CLARIFICATION REGARDING MEDIA ARTICLE

Singtel refers to the article, "Singtel weighs options for Optus; eyes on enterprise division", which was published by the Australian Financial Review and Bloomberg on 30 January 2024.

Singtel views its stake in Singtel Optus Pty Limited as strategic and believes in the long-term outlook of the Optus business.

Consistent with our strategic reset, Singtel regularly explores and reviews business opportunities, projects and proposals relating to its business and investments from time to time, and there is no certainty any of these will lead to a definitive or binding transaction. No transaction relating to the Optus enterprise business is currently contemplated. Singtel will, in compliance with the SGX-ST Listing Manual, make the relevant disclosures (if any) at the appropriate time.

Shareholders are advised to refrain from taking any action in respect of their shares in Singtel which may be prejudicial to their interests.
