SINGAPORE – 18 August 2015 – Stress-free and effortless upkeep for homeowners is just a few clicks away with ISOHomeCare (www.ISOHomeCare.com), the new handyman portal from ISOTeam Ltd. (the “Company” or “ISOTeam” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”).

The home-grown Repairs and Redecoration (“R&R”) and Addition and Alteration (“A&A”) specialist today launched this innovative portal for one-stop home improvement and maintenance solutions as part of its diversification strategy to become a complete building and maintenance team. Tapping on its highly established project management skills and wide network of specialist contractors that it acquired from its years in the R&R and A&A sector, ISOTeam is the first listed company of its kind to introduce a web portal offering such services.

ISOHomeCare offers a large and ready pool of expert in-house handymen, skilled in a wide range of services, to homeowners who require repairs or maintenance work for their residences. Specialist services that ISOHomeCare provides include home painting, plumbing, electrical wiring and installation and other general repair works for HDB flats, condominiums, landed properties and offices. It also provides expert consultation, when required, on maintenance services it offers on a no-obligation basis.

Said Mr Anthony Koh (许统发), Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of ISOTeam, “With ISOHomeCare, the long-drawn and often troublesome process of searching many places for one suitable handyman is cut out. We believe our “on-line handyman shopping” concept will appeal to busy homeowners today, many of whom utilise the Internet as their main information resource. Homeowners who use the services of ISOHomeCare can be assured that we will do a good job as the ISOTeam brand, which is backed by a highly-reputed track record over 15 years in the building and maintenance industry, is our service guarantee.”

On the unique factors that set ISOHomeCare apart, he continued, “ISOHomeCare has many other compelling benefits that will ensure peace of mind and satisfaction for homeowners. Our handymen are reliable, skilled and affordable, and over and above that, we extend a warranty period for all jobs. We also maximise convenience for customers by offering transparent pricing, a hassle-free payment system, and instant appointments where customers are able to lock-in the day and time of their house-call immediately online.”

Mr Koh added, “ISOTeam started as a R&R and A&A specialist but our aspiration has always been to be an integrated player in the building and maintenance industry. Through our strategic acquisitions and diversification plans over the last two years, we have successfully expanded our capabilities from just R&R and A&A to include interior design, landscaping, specialist painting, new build painting, access provision services, and now handyman services. We are pleased with the progress our company has made in such a short time. Looking ahead, we are also extremely excited about the potential of ISOHomeCare as we believe there is a real need for handyman services in Singapore.”

The portal goes live today on open beta, and will continue to react to requirements from homeowners by enhancing the system and adding to the range of specialist services it offers. ISOTeam will be commencing its marketing drive for ISOHomeCare island-wide in August, starting with Tampines, a high-density and vibrant HDB estate. Residents there can look forward to flyers and fridge magnets with more information about ISOHomeCare.
