presence in person at such meeting and Members (or their proxy or, in the case of a corporation, their respective corporate representatives) so participating shall be counted in the quorum for the meeting. Subject to the listing rules of the Exchange (and where applicable, any other securities exchange upon which the shares in the Company are listed), such a meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of Members (or their proxy, or in the case of a corporation, their respective corporate representatives) present for purposes of the meeting is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the Chairman of the meeting is present. ANNEX 2 – NEW CONSTITUTION

VOTES OF MEMBERS

90. (1) Each Member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or attorney, and (in the case of a corporation) by a representative. A person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way. Voting rights of Members

For the purpose of determining the number of votes which a Depositor or his proxy may cast on a poll, the Depositor or his proxy shall be deemed to hold or represent that number of shares entered in the Depositor’s Securities Account at the cut-off time as certified by the Depository to the Company, or where a Depositor has apportioned the balance standing to his Securities Account as at the cut-off time between two (2) proxies, to apportion the said number of shares between the two (2) proxies in the same proportion as specified by the Depositor in appointing the proxies; and accordingly no instrument appointing a proxy of a Depositor shall be rendered invalid merely by reason of any discrepancy between the number of shares standing to the credit of that Depositor’s Securities Account as at the cut-off time, and the true balance standing to the Securities Account of a Depositor as at the time of the relevant general meeting, if the instrument is dealt with in such manner as aforesaid.
