SGX Board Committee of Inquiry appoints independent experts

The SGX Board Committee of Inquiry ("BCOI") has confirmed the appointment of the independent experts to assist the BCOI in its investigations into the 5 November 2014 breakdown, including the review of SGX's technical, operational management and communications issues. Work by these independent experts commenced in December 2014 and they will submit their findings and recommendations subsequently to the BCOI. In view of the comprehensive nature of the review, the BCOI expects to submit its report to the SGX Board and the Monetary Authority of Singapore by end March 2015.

About Singapore Exchange (SGX)

Singapore Exchange (SGX) is the Asian Gateway, connecting investors in search of Asian growth to corporate issuers in search of global capital. SGX represents the premier access point for managing Asian capital and investment exposure, and is Asia's most international exchange with more than 40% of companies listed on SGX originating outside of Singapore. SGX offers its clients the world's biggest offshore market for Asian equity futures, centred on Asia's three largest economies – China, India and Japan.

In addition to offering a fully integrated value chain from trading and clearing, to settlement and depository services, SGX is also Asia's pioneering central clearing house. Headquartered in Asia's most globalised city, and centred within the AAA strength and stability of Singapore's island nation, SGX is a leading Asian counterparty for the clearing of financial and commodity products.
