SGX Group welcomes Navira Financial Market as Derivatives Trading Member

SGX Group (Singapore Exchange) is pleased to welcome Navira Financial Market (Navira) as a trading member of its derivatives market.

Headquartered in Dubai, United Arab Emirates (UAE), Navira is a multi-asset broker-dealer licensed and regulated by the UAE Capital Market Authority. Established in 2025, the company provides institutional and corporate clients with execution and clearing services across equities, fixed income, foreign exchange and exchange-traded derivatives in global and regional markets.

Dima Nedvetsky, CEO, Navira Financial Market, said, “It is an important milestone for us to join SGX as a trading member of their derivatives market. SGX is a key gateway to Asian and global derivatives markets, and direct membership allows us to offer our clients in the UAE and the wider Middle East efficient, well-regulated access to SGX’s multi-asset offering. We are grateful to the SGX team for their support throughout the admission process and look forward to building a long-term partnership.”

Pol de Win, Head of Global Sales and Origination, SGX Group, said, “The economic corridor between the Middle East and Asia is deepening rapidly. As capital flows increasingly calibrate across the two high-growth regions, SGX serves as a vital infrastructure bridge. Navira joining our derivatives market gives institutional clients in the Middle East direct, regulated access to Asia’s vibrant markets, and we are pleased to partner with Navira to strengthen opportunities for clients across the region.”

With the admission of Navira Financial Market, SGX Group’s derivatives market now has a total of 70 Trading Members.
