CMA CGM ANNOUNCES FIRM INTENTION TO MAKE VOLUNTARY CONDITIONAL GENERAL OFFER TO ACQUIRE NOL

Marseille (France), 30 May 2016 – Following the satisfaction and waiver (as the case may be) of the pre-conditions set forth in the Pre-Conditional Offer Announcement dated 7 December 2015, CMA CGM S.A. (CMA CGM), a global leader in container shipping, today announced its firm intention to make an all-cash voluntary conditional general offer (Offer) for all the outstanding shares of Neptune Orient Lines Limited (NOL), other than those it already owns, controls or has agreed to acquire.

The Offer Price is SGD 1.30 in cash per NOL share, which CMA CGM does not intend to increase.

Further details of the Offer are set out in the Offer Announcement dated 30 May 2016, and full details of the Offer will be set out in the Composite Document, which will comprise the Offer Document and NOL's circular to its shareholders, to be despatched to NOL shareholders as soon as practicable following the date of the Offer Announcement.

For more information about the Offer, please visit the dedicated website www.ccn-web.com.

This press release should be read in conjunction with the Offer Announcement dated 30 May 2016. Shareholders of NOL are advised to read all the documents relating to the Offer that are filed with the Singapore Exchange ("SGX-ST") when they become available because they contain important information. Copies of the documents may be obtained, when available, from the website of the SGX-ST (www.sgx.com).

The directors of CMA CGM (including any who may have delegated detailed supervision of this press release) have taken all reasonable care to ensure that facts stated and all opinions expressed in this press release are fair and accurate and that no material facts have been omitted from this press release, the omission of which would make any statement in this press release misleading, and they jointly and severally accept responsibility accordingly. Where any information has been extracted or reproduced from published or publicly available sources or obtained from NOL, the sole responsibility of the directors of CMA CGM has been to ensure through reasonable enquiries that such information is accurately extracted from such sources or, as the case may be, reflected or reproduced in this press release.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS IN THE US

The Offer described in this press release will be made in the U.S. pursuant to Section 14(e) of, and Regulation 14E under, the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "U.S. Exchange Act"), subject to the exemptions provided by Rule 14d-1(c) under the U.S. Exchange Act, and otherwise in accordance with the requirements of Singapore law and the applicable rules and regulations of the SGX-ST. Accordingly, the Offer will be subject to disclosure and other procedural requirements, including with respect to withdrawal rights, settlement procedures and timing of payments that are different from those applicable under U.S. domestic tender offer procedures and laws. U.S. holders of NOL shares are encouraged to consult with their own advisors regarding the Offer.

The Offer relates to the securities of a non-US company, which is subject to disclosure requirements of a foreign country that are different from those of the United States. Financial statements presented in the Offer have been prepared in accordance with foreign accounting standards that may not be comparable to the financial statements of United States companies.

It may be difficult for an investor to enforce any rights and any claim it may have arising under U.S. federal securities laws, since CMA CGM and NOL have their corporate headquarters outside of the United States, and some or all of their officers and directors may be residents of foreign countries. An investor may not be able to sue a foreign company or its officers or directors in a foreign court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. It may be difficult to compel a foreign company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.
