UPDATE ON INVESTIGATION BY THE INDONESIAN NATIONAL POLICE FOOD TASK FORCE REGARDING RICE QUALITY VIOLATIONS

Further to our announcement of 24 July 2025 on the investigations being conducted by the Food Task Force of the Indonesian National Police against some rice producers, including Wilmar Group, for suspected violations of rice quality and measurement standards, the Police today named three suspects who are employees of PT Padi Indonesia Maju ("PT PIM"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Wilmar International Limited, for allegedly selling rice that does not meet packaging quality standards. The three suspects from PT PIM are its President Director, Factory Head and Head of Quality Control.

This follows the naming by the Police on 1 August 2025 of three other suspects from another unrelated Indonesian rice producer who was also under investigation for allegedly distributing adulterated rice or rice that does not meet quality or quantity standards.

The Wilmar Group denies the allegations against it and will continue to assist with the investigations to clear its name.
