Important Notice

This announcement is for information purposes only and does not constitute or form part of an offer, invitation or solicitation of any offer to acquire, purchase or subscribe for Units of Keppel REIT in Singapore or any other jurisdiction nor should it or any part of it form the basis of, or be relied upon in connection with, any contract or commitment whatsoever.

The value of Units and the income derived from them may fall as well as rise. Units are not obligations of, deposits in, or guaranteed by, the Manager, the Trustee or any of their respective affiliates. An investment in Units is subject to investment risks, including the possible loss of the principal amount invested. Investors have no right to request the Manager to redeem their Units while the Units are listed. It is intended that Unitholders may only deal in their Units through trading on the SGX-ST.

ANNEX A - LIST OF SUBSTANTIAL AND RELEVANT QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1.	Will Keppel REIT resume buying back its units?
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Since the inception of the Unit Buy-Back (UBB) Mandate in the third quarter of 2018, Keppel REIT has bought back and cancelled a total of 116.8 million Keppel REIT's units (Units), including 19.65 million Units that were bought back in the first half of 2023.- UBB is an effective capital management tool and enhances returns for Unitholders in the long term.- In considering the buy-back of Units, Keppel REIT will only purchase Units when the market price remains undervalued and when it is accretive to distribution per unit, while maintaining its financial capability and flexibility.- In addition, Keppel REIT has to observe blackout periods due to various transactions and corporate activities including preparation for results announcements, acquisitions and divestments, as well as other trading restrictions imposed by the regulators. During such blackout periods, UBB transactions are not allowed.- Keppel REIT will continue to exercise prudence and discipline in implementing its UBB Mandate.
