tenders we are actively bidding for. We are optimistic of more positive outcomes from other tenders in the near future."

Being awarded as the main contractor of the Project, TEE Group demonstrates its ability to deliver a full suite of building and engineering solutions, at the same time, leveraging on its integrated business networks to secure new business opportunities in the region. Together with the Project, TEE's current outstanding order book stands at approximately S$340.3 million.

The Project, will be the second overseas MDIS campus and it is the largest to date – its first is at Tashkent, capital of Uzbekistan in Central Asia. EduCity@Iskandar, a major flagship development in the Iskandar Growth Region in Johor, Malaysia covers about 305 acres including an International Students' Village. EduCity@Iskandar will provide student accommodation, a 12,000-seat Stadium and Sports Complex, and a Multi-Varsity Enterprise Complex for shared usage by the institutions of higher learning.
