LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

2. THE PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION OF THE COMPANY

2.1 Background

The Amendment Acts were collectively enacted in 2014 and 2017 respectively, and introduced wide-ranging changes to the Companies Act with the aim of reducing the regulatory burden on companies, providing greater business flexibility and improving the corporate governance landscape in Singapore. Collectively, the key changes include the introduction of the multiple proxies regime to allow indirect investors and Central Provident Fund investors to attend and vote at shareholders' meetings as proxies, provisions to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents and the merging of the memorandum and articles of association of a company into a Singapore document called the "constitution". The 2017 Amendment Act introduced further changes to the Act, including the removal of the requirement for a company to have a common seal.

The Company is proposing to update its Existing Constitution to reflect the changes to the Act, and to do so by adopting the New Constitution. The New Constitution will incorporate amendments to take into account the changes to the Act introduced under the Amendment Acts.

Simultaneously, the New Constitution will be updated for consistency with the Listing Rules in compliance with Rule 730 of the Listing Manual, as well as to address other regulatory changes, namely the personal data protection regime and the enactment of Mental Health (Care and Treatment) Act, Chapter 178A in Singapore.

2.2 Summary of Principal Provisions

A summary of the key differences between the New Constitution and the Existing Constitution are set out below, and should be read in conjunction with the proposed New Constitution which is set out in its entirety in Appendix B to this circular, as well as Appendix A, which sets out the comparison of the key differences between the Existing Constitution and the New Constitution.

Shareholders are advised to read the New Constitution in its entirety before deciding on the special resolution relating to the proposed adoption of the New Constitution.

2.3 Changes due to amendments to the Companies Act

The following Regulations include provisions which are in line with the Act, as amended pursuant to the Amendment Acts. In line with the wording of Section 35 of the Act, all references to "Article" or "Articles" within the New Constitution have been amended to "Regulation" or "Regulations".

2.3.1 Objects clauses. The existing object clauses contained in the Existing Constitution are proposed to be deleted and substituted with a general provision in the New Constitution to the effect that subject to the provisions of the Act or any other written law and the New Constitution, the Company has:

- (a) full capacity to carry on or undertake any business activity, do any act or enter into any transaction; and
- (b) for these purposes, full rights, power and privileges.

This is in line with Section 23 of the Act, which provides that a company has full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity, do any act or enter into any transactions, subject to the law and to the provisions of its constitution.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

By deleting the existing objects clauses (which sets out an extensive list of the activities which the Company has capacity or power to engage in) and taking advantage of the flexibility afforded by Section 23 of the Act, the Company will have all the powers of a natural person, with full capacity and ability to carry on or undertake any business or activity, and to enter into any transaction. This will facilitate the Company in adapting to the rapidly changing business environment, and to undertake various business activities and enter into business transactions for the benefit of the Company and its Members. The proposed change will also remove any uncertainty as to whether the Company has the power to act in a particular way or to engage in a particular transaction arising from unduly restrictive provisions in the specific objects clauses.

2.3.2 Regulation 1 of the New Constitution (Article 1 of the Existing Constitution).

Article 1 of the Existing Constitution, which provided that the “Table A in the Fourth Schedule to the Companies Act (Cap. 50) shall not apply to the Company, except so far as the same are repeated or contained in these Articles.” has been amended to state that the Companies (Model Constitutions) Regulations 2015 (Cap.50, S833/2015) shall not apply to the Company, except so far as the same are repeated or contained in the New Constitution. This is in line with the repealing of Table A following the 2014 Amendment Act.

2.3.3 Regulation 2 of the New Constitution (Article 2 of the Existing Constitution).

Regulation 2 is the interpretation section of the New Constitution and includes the following additional/revised provisions:

- (a) a new definition of “Auditor(s)” and “Chairman” for clarification with the Regulations related thereto;
- (b) a new definition of “Chief Executive Officer” as having the meaning ascribed to “chief executive officer” in the Act. This is in line with the provision in the 2014 Amendment Act relating to CEOs (e.g. disclosure requirements in Section 156 of the Act);
- (c) a new definition of “Constitution” to mean the Constitution of the Company for the time being in force. This aligned the terminology introduced by the Amendment Acts;
- (d) a revised definition of “Depositor”, “Depository or CDP”, “Depository Agent” and “Depository Register” pursuant to the SFA, and consequential amendments to clarify references to “Direct Account Holder”, “holding”, “held”, “holder” and “holder(s)” of shares or a class of shares as well as to the terms “registered holders” or “registered holder”. This follows the migration of the provisions in the Act which relate to the Central Depository System as prescribed in the SFA;
- (e) a revised definition of “Exchange” to include the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited and its successors and assigns;
- (f) a new definition of “Listing Manual” as having the meaning of the listing manual (e.g. Listing Rules) of SGX-ST as modified or supplemented from time to time;
- (g) amendments to the definitions of “Member” and reference to a “holder of any shares” or “shareholder” to provide for where the registered holder of the shares is the Depository, and the concept of treasury shares pursuant to the Companies

(Amendment) Act 2005;

- (h) a new definition for “registered address” or “address” to make it clear that it refers to a Member’s physical address for the service or delivery of notices or documents personally or by post. This follows the introduction of new provisions facilitating electronic communications and the multiple proxies regime pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act;
- (i) a new definition of “Registrar” as having the meaning ascribed to “Registrar” in the Act;
- (j) a new provision stating that the expressions “current address” and “electronic communication”, “relevant intermediary” and “treasury shares” shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Act;
- (k) a new provision stating that the terms “Annual General Meeting”, “Extraordinary General Meeting”, “Ordinary Resolution” and “Special Resolution” shall have the meanings ascribed to them respectively in the Act; and
- (l) a revised definition of documents “in writing” to make it clear that these include any representation or reproduction of words, symbols, or other information which may be displayed in a visible form, whether physical or electronic. This would facilitate, for example, a proxy instrument being in either physical or electronic form.

2.3.4 Regulation 3 and 5 of the New Constitution (New Regulations). Regulations 3 and 5, which state that the name of the Company and the liability of the Shareholders is limited, respectively, have been inserted into the New Constitution. This is in line with Section 22(1)(b) of the Act which provides that the constitution of every company must state, inter alia, the name of the company and that the liability of the members is limited where the company is a company limited by shares.

2.3.5 Regulation 6 of the New Constitution (New Regulations). Regulation 6 provides, inter alia, that subject to the New Constitution, the Statutes and Listing Manual, the Company has full capacity and has full powers to carry on or undertake any business or activity, do any act or enter into any transaction. This provision is in line with Section 23 of the Act, which provides that a company has full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity, do any act or enter into any transactions, subject to the law and to the provisions of its constitution.

2.3.6 Regulation 9 and 162 of the New Constitution (New Regulation and Article 148 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 9 has been newly inserted to empower the Company to issue shares for which no consideration is payable, subject to the Listing Manual. Regulation 162 has also been updated to provide for the issue of bonus shares with the sanction of the Company by way of an ordinary resolution for which no consideration is payable to the Company, subject to the Listing Manual. These provisions are in line with Section 68 of the Act, which clarifies that a company having share capital may issue shares for which no consideration is payable to the issuing company.

2.3.7 Regulation 13, 82, 166, 167, 168, 169, 173 of the New Constitution (Article 10, 75, 152, 153, 154, 155 of the Existing Constitution and New Regulations). Regulation 168, which related to the sending of the Company’s financial statements and related documents to Members, has been newly inserted to provide that such documents may, subject to the Statutes and the Listing Manual, be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting with the agreement of all persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings. This is in line with the new Section 203(2) of the Act, which provides that the requisite financial statements and other related documents may be sent less than 14 days before the date of the general meeting at which they are to be laid if all the persons entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the company so agree. Notwithstanding this proviso, the Company is currently required to comply with Rule 707(2) of the Listing Rules, which provides that an issuer must issue its annual report to shareholders and the SGX-ST at least 14 days before the date of its annual general meeting.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Regulation 173 also provides that financial statements laid before a company at its general meeting must be accompanied by a statement signed on behalf of the Board by its two directors of the Company containing the information set out in the Twelfth Schedule of the Act. Regulation 173 further clarifies that Auditor's report shall be attached to such financial statements. This is in line with Section 201(16) of the Act.

The references to "profit and loss accounts" and "balance sheets" have been updated/substituted in Regulations 13, 82, 167, 168, 169 and 173 with references to "financial statements" or "records" for consistency with the updated terminologies in the Act.

- 2.3.8 Regulation 15 of the New Constitution (Article 12 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 15, which, inter alia, sets out the Company's power to pay commissions in connection with subscriptions for its shares, has been amended to provide that the Company may use its share capital or otherwise to pay any expenses (including commissions or brokerage) incurred directly in the issue of its shares at such rate or amount and in such manner as the Directors may deem fit, and that (subject to the Statutes and the Listing Manual), such payment will not be taken as a reduction of the company's share capital. This is in line with Section 67 of the Act, as amended pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act. In addition, Regulation 15 has amended to remove the Company's right to pay commissions to persons who subscribes for or agrees to subscribe for its shares, while preserving the Company's right to pay commissions to any person who procures or agrees to procure subscriptions for its shares. References to par value have also been removed, as the concept of par value was abolished by the Companies (Amendment) Act 2005.
- 2.3.9 Regulation 16 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 16 has been newly inserted to state that where shares in the Company are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the Company may pay interest on the paid-up share capital (except treasury shares) and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of the construction. This is in line with Section 78 of the Act, and has been inserted for greater flexibility to allow the Company to pay, as the circumstances may require, interest in respect of share capital for construction projects which cannot be made profitable for a long period, so as to increase the options of the Company in its fundraising exercises.
- 2.3.10 Regulation 21 and 22 of the New Constitution (Article 17 and 18 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 22 has been amended to include that share certificates shall specify the number and class of shares to which it relates or such information as required under the Statutes and the Listing Manual. This allows a share certificate to only state, inter alia, the number and class of shares, whether the shares are fully or partly paid up, and the amount (if any) unpaid on the shares, with no need to disclose the amount paid on the shares in the share certificate. This follows the amendments to Section 123(2) of the Act pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act. Regulation 21 has also been amended such that the facsimile signatures may be reproduced by mechanical, electronic or other method approved by the Directors. The requirement for a share certificate to be issued under seal has also been amended to provide that the Company can issue a share certificate under seal or by signatures of authorised persons in the manner set out under the Act as an alternative to sealing. This is in line with Sections 41A, 41B and 41C of the Act pursuant to the 2017 Amendment Act's dispensation of the requirement for use of a common seal.

- 2.3.11 Regulation 51 of the New Constitution (Article 47 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 51, which provides that the Directors may decline to register any transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien, has been amended to provide for the time period (to be 30 days as opposed to one month) after the day which the transfer of shares was lodged with the Company, or such period as permitted and/or required under the Statutes and the Listing Manual, that the Company has to serve a notice in writing to the applicant stating the facts which are considered to justify the refusal. This is also in line with the wording of Section 130AB of the Act, which states that if a public company refuses to register a transfer of any share, debenture or other interest in the company it shall, within 30 days after the date on which the transfer was lodged with it, send to the transferor and to the transferee notice of the refusal.
- 2.3.12 Regulation 63 of the New Constitution (Article 59 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 63 has been amended to reflect the merging of the memorandum and articles of association of a company into a Singapore document called the "constitution".
- 2.3.13 Regulation 64(1) of the New Constitution (Article 60(1) of the Existing Constitution and New Regulation). Regulation 64, which related to the Company's power to alter its share capital, has a new provision, Regulation 64(1)(d), which empowers the Company, subject to and in accordance with the Statutes and the Listing Manual, to by ordinary resolution or otherwise as permitted under the Statutes and the Listing Manual, to convert its share capital or any class of shares from one currency to another currency. This is in line with the new Section 73 of the Act, which sets out the procedure for such re-denominations.
- 2.3.14 Regulation 64(3) of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 64(3), which empowers the Company, by special resolution, to convert one class of shares into another class of shares subject to the Statutes and the Listing Manual, has also been new inserted. This is in line with the new Section 74A of the Act, which sets out the procedure for such conversions.
- 2.3.15 Regulation 93 and 98 of the New Constitution (Article 85 and 90 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 93 and 98, which relate to the voting rights of Members and the appointment of proxies, have new provisions which cater to the multiple proxies regime introduced by the 2014 Amendment Act. The multiple proxies regime allows Relevant Intermediaries, such as banks, capital markets serves license holders which provide custodial services for securities and the CPF Board, to appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at general meeting. In particular:
- (a) Regulation 98(3) further provides that the number of votes which a Member, being a Depositor or his proxy, can cast at any general meeting on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. This is in line with new Section 81SJ(4) of the SFA.

- (b) The cut-off time for the deposit of proxies has been extended from 48 to 72 hours before the time appointed for holding the general meeting in Regulation 101(1). This is in line with Section 178(1)(c) of the Act, amended pursuant to the 2014 Amendment Act;
- (c) Regulation 98(2)(b) provides that save as otherwise provided in the Act, a Shareholder who is a relevant intermediary may appoint more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote at the same general meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by such Shareholder, and where such Shareholder's form of proxy appointed more than two proxies, the number and class of shares in relation to which each proxy has been appointed must be specified in the form of proxy. This is in line with the new Section 181(1C) of the Act;
- (d) Regulation 98(3)(a) provides that the Company will be entitled to reject an instrument of proxy lodged by a Depositor if he is not shown to have any shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting. Consequential changes have also been made in Regulation 98(3)(b) to make it clear that the number of votes which a Depositor Register can cast on a poll is the number of shares entered against his name in the Depository Register as at 72 hours before the time of the relevant general meeting.

2.3.16 Regulation 113 of the New Constitution (Article 105 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 113, which related to the disclosure requirements imposed on Directors and CEOs, has been updated to allow the CEO (in addition to the Directors) to contract with the Company provided that the CEO makes disclosure by way of a written notice to the Company containing details on the nature, character and extent of his interest in the transaction or proposed transaction. LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS update is in line with the new Section 395 of the Act. Regulation 143 has further been amended to provide that where the records of the Company are kept otherwise than in hardcopy, the Directors shall take reasonable precautions for ensuring the proper maintenance and authenticity of such records, in line with the new Section 396 of the Act. Consequential amendments have been made to Regulation 181, which sets out the Company's right to destroy records, to provide that this is subject to the requirements placed on the Company to keep and maintain company records.

2.3.19 Regulation 144(3), 144(4) and 145 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 144(3), 144(4) and 145 have been newly inserted to clarify that the Company may exercise the powers conferred by the Act with regard to the right to elect not to have a common seal, as well as to provide for alternatives to sealing. This is in line with sections 41A, 41B and 41C of the Act as introduced by the 2017 Amendment Act.

2.3.20 Regulation 174 and 175 of the New Constitution (Article 159 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 174, which related to the service of notices to Members, has been amended to facilitate the electronic transmission of notices and documents through the new insertion of Regulation 175. This follows the introduction of simplified procedures for the sending of notices and documents electronically pursuant to the new Section 387 of the Act. Companies can, subject to certain statutory safeguards, make use of these simplified procedures where a Shareholder has given express, implied or deemed consent for the Company to do so in accordance with the constitution of the Company. The Company regards express consent as being given where a Shareholder gives notice in writing to the Company that he consents to having notices and documents transmitted to him via electronic communications.

Section 387C(2) of the Act provides that a Shareholder has given implied consent ("Implied Consent") where the constitution of a company:-

- (a) provides for the use of electronic communications;
- (b) specifies the manner in which electronic communications is to be used; and
- (c) provides that a Member shall agree to receive such notice or document by way of such electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document.

Section 387C(3) of the Act further explains that a Shareholder has given deemed consent ("Deemed Consent") where:-

- (a) the constitution of the company provides for the use of electronic communications;
- (b) the constitution of the company specified the manner in which electronic communications is to be used;
- (c) the constitution of the company specifies that the Member will be given an opportunity to elect within a specified period of time ("the specified time"), whether to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications or as a physical copy; and

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- (d) the Member was given an opportunity to elect whether to receive such notice or document by way of such electronic communications or as a physical copy, and he failed to make an election within the specified time.

Regulation 175 provides that the notices and documents may be sent to Members using electronic communications either to a Shareholder's current address (which may be an email address) or by making it available on a website where such Shareholder expressly consent to receiving notices and documents in this manner.

Regulation 177 provides that, in relation to Implied Consent, a Shareholder who has not given express consent may nonetheless be implied to have agreed to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications and shall not have a right to elect to receive a physical copy of such notice or document, unless otherwise provided under the Statutes or the Listing Manual.

Regulation 178 provides that, in relation to Deemed Consent, the Directors may decide to give Members an opportunity to elect to opt out of receiving such notice or document by way of electronic communications, and a Shareholder is deemed to have consented to receive such notice or document by way of electronic communications if he was given such an opportunity but failed to opt out within the specified time, unless otherwise provided under the Statutes or the Listing Manual.

Regulation 180 provides for the disapplication of Regulations 175, 176, 177, 178 and 179 to certain notices and documents which are excluded from being given, sent or served by electronic communications or means pursuant to the Statutes and any regulations made thereunder relating to electronic communications and the Listing Manual or the rules governing the Exchange.

Under the new Section 387C of the Act, regulations may be made to, among others, exclude any notice or document or any class of notices or documents from the application of Section 387C and provide for safeguards for the use of electronic communications under Section 387C. As at the Latest Practicable Date, the following notices and documents are excluded from the application of Section 387C of the Act:

- (a) forms or acceptance letters that shareholders may be required to complete;
- (b) notice of meetings, excluding circulars or letters referred in that notice;
- (c) notices or documents relating to take-over offers and rights issues; and
- (d) notices under Rules 1211 and 1212 of the Listing Rules, cannot be transmitted by electronic means and accordingly, will be sent to eligible shareholders by post.

Regulation 180 provides for certain safeguards for the use of Deemed Consent and Implied Consent regimes. Where a notice or document is made available on a website, the Company shall give separate notice to the Member of the publication of such notice or document on the website through one or more other means, including by way of advertisement in the daily press and/or by way of announcement on the SGX-ST. This is in line with Regulation 89C of the Companies Regulations (Cap.50, Rg1) made pursuant to Section 411 of the Act. For the avoidance of doubt Regulation 180 is subject to the Listing Manual and any additional safeguards or restrictions which may be prescribed under the Listing Manual from time to time.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Regulation 188 additionally provides for when service is effected in the case of notices or documents sent by electronic communications. In particular, where a notice or document is made available on a website, it is deemed served on the date on which the notice or document is first being made available on the website, unless otherwise provided under the Statutes or the Listing Manual. The insertion of Regulation 188 will enable greater efficiency and cost savings in the transmission of documents from the Company to the Members. However, the Members who may not be supportive of the new regime of electronic transmissions may choose not to vote in favour of the Proposed Adoption of the New Constitution.

The new Regulations are in line with the amendments to Chapter 12 of the Listing Rules which took effect on 31 March 2017; they permit the use of electronic communication to transmit annual reports and other documents to Members, and Members shall be allowed to choose whether to receive electronic or physical copies of Shareholders documents, and a Member who fails to make an election would be deemed to consider to receive such documents in electronic copies.

The Company's current practice is to send physical copies of its annual reports to each Shareholder. Should the Company send documents using electronic communications to shareholder, the Company will notify shareholder in writing pursuant to Rule 1209 of the Listing Rules.

2.4 Amendments for consistency with Listing Rules

Rule 730(2) of the Listing Rules provides that if an issuer amends its articles or other constituent document, they must be made consistent with all the listing rules prevailing at the time of the amendment. The following Articles have been updated to ensure consistency with the Listing Rules prevailing as at the Latest Practicable Date, in compliance with Rule 730(2) of the Listing Rules:

- 2.4.1 Regulation 10 of the New Constitution (Article 7 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 10 has been amended to provide that rights attaching to share of a class other than ordinary shares shall be expressed in the Constitution. This is in line with paragraph 1(b) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules.
- 2.4.2 Regulation 11(a) of the New Constitution (Article 8 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 11(a) has been included to clarify that the Company shall also have the power to issue further preference shares ranking equally with or in priority to any preference shares already issued. This is in line with paragraph 1(c) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules.
- 2.4.3 Regulation 11(b) of the New Constitution (Article 8 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 11(b) has been included to clarify that the total number of issued preference shares shall not at any time exceed the total number of issued ordinary shares. This is in line with paragraph 1(a) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules.
- 2.4.4 Regulation 24(3) of the New Constitution (Article 20(4) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 24(3), which provides for the renewal of share certificates if they are defaced, worn out, destroyed, lost or stolen, has been amended to provide that in the case of destruction, loss or theft, a shareholder or person entitled to whom such renewed certificate is given shall also bear the loss and pay to the company all expense incidental to the investigations by the company of the evidence of such destruction or loss. This change in wording and additional clarification is in line with paragraph 1(g) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules.

- 2.4.5 Regulation 62(1) of the New Constitution (Article 58 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 62(1), which related to the general mandate of the Company to issue shares and other instruments, has, inter alia, been included to clarify that such general mandate is subject to conditions as imposed by the Statutes. This is consistent with Rule 806 of the Listing Manual and Section 161(3) of the Act.
- 2.4.6 Regulation 62(2) of the New Constitution (Article 58 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 62(2) has been included to facilitate the issuance of new shares to members, such as rights or bonus issue, without the Company having to incur disproportionate costs in complying with foreign securities laws in relation to the offer of new shares to any member to whom by reason of foreign securities laws such offers may not be made without registration of the shares or a prospectus or other documents.
- 2.4.7 Regulation 71(2) of the New Constitution (Article 66 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 71(2), which related to proceedings at general meetings, has been inserted to clarify that if required by the listing rules of the SGX-ST, all general meetings shall be held in Singapore. These are in line with Rule 730A(1) of the Listing Rules, which require all issuers with a primary listing on the SGX-ST to hold their general meetings in Singapore (unless prohibited by relevant laws and regulations in the jurisdiction of their incorporation), in order to promote more active participation and engagement of members.
- 2.4.8 Regulation 87 of the New Constitution (Article 80 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 87, which states that resolutions that are put to a vote at general meetings shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded, has been amended to provide that unless otherwise not required by the Exchange, at any general meeting, all resolutions put to vote at the general meeting shall be decided by poll. This amendment is in line with Rule 730A(2) of the Listing Rules which requires all resolutions at general meetings to be voted by poll. Consequential changes have been made to Regulation 88 to remove reference to a demand for poll.
- 2.4.9 Regulation 93(1) of the New Constitution (Article 85(1) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 93(1), which sets out the voting rights of Members, has been amended to clarify that a holder of ordinary shares shall be entitled to be present and vote at any general meeting in respect of any share or shares upon which all calls due to the Company have been paid. This amendment is in line with paragraph 8(a) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules which imposes such a requirement.
- 2.4.10 Regulation 94 of the New Constitution (Article 86 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 94, which sets out the voting rights to joint holders of shares, has been amended to clarify that in the case of joint holders of shares, any one of such persons may vote, but if more than one such persons is present at a meeting, the person whose name stands first on the Register of Members shall alone be entitled to vote. This amendment is in line with paragraph 8(b) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules.
- 2.4.11 Regulation 98 of the New Constitution (Article 90 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 98, which provides for the procedure for the appointment of proxies, has been further amended in Regulation 98(1) to provide that a proxy or representative shall be entitled to vote on any matter at any general meeting. This clarification is in line with paragraph 8(e) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Regulation 98(5) has also been newly inserted to clarify that:

- (a) a Shareholder who has deposited an instrument appointing any number of proxies to vote on his behalf at a general meeting shall not be precluded from attending and voting in person at that general meeting; and
- (b) any such appointment of all the proxies concerned shall be deemed to be revoked upon the attendance of the Shareholder appointing the proxy/proxies at the relevant general meeting.

These clarifications are in line with paragraph 3.3 of Practice Note 7.5 of the Listing Rules which provides that if a shareholder submits a proxy form and subsequently attends the meeting in person and votes, the appointment of the proxy should be revoked, and that there must be sufficient systems or processes in place at the meeting to identify and cancel the appointment of the proxy at the point when the shareholder attends the meeting.

- 2.4.12 Regulation 112(1) of the New Constitution (Article 104(1) of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 112(1), which sets out the ground on which the office of Director shall be vacant, has been amended to include an additional ground for vacancy under Regulation 112(1) where the Director has been disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds. This amendment is in line with paragraph 9(n) of Appendix 2.2 of the Listing Rules which provides that a director who is disqualified from acting as a director in any jurisdiction for reasons other than on technical grounds must immediately resign from the board.

2.5 Personal Data Protection Act 2012

In general, under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (“PDPA”), an organisation can only collect, use or disclose the personal data of an individual with the individual’s consent, and for a reasonable purpose which the organisation has made known to the individual. Regulations 198(1) and 198(2) set out, inter alia, the purposes for which the Company and/or its agents and service providers and collect, use and disclose personal data of Members and their appointed proxies or representatives in the New Constitution. These Regulations allow the Company to fulfil the requirements of the PDPA and allow it to use the personal data of the Members for the purposes stated in the Regulations, as required in the Company’s operations. Given the Company’s changing Members due to its listed status, the ability to automatically bind the Members to these uses of their personal data through the New Constitution is highly beneficial for the Company, and the inclusion of these provision in the New Constitution would also enable Members to be informed and aware of the purposes for which their personal data may be used.

2.6 General amendments to the Existing Constitution

The following Regulations have been updated, streamlined and rationalised generally:

- 2.6.1 Regulation 7 of the New Constitution (Article 7 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 7, which relates to the issuance of shares, has been amended to clarify that the Directors have power to issue and allot shares subject to the requirements under the Statutes, the Listing Manual and the Constitution, including approval of the Company in general meeting (subject to the Constitution and to any special rights attached to any shares for the time being issued).
- 2.6.2 Regulation 17(4) of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 17(4) has been newly inserted to clarify that where shares are jointly held, upon the death of any one of such joint holders, the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised as having title to the share.

- 2.6.3 Regulation 18 of the New Constitution (Article 14 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 18, which relates to situations where the Company will recognise trusts, has been amended to clarify that (i) the Company will recognise the Depository as holding shares upon a trust; (ii) nothing contained in this Regulation 18 relating to the Depository or the Depositors or in any depository agreement made by the Company with any common depository for shares or in any notification of substantial shareholding to the Company or in response to a notice pursuant to the provisions of the Act or any note made by the Company or any particulars in such notification or response shall derogate or limit or restrict or qualify these provisions; and (iii) any proxy or instructions or any matter whatsoever given by the Depository or Depositors to the Company or the Directors shall not constitute any notification of trust and the acceptance of such proxies and the acceptance or compliance with such instructions by the Company or the Directors shall not constitute the taking of any notice of trust.
- 2.6.4 Regulation 35 of the New Constitution (Article 31 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 35, which relates to payments in advance of calls on a Member's shares, has been amended to clarify that monies paid in advance shall, until appropriated towards satisfaction of any call, be treated as a loan to the Company and not as part of its capital and shall be repayable at any time if the Directors so decide.
- 2.6.5 Regulation 54 of the New Constitution (Article 50 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 54, which related to rights of registration and transfer upon demise or bankruptcy of Member, has been amended to further elaborate on the categories of persons who may in certain circumstances be entitled to shares by transmission, as well as the procedure for election in such circumstances.
- 2.6.6 Regulation 60 of the New Constitution (Article 56 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 60, which relates to the Company's power to increase capital, has been amended to clarify that this power is subject to the Statutes and the Listing Manual.
- 2.6.7 Regulation 62(1)(b)(ii) and 62(1)(b)(iii) of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 62(1)(b)(ii) and 62(1)(b)(iii) have been newly inserted to clarify that new shares shall be considered part of the original ordinary capital of the Company and shall be subject to the Statutes, the Listing Manual and the New Constitution.
- 2.6.8 Regulation 64(1) of the New Constitution (Article 60 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 64(1), which related to the Company's power to alter its share capital, has been amended to subject the provisions of the Constitution to the Statutes and the Listing Manual.
- 2.6.9 Regulation 65 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 65, has been newly inserted to clarify that the Company may also hold repurchased shares as treasury shares subject to the Statutes and the Listing Manual.
- 2.6.10 Regulation 71(1) of the New Constitution (Article 66 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 71(1), which relates to the time-frame for holding annual general meetings, has been revised to make it clear that an annual general meeting shall be held once in every year within four months from the end of a financial year of the Company, but that this is save as otherwise permitted under the Act. This amendment is also in line with

Rule 707(1) of the Listing Manual.

- 2.6.11 Regulation 71(3) of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 71(3) is a new provision which provides for general meetings of the Company to be held entirely, or to any extent as determined by the Directors, by any virtual and/or electronic audio-visual means of communication. This provision has been proposed to allow for flexibility by the Company in cases where holding a physical general meeting is impracticable or impossible due to prevailing circumstances. Shareholders should note that the calling of virtual meetings and the manner in which such meetings are held will be subject to relevant laws, regulations and the rules of the Exchange. When meetings are held virtually, it is only practicable for voting to be done through proxies. Against this background, it is therefore important that voting by Members shall also be allowed to be carried out electronically, and if circumstances dictate, that the Directors shall be entitled to require that all voting at the general meeting be by way of proxies executed by the Members. Notwithstanding, a Member shall be entitled to exercise all rights under a general meeting, and the Board shall be judicious in the use of such discretion. Allowing for general meetings of the Company to be held partly or wholly by virtual means also has tangible benefits for Members, in that Members will be able to attend and participate in general meetings as long as they are able to connect to the internet, and do not need to travel to the meeting venue to be physically present. This will likely have the impact of encouraging participation from the Members, and will allow the Members to engage more directly with the Company.
- 2.6.12 Regulation 81 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 81 has been newly inserted to facilitate the passing of resolutions where it is inconvenient or impracticable to hold general meetings.
- 2.6.13 Regulation 83 of the New Constitution (Article 76 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 83, which related to the rules for determining when a quorum is present at a general meeting, has been amended to clarify how a Member, a proxy representing more than one Member, and a Member represented by more than one proxy, shall be counted for the purpose of determining the quorum at a general meeting.
- 2.6.14 Regulation 98(6), 100 and 101(1) of the New Constitution (Article 92 and 93 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 101, which related to the deposit of instruments appointing proxies, has a new provision to facilitate the submission of instruments appointing a proxy by electronic communication, in addition to new provisions for submitting such instruments personally or by post. In particular, it provides that the Directors can prescribe and determine the means through which instruments appointing a proxy may be submitted by electronic communications.

Regulation 98(6) has been newly inserted to provide for voting methods to allow Members who are unable to vote in person at any general meeting the option to vote in absentia, including but not limited to voting by mail, electronic mail or facsimile.

Regulation 100, which related to the form of proxy, has been amended to insert new provisions to provide, inter alia, that an instrument appointing a proxy or representative shall be authorised by such method and in such manner as may be approved by the Directors, if the instrument is submitted by electronic communications, in lieu of the present requirement of signing, or where applicable, the affixation of the corporate Shareholder's common seal.

- 2.6.15 Regulation 128 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 128 has been newly inserted to empower the Directors to establish local board or agencies for managing any affairs of the Company to vary regulations in respect of the keeping of Branch Registers or Registers of Members, and to determine by resolution that cheques and bills shall be signed or executed.

LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

- 2.6.16 Regulation 131 of the New Constitution (Article 122 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 131, which related to the serving of notice for a meeting of the Directors, has been amended to provide that notice may be service via electronic and telegraphic communication.
- 2.6.17 Regulation 139 of the New Constitution (Article 130 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 139, which related to a resolution in writing by Directors, has been amended to clarify that a majority of Directors would not include Directors who are disqualified from voting pursuant to the Constitution or the Act.
- 2.6.18 Regulation 140 and 141 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 140, which provides for meetings of the Board of Directors by other means, has been newly inserted to further provide that Directors may use electronic communications to confirm their attendance and quorum at a meeting. Additionally, new provisions have been inserted to provide that the minutes of such a meeting signed by the Chairman shall be sufficient evidence of any resolution of any meeting conducted in the manner as aforesaid. Regulation 141 also provides that where a Director is attending a meeting electronically, he must make known to all the other Directors that he is ceasing to take part in the meeting before he may disconnect.
- 2.6.19 Regulation 157 of the New Constitution (Article 144 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 157, which provides for the payment of dividends, has been amended to clarify how dividends shall be sent to joint holders, and that the Company shall not be responsible for the loss of any cheque or dividend warrant which shall be sent by post duly addressed to the Member for whom it is intended.
- 2.6.20 Regulation 161 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 161 which, inter alia, sets out the power of Directors in relation to a scrip dividend scheme, has been inserted to enable the Directors to provide the flexibility to Shareholders to elect to receive dividends as fully-paid ordinary shares in lieu of cash. This has been inserted to facilitate the establishment of a scrip dividend scheme by the Company where circumstances are appropriate. The Company believes that the establishment of a scrip dividend scheme will be beneficial to Members as, under a scrip dividend scheme, Members can have the choice of receiving dividend payment as cash and/or additional shares, which may give Members greater flexibility in meeting their investment objectives. A scrip dividend scheme can also enable Members to participate in the equity capital of the Company without having to incur costs such as brokerage fees, stamp duty and other related costs. The provisions in Regulation 161 provide the Directors the flexibility to establish and administer a scrip dividend scheme.
- Consequential amendments have also been made by inserting Regulation 161(e), to provide the Directors with the discretion to cancel a proposed application of a scrip dividend scheme to any dividend prior to any allotment of shares pursuant thereto, subject to the Listing Manual.
- 2.6.21 Regulation 162 of the New Constitution (Article 148 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 162, which provides for the Company's power to capitalise reserves and undivided profits, has been amended to allow for the issue of shares for which no consideration is payable, to allow the Directors to issue such shares, subject to the Constitution, alongside their power to capitalise profits and reserves.

- 2.6.22 Regulation 174 of the New Constitution (Article 159 of the Existing Constitution). Regulation 174(1), which provides for the service of notices and documents outside of Singapore, has been amended to further provide that where the Directors have determined that any notice or document shall not be served to a Member in a jurisdiction outside Singapore, such Member shall be deemed to be duly served with such notice or document when such notice or document is duly posted up in the registered office of the Company or advertised in a newspaper circulating in Singapore.
- 2.6.23 Regulation 182 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 182 has been newly inserted to clarify that the day of service is not to be counted when calculating a given number of days' notice.
- 2.6.24 Regulation 191 of the New Constitution (New Regulation). Regulation 191, which provides for the Company's power to transfer shares to a Member who has been missing for not less than 10 years to the Official Receiver of Singapore in accordance with the Statutes, was newly inserted to clarify that the Company has such power in accordance with Section 390 of the Act.
