GVT RECEIVES LAM RESEARCH 2025 SUPPLIER EXCELLENCE AWARD

Singapore, August 21, 2025 – Mainboard-listed Grand Venture Technology Limited (杰纬特科技有限公司, "GVT", and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"), a regional precision manufacturing solutions provider, is proud to announce that it was named a 2025 Supplier Excellence Award winner by Lam Research Corporation ("Lam Research" or "Lam"), a global provider of innovative wafer fabrication equipment and services to the semiconductor industry. GVT was honoured as one of 10 award recipients whose close collaboration enables Lam to deliver an agile, resilient, sustainable, and highly scalable global supply chain to help semiconductor manufacturers meet increasing demands for next-generation chips.

Lam's award-winning suppliers were selected for leadership and excellence across a range of performance categories:

- Leadership in Operational Execution
- Leadership in Quality
- New Product Enablement
- Leadership in Install Base Support
- Leadership in Responsible Supply Chain
- Leadership in Value Creation

GVT's Penang facility (Grand Venture Technology (Penang) Sdn. Bhd.) received the Leadership in Value Creation Award for exceeding expectations in offering innovative ways to optimize value-added engineering, inventory management, and driving significant product cost savings.

Chief Executive Officer Julian Ng (吴伟贤) said, "We are honoured to receive Lam Research's 2025 Supplier Excellence Award. This recognition reflects the hard work and dedication of our team in consistently delivering precision solutions that support the evolving needs of our customers. We remain committed to building strong, long-term partnerships with industry leaders like Lam Research."

"We congratulate Grand Venture Technology for being among this year's Supplier Excellence Award winners for their leading performance in the Leadership in Value Creation category," said Karthik Rammohan, group vice president and head of global operations, Lam Research. "Our close collaboration with our suppliers enables Lam to drive a global and highly scalable supply chain to continue to meet the needs of customers as the semiconductor ecosystem experiences rapid growth in the dawning AI era."
