7 Fair value measurement of financial instruments

The table below analyses the Group's financial instruments carried at fair value as at 31 March 2024 by level of the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Such inputs are categorised into three levels within a fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (level 3). This is the case for private equity funds at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL").

|  | Level 1HK$'000 | Level 2HK$'000 | Level 3HK$'000 | TotalHK$'000 |

| At 31 March 2023 (Audited)Financial assets at FVPL   | -                   | -                   | 22,200              | 22,200            |

There were no transfers between different levels during the year ended 31 March 2024.

The carrying amounts of the Group's current financial assets including cash and cash equivalents, and trade and other receivables, and the Group's current financial liabilities including trade and other payables, approximate their fair values.

Industrial and Commercial Electronics revenue for FY2024 decreased by 20.8% to HK$1,252.0M, 2H FY2024 ICE revenue was HK$595.4M (-23.2% YoY). Such decrease was mainly contributed by the decrease in demand from some of our existing ICE customers, offset by revenue contribution from new ICE customers.

Consumer Electronics revenue for FY2024 decreased slightly by 3.6% to HK$417.9M, 2H FY2024 CE revenue was HK$183.1M (-2.2% YoY). Such decrease was mainly contributed by the decrease in demand from some of our existing CE customers, offset by revenue contribution from new CE customers.

Gross profit margin for FY2024 was 15.9% (FY2023: 13.0%), 2H FY2024 gross profit margin was 16.2% (2H FY2023: 13.6%). The increase in gross profit margin was mainly attributable to reduction in material costs resulted from the relief of component shortage issues. Additionally, direct labour costs in China have decreased due to more stable labour supply and the depreciation of the Renminbi.

Other income and gains, net

Other income for FY2024 increased by 101.4% to HK$64.5M, 2H FY2024 was HK$35.7M (+86.9% YoY), which was mainly due to the increase in interest income as US Fed lifted interest rate several time during the year.

Selling and distribution expenses

Selling and distribution expenses for FY2024 decreased by 10.8% to HK$19.5M, 2H FY2024 was HK$9.0M (-8.0% YoY), due to the decline in revenue.

G. OTHER INFORMATION (CONT'D)

4 A commentary at the date of the announcement of the significant trends and competitive conditions of the industry in which the Group operates and any known factors or events that may affect the Group in the next operating period and the next 12 months.

The Group navigated a dynamic operating landscape in the financial year ending 31 March 2024 ("FY2024"), facing both challenges and opportunities. Despite a decline in revenue, the Group demonstrated resilience by achieving profit growth. This accomplishment underscores effective cost control, capital management, and enhancements in customer acquisition strategy, despite prevailing macroeconomic headwinds.

Certain macroeconomic conditions positively impacted the Group's cost dynamics. Improved visibility in the component supply chain and the depreciation of the Renminbi led to more stable material costs, enhancing the gross profit margin.

Strategic efforts to diversify the customer base yielded promising results. New customers acquired during the year, including a consumer electronics ("CE") customer supplying electronic products to a leading global entertainment conglomerate and an industrial and commercial electronics ("ICE") customer, a network access solutions provider based in Canada, began contributing revenue in the second half of the year. These new customers are expected to contribute to full-year revenue in the financial year ending 31 March 2025 ("FY2025").

During the year, revenue in the CE segment was mitigated by contributions from new customers despite slower business from existing customers. This shift is seen as an opportunity to rebalance the customer portfolio by allocating more resources towards newly acquired customers with higher growth potential and better margin. In the ICE segment, revenue was impacted by an unfavorable economic environment. Impaired business confidence led to slower inventory intake by several existing customers and delays in new projects and product introductions by newly acquired customers.

The high-interest rate environment is expected to persist into FY2025, with the timing and magnitude of potential rate cuts remaining uncertain. While this environment supports the Group's interest income, it may adversely affect end customers' demand. Ongoing high interest rates and inflation are likely to slow enterprise expansion and reduce capital expenditure. Despite these challenges, the Group remains focused on exploring new projects with existing customers and actively seeking to attract new customers. Its strategic manufacturing solutions in Vietnam position it well to meet evolving customer needs amidst geopolitical uncertainties.

Looking ahead, the Group remains confident in its ability to navigate the evolving landscape. Supported by a strong balance sheet, a diverse customer base, and a proven track record of operational excellence, the Company expects to remain profitable for FY2025, barring unforeseen circumstances.

To increase shareholders' value and improve the return on equity of the Group, a HK$250 million Share Buyback Program was announced on 28 February 2022. Since then, HK$79.0 million has been utilized to repurchase an aggregate of 26.2 million company shares. The Group intends to continue with the Share Buyback Program.

The Board of Directors declares a final dividend of HKD 9 cents per share. Additionally, a special dividend of HKD 8 cents per share is declared to reward shareholders for their continuous support of the Group by sharing in the improved interest income earned during this year, attributable to the higher interest rate environment.
