IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sheffield Green Subsidiary Signs MOU with Vestas to Explore Training Services in Taiwan

- Wind Asia Training Pte Ltd and Vestas Offshore Wind Taiwan Limited will explore training services collaboration for Vestas personnel in Taiwan
- Vestas intends to assess WATPL's Chiayi facilities for technical training and GWO-certified programmes
- Both parties will also explore training opportunities in Japan and other Asia-Pacific markets

Singapore, 2 March, 2026 – Sheffield Green (SGX: SGR) (“Sheffield Green”, the “Company”, and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”), a leading human resource services provider for the renewable energy industry, wishes to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary, Wind Asia Training Pte Ltd (“WATPL”), has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Vestas Offshore Wind Taiwan Limited (“Vestas”). The MOU outlines the parties’ mutual intention to explore cooperation on training services for Vestas personnel in Taiwan, and potentially, across the Asia-Pacific region.

The MOU establishes a framework for discussions on how WATPL’s training facilities and capabilities in Taiwan may support workforce development and training activities for Vestas, subject to future agreement between the parties.

Under the MOU, Vestas intends to assess WATPL’s training infrastructure in Chiayi for selected technical training activities for its local workforce in Taiwan. WATPL may also provide Global Wind Organisation (GWO) training and other relevant health, safety, and skills-based training to meet Vestas' requirements, subject to applicable standards and future commercial arrangements.

The parties also intend to explore opportunities to support training requirements in Japan and other Asia-Pacific markets, subject to further discussions and agreement.

Gavin Taylor, CEO of WATPL, commented; “Wind Asia Training was established to deliver high quality training services across the Asia-Pacific region and to support workforce skills development within the wind industry. This MOU represents a valuable opportunity to explore areas of cooperation with Vestas to support their training requirements in Taiwan, and potentially other regional markets, subject to further agreement.”
