

Curriculum Vitae

Chan Lay Hoon

Ms Chan graduated from the National University of Singapore with a Bachelor of Accountancy and is a member of the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants.

Ms Chan has over 25 years of management, corporate finance and investment experiences. Prior to joining the financial services industry in 1990, she spent five years working as an auditor in the Singapore and London offices of Ernst & Young. Over the years, she sits on the boards of companies from diversified businesses including public companies listed on the Singapore and Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Ms Chan was the Executive Chairman of Thomson Medical from 2010 to 2015 after its privatization and from 2015 to 2017, she was the Chairman and Executive President of Spanish football club - Valencia Club de Futbol S.A.D. She served on the board of Thomson Medical Group, a public listed company in Singapore Stock Exchange with a market capitalization above US$1.5 billion as its Deputy Chairman from 2015 till Jan 2019.

Currently, she is the Executive Chairman of RSP Holdings, one of the most established architectural and engineering practices in Singapore and in the region with more than 1,000 staff strength. She also serves on the board of a British sports technology company McLaren Group with annual revenue exceeding £1 billion and chairs its Asian automotive distribution subsidiary McLaren Automotive Asia. Ms Chan is also a board member of Project 92 which owns the Salford City Football Club with the former Manchester United Class of 92 players as its joint venture partner.

Ms Chan is a board member of Singapore Olympic Foundation.

February 2019