Fabchem China Limited

Each of Mr Sun Bowen (the managing director and a controlling shareholder of the Company) and Mr Bao Hongwei (the executive director of the Company) holds an aggregate 60.0% and 6.0% of the issued and paid-up share capital of Shandong Yinguang Chemical Group Co., Ltd (“Yinguang Chemical Group”) as at the date of announcement, respectively. Both Mr Sun Bowen and Mr Bao Hongwei are also directors of Yinguang Chemical Group. Yinguang Chemical Group owns 100.0% of Yinguang Security and 83.03% of Wulian Hanyue as at the date of announcement. Mr Bao Hongwei is a director of Yinguang Security and Mr Sun Bowen is a director of Wulian Hanyue.

By virtue of Mr Sun Bowen and Mr Bao Hongwei’s shareholdings in Yinguang Chemical Group which owns 100.0% of Yinguang Security and 83.03% of Wulian Hanyue, Yinguang Security and Wulian Hanyue are considered to be indirect associates of the Directors and controlling and substantial shareholders of the Company, namely, Mr Sun Bowen and Mr Bao Hongwei. Therefore, Yinguang Security and Wulian Hanyue are deemed to be interested persons. Accordingly, transactions entered into between the Group and Yinguang Security and Wulian Hanyue are IPTs, and subject to Chapter 9 of the Listing Manual.

For the purposes of Rule 905(2) of the Listing Manual, Yinguang Security and Wulian Hanyue are treated as the same interested person and the value of the transactions entered into between the Group and Yinguang Security and Wulian Hanyue are aggregated for the purpose of assessing whether the designated financial threshold under Rule 905(2) of the Listing Manual is triggered.

The aggregate value of the IPTs entered into between the Group and the same interested persons for the period from 1 April 2016 to the date hereof is approximately RMB 12.107 million (the “Aggregate Value”), representing approximately 3.29% of the Group’s latest audited net tangible assets of approximately RMB 368,054,000 as at 31 March 2016 (the “Group’s NTA”).

Save as disclosed above, the Group has not entered into any other IPTs in the current financial year each of which is more than S$100,000 and not conducted under a shareholders’ mandate pursuant to Rule 920.

Rational and Benefits of the IPTs

The Group’s core business is in the manufacturing and sales of commercial explosives.

Yinguang Security provides specialised security services to our wholly-owned subsidiary, Yinguang Technology for its manufacturing facilities, office area and during transportation of commercial explosives. It is envisaged that the Group will in its ordinary course of business continue to enter into security services with Yinguang Security (“Yinguang Security Services”).

Yinguang Technology sells commercial explosives to Wulian Hanyue and it is envisaged that the Group will in its ordinary course of business continue to enter into the sales transaction with Wulian Hanyue (“Wulian Hanyue Sales”) of such aggregate value that would require our Shareholders’ approval pursuant to Chapter 9 of the Listing Manual. Such transactions are recurring transactions that are likely to occur with some degree of frequency and are part of the day-to-day operations of the Group, and could arise at any time.

Fabchem China Limited

Notwithstanding the Aggregate Value of the IPTs do not exceed 5% of the Group NTA, given that the Wulian Hanyue Sales are primarily of a revenue nature and are expected to be recurrent and occur at any time, and due to the time-sensitive nature of these transactions, to allow the Group to undertake such transactions in a more expeditious manner and in consideration of the transaction value with Yinguang Security, we may in due course seek the approval of our Shareholders for the Yinguang Security Services and Wulian Hanyue Sales for the purposes of Chapter 9 of the Listing Manual.

Audit Committee's Statement

The Audit Committee of the Company has reviewed the above IPTs and is of the view that the IPTs are transacted on normal commercial terms and are not prejudicial to the interests of the Company and its minority Shareholders.

Interest of Directors and Substantial Shareholders

Save as disclosed above and save for their shareholdings in the Company, none of the Directors or substantial Shareholders of the Company has any interest, direct or indirect, in the IPTs.

By Order of the Board
