Neither the Note Trustee nor the Perpetual Securities Trustee has been involved in formulating the Proposal and makes no representation that all relevant information has been disclosed to Securityholders in the Re-amended Invitation Memorandum. Accordingly, each of the Note Trustee and the Perpetual Securities Trustee urges relevant Securityholders who are in any doubt as to the impact of the implementation of the Proposal to seek their own independent financial advice.

VOTING AND QUORUM

1. The provisions governing the convening and holding of a Meeting are set out:
 - (a) in the case of Notes, in Schedule 4 to the Note Trust Deed; and

(b) in the case of Perpetual Securities, in Schedule 4 to the Perpetual Securities Trust Deed, in each case, a copy of which is available for inspection by the relevant Securityholders during normal business hours at the specified office of the Meeting Agent set out below. The Note Trustee approves the further or alternative regulations (as described in the Original Invitation Memorandum and in this Notice of Meetings) for the holding of the relevant Meeting and attendance and voting thereat in respect of the Notes Proposal, in accordance with paragraph 5.12 of Schedule 4 of the Note Trust Deed. The Perpetual Securities Trustee approves the further or alternative regulations (as described in the Original Invitation Memorandum and in this Notice of Meetings) for the holding of the relevant Meeting and attendance and voting thereat in respect of the Perpetual Securities Proposal, in accordance with paragraph 5.12 of Schedule 4 of the Perpetual Securities Trust Deed.

All of the Notes and all of the Perpetual Securities are each represented by a global certificate held by The Central Depository (Pte) Limited (CDP). For the purposes of the Meeting, a Securityholder shall mean each person who is for the time being shown in the records of CDP as the holder of a particular principal amount of the relevant Securities.

Only a person who is shown in the records of CDP as a holder of the relevant Securities (a Direct Participant) may submit CDP authorisation forms, voting instruction forms and tender application forms. If a Securityholder is not a Direct Participant it must arrange for the Direct Participant through which such Securityholder holds its Securities to submit a CDP authorisation form, voting instruction form and/or tender application form on its behalf to the Meeting Agent or Tender Agent, as the case may be.

A Securityholder wishing to attend the relevant Meeting in person must produce at the relevant Meeting a valid voting certificate issued by the Meeting Agent relating to the Security(ies) in respect of which he wishes to vote or can exercise its rights under the relevant Trust Deed.

A Securityholder not wishing to attend and vote at the relevant Meeting in person may either deliver his valid voting certificate(s) to the person whom he wishes to attend on his behalf or give a voting instruction (either on a voting instruction form or, as the case may be, a tender application form obtainable from the specified offices of the Meeting Agent or the Tender Agent set out below) instructing the Meeting Agent to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the relevant Meeting in accordance with his instructions.

A Securityholder must authorise the Meeting Agent to instruct CDP, substantially in the form of a CDP Authorisation Form, to earmark the relevant quantity of relevant Securities (in either his Direct Securities Account with CDP or his Securities Sub-Account with a CDP Depository Agent) which are to be held to the order of the Meeting Agent for the purposes of the relevant Meeting by the Expiration Deadline (or, if applicable, not less than 48 hours before any relevant adjourned Meeting is convened) in order to obtain voting certificates or give voting instructions in respect of the relevant Meeting; and (if the Offered Securities are accepted for purchase by the Issuer) to debit the securities account of the relevant Securityholders in respect of the Offered Securities. Securities so blocked will not be released until the earlier of:

- (a) (i) in the case of a voting certificate, the surrender to the Meeting Agent of such voting certificate and notification by the Meeting Agent to CDP of such surrender or the compliance in such other manner with the rules of CDP; or
- (ii) in the case of voting instructions, by the Expiration Deadline (or, if applicable, not less than 48 hours before the time for which any adjourned Meeting is convened), the receipt of an instruction letter by the Meeting Agent from the relevant Securityholders confirming the revocation of such voting instructions in respect of such relevant Securities and such Securities ceasing in accordance with the procedures of CDP and such Securities ceasing in accordance with the procedures of CDP and with the agreement of the Meeting Agent to be held to its order or under its control; provided however, that if the Meeting Agent has caused a block voting instruction to be delivered to the Issuer in respect of such Security(ies), such Security(ies) should not be released to the relevant Securityholder unless and until the Meeting Agent has notified the Issuer, not later than 24 hours before the time appointed for holding the relevant Meeting, of the necessary revocation of or amendment to such block voting instruction;

- (b) (in the case of Securityholders who have offered to sell the Securities for cash and such Securities have been accepted for purchase by the Issuer) the time of the payment of the relevant Settlement Amount to such Securityholders;
- (c) (in all other cases, including in the case where the Securities are held by Securityholders who have voted against the relevant Extraordinary Resolution and such votes have not been validly revoked) the conclusion of the relevant Meeting (or, if applicable, any adjournment of the relevant Meeting); and
- (d) the termination of the Invitation.

(the period from the date CDP earmarks the direct securities account or Securities Sub-Account in which the relevant Securities are credited to the date on which the relevant Securities are released pursuant to the events described in (a) to (d) above, the Earmarking Period).

During the Earmarking Period, the Securities which are the subject of the CDP authorisation form may not be traded or transferred. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, Securityholders should note that the relevant Securities will be earmarked or transferred by CDP in accordance with its procedures and subject to its timings. Similarly, Securities so earmarked or transferred will also be released by CDP in accordance with its procedures and subject to its timings.

2. The quorum required at each relevant Meeting is one or more persons present holding voting certificates or being proxies and representing in the aggregate not less than two-thirds of the principal amount of the relevant Securities for the time being outstanding. If a quorum is not present at the relevant Meeting, the relevant Meeting will be adjourned and the relevant Extraordinary Resolution will be considered at a relevant adjourned Meeting (notice of which will be given to the relevant Securityholders). The quorum at such each relevant adjourned Meeting will be one or more persons present holding voting certificates or being proxies and representing in the aggregate not less than one-third of the principal amount of the relevant Securities so represented by them.

Securityholders should note this quorum requirement and should be aware that if the Securityholders either present or appropriately represented at the relevant Meeting are insufficient to form a quorum for the Meeting, the relevant Extraordinary Resolution, and consequently the relevant Proposal, cannot be formally considered thereat. Securityholders are therefore encouraged either to attend the relevant Meeting in person or to arrange to be represented at the relevant Meeting as soon as possible.

3. Every resolution submitted to the relevant Meeting will be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded by the Chairman of the relevant Meeting or by the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Note Trustee or the Perpetual Securities Trustee, as the case may be, or by one or more persons present holding voting certificates or being proxies. On a show of hands every person who is present in person and produces a voting certificate or is a proxy shall have one vote. On a poll every person who is so present shall have one vote in respect of each S$1.00 in principal amount of the relevant Securities so represented by the voting certificate so produced or in respect of which he is a proxy.
4. To be passed, each Extraordinary Resolution requires a majority in favour consisting of not less than three-fourths of the votes cast at the relevant Meeting. If passed, the relevant Extraordinary Resolution will be binding upon all the relevant Securityholders, whether or not present at such Meeting and whether or not voting. All of the dates and times herein are subject to earlier deadlines or other timings that may be set by CDP or any intermediary.
5. All of the dates and times herein are subject to earlier deadlines or other timings that may be set by CDP or any intermediary.

Securityholders are advised to check with the bank, securities broker, CDP or other intermediary through which they hold their Securities whether such intermediary applies different deadlines for any of the events specified herein, and then to adhere to such deadlines if such deadlines are prior to the deadlines set out herein.

TAX NOTE

1. Please refer to the section “Tax Consequences” in the Original Invitation Memorandum.
2. For the purpose of enabling the Issuer and the Guarantor to determine the amount of withholding tax (if any) payable to the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore in respect of amounts payable under the Invitation and the Securities, the holders and/or the beneficial owners of Securities are requested to complete the Tax Residency Declaration Form (the form of which may be found in the section entitled “Form of Tax Residency Declaration Form” in the Original Invitation Memorandum) and return the duly completed Tax Residency Declaration Form to the Tender Agent or Meeting Agent at the address set forth on the back cover of the Original Invitation Memorandum by the Expiration Deadline.
