THE FUTURE IS FLEX

STANDING STRONG

Antarctic Penguins are adaptable to the harshest environmental conditions – extremely frigid temperatures (as low as minus 50 degrees Celsius) and ferocious wind gusts (exceeding 200 kilometres per hour). Despite the harsh surroundings, penguins have risen above their circumstances and learnt to stand strong and thrive amidst nature's wildest ravages.

The penguin's quiet stoicism in the face of adversity is a story that continues to inspire us today. In recent years, the management and staff of Penguin International Limited have come face to face with numerous challenges that rival the cold winds bearing down on the Antarctic Penguins. Like the penguins, we stood strong and overcame every challenge with courage, fortitude and ingenuity.

Flex Fighter: More than 40 delivered and counting.

STAYING AHEAD

In the water, penguins are able to dive deeper and adapt to crushing water pressures much better than any other aquatic bird. This innate skill has enabled penguins to exploit food sources well beyond the capabilities of their competitors.

Similarly, Penguin International Limited's integrated capabilities as a designer-builder-owner-operator have enabled us to capture new opportunities amidst fierce competition, backed by our strong balance sheet, our Flex brand, our global network and our pricing power as one of the world's most cost-effective crewboat builders and operators.

Flex-42X: Our new flagship Flex crewboat – 30 knots, full business class.

PURSUING GROWTH

Penguins are excellent navigators – Emperor Penguins have been known to walk hundreds of kilometres in search of food, and yet be able to find their way back to their colony months later. Their built-in navigation system enables them to instinctively know where they have been and where they are heading in a featureless landscape of ice and snow.

The management and staff of Penguin International Limited are committed to developing new high-speed craft designs and applications. We avoid getting “lost” by staying true to our core values and capabilities.

WELCOME TO THE HOME OF THE FLEX

PENGUIN IS A SINGAPOREAN
HOMEGROWN, PUBLICLY LISTED
DESIGNER, BUILDER, OWNER
AND OPERATOR OF ALUMINIUM
HIGH-SPEED CRAFT.

Since 1995, we have delivered more than 150 aluminium workboats, patrol craft and passenger ferries to ship owners around the world, including over 120 of our proprietary-designed Flex crewboats and Flex Fighter security boats.

In fact, Penguin is the world's most prolific builder of mid-sized, multi-role crewboats for the offshore and maritime security industries. That is how the Flex became the industry standard.

Whether you are fending off pirates in inland waterways or transporting rig workers in open seas, we have the Flex to suit your needs.

Our crewboats are jointly developed by our integrated in-house shipbuilding and ship management teams in Singapore, backed by more than two decades of experience.

At Penguin, we typically own and operate what we design and build. Our fleet of crewboats and passenger ferries serve our clients in and around Southeast Asia.

In addition, our shipyards in Singapore and Batam, Indonesia, operate a self-funded build-for-stock programme for our Flex crewboats and Flex Fighter security boats.

We also undertake build-to-order projects, as well as repair and conversion projects for a variety of high-speed craft, including fire fighting search-and-rescue vessels, patrol boats and passenger ferries.

Whether you are a ship owner or a charterer, you will enjoy peace of mind with the Penguin brand, which stands for integrity, professionalism and mutual respect.

A JOINT LETTER FROM
OUR CHAIRMAN &
OUR MANAGING DIRECTOR

AGAINST THE TIDE

MR. JEFFREY
HING YIH PEIR
Executive Chairman

MR. JAMES
THAM TUCK CHOONG
Managing Director

DEAR FELLOW SHAREHOLDERS,

STANDING STRONG AGAINST THE TIDE

The Home of the Flex is a happier place these days. Happier because we have managed to reduce our stock of more than a dozen Flex crewboats. Happier because our crewboat chartering business is improving. Happier because we are getting busier.

In FY2017, we posted a net profit after tax of $3.1 million, reversing a loss of $6.4 million the previous year. Revenue over the period rose by 156% to $85.4 million, while gross profit grew 39% to $20.4 million.

Our favourite yardsticks, cash and cash equivalents, and cash ratio (cash and cash equivalents over total current liabilities), stood at $38.0 million and 1.5 at the end of 2017, versus $18.4 million and 0.6 the previous year.

The worst does appear to be over for Penguin. Having said that, we are far from returning to the proverbial “rolling good times”, as evidenced from our modest profit margins.

This is hardly surprising, given that the harsh macro-reality in FY2017 was pretty much carried over from the previous year: Financing for this sector is still elusive, charter rates remain under pressure and ship owners and builders are still struggling. This is the tide that we have been up against since the crisis began, but we are making some headway, by the grace of God.

In addition to selling down our stock of newbuild crewboats last year, including several to a repeat buyer, we also sold seven vessels from our operating fleet.

While the average margins from our stock sale were modest, we were not under any selling pressure because we had the holding power (which allowed us to be patient), our own shipyards (which enabled us to efficiently maintain our stock vessels) and a team of resilient employees (who never stopped believing).

STAYING AHEAD OF THE COMPETITION

We are confident of clearing all our remaining stock Flexes in 1Q2018, which is why we have restarted our Flex production line in our Batam shipyard, PT Kim Seah Shipyard Indonesia. As usual, we are not at liberty to disclose the details of our build-for-stock programme, but safe to say, we see demand for Flex crewboats and Flex Fighter security boats in a market that is bereft of modern newbuilds that are economically sensible.

By modern newbuilds, we are talking about crewboats that can travel at speeds of up to 30 knots or more, with improved creature comforts such as full business class seating and passenger chill-out zones; and security boats with increased levels of ballistic and overall protection.

On that front, our newest flagship 30-knot crewboat (Flex-42X) “Pelican Calm” has found favour with oil companies in Malaysia and is currently on charter to an oil major.

In addition, our 2018 Flex Fighters currently under construction will feature several new enhancements in security and comfort.

By economically sensible, we are talking about designing and building pragmatic ships that can operate profitably in both good times and bad. This means regularly saying no to excessive “bling” and overly specialised equipment or material that offer only marginal cost-benefits.

For our stock programme, as always, we are leveraging on our proven strengths, namely our strong balance sheet, our market sense and reputation, and our close ties with our vendors and subcontractors (our project partners).

To reiterate a common refrain: We do not specifically borrow to build for stock and we build sensibly.

This discipline saw us through the worst times and will see us through to better times, as we leverage on the Flex-42X and 2018 Flex Fighter to keep us ahead of the pack and grow the Penguin brand.

PURSUING GROWTH IN NEW MARKETS

More significantly, we are making headway in non-traditional markets such as fireboats and patrol boats.

Our project with the Singapore Civil Defence Force involving the design, construction and maintenance of one monohull Marine Rescue Vessel (MRV) and one catamaran Heavy Rescue Vessel (HRV) – both FiFi-1 Classed, Search-and-Rescue vessels – is progressing well, within budget and on schedule.

We are hopeful of landing more non-traditional build-to-order projects in 2018 as we reach out to new markets locally and overseas.

Still on the subject of non-traditional moves, Penguin invested $8 million in Marco Polo Marine Limited for a 8.12% share on 25 January 2018. Our investment – which was contingent on a successful debt restructuring programme put forward by the Marco Polo management – was based strictly on value and an understanding of the assets. At the end of the day, we are simply investors seeking a good return.

On the chartering front, we are seeing better utilisation rates for our own Flex crew boats. Apart from a slight increase in offshore exploration and development activity in parts of Southeast Asia, which translates into higher demand for crew boat charters, we also see growth potential in “chopper swappers” – offshore personnel making a switch from helicopters to crew boats. This transition from air to sea, while economically beneficial to oil companies, is psychologically challenging to chopper passengers and calls for a transformation of mindsets through a comprehensive change management programme.

AGENT OF CHANGE

A key element of this change management is the speed and comfort of modern crewboats. While one cannot reasonably expect a crewboat to operate at flight speeds, one can expect a crewboat to provide greater comfort and improved safety at reasonable sea speeds. As a matter of fact, you cannot lie back to read a magazine, banter with a colleague or even have a sandwich in a helicopter.

Meanwhile, our ferry projects in Singapore remain stable as we continue to market our older ferries for opportunistic sales. To meet the shortfall in pax capacity arising from the ferry sales, we converted our catamaran ferry “Penguin Redeem” (a Flex-25 CAT) from 112 pax to 260 pax. This was a major conversion project undertaken by our Batam shipyard and involved the design, fabrication and installation of a new superstructure and relocation of the bridge and key equipment. Today, “Penguin Redeem” is successfully deployed in Changi as one of Singapore’s largest harbour craft-licensed ferries.

A THANKFUL HEART

Our resilience in this crisis was built on Penguin’s unique business model as a fully integrated designer-builder-owner-operator of high-speed aluminium vessels.

Above all, we are grateful to Almighty God for all the blessings bestowed on us in good times and bad, and thankful for our employees, our board of directors, our clients, our project partners and you, our shareholders.

Thank you.

6. review and endorse the framework of remuneration for the Board and key management personnel as recommended by the Remuneration Committee;
7. approve the nominations to the Board of Directors and appointment of key management personnel, as recommended by the Nominating Committee; and
8. assume responsibility for corporate governance and compliance with the Companies Act, Cap. 50 (the “Companies Act”) and the rules and requirements of relevant regulatory bodies.

Delegation of the Board

The Board has delegated specific responsibilities to three committees namely, the Audit Committee (“AC”), the Nominating Committee (“NC”) and the Remuneration Committee (“RC”) to assist in the execution of its responsibilities. Each committee has its own written terms of reference which clearly sets out its objectives, duties, powers and responsibilities and which has been amended to be in line with the Code. Minutes of all Board Committees have been circulated to the Board so that Directors are aware of and are kept updated as to the proceedings and matters discussed during the Committees’ meetings.

Attendance at Board and Committee Meetings

The Board conducts regular scheduled meetings on a quarterly basis. Ad-hoc meetings are convened when circumstances require. The Company’s Constitution permits Directors to attend meetings by telephone conference. Between Board meetings, important matters concerning the Company are also put to the Board for its decision by way of circulating resolutions in writing for Directors’ approval together with supporting memoranda to enable the Directors to make informed decisions.

The attendance at meetings of the Board and other Committees during the FY2017 is as follows:

In addition to the above, the Independent Directors have also met with the internal auditors and external auditors without the presence of the Executive Directors or Management at least once annually.

Matters Requiring Board Approval

The Board has adopted a set of internal guidelines on matters requiring Board approval. Matters that are specifically reserved for the approval of the Board include, among others, any material acquisitions and disposals of assets, corporate or financial restructuring, proposing of dividends, annual budgets, significant legal and financial issues, announceable matters, interested person transactions, appointment of directors and key management staff and other matters as may be considered by the Board from time to time.

Board Orientation and Training

The Board ensures that incoming new Directors are given proper guidance and orientation (including on-site visits to the Group’s operational facilities) to familiarise them with the Group’s business, operations, financial performance and key management staff of the Group as well as corporate governance practices upon their appointment to facilitate the effective discharge of their duties. A formal letter is sent to each new Director, upon his appointment, setting out the Director’s statutory duties and obligations. Newly appointed Directors will be encouraged to attend at the Company’s expense, courses relating to the Singapore regulatory environment and audit essentials. Directors have the opportunity to visit the Group’s operational sites and to meet Management to gain a better understanding of the Group’s business operations. All Directors are also encouraged to constantly keep abreast of developments in regulatory, legal and accounting frameworks that are relevant to the Group through the extension of opportunities for participation in relevant training courses, seminars and workshops where applicable, at the Company’s expense. The Board as a whole, is updated regularly on risk management, corporate governance and key changes in the relevant regulatory requirements and accounting standards. New releases issued by the SGX-ST and the Accounting and Regulatory Authority which are relevant to the directors are circulated to the Board.

PRINCIPLE 2: BOARD COMPOSITION & GUIDANCE

The Board and its Committees comprise Directors who as a group provide an appropriate balance and diversity of skills and experience including financial, legal and business management. Each Director provides a valuable network of industry contacts which are considered essential to the Group.

Half of the Board are Independent Directors and all Board Committees are chaired by Independent Directors.

There is a strong and independent element on the Board. The Board is able to exercise objective judgement independently from Management and no individual or small group of individuals dominate the decisions of the Board.

The composition of the Board and independence of each Director is reviewed annually by the NC to ensure that the Board has the appropriate mix of expertise and experience to govern and manage the Group’s affairs. Each independent director is required to provide an annual confirmation of his independence based on the guidelines as set out in the Code. The Board determines, taking into account the views of the NC, whether a director is independent in character and judgement and whether there are relationships or circumstances which are likely to affect or could affect the director’s judgement.

The Board recognises that independent directors may over time develop significant insights in the Group’s business and operations and can continue to provide noteworthy and valuable contribution objectively to the Board as a whole. The independence of the independent directors must be based on the substance of their professionalism, integrity and objectivity and not merely based on form such as the number of years which they have served on the Board.

Currently, Mr. Ong Kian Min has served on the Board for more than 9 years from the date of his first appointment. After due and careful rigorous review, the Board (with Mr. Ong abstaining from the review), with the concurrence of the NC, has determined that Mr. Ong is to be considered independent notwithstanding that he has served on the Board beyond 9 years as he has continued to demonstrate strong independence in character and judgement in the discharge of his responsibility as a Director of the Company. He has continued to express his individual viewpoint, debated issues and objectively scrutinised and challenged Management. He has also sought clarification and amplification as and when necessary and has direct access to the Group’s employees and external advisors. Based on his declaration, Mr. Ong does not have relationships or circumstances that are likely to affect or that could affect his judgement that could compromise his independence on Board matters.

Taking into account the above and also having weighed the need for Board refreshment against tenure for relative benefit, the Board has resolved that Mr. Ong continues to be considered an independent director notwithstanding that he has served on the Board for more than 9 years.

In addition, the Board, with the concurrence of the NC, is of the opinion that the Directors, who have been classified as independent under the Board Composition section, are indeed independent.

The NC is of the view that the current Board size is appropriate taking into account the nature and scope of the Group’s operations, the core competency and broad range of industry knowledge and business experience of the Directors to govern and contribute to the effectiveness and success of the Group. The NC reviews the size of the Board from time to time.

In recognition of the importance and value of gender diversity in the composition of the Board, out of the six board members, one is a female director.

PRINCIPLE 3: ROLE OF CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR

The roles of the Executive Chairman and the Managing Director are segregated to ensure an appropriate balance and separation of power and authority, increased accountability and clear division of responsibilities.

The Executive Chairman is responsible for the strategic direction of the Group, the workings of the Board and communicating the performance of the Company and the Group to the Board and shareholders. The Managing Director, with the assistance of a team of key management personnel, is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Group and the Group's strategic goals.

The Board has no dissenting view on the Chairman and Managing Director's Joint Letter to Shareholders for the year under review.

To enhance the independence of the Board, Mr. Ong Kian Min, the Lead Independent Director, provides a non-executive perspective and contributes to a balance of viewpoints on the Board. He is the principal liaison on board issues between the Independent Directors and the Executive Directors. Mr. Ong will be available to shareholders with concerns or issues when contact through the normal channels with the Chairman, the Managing Director or the Finance & Administration Director has failed to provide satisfactory resolution or when there is a conflict of interest in such contact.

PRINCIPLE 4: BOARD MEMBERSHIP

The NC comprises the following three Directors, of whom two are Non-Executive and Independent:-

Mr. Leow Ban Tat (Chairman)
Mr. Ong Kian Min
Mr. Jeffrey Hing Yih Peir

The NC is guided by written terms of reference approved by the Board and its principal functions are to establish a formal and transparent process of:

- 1. identifying and reviewing candidates and making recommendations to the Board for appointment or re-appointment of members of the Board and of the various Board Committees;
- 2. determining annually whether or not a Director is independent and whether a Director is able to and has been adequately carrying out his duties as a Director of the Company; and
- 3. evaluating and assessing the Board's performance to ensure the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the contributions by each Director to the effectiveness of the Board.

The search and nomination for new directors, if any, will be either from internal promotion or through search companies, contacts and recommendations that go through the normal selection process, to cast the net as wide as possible for the right candidates. When appropriate, new directors are appointed after the NC has reviewed and nominated them for appointment.

The Directors submit themselves for re-nomination and re-election at regular intervals of at least once every three years. Pursuant to Regulation 92 of the Company's Constitution, one-third of the Directors are to retire from office by rotation and be subject to re-election at the Annual General Meeting ("AGM") of the Company. In addition, Regulation 98 requires a newly appointed director to submit himself for retirement and re-election at the AGM immediately following his appointment. Thereafter, he is subject to retirement by rotation once every three years.

The NC is of the view that whilst it is important for Directors to devote sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company, the issue relating to multiple board representations should be left to the judgement and discretion of each Director. The NC noted that based on the attendance at Board and Board Committee meetings during the financial year, all Directors were able to participate in all the meetings to carry out their duties. The NC was therefore satisfied that where a Director had multiple board representations and/or other major commitments, the Director was able to and had been adequately carrying out his duties as a Director of the Company.

The NC has recommended that Mr. Ong Kian Min and Mr. Leow Ban Tat who are retiring by rotation under Regulation 92 of the Company's Constitution and Mr. Paul Tan Poh Lee who is retiring pursuant to Regulation 98 of the Company's Constitution at the forthcoming AGM and being eligible, have offered themselves for re-election, be re-elected. The Board has accepted the recommendation of the NC.

As at 31 December 2017, there is no alternate director on the Board.

Key information on each Director is set out on pages 16 to 17 of this Annual Report.

PRINCIPLE 5: BOARD PERFORMANCE

The Board, through the delegation of its authority to the NC, has made its best efforts to ensure each Director possesses the experience, knowledge and skills critical to the Group's business. This is necessary to enable the Board to make sound and well-considered decisions. The NC, in considering the nomination of any Director for re-election, will evaluate the performance of the Director involved.

Evaluation of the performance of the Directors and the Board will be undertaken on a continuous basis by the NC with input from other Board members. Renewal or replacement of directors does not necessarily reflect their contribution to date; it may be driven by the need to position and shape the Board in line with the medium- term needs of the Company and its business.

The Board has implemented a process by the NC for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and is of the view that the performance of the Board as a whole has been satisfactory. The appraisal process focuses on the evaluation of factors such as the size and composition of the Board, the Board's access to information, the Board's processes and accountability, communication with senior Management and the Directors' standard of conduct. The NC discussed the results of the Board's performance evaluation to identify areas where improvements were necessary and made recommendations to the Board for action to be taken. Each member of the NC has abstained from voting on any resolutions in respect of the assessment of his performance or re-nomination as a Director.

PRINCIPLE 6: ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Board members are provided with quarterly management reports and from time to time, they are furnished with all relevant information on material events and transactions to enable them to be fully cognisant of the decisions and actions of the Group's Executive Management. Detailed Board papers are prepared for each meeting of the Board. The Board papers include sufficient information from Management on financial, business and corporate issues and are normally circulated in advance of each meeting to enable the Directors to obtain further explanations, where necessary, in order to be briefed properly before the meeting. The Directors are also regularly updated on the business activities of the Group and when there are significant developments or events relating to the Group's business operations. Board members have separate and independent access to Management.

The Directors have separate and independent access to the Company Secretary at all times and they have been provided with the phone numbers and e-mail particulars of the Company Secretary. Each Director has the right to seek independent legal and other professional advice, at the Company's expense, concerning any aspect of the Group's operations or undertakings in order to fulfil her/his duties and responsibilities as a Director.

The Company Secretary attends all Board meetings and ensures Board procedures are followed. The Company Secretary is also responsible to ensure that established procedures and all relevant statutes and regulations that are applicable to the Company are complied with. The appointment and removal of the Company Secretary is a matter for the Board as a whole.

REMUNERATION MATTERS

PRINCIPLE 7: PROCEDURES FOR DEVELOPING REMUNERATION POLICIES
PRINCIPLE 8: LEVEL AND MIX OF REMUNERATION

The RC comprises the following three Directors, all of whom are Non-Executive and Independent:-

Mr. Paul Tan Poh Lee (Chairman)
Mr. Ong Kian Min
Mr. Leow Ban Tat

The RC is guided by written terms of reference approved by the Board and its principal responsibilities are to:

- 1. review and recommend to the Board a framework of remuneration and associated matters of the key management personnel;
- 2. review and determine the remuneration package and associated matters of each Executive Director;
- 3. review and recommend to the members of the Company the remuneration and associated matters of the Non-Executive Directors of the Company; and
- 4. oversee the administration of the Penguin Share Performance Plan, if appropriate.

The RC reviews, for recommendation to the Board, the specific remuneration packages of Executive Directors and key management personnel as well as subsequent increments and performance bonuses where these payments are discretionary. There are appropriate and meaningful measures in place for the purposes of assessing the performance of Executives Directors and key management personnel.

The Executive Directors’ remuneration packages are based on the performance of the Group and the individual. Executive Directors do not receive Directors’ fees. Non-Executive Directors are paid Directors’ fees, which consist of a basic retainer fee as director and an additional fee for serving on any of the Board Committees. The payment is subject to approval of the shareholders at each AGM. No individual Director is involved in deciding his own remuneration.

In performing its function, the RC endeavours to establish an appropriate remuneration policy to attract, retain and motivate key management personnel and Executive Directors, while at the same time ensuring that the reward in each case takes into account, individual performance as well as corporate performance.

Each Executive Director has entered into separate service agreements with the Company.

The Company does not use any contractual provisions to reclaim incentive components of remuneration from Executive Directors and key management personnel in exceptional circumstances of misstatement of financial results, or of misconduct resulting in financial loss to the Company. The Executive Directors owe a fiduciary duty to the Company and the Company should be able to avail itself to remedies against the Executive Directors in the event of such breach of fiduciary duty.

Except as disclosed in the Directors’ Statement and Financial Statements, no material contracts (including loans) of the Company or its subsidiaries involving the interests of the Executive Chairman, Managing Director or any Directors or controlling shareholders subsisted at the end of the financial year or had been entered into since the end of the previous financial year.

PRINCIPLE 9: DISCLOSURE OF REMUNERATION

The Board supports and is aware of the need for transparency. However, after deliberation and debate, the Board is of the view that full disclosure of the specific remuneration of each individual Director and the Group’s key management personnel (who are not directors) is not in the best interest of the Company and therefore shareholders. Inter alia, the Board has taken into account the very sensitive nature of the matter, the relative size of the Group, the highly competitive business environment the Group operates in, the competitive pressures in the talent market and the irrevocable negative impact such disclosure may have on the Group.

Details of remuneration and benefits of Directors and key management personnel for the financial year ended 31 December 2017 which will provide sufficient overview of the remuneration of Directors and key management personnel are set out below:-

	Directors’ Fees* %	Salary %	Bonus %	Other benefits %	Total %

* Directors’ Fees are subject to shareholders’ approval at the AGM to be held on 24 April 2018.

Key Management Personnel

Given the challenging industry conditions, the Company’s view on the disclosure in aggregate of the total remuneration paid to the top 5 key management personnel (who are not directors or the CEO) are disclosed only in bands of $250,000 as such disclosure is not in the best interest of the Company in light of the competitive business environment that the Group operates in as well as the competitive pressures in the talent market. The Company believes that the remuneration information as disclosed below will be sufficient for shareholders to have an adequate appreciation of the remuneration of the key management personnel and wishes to maintain confidentiality of remuneration in the interest of maintaining good morale and a strong spirit of teamwork within the Group.

The profiles of the top 5 key management personnel are found on pages 18 to 19 of this Annual Report.

ACCOUNTABILITY & AUDIT

PRINCIPLE 10: ACCOUNTABILITY

The Board provides shareholders with financial statements for the first three quarters and full year within the timeframe in line with Rule 705 of the Listing Manual of SGX-ST. In presenting the annual and quarterly financial statements to shareholders, the Board aims to provide shareholders with a balanced and clear assessment of the Group’s performance, financial position and prospects.

Management provides the Board with appropriately detailed and up-to-date financial reports and other information on the Group’s performance, position, prospects on a regular and timely basis in order that the Board may effectively discharge its duties. The Board is mindful of its obligation to release timely and fair disclosure of material information and does not practise selective disclosure. In line with continuous disclosure obligations of the Company, the SGX-ST’s Listing Rules and the Companies Act, the Board’s policy is that all shareholders should be informed in a timely and equal manner of all major developments that impact the Group.

PRINCIPLE 11: RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

PRINCIPLE 13: INTERNAL AUDIT

As the Group does not have a risk management committee, the Board, AC and Management assume the responsibility of the risk management function. Management regularly reviews the Group’s business and operational activities to identify areas of significant business risks as well as appropriate measures to control and mitigate these risks. The Management reviews all significant control policies and procedures and highlights all significant matters to the Board and the AC.

The Board recognises the need and is responsible for maintaining a system of internal controls and processes to safeguard shareholders’ investments and the Group’s assets. The AC monitors the effectiveness of the internal control systems and procedures and risk management systems. During the year, the Board and AC reviewed the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control procedures and risk management systems.

The Group promotes the standardisation of policies, processes and control procedures throughout its operations and has implemented the SAP Accounting Software System throughout the Group since August 2013.

Th AC approves the hiring, removal, evaluation and compensation of the internal auditors. The internal audit function is outsourced to Crowe Horwath First Trust Risk Advisory Pte Ltd, an external professional firm. They have been tasked to conduct regular audit of internal control systems of the Group’s companies, recommend necessary improvements and enhancements, and report to the AC. The AC reviews and approves the annual internal audit plan. The internal auditor has unrestricted access to documents, records and personnel of the Company and Group. The AC is satisfied that the internal audit function is adequately resourced to perform its function effectively and is staffed by suitably qualified and experienced professionals.

The system of internal controls and risk management established by the Company provides reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that the Group will not be adversely affected by any event that can be reasonably foreseen as it strives to achieve its business objectives. While acknowledging their responsibility for the system of internal controls, the Directors recognise that such a system is designed to manage, rather than eliminate risks, and therefore cannot provide absolute assurance in this regard, or absolute assurance against the occurrence of material errors or mis-statements, poor judgment in decision-making, human error, losses, fraud or other irregularities.

Assurance has been received from the Managing Director and Finance Director at the financial year-end (a) that the financial records have been properly maintained and the financial statements give true and fair view of the Company’s operations and finances and (b) the Company’s risk management and internal control systems in place are adequate and effective.

Based on the internal controls established and maintained by the Group, work performed by internal audit team, and reviews performed by Management, the Board, with the concurrence of the AC, is of the opinion that the Group’s framework of internal controls, addressing the financial, operational and compliance and information technology controls and risk management systems are adequate and effective to provide reasonable assurance of the integrity and effectiveness of the Group in safeguarding its assets and shareholders’ value.

PRINCIPLE 12: AUDIT COMMITTEE

The AC comprises the following three members, all of whom are Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

Mr. Ong Kian Min (Chairman)
Mr. Paul Tan Poh Lee
Mr. Leow Ban Tat

The profiles of each AC member are set out on page 17 of this Annual Report. The Board is of the view that the members of the AC have the requisite financial management knowledge, expertise and experience to discharge their responsibilities properly.

The AC assists the Board in maintaining a high standard of corporate governance particularly by providing an independent review of the effectiveness of the financial reporting system, management of financial, operational and compliance and information technology controls and monitoring of the internal control systems.

The AC is guided by written terms of reference approved by the Board and meets every quarter and as and when necessary to carry out the following functions:

- 1. review the scope, audit plans, results and effectiveness of the external and internal auditors;
- 2. evaluate the adequacy of the internal control systems of the Group by reviewing written reports from the internal and external auditors, and Management’s responses and actions to correct any deficiencies;
- 3. review any appraisal or assessment of the performance of members of the internal audit function;
- 4. review significant risks or exposures with Management and the external and internal auditors and assess the steps Management has taken to minimise such risks to the Group to safeguard the Group’s assets;
- 5. review the independence of the external auditors annually;
- 6. review the external auditor’s Management letter and Management’s response;
- 7. review the annual and quarterly financial statements and announcements to shareholders to ensure compliance with accounting standards and other legal requirements before submission to the Board for adoption;
- 8. review related party transactions as may be required by the regulatory authorities or the provisions of the Companies Act; and
- 9. consider other matters as requested by the Board.

The external auditors have full access to the AC which can conduct or authorise investigations into any matters within its terms of reference. The AC also has full access to and co-operation from Management and the discretion to invite any Director or Executive Officer to attend its meetings and has reasonable resources to enable it to discharge its functions. Minutes of the AC meetings are regularly submitted to the Board for its information and review.

In performing its functions, the AC meets with the internal and external auditors, without the presence of Management, to review and discuss findings, problems and reservations arising from their respective audits at least annually.

To keep abreast of the changes in accounting standards and issues which have a direct impact on financial statements, advice is sought from the external auditors when they attend the AC Meetings half yearly. The AC confirms that it has reviewed the fees and scope of all non-audit services, which comprise tax compliance and tax advisory services, provided by the external auditors, and is of the view that the nature and extent of the non-audit services does not prejudice the independence and objectivity of the external auditors. The fees payable to the external auditors are disclosed on page 72 of this Annual Report.

As part of ongoing good corporate governance initiatives, the AC was of the view that it would be timely to consider a change of auditors for the Company for the financial year ending 31 December 2018. Accordingly, the AC invited a number of established accounting firms to submit their proposals to the Company. Following the evaluation of the proposals received from established accounting firms, the AC is of the view that PKF-CAP LLP will be a suitable auditor for the Company and a change of auditors will enable the Company to benefit from fresh perspectives and views from another professional audit firm and enhance the value of the audit. The AC has therefore recommended to the Board that PKF-CAP LLP be appointed as the Company’s auditor in place of the retiring auditor, Ernst & Young LLP. The Directors, after taking into account the AC’s recommendation, are of the view that PKF-CAP LLP will be able to meet the audit requirements of the Company.

Ernst & Young LLP, the retiring auditor, will not be seeking re-appointment at the forthcoming AGM. Subject to approval of shareholders at the forthcoming AGM, the change of auditor will be effective from the financial year ending 31 December 2018. The Board wishes to express its appreciation for the past services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP.

The Company has complied with Listing Rules 712 of the Listing Rule which requires, amongst other things, that a suitable auditing firm be appointed by the Company having regard to the factors set out therein. The Company has also complied with Rule 715 which requires that the same auditing firm of the Company audits its Singapore-incorporated subsidiaries and significant associated companies and that a suitable auditing firm be engaged for its significant foreign-incorporated subsidiaries and associated companies.

The Company has put in place a Whistle-Blowing Policy for the Penguin Group. The Policy serves to encourage and provide a channel for employees, shareholders, clients, consultants, vendors, contractors and sub-contractors to report in good faith and in confidence, without fear of reprisals, concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting or other matters. The arrangement also ensures independent investigation of such matters and appropriate follow-up actions.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment	The AC considered the approach and methodology used by management in assessing the fleet of motor launches which was subjected to an impairment test.
	The AC discussed the above with the external auditors and reviewed the reasonableness of key assumptions and methodologies used by management as well as by the independent valuer, and was satisfied that these were appropriate.
	The external auditors have included the impairment of property, plant and equipment as a key audit matter in their report for the year ended 31 December 2017. This is in pages 39 to 40 of the Annual Report.
Revenue recognition using the percentage-of-completion method	The AC considered the approach and methodology applied to the revenue recognition using the percentage-of-completion method for its shipbuilding contracts (“construction contracts”) which were measured by reference to the actual completion rate based on surveys of work performed and physical proportion of the contract work completed. The AC discussed the above with the external auditors and reviewed the reasonableness of estimates and methodology used by management, and was satisfied that these were appropriate. The external auditors have included revenue recognition using the percentage-of-completion method as a key audit matter in their report for the year ended 31 December 2017. This is in page 40 of the Annual Report.

COMMUNICATION WITH SHAREHOLDERS

PRINCIPLE 14: SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

PRINCIPLE 15: COMMUNICATION WITH SHAREHOLDERS

PRINCIPLE 16: CONDUCT OF SHAREHOLDERS MEETINGS

The Group respects the equal information rights of all shareholders and is committed to the practice of fair, transparent and timely disclosure to shareholders in line with continuous disclosure obligations with the Listing Manual of the SGX-ST.

Communication with shareholders and the public is maintained through regular dissemination of information such as announcements on quarterly and full year results, press releases on the SGXNet and the Company's corporate website. To facilitate shareholders' ownership rights, the Company ensures that all material information is disclosed in a comprehensive, accurate and timely basis via SGXNet especially information pertaining to the Company's business development and financial performance which could have a material impact on the price or value of its shares so as to enable shareholders to make informed decisions in respect of their investments in the Company.

All shareholders of the Company receive reports or circulars of the Company including notices of general meetings by post within the mandatory period. Notices of general meetings are also advertised in newspapers and available on the SGX-ST's website.

All registered shareholders of the Company are invited and encouraged to attend and vote at general meetings. Every matter requiring shareholders' approval is proposed as a separate resolution. Each item of special business included in the notice of meeting is accompanied, where appropriate, by an explanation for the proposed resolution. Proxy form is sent with the Notice of meeting to all shareholders. Except for a shareholder who is a Relevant Intermediary as defined under Section 181(6) of the Companies Act, a shareholder may appoint up to two proxies to attend and vote on his behalf at the general meeting through proxy forms deposited 72 hours before the meeting. Participation of shareholders is encouraged at the AGM through the open question and answer session. The Directors, Management and the external auditor will be available to address any queries or concerns on matters relating to the Company. Meanwhile, the Board has developed several channels, such as the Group's website, email or fax, for shareholders who are not able to attend the AGM to contribute their feedback and inputs regarding the Company and its operations.

To promote greater transparency, the Company has implemented voting by poll for all resolutions at its AGM. This entails shareholders being invited to vote on each resolution by poll thereby allowing all shareholders present or represented at the meeting to vote on a one share, one vote basis. The voting result of all votes cast for, or against, each resolution is then announced at the meeting. The detailed results of the poll voting on each resolution tabled at the AGM, including the number of votes cast for and against each resolution and the respective percentages are announced after the AGM via SGXNet. As authentication of shareholder identity information is a concern, the Company has decided, for the time being, not to implement voting in absentia by mail, facsimile or email.

In proposing any dividend payout and/or determining the form, frequency and/or the amount of such dividend payout, the Board will take into account, inter alia, the Group's financial position, retained earnings, results of operation and cash flow, the ability of the Company's subsidiaries to make dividend payments to the Company, the Group's expected working capital requirements, the Group's expected capital expenditure and future expansion and investment plans and other funding requirements, general economic conditions and other internal or external factors that may have an impact on the business or financial performance and position of the Group.

The Board endeavours to maintain a balance between meeting shareholders' expectations and prudent capital management with a sustainable dividend policy. The Board will continually review the dividend policy and reserves the right in its sole and absolute discretion to update, amend, modify and/or cancel the dividend policy at any time.

There were no other significant interested person transactions (excluding transactions less than S$100,000) during the financial year ended 31 December 2017.

The Compliance Code discourages all the Directors and employees of the Group to deal in securities on short-term considerations. Directors are required to report securities dealings within two business days of such dealings, to the Company Secretary, who will assist to make the necessary announcements via the SGXNet.

Directors and all officers are cautioned to observe insider trading regulations at all times.

OTHER DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

There are no material developments after the preliminary announcement that would affect the performance of the Group.

DIRECTORS’ STATEMENT

The Directors are pleased to present their statement to the members together with the audited consolidated financial statements of Penguin International Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) and the balance sheet and statement of changes in equity of the Company for the financial year ended 31 December 2017.

OPINION OF THE DIRECTORS

In the opinion of the Directors,

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2017

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF PENGUIN INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

REPORT ON THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

OPINION

We have audited the financial statements of Penguin International Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”), which comprise the balance sheets of the Group and the Company as at 31 December 2017, the statements of changes in equity of the Group and the Company and the consolidated income statement, consolidated statement of comprehensive income and consolidated cash flow statement of the Group for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Group, the balance sheet and the statement of changes in equity of the Company are properly drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, Chapter 50 (the Act) and Financial Reporting Standards in Singapore (FRSs) so as to give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group and the financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2017 and of the consolidated financial performance, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group and changes in equity of the Company for the year ended on that date.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Singapore Standards on Auditing (SSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority (ACRA) Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics for Public Accountants and Accounting Entities (ACRA Code) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Singapore, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ACRA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled our responsibilities described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying financial statements.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

The carrying amount of the Group’s motor launches as at 31 December 2017 amounted to S$52 million. Given the improvement in the Group’s charter operations which indicate that the impairment loss previously recognised in prior periods may have decreased, management had performed an estimation of the recoverable amount of the motor launches. As a result of the assessment, management reversed impairment loss amounting to S$0.8 million for the year ended 31 December 2017. We identified this as a key audit matter because the estimation of the recoverable amount involved significant management judgement and estimation.

We designed our audit procedures to be responsive to this risk. As part of our audit:

- We performed an evaluation of management’s process for the identification of triggering events for indication of impairment/reversal of impairment of motor launches.
- We considered if management’s determination of recoverable amount is based on the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use.
- For motor launches where the estimated disposal value (fair value less costs to sell) was determined by an independent valuer, we evaluated the work of the independent valuer by considering the independence, objectivity and expertise of the independent valuer, as well as the appropriateness of the valuation methodology and reasonableness of the key assumptions used by the independent valuer.
- For motor launches where management estimated fair value less costs to sell with reference to recent contracted selling prices of similar motor launches, we agreed the selling prices to agreements and considered the comparability of motor launches subjected to impairment testing to those motor launches contracted for sale. We also performed sensitivity analysis on changes in the estimated selling prices.

The disclosures relating to motor launches are included in Note 13 to the financial statements.

Revenue recognition using the percentage-of-completion method

During the year, the Group recognised revenue amounting to S$18 million on its shipbuilding contracts (“construction contracts”) which were measured based on the percentage-of-completion (“POC”) of the construction activity. The determination of POC on construction contracts involved significant management judgement and estimate as they were measured by reference to the actual completion rate based on surveys of work performed and physical proportion of the contract work completed. Given the magnitude of the amount and that the determination of POC required significant management judgement and estimates, we have identified this as a key audit matter.

We designed our audit procedures to be responsive to this risk. As part of our audit:

- We evaluated the appropriateness of management’s estimation process for the physical proportion of contract work completed through the following:
 - We considered the level of competency, expertise and objectivity of the management personnel who performed the assessment.
 - We had discussions with management personnel on the status of the construction contracts and sighted to correspondences between management and customers on the progress of construction contracts.
 - We considered the consistency of weightages assigned by management to the different construction stages and the underlying activities in estimating the POC rates of ongoing contracts by comparing to weightages used in historical similar construction contracts.
 - We tested the inputs used by management in determining the level of completion of the relevant activities of the construction contracts by performing site visits and checking to underlying supporting documents and re-computed the resulting POC rates derived by management.
- We re-computed revenue recognised for the current financial year based on the respective POC of each contract and traced these to the accounting records.

The disclosures relating to construction contracts are included in Note 25 to the financial statements.

OTHER INFORMATION

Management is responsible for other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor’s report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORS FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Management is responsible for the preparation of financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with the provisions of the Act and FRSs, and for devising and maintaining a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide a reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded against loss from unauthorised use or disposition; and transactions are properly authorised and that they are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of true and fair financial statements and to maintain accountability of assets.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors’ responsibilities include overseeing the Group’s financial reporting process.

AUDITOR’S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group’s internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management’s use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor’s report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor’s report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the directors with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor’s report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

In our opinion, the accounting and other records required by the Act to be kept by the Company and by those subsidiary corporations incorporated in Singapore of which we are the auditors have been properly kept in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor’s report is Lim Tze Yuen.

Other than the effects of the matter as described above and the adoption of the new standards that are effective on 1 January 2018, the Group expects that the adoption of the new financial reporting framework will have no material impact on the financial statements in the year of initial application.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year except in the current financial year, the Group has adopted all the new and revised standards which are effective for annual financial periods beginning on or after 1 January 2017. The adoption of these standards did not have any effect on the financial performance or position of the Group and the Company.

As disclosed in Note 2.1, the Group will adopt SFRS (I) on 1 January 2018. Upon adoption of SFRS (I) on 1 January 2018, the SFRS (I) equivalent of the above standards that are effective on 1 January 2018 will be adopted at the same time.

Except for SFRS (I) 9, SFRS (I) 15 and SFRS (I) 16, the directors expect that the adoption of the SFRS (I) equivalent of the above standards will have no material impact on the financial statements in the year of initial application. The nature of the impending changes in accounting policy on adoption of SFRS (I) 9, SFRS (I) 15 and SFRS (I) 16 are described below.

2.3 Standards issued but not yet effective (continued)

SFRS (I) 9 Financial Instruments

SFRS (I) 9 introduces new requirements for classification and measurement of financial assets, impairment of financial assets and hedge accounting, and is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. Financial assets are classified according to their contractual cash flow characteristics and the business model under which they are held. The impairment requirements in SFRS 9 (I) are based on an expected credit loss model and replace the IAS 39 incurred loss model.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of the new standard and plans to adopt the new standard on the required effective date.

SFRS (I) 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

SFRS (I) 15 establishes a five-step model to account for revenue arising from contracts with customers, and introduces new contract cost guidance. Under SFRS (I) 15, revenue is recognised at an amount that reflects the consideration which an entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. The new revenue standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018.

The Group plans to adopt SFRS (I) 15 on the required effective date and plans to apply the changes in accounting policies retrospectively to each reporting year presented, using the full retrospective approach. The Group has performed a preliminary impact assessment of adopting SFRS (I) 15 based on currently available information. This assessment may be subject to changes arising from ongoing analysis until the Group adopts SFRS (I) 15 in 2018. The Group expects the following impact upon adoption of SFRS (I) 15:

Shipbuilding and repair division

For the Group’s shipbuilding and repair division, a portion of the revenue was derived from shipbuilding contracts (“construction contracts”) with customers. The Group currently recognises revenue from shipbuilding contracts based on the percentage-of-completion method as described in Note 2.17. Under SFRS (I) 15, revenue is recognised via measurement of progress towards complete satisfaction of each performance obligation identified. Appropriate methods of measuring progress include output methods and input methods and the standard requires the exclusion from the measure of progress any goods or services for which the Group does not transfer control to the customer.

On the adoption of SFRS (I) 15, the Group expects to record an adjustment to reduce the revenue for the financial year ended 31 December 2017. In addition, the Group expects to reclassify the respective components within amount due from/(to) customers for contract work-in-progress to trade receivables and contract liabilities.

Other than the effects of the matter as described above, the Group expects that the adoption of SFRS (I) 15 will have no material impact on the financial statements in the year of initial application.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2.3 Standards issued but not yet effective (continued)

SFRS (I) 16 Leases

SFRS (I) 16 requires lessees to recognise most leases on balance sheets to reflect the rights to use the leased assets and the associated obligations for lease payments as well as the corresponding interest expense and depreciation charges. The standard includes two recognition exemption for lessees – leases of ‘low value’ assets and short-term leases. The new standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of the new standard and plans to adopt the new standard on the required effective date. The Group expects the adoption of the new standard will result in increase in total assets and total liabilities, earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (“EBITDA”) and gearing ratio.

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries as at the end of the reporting period. The financial statements of the subsidiaries used in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are prepared for the same reporting date as the Company. Consistent accounting policies are applied to like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

All intra-group balances, income and expenses and unrealised gains and losses resulting from intra-group transactions and dividends are eliminated in full.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Losses within a subsidiary are attributed to the non-controlling interest even if that results in a deficit balance.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- De-recognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary at their carrying amounts at the date when control is lost;
- De-recognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interest;
- De-recognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity;
- Recognises the fair value of the consideration received;
- Recognises the fair value of any investment retained;
- Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss;
- Re-classifies the Group’s share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.4 Basis of consolidation and business combinations (continued)

(b) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for by applying the acquisition method. Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. Acquisition-related costs are recognised as expenses in the periods in which the costs are incurred and the services are received.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer will be recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration which is deemed to be an asset or liability, will be recognised in profit or loss.

The Group elects for each individual business combination, whether non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any), that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation, is recognised on the acquisition date at fair value, or at the non-controlling interest’s proportionate share of the acquiree’s identifiable net assets. Other components of non-controlling interests are measured at their acquisition date fair value, unless another measurement basis is required by another FRS.

Any excess of the sum of the fair value of the consideration transferred in the business combination, the amount of non-controlling interest in the acquiree (if any), and the fair value of the Group’s previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any), over the net fair value of the acquiree’s identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill. The accounting policy for goodwill is set out in Note 2.8. In instances where the latter amount exceeds the former, the excess is recognised as gain on bargain purchase in profit or loss on the acquisition date.

2.5 Transactions with non-controlling interests

Non-controlling interest represents the equity in subsidiaries not attributable, directly or indirectly, to owners of the Company.

Changes in the Company’s ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions. In such circumstances, the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interest is adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Company.

2.6 Foreign currency

The Group’s consolidated financial statements are presented in Singapore Dollars, which is also the Company’s functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

(a) Transactions and balances

Transactions in foreign currencies are measured in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries and are recorded on initial recognition in the functional currencies at exchange rates approximating those ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates as at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at the end of the reporting period are recognised in profit or loss except for exchange differences arising on monetary items that form part of the Group's net investment in foreign operations, which are recognised initially in other comprehensive income and accumulated under foreign currency translation reserve in equity. The foreign currency translation reserve is reclassified from equity to profit or loss of the Group on disposal of the foreign operation.

(b) Consolidated financial statements

For consolidation purpose, the assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into SGD at the rate of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period and their profit or loss are translated at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions. The exchange differences arising on the translation are recognised in other comprehensive income. On disposal of a foreign operation, the component of other comprehensive income relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in profit or loss.

2.7 Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an investee that is controlled by the Group. The Group controls an investee when it is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

In the Company's separate financial statements, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment losses.

2.8 Goodwill

Goodwill is initially measured at cost. Following initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses.

For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is, from the acquisition date, allocated to the Group's cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

The cash-generating unit to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication that the cash-generating unit may be impaired. Impairment is determined for goodwill by assessing the recoverable amount of each cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit is less than the carrying amount, an impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognised for goodwill are not reversed in subsequent periods.

Where goodwill forms part of a cash-generating unit and part of the operation within that cash-generating unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on disposal of the operation. Goodwill disposed of in this circumstance is measured based on the relative fair values of the operation disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

2.9 Property, plant and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to recognition, property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. The cost includes the cost of replacing part of the property, plant and equipment and borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying property, plant and equipment. The cost of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised as an asset if, and only if, it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably.

When significant parts of plant and equipment are required to be replaced in intervals, the Group recognises such parts as individual assets with specific useful lives and depreciation, respectively. Likewise, when a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognised in the carrying amount of the plant and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied. All other repair and maintenance costs are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Depreciation is computed on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Tug & barges	15 - 20 years
Leasehold buildings	6 - 26 years
Motor launches	15 - 20 years
Machinery and equipment	4 - 15 years
Office equipment	3 - 10 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Deferred drydocking expenditure	4 years

Assets under construction included in property, plant and equipment are not depreciated as these are not yet available for use.

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

The residual value, useful life and depreciation method are reviewed at each financial year-end, and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on de-recognition of the asset is included in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognised.

Deferred drydocking expenditure is carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation of deferred drydocking expenditure begins when drydocking is completed and the vessels are available for use.

The revaluation surplus included in the asset revaluation reserve in respect of an asset is transferred directly to retained earnings on retirement or disposal of the asset.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.10 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any indication exists, or when an annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset’s recoverable amount.

An asset’s recoverable amount is the higher of an asset’s or cash-generating unit’s fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or group of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset or cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

The Group bases its impairment calculation on market valuations, recent comparable sales, detailed budgets and forecast calculations which are prepared separately for each of the Group’s cash-generating units to which the individual assets are allocated.

Impairment losses are recognised in profit or loss in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

For assets excluding goodwill, an assessment is made at each reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the Group estimates the asset’s or cash-generating unit’s recoverable amount. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset’s recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. That increase cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised previously. Such reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

2.11 Financial instruments

(a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

(i) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include financial assets held for trading. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by FRS 39. Derivatives, including embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the financial assets are recognised in profit or loss. Net gains or net losses on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss include exchange differences, interest and dividend income.

(ii) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as loans and receivables. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the loans and receivables are derecognised or impaired, and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition

A financial asset is derecognised where the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired. On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that had been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

Regular way purchase and sale of a financial asset

All regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised or derecognised on the trade date i.e., the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace concerned.

(b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Group determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value plus in the case of financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

(i) Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities held for trading. Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling in the near term. This category includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value of the financial liabilities are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Financial liabilities at amortised cost

After initial recognition, financial liabilities that are not carried at fair value through profit and loss are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method. Gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are de-recognised, and through the amortisation process.

De-recognition

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

(c) Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount is presented in the balance sheets, when and only when, there is currently enforceable legal right to set off the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.12 Derivative financial instruments

The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as forward currency contracts to hedge its risks associated with foreign currency. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date the derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as assets when the fair value is positive and as liabilities when the fair value is negative.

Any gains or losses arising from changes in fair value on derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting are taken directly to profit or loss for the year.

2.13 Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at each reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired.

(a) Financial assets carried at amortised cost

For financial assets carried at amortised cost, the Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for financial assets that are individually significant, or collectively for financial assets that are not individually significant. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed financial asset, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses them for impairment. Assets that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is, or continues to be recognised are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

If there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at amortised cost has incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. If a loan has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account. The impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

When the asset becomes uncollectible, the carrying amount of impaired financial assets is reduced directly or if an amount was charged to the allowance account, the amounts charged to the allowance account are written off against the carrying value of the financial asset.

To determine whether there is objective evidence that an impairment loss on financial assets has been incurred, the Group considers factors such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments.

If in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognised, the previously recognised impairment loss is reversed to the extent that the carrying amount of the asset does not exceed its amortised cost at the reversal date. The amount of reversal is recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Financial assets carried at cost

If there is objective evidence (such as significant adverse charges in the business environment where the issuer operates, probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the issuer) that an impairment loss on financial assets carried at cost has been incurred, the amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the current market rate of return for a similar financial asset. Such impairment losses are not reversed in subsequent periods.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.14 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank, cash on hand, demand deposits and short-term, highly liquid investments readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.15 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

- Finished goods and work-in-progress: costs of direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. These costs are assigned on specific identification basis.
- Parts and spares: purchase costs on first-in first-out basis.

Where necessary, allowance is provided for damaged, obsolete and slow-moving items to adjust the carrying value of inventories to the lower of cost and net realisable value. Where there is an increase in net realisable value in subsequent periods, the amount of reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised in the profit or loss in the period in which the reversal occurs. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs required to make the sale.

2.16 Work-in-progress

Work-in-progress in relation to uncompleted vessels and repairs and maintenance projects are stated at cost.

Cost includes all direct materials and labour costs and those indirect costs related to contract performance, such as indirect labour, supplies and tools. Provision is made for anticipated losses on completed contracts, if any, when the possibility of losses is ascertained.

2.17 Construction contracts

The Group principally operates fixed price contracts. Contract revenue and contract costs are recognised as revenue and expenses respectively by reference to the stage of completion of the contract activity at the end of the reporting period (the percentage of completion method), when the outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably.

The outcome of a construction contract can be estimated reliably when: (i) total contract revenue can be measured reliably; (ii) it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the contract will flow to the entity; (iii) the costs to complete the contract and the stage of completion can be measured reliably; and (iv) the contract costs attributable to the contract can be clearly identified and measured reliably so that actual contract costs incurred can be compared with prior estimates.

When the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably (principally during early stages of a contract), contract revenue is recognised only to the extent of contract costs incurred that are likely to be recoverable and contract costs are recognised as expense in the period in which they are incurred.

An expected loss on the construction contract is recognised as an expense immediately when it is probable that total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue.

In applying the percentage of completion method, revenue recognised corresponds to the total contract revenue (as defined below) multiplied by the actual completion rate based on completion of physical proportion of the contract work.

Contract revenue – This corresponds to the initial amount of revenue recognised in the contract and any variations in contract work, claims and incentive payments to the extent that it is probable that they will result in revenue; and they are capable of being reliably measured.

Contract costs – This include costs that relate directly to the specific contract and costs that are attributable to contract activity in general and can be allocated to the contract.

2.18 Deferred revenue

Deferred revenue comprises sales of ferry tickets billed in advance at year end. Income from sales of ferry tickets will be released to revenue when passengers utilise the tickets.

2.19 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are capitalised as part of the cost of a qualifying asset if they are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of that asset. Capitalisation of borrowing costs commences when the activities to prepare the asset for its intended use or sale are in progress and the expenditures and borrowing costs are incurred. Borrowing costs are capitalised until the assets are substantially completed for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

2.20 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive), as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Provisions are reviewed at each reporting period and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of economic resources will be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre tax rate that reflects where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Liquidated damages

Provision for liquidated damages is made in respect of anticipated claims from customers on contracts of which deadlines are overdue or not expected to be completed on time in accordance with contractual obligations. The utilisation of provisions is dependent on the timing of claims.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Foreseeable losses

Provision for foreseeable losses is made for anticipated losses on uncompleted contracts, if any, when the possibility of loss is ascertained.

Onerous contracts

Provision for onerous contract is recognised when the expected benefits from a contract are lower than the unavoidable cost of meeting the obligations under the contract.

Warranty provisions

Provision for warranty-related costs are recognised when the product is sold in accordance to the terms stipulated in shipbuilding contracts and in respect of anticipated claims from customers. Initial recognition is based on historical experience. The initial estimate of warranty-related cost is revised annually.

Restoration costs

Provision for restoration costs arose on construction of production facilities on leasehold buildings which are required to be reinstated to their original condition at the end of lease term. Restoration costs are provided at the present value of expected costs to settle the obligation using estimated cash flows and are recognised as part of the cost of leasehold buildings. The cash flows are discounted at a current pre-tax rate that reflects the risks specific to the restoration liability. The unwinding of the discount is expensed as incurred and recognised in profit or loss as a finance cost. The estimated future costs of restoration are reviewed annually and adjusted as appropriate. Changes in estimated future costs or in the discount rate applied are added to or deducted from the cost of leasehold buildings.

2.21 Employee benefits

(a) Defined contribution plans

The Group participates in the national pension schemes as defined by the laws of the countries in which it has operations. In particular, the Singapore companies in the Group make contributions to the Central Provident Fund Scheme in Singapore, a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions to defined contribution pension scheme are recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is performed.

(b) Defined employee retirement benefits

The Group provides provision for employee service entitlements in order to meet the minimum benefits required to be paid to qualified employees of a subsidiary, as required under the Indonesian Labor Law No. 13/2003. The said additional provisions, which are unfunded, are estimated using actuarial calculations based on the report prepared by an independent firm of actuary.

The defined benefit liability is the aggregate of the present value of the defined benefit obligation (derived using a discount rate based on high quality corporate bonds) at the end of the reporting period. The cost of providing benefits under the defined benefit plans is determined separately for each plan using the projected unit credit method.

Defined benefit costs comprise the following:

- Service cost
- Interest on the defined benefit liability
- Re-measurements of defined benefit liability

Service costs which include current service costs, past service costs and gains or losses on non-routine settlements are recognised as expense in profit or loss. Past service costs are recognised when plan amendment or curtailment occurs.

Interest on the defined benefit liability is the change during the period in the defined benefit liability that arises from the passage of time which is determined by applying the discount rate based on high quality corporate bonds to the defined benefit liability. Interest on the defined benefit liability is recognised as expense in profit or loss.

Re-measurements comprising actuarial gains and losses are recognised immediately in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise. Re-measurements are recognised in retained earnings within equity and are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

(c) Employee leave entitlement

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised as a liability when they accrue to employees. The estimated liability for leave is recognised for services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

2.22 Leases

The determination of whether an arrangement is, or contains a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at inception date: whether fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset, even if that right is not explicitly specified in an arrangement.

(a) As lessee

Finance leases, which transfer to the Group substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalised at the inception of the lease at the fair value of the leased asset or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Any initial direct costs are also added to the amount capitalised. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

Finance charges are charged to profit or loss. Contingent rents, if any, are charged as expenses in the periods in which they are incurred.

Capitalised leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset and the lease term, if there is no reasonable certainty that the Group will obtain ownership by the end of the lease term.

Operating lease payments are recognised as an expense in the profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The aggregate benefit of incentives provided by the lessor is recognised as a reduction of rental expense over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

(b) As lessor

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same bases as rental income. The Group derives operating lease income through charter hire of motor launches. The accounting policy for revenue from charter hire is set out in Note 2.24(a).

2.23 Assets classified as held for sale

Assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. An asset is classified as held for sale if its carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. This condition is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable and the asset is available for immediate sale in its present condition.

Property, plant and equipment once classified as held for sale are not depreciated.

2.24 Revenue

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duty. The Group assesses its revenue arrangements to determine if it is acting as principal or agent. The Group has concluded that it is acting as a principal in all of its revenue arrangements. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised:

(a) Revenue from ferry/charter services and repairs/maintenance

Revenue from ferry/charter services consists of revenue from charter-hire of motor launches and revenue from other ferry/charter services. Revenue from charter-hire of motor launches is recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the charter hire. Revenue from other ferry/charter services and repairs/maintenance is recognised upon rendering of services. Passenger fares are recognised upon completion of each voyage. The value of unused tickets is included in current liabilities as deferred revenue.

(b) Revenue from shipbuilding

Sale of vessels

Revenue is recognised upon transfer of significant risk and rewards of ownership of the vessels to customer, usually on delivery and acceptance of the vessels sold. Revenue is not recognised to the extent where there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due, associated costs or the possible return of vessels.

Construction contracts

Revenue from construction contracts is recognised by reference to the percentage of completion at the end of the reporting period. The percentage of completion is measured based on completion of physical proportion of the contract work (Note 2.17).

(c) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method.

2.25 Taxes

(a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period, in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that the tax relates to items recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

(b) Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the liability method on temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all temporary differences, except:

- where deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, where the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised except:

- where the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and interests in joint ventures, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each reporting period.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity and deferred tax arising from a business combination is adjusted against goodwill on acquisition.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset, if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

(c) Sales tax

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of sales tax except:

- Where the sales tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the sales tax is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- Receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of sales tax included.

The net amount of sales tax recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables on the balance sheet.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

2.26 Segment reporting

For management purposes, the Group is organised into operating segments based on their products and services which are independently managed by the respective segment managers responsible for the performance of the respective segments under their charge. The segment managers report directly to the management of the Company who regularly reviews the segment results in order to allocate resources to the segments and to assess the segment performance. Additional disclosures on each of these segments are shown in Note 34, including the factors used to identify the reportable segments and the measurement basis of segment information.

2.27 Contingencies

A contingent liability is:

- (a) a possible obligation that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group; or
- (b) a present obligation that arises from past events but is not recognised because:
 - (i) It is not probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; or
 - (ii) The amount of the obligation cannot be measured with sufficient reliability.

A contingent asset is a possible asset that arises from past events and whose existence will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Group.

Contingent liabilities and assets are not recognised on the balance sheet of the Group, except for contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination that are present obligations and which the fair values can be reliably determined.

2.28 Share capital and share issuance expenses

Proceeds from issuance of ordinary shares are recognised as share capital in equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of ordinary shares are deducted against share capital.

2.29 Government grants

Government grant shall be recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the entity recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Grants related to income are presented as a credit in profit or loss, under "Other income".

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of the Group's consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the end of each reporting period.

3.1 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period are discussed below. The Group based its assumptions and estimates on parameters available when the financial statements were prepared.

(a) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

An impairment exists when the carrying value of an asset or cash generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount which is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use.

The carrying amount of the Group's property, plant and equipment at 31 December 2017 was $74,100,000 (2016: $104,405,000).

Further details of the impairment assessment of property, plant and equipment are stated in Note 13 to the financial statements.

(b) Revenue recognition using the percentage-of-completion method

Revenue from shipbuilding contracts ("construction contracts") are recognised using the percentage-of-completion ("POC") method. Management determines POC by reference to the physical proportion of the contract work completed which is estimated based on the stages of construction and underlying activities completed.

For the financial year ended 31 December 2017, the Group recorded revenue from construction contracts amounting to $18,408,000 (2016: $9,803,000).

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (continued)

3.2 Judgments made in applying accounting policies

In the process of applying the Group's and Company's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

(a) Impairment of financial assets

The Group and Company assesses whether there is any objective evidence that a financial asset is impaired at each reporting date. Factors such as probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor and default or significant delay in payments are objective evidence of impairment.

(b) Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group and Company assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for all non-financial assets at each reporting date. Goodwill is tested for impairment annually and at other times when such indicators exist.

4. REVENUE

Revenue represents ferry and charter hire income, income from shipbuilding and income from ship repairs and maintenance, net of rebates and discounts. Intra-group transactions have been excluded from the Group's revenue.

12. EARNINGS/(LOSS) PER SHARE COMPUTATION

Basic earnings/(loss) per share are calculated by dividing the profit/(loss) for the year attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year.

Diluted earnings/(loss) per share are calculated by dividing the profit/(loss) for the year attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year plus the weighted average number of ordinary shares that would be issued on the conversion of all the dilutive potential ordinary shares into ordinary shares.

The following table reflects the profit/(loss) and share data used in the computation of basic and diluted earnings/(loss) per share for the years ended 31 December:

- (b) The shipbuilding and repair segment act as a builder of high speed aluminium commercial vessels and supplier of related repairs and maintenance services.

Except as indicated above, no operating results have been aggregated to form the above reportable operating segments.

Management monitors the operating results of its business units separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on operating profit or loss which in certain respects, as explained in the table below, is measured differently from operating profit or loss in the consolidated financial statements. Group financing (including finance costs) and income taxes are managed on a group basis and are not allocated to operating segments.

Transfer prices between operating segments are in a manner similar to transactions with third parties.

36. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

(b) Fair value of financial instruments that are carried at fair value

Fair value is defined as the amount at which the financial instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between knowledgeable willing parties in an arm's length transaction, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. Fair values are obtained from quoted market prices, discounted cash flow models and option pricing models as appropriate.

Fair value hierarchy

The Group classifies fair value measurement using a fair value hierarchy that is dependent on the valuation inputs used in making the measurements as follows:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at measurement date,
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, and
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

Fair value measurements that use inputs of different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

As at 31 December 2017, the Group's financial instruments carried at fair value consist of derivative financial liabilities amounting to $26,000 (2016: Nil).

(c) Fair value of financial instruments by classes that are not carried at fair value and whose carrying amounts are reasonable approximation of fair value

The carrying amounts of trade receivables, other receivables and deposits, due from customer for contract work-in-progress, loans to subsidiaries, cash and cash equivalents, trade payables, other payables and accruals, term loans, and deposits from subsidiaries are reasonable approximation of fair values, either due to their short-term nature or that they are floating rate instruments that are re-priced to market interest rates on or near the end of the reporting period.

37. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Group and the Company is exposed to financial risks arising from its operations and the use of financial instruments. The key financial risks include credit risk, liquidity risk, foreign currency risk and interest rate risk. It is, and has been throughout the current and previous financial year, the Group's policy that no derivatives for speculative purposes shall be undertaken. The Group does not apply hedge accounting.

The following sections provide details regarding the Group's and Company's exposure to the above mentioned financial risks and the objectives, policies and processes for the management of these risks.

There has been no change to the Group's exposure to the financial risks or the manner in which it manages and measures the risks.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss that may arise on outstanding financial instruments should a counterparty default on its obligations. The carrying amount of cash and fixed deposits, trade and other receivables and due from customer for contract work-in-progress represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets. No other financial assets carry a significant exposure to credit risk.

Management has a credit policy in place and the exposure to credit risk is monitored on an ongoing basis. Credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount.

Credit risk concentration profile

The Group determines concentrations of credit risk by monitoring the country and industry sector profile of its trade receivables on an on-going basis. The credit risk concentration profile of the Group's trade receivables at the balance sheet date is as follows:

	2017		Group		2016
	$'000	%	$'000	%

37. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(a) Credit risk (continued)

At the end of the reporting period:

- Approximately 84% (2016: 83%) of the Group's trade receivables were due from three (2016: three) major customers consisting of multi-industry conglomerates located in various countries.
- Approximately 94% (2016: 95%) of the Company's trade receivables were due from two (2016: two) major customers consisting of a government ministry and a multinational corporation.

Financial assets that are neither past due nor impaired

Trade and other receivables and due from customer for contract work-in-progress that are neither past due nor impaired are creditworthy debtors with good payment record with the Group. Cash and cash equivalents are placed with reputable financial institutions with high credit ratings and no history of default.

Financial assets that are either past due or impaired

Information regarding financial assets that are either past due or impaired is disclosed in Note 18.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group or the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting financial obligations due to shortage of funds. The Group's and the Company's exposure to liquidity risk arises primarily from mismatches of the maturities of financial assets and liabilities. The Group's and the Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of stand-by credit facilities.

The maturity profile of the Group's and the Company's financial liabilities at the end of the reporting period based on contractual undiscounted payments is as follows.

37. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(c) Foreign currency risk

The Group has transactional currency exposures arising from sales or purchases that are denominated in a currency other than the respective functional currencies of Group entities. The foreign currencies in which these transactions are denominated are mainly United States Dollar (USD) and Euro (EUR). Approximately 74% (2016: 38%) of the Group’s sales are denominated in foreign currency whilst almost 19% (2016: 40%) of costs are denominated in foreign currencies.

The Group and the Company also hold cash and cash equivalents denominated in foreign currencies for working capital purposes. At the end of the reporting period, such foreign currency balances amounted to $20,858,000 (2016: $7,884,000) and $18,046,000 (2016: $3,168,000) for the Group and the Company respectively.

The Group is also exposed to currency translation risk arising from its net investments in foreign operations, including Malaysia and Indonesia. The Group’s net investments in Malaysia and Indonesia that are not hedged as currency positions in Ringgit and Rupiah are considered to be long-term in nature.

The foreign currency risk is primarily managed by natural hedges of matching assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. In addition, the Group uses forward currency contracts to reduce the currency exposures on material transactions, as deemed by management for which payment is anticipated more than one month after the Group has entered into a firm commitment for the sale. The Group has also been closely monitoring the foreign currency risk and has considered various hedging options for significant foreign currency exposure as and when the need arises.

Sensitivity analysis for foreign currency risk

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the USD and EUR exchange rates (against SGD), with all other variables held constant, of the Group’s profit/(loss) before tax.

	Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax 2017 $’000	Decrease/ (increase) in loss before tax 2016 $’000
USD/SGD – strengthened 3% (2016: 3%)	631	58
USD/SGD – weakened 3% (2016: 3%)	(631)	(58)
EUR/SGD – strengthened 3% (2016: 3%)	9	1
EUR/SGD – weakened 3% (2016: 3%)	(9)	(1)

37. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (continued)

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of the Group’s financial instruments will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group’s exposure to interest rate risk arises primarily from their term loans denominated in SGD.

Sensitivity analysis for interest rate risk

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in SGD interest rates with all other variables held constant, of the Group’s profit/(loss) before tax.

	Increase/ (decrease) in profit before tax 2017 $’000	Decrease/ (increase) in loss before tax 2016 $’000
Increase in 100 basis points	67	(100)
Decrease in 100 basis points	(67)	100

The assumed movement in basis points for interest rate sensitivity analysis is based on the currently observable market environment.

38. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The primary objective of the Group’s capital management is to ensure that it maintains a strong credit rating and healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholder value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, in light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes during the years ended 31 December 2017 and 31 December 2016.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is net debt divided by total capital plus net debt. The Group’s policy is to maintain the gearing ratio at less than 50%. The Group includes within net debt loans and borrowings, less cash and fixed deposits. Capital includes equity attributable to the owners of the Company.

- (e) The Ordinary Resolution 8, if passed, will empower the Directors of the Company, effective until the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) of the Company, or the date by which the next AGM of the Company is required by law to be held or such authority is varied or revoked by the Company in a general meeting, whichever is the earlier, to issue shares, make or grant Instruments convertible into shares and to issue shares pursuant to such Instruments, up to a number not exceeding the aggregated of (i) 50% of the total number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the Company, of which up to 20% may be issued other than on a pro-rata basis to existing shareholders of the Company (the “General Limit”) and (ii) additional 50% for Renounceable Rights Issues, of the total number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the Company (the “Additional Limit”), provided that the total number of shares which may be issued pursuant to (i) and (ii) shall not exceed 100% of the issued shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) at the time Ordinary Resolution 8 is passed, after adjusting for new shares arising from the conversion or exercise of any convertible securities or share options or vesting of share awards which are outstanding or subsisting at the time when this Ordinary Resolution is passed and any subsequent bonus issue, consolidation or subdivision of shares.

The authority for the Additional Limit is proposed pursuant to SGX-ST Practice Note 8.3 which became effective on 13 March 2017 until 31 December 2018 by which date no further shares shall be issued pursuant to this Resolution, if on that date the aggregate number of shares (including shares to be issued in pursuance of the Instruments, made or granted pursuant to this Resolution) exceeds 50% of the total number of issued shares (excluding treasury shares and subsidiary holdings) in the capital of the Company (the “Enhanced Rights Issue Limit”). The Board is of the view that the Enhanced Rights Issue Limit is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders and in this regard, the Company seeks such authority so as to give the Company wider options of fund-raising should there be a need for such exercise to be undertaken.

The Enhanced Rights Issue Limit will be exercised only if the Directors believe that to do so would be likely to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of shareholders as a whole.

- (f) Mr. Jeffrey Hing Yih Peir and his associates will abstain from voting on the proposed Ordinary Resolution No. 9 relating to the renewal of the general IPT Mandate. For the purpose of the abstention, the term “associates” as it relates to Mr. Jeffrey Hing Yih Peir is defined as (i) his immediate family, (ii) the trustees of any trust of which he or his immediate family is a beneficiary or, in the case of a discretionary trust, is a discretionary object; and (iii) any company in which he and his immediate family together (directly or indirectly) have an interest of 30% or more.

The rationale for the Share Buy-back Mandate, the source of funds to be used for the Share Buy-back Mandate, the impact of the Share Buy-back Mandate on the Company’s financial position, the implications arising as a result of the Share Buy-back Mandate under The Singapore Code on Take-overs and Mergers and on the listing of the Company’s Shares on the SGX-ST are set out in the Letter to Shareholders dated 9 April 2018.
