INFORMATION REQUIRED PERSUANT TO LISTING RULE 704 (7) OR CATALIST RULE 704(6)

(f) Whether at any time during the last 10 years, judgment has been entered against him in any civil proceedings in Singapore or elsewhere involving a breach of any law or regulatory requirement that relates to the securities or futures industry in Singapore or elsewhere, or a finding of fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty on his part, or he has been the subject of any civil proceedings (including any pending civil proceedings of which he is aware) involving an allegation of fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty on his part?

In 2021, GCBA filed a civil suit against two defendants, HN Singapore Pte Ltd ("HN Singapore"), a company incorporated in Singapore which Mr. Nicholas Eng is the sole director and shareholder, and Mr. Nicholas Eng for, inter alia, a breach of contract, misrepresentation and requests for the corporate veil to be lifted (the "Civil Suit").

The dispute arose from HN Singapore's failure to supply the Covid-19 test kits to GCBA pursuant to a sale and purchase agreement entered into with HN Singapore.

On 12 May 2023, the High Court allowed GCBA's claims against HN Singapore for damages of US$237,619.35 on a joint and several basis, and Mr. Nicholas Eng was also held personally liable for the said damages sum as a result of the lifting of the HN Singapore's corporate veil.

GCBA had also alleged that Mr. Nicholas Eng had misrepresented HN Singapore's ability to deliver the test kits. The High Court rejected GCBA's claim against Mr. Nicholas Eng for misrepresentation.

On 8 August 2023, Mr. Nicholas Eng filed an appeal against the High Court's decision on the lifting of HN Singapore's corporate veil.

On 15 May 2024, the Court of Appeal of the Republic of Singapore (the "Court of Appeal") allowed Mr. Nicholas Eng's appeal against the High Court's decision on the lifting of corporate veil and awarded Mr. Nicholas Eng costs of S$120,000 for prevailing in the appeal. However, the Court of Appeal maintained the costs order against Mr. Nicholas Eng as ordered by the High Court. Accordingly, Mr. Nicholas Eng was liable for a payment of S$47,210 to GCBA (plus interest costs to be determined) which was the net result of the costs orders.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Court of Appeal dismissed the GCBA's cross-appeal on its claims for misrepresentation.
