ANNOUNCEMENT

Further to the announcement on 16 October 2018, Keppel Infrastructure Trust ("KIT") confirms that it has been selected as the preferred bidder for Blackstone's sale of its entire stake in Ixom Holdco Pty Ltd ("Ixom").

Based in Australia and New Zealand, Ixom manufactures as well as distributes essential water treatment chemicals and other chemicals. Ixom owns an extensive infrastructure network that includes chlor-alkali plants, import and storage terminals, and distribution assets.

After being selected as the preferred bidder, KIT will complete any final stage due diligence and enter into negotiations to finalise the share sale agreement. There is no certainty or assurance that a transaction will materialise or be concluded.

Unitholders of KIT are advised to exercise caution when dealing in units in KIT and should seek their own professional advisers and consult with their own stockbrokers should they have any questions on dealing with their units in KIT.

Keppel Infrastructure Fund Management Pte. Ltd., as trustee-manager of KIT, will make further announcements as appropriate, if and when there are any material developments which warrant disclosure.
