Notes for Proxy Form

1. A member of the Company (other than a member who is a relevant intermediary as defined in Section 181 of the Companies Act 1967) entitled to attend and vote at the AGM is entitled to appoint not more than two proxies to attend and vote on his behalf.
2. Where a member appoints more than one proxy, he shall specify the proportion of his shareholding to be represented by each proxy. If no provision is specified, the Company shall be entitled to treat the first named proxy as representing the entire shareholding and the second named proxy as an alternate to the first named, or at the Company's option to treat this proxy form as invalid.
3. A member of the Company who is a relevant intermediary as defined in Section 181 of the Companies Act 1967 is entitled to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the AGM, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such member. Where such member appoints more than two proxies, the number of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed shall be specified in the proxy form.
4. A proxy or representative need not be a member of the Company.
5. A member should insert the total number of shares held. If the member has shares entered against his name in the Depository Register (maintained by The Central Depository (Pte) Limited), he should insert that number of shares. If the member has shares registered in his name in the Register of Members (maintained by or on behalf of the Company), he should insert that number of shares. If the member has shares entered against his name in the Depository Register and registered in his name in the Register of Members, he should insert the aggregate number of shares. If no number of shares is inserted, this form of proxy will be deemed to relate to all the shares held by the member.
6. The instrument appointing a proxy or proxies for any member must be in writing and (in the case of an individual appointor) duly signed by the appointor or his attorney or, (if the appointor is a corporation) must be executed under its seal or signed by its attorney or duly authorised officer.
7. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be submitted in the following manner:
 - (a) if by post, to the Company's Share Registrar, Boardroom Corporate & Advisory Services Pte. Ltd. at 1 Harbourfront Avenue, #14-07, Keppel Bay Tower, Singapore 098632; or
 - (b) if electronically via email, to the Company's Share Registrar at Amara-AGM2024@boardroomlimited.com, in either case, by 10.30 a.m. on 23 April 2024, being 72 hours before the time of the AGM, and in default the instrument of proxy shall be treated as invalid.
8. The Company shall be entitled to reject an instrument of proxy which is incomplete, improperly completed, illegible or where the true intentions of the appointor are not ascertainable from the instructions of the appointor specified on the instrument of proxy. In addition, in the case of shares entered in the Depository Register, the Company may reject an instrument of proxy if the member, being the appointor, is not shown to have shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the AGM, as certified by The Central Depository (Pte) Limited to the Company.

Personal Data Privacy

By submitting an instrument appointing a proxy(ies) and/or representative(s), the member accepts and agrees to the personal data privacy terms set out in the Notice of AGM dated 11 April 2024.
