

Azul Announces Extension of the Previously Announced Exchange Offer in respect of Existing 2028 First Out Notes for New Notes and Solicitation of Consents to Proposed Amendments to the Existing Indenture

São Paulo, January 16, 2025 – Azul S.A., “Azul,” (B3: AZUL4, NYSE: AZUL) (“Azul”) today announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary Azul Secured Finance LLP (the “Issuer”) has extended the expiration deadline of its previously announced offer to exchange (the “Exchange Offer”) any and all of the outstanding 11.930% Senior Secured First Out Notes due 2028 issued by the Issuer (CUSIP: 05501W AC6 / U0551Y AC9, ISIN: US05501WAC64/USU0551YAC94) (the “Existing Notes”) for newly issued 11.930% Senior Secured First Out Notes due 2028 to be issued by the Issuer (the “New Notes”), pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the confidential exchange offering memorandum and consent solicitation statement, dated December 17, 2024 in respect of the Exchange Offer and Solicitation (the “Offering Memorandum”).

Any capitalized terms used in this press release without definition have the respective meanings assigned to such terms in the Offering Memorandum.

Extension of Expiration Deadline

The Issuer hereby extends the expiration deadline for the Exchange Offer from 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on January 15, 2025 (the “Original Expiration Deadline”) to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on January 21, 2025 (as the same may be further extended, the “Extended Expiration Deadline”). The extension allows Eligible Holders who have not yet tendered their Existing Notes the opportunity to participate in the Exchange Offer. If the Issuer further extends the Exchange Offer, the Issuer will announce any extension of the Extended Expiration Deadline by no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the first business day after the Extended Expiration Deadline. The Issuer currently expects to announce the Settlement Date two days before such date.

Original Expiration Deadline Results for the Exchange Offer

As of the Original Expiration Deadline, Morrow Sodali International LLC, trading as Sodali & Co, the information agent and exchange agent in connection with the Exchange Offer and the Solicitation (the “Information and Exchange Agent”) advised Azul that 99.69% of the total outstanding principal amount of the Existing Notes had been validly tendered for exchange and not validly withdrawn. Therefore, the Minimum Exchange Condition (as defined below) for consummation of the Exchange Offer has been satisfied.

The Withdrawal Deadline for the Exchange Offer expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on January 7, 2025 and has not been extended. Accordingly, Holders may no longer withdraw Existing Notes tendered in the Exchange Offer, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Existing Notes tendered on or after the date hereof and prior to the Extended Expiration Deadline, except as required by law.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offering Memorandum, Eligible Holders who validly tendered Existing Notes and delivered related Consents by the Early Participation Deadline and who did not validly withdraw tendered Existing Notes and did not revoke such Consents at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline, and whose Existing Notes are accepted for exchange by the Issuer, will receive the Total Early Exchange Consideration.

Original Expiration Deadline Results for the Consent Solicitation

As previously announced, simultaneously with the Exchange Offer, the Issuer is conducting a Solicitation of Consents from Eligible Holders of the Existing Notes to effect the Proposed Amendments to the Existing Notes Indenture. As of the Original Expiration Deadline, the Information and Exchange Agent advised Azul that the Issuer has received the requisite Consents sufficient to effect the Proposed Amendments with respect to Existing Notes.

Conditions to the Consummation of the Exchange Offer

The obligation of the Issuer to complete the Exchange Offer and the Solicitation is subject to certain conditions described in the Offering Memorandum (the “Conditions”), which include (i) the receipt of Existing Notes validly tendered (and not validly withdrawn) prior to the Extended Expiration Deadline representing not less than 66.67% of the aggregate principal amount of Existing Notes outstanding (the “Minimum Exchange Condition”), (ii) certain amendments to the indenture (escritura de emissão de debêntures) governing the convertible debentures issued by Azul and certain collateral and other documents are required to be amended or replaced in respect of such convertible debentures, (iii) the issuance of at least US$500,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of the Superpriority Notes, secured by the Shared Collateral and other collateral on a “superpriority” basis, the issuance of which is subject to the terms and conditions of the Transaction Support Agreement, including the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth therein, (iv) the consummation of Second Out Notes Exchange Offers in accordance with the terms set forth in the Second Out Notes Exchange Offer Memorandum (which Second Out Notes Exchange Offers are conditioned, among other conditions, on the participation of not less than 95% of the aggregate principal amount of both series of Existing Second Out Notes (taken together) (the “2L Participation Condition”)), (v) if the Issuer elects to have an Early Settlement Date, the Issuer shall determine that the New Notes issued by the Issuer on the Final Settlement Date will be fungible with the New Notes issued by the Issuer on the Early Settlement Date for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and (vi) certain other customary conditions. Certain of these conditions are subject to waiver by Azul.

The Information and Exchange Agent has advised Azul that, as of the original expiration deadline for the Second Out Notes Exchange Offers (which has also been extended to the Extended Expiration Deadline), 95.48% of the aggregate principal amount of both series of Existing Second Out Notes (taken together) had been validly tendered and not validly withdrawn. Accordingly, the 2L Participation Condition has been satisfied.
